

Lucky Bride 56

Chapter 56: Tear Off Her Fake Face (Part 4)

Li Yazhi was completely open to her. It was really effortless for Liu Sanniang to read her mind.

Liu Sanniang slowly explained what was on Li Yazhi's mind. "You were born in the Li Mansion in the capital. Your mother named you Li Yazhi. I saw you running under the sun. That was the most important day in your life, the day you reached adulthood."

"It was also on that day that you first got to know your husband. He attended your family's banquet with friends. His literary talent was outstanding. Your mother told you that over there is the husband she selected for you. She asked you what you thought and if you liked him."

"You nodded shyly. Not long after, you got engaged. From then on, you two exchanged many letters. His literary talent and knowledge made you fall in love with him more and more."

"You got married at the age of seventeen and loved him deeply. You got pregnant in the third year of your marriage and gave birth to your first daughter, Zhou Yanshu."

While listening to Liu Sanniang, Li Yazhi sobbed and kept nodding.

Zhou Chengwen, who was beside his father, could not help but run to Li Yazhi's side and hug her, giving her strength to support herself.

Liu Sanniang let go of Li Yazhi's hand and stopped.

Without her needing to say anything, Zhou Chengwen already knew that the one he was hugging was the real Li Yazhi.

Zhou Chengwen felt bad and blamed himself. He wiped Li Yazhi's tears and apologized in a low voice. "It's my fault for not being able to recognize you. I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

They had once been in love and had a deep relationship. Seeing his lover suffer like this, Zhou Chengwen did not feel good either.

Now, he could finally be assured that this was his wife. He would no longer suspect her.

Li Yazhi burst into tears, as if she was going to cry out all her grievances.

Hong Ying looked at Liu Sanniang, and there was finally a change in her calm face.

Hong Ying was a psychic. She looked at Liu Sanniang. She was just a little girl, and Hong Ying could not feel any spiritual energy fluctuations from her.

She frowned. Soon, she exhaled and extended her hands. "Come on."

She was not afraid. She wanted to see what kind of tricks Liu Sanniang could come up with.

Hong Ying's calmness made Wei Shilai and the others nervous.

They had never seen someone as arrogant as Hong Ying.

Jing Chen and Jing Ming, who were watching from the side, could not help but size up Liu Sanniang.

Jing Ming was puzzled. "Jing Chen, can this girl really do something that even you can't do?"

Jing Chen also frowned. "I don't know. I can't feel any spiritual power from her. If she didn't stand up, no one would even know that she's a psychic."

Most cultivators had some spiritual energy on them.

Even Li Jingui had spiritual energy.

However, Liu Sanniang did not have any at all, but she could read people's minds easily.

Jing Chen watched intently. After all, no one could tell until the end. Just because they couldn't do it didn't mean that others couldn't.

Liu Sanniang held Hong Ying's hand and released her power.

A few days ago, Liu Sanniang could not do anything to Hong Ying.

However, now after being enlightened, she knew the weakness of Hong Ying. Therefore, no matter how strong or thick Hong Ying's barrier was, she could still defeat it.

Liu Sanniang's power was like countless sharp blades that pierced through from all directions, obtaining all of Hong Ying's hidden thoughts.

Hong Ying's composure finally started to collapse.

Liu Sanniang opened her eyes and looked into Hong Ying's eyes. Her lips moved as she said, "Your family isn't rich, but you have a mother and father who love you. They treat you as a treasure."

Hearing that, Hong Ying widened her eyes in shock. Her pupils constricted as she tried her best to escape from Liu Sanniang.

However, she seemed to have lost all her strength. Liu Sanniang had only grabbed her hand gently, but she could not break free.

"Your name was given by your father. He loves you very much and treats you like the apple of his eye."

Whether Hong Ying wanted to hear it or not, Liu Sanniang continued.

Hong Ying's expression confirmed that what Liu Sanniang said was true. Everyone present applauded and heaved a sigh of relief.

As for Officer Zhou, his body wobbled. Lin Zheng, who was beside him, reached out to hold him up.

Officer Zhou said in a hoarse voice, "Your Lordship, did you already know?"

This woman who had done all the bad things was his long-lost daughter. The reunion he had been looking forward to, became a trial and a conviction.

Lin Zheng said calmly, "She's your daughter, but she's also guilty."

And it was a capital crime. She had committed countless crimes and was still unrepentant.

Officer Zhou felt his vision blur and his heart ache.

Hong Ying looked at Liu Sanniang pleadingly.

However, Liu Sanniang did not stop there. "After you got lost, you changed your name and they called you Hong Ying. You've undergone a lot of hard training and even forgot where you came from. However, you are Zhou Mingzhu. Your father, he has never given up on looking for you. He has asked all around for news about you and believes that you are still alive."

Hong Ying looked at Liu Sanniang and said in a trembling voice, "What a good story you just made up."

Liu Sanniang smiled. "It's fine if you forgot that memory. I'll help you remember it."

Liu Sanniang closed her eyes and searched through the depths of Hong Ying's memories.

Flashes of being doted upon by her parents and grandparents were the sweetest. Perhaps because it happened when she was very young, she didn't quite remember it, but it would never disappear.

Hong Ying's eyes widened as if she was lost in a distant memory.

She started to look confused, then her lips slowly curled into a happy smile.

In the depths of her memory, Mother's appearance became clearer and clearer.

Hong Ying subconsciously said, "Mother, Father..."
