

Lucky Bride 86

Chapter 86: New Hope (Part 2)

After Wei Shilai gathered everyone in River Village, the sky was gloomy, as if it was also accumulating something.

The men, women, and children were all extremely tense. They immediately knelt on the ground and begged. "Quick, take them away. We know our mistake."

On the surface, they apologized, but deep down, they still regretted giving birth to their daughters.

Wei Shilai walked up to Liu Sanniang. "Miss Liu, everyone is here."

Liu Sanniang took a look. "Those who are dead are not here yet."

Wei Shilai frowned. "Go back and bring your daughter over."

When the villagers heard that, they fell silent. No one dared to move. They couldn't wait to stay away from those terrifying souls. Just looking at it made their hair stand on end.

The villagers were terrified and knew very well that they only needed to kill the souls one more time before they would start fighting back.

Wei Shilai roared. "If you want to live, go quickly."

This time, everyone woke up. The man pushed the woman out. "It's all your fault for giving birth to her. Hurry up and bring her over."

The women were terrified. "Don't do this to me. I'm afraid..."

The women were unwilling to go and were immediately slapped a few times by the men.

The women got up and went home in tears.

Not long after, they returned with their daughters. As soon as they arrived, they immediately threw the girls on the ground.

The girls who were thrown to the ground got up silently. They walked to their parents and sat down. They looked at their parents with their dark eyes and smiled, but their smiles only made their parents wet their pants.

Wei Shilai sighed. All these villagers deserved to die, but he could do nothing to punish them. Instead, he had to help them out.

He felt really bad, but there was nothing he could do.

Su Yanyu felt a chill down his spine when he saw this scene. He asked Kongyu. "What is she going to do? When can I go out?"

Kongyu could not understand what Liu Sanniang wanted to do. He shook his head. "I don't know what she's going to do, but I hope it will work."

If it did not work, they might never be able to leave this village.

Su Yanyu pointed at Liu Sanniang. "I don't care. Tell her that she must succeed, or I'll kill her entire family!"

Su Yanyu didn't know how serious the situation was. He just wanted to leave this place. Even if everyone here died, he could not die!

Kongyu said nothing.

Kongling smiled mockingly. He thought to himself. 'If you want to kill her entire family, you have to be able to get out of here alive first. If you can't get out, everything you say is bullshit.'

Liu Sanniang sat cross-legged facing the villagers of River Village. She closed her eyes and slowly said, "Now, hold your daughters' hand."

"Master, we don't dare..."

They sobbed, afraid of holding their daughter.

Liu Sanniang did not answer them. She just closed her eyes and waited quietly.

It was useless to sob and beg for mercy now. They dared to kill them, but now they didn't dare to hold their hands?

After sobbing for a while, they closed their eyes and mustered up the courage to grab the little finger of the girl beside them.

Liu Sanniang released her power and formed a huge circle. It was as if a bubble had wrapped around the entire village. Her body trembled slightly and blood surged into her throat. She swallowed the blood back down.

Beads of sweat had already formed on her forehead. Liu Sanniang gritted her teeth and led everyone to experience despair.

Everyone felt like they were enveloped by a warm force. Some people were immersed in this warm force, and their lips curled up into a smile.

Only Kongyu and Kongling looked at Liu Sanniang in disbelief.

Gradually, the warmth gradually disappeared. They opened their eyes one after another, revealing expressions of confusion and curiosity about the world. They were like newborn babies who were extremely curious about everything around them and had expectations.

They subconsciously wanted to lean against a warm place, wanted to return to their mother's arms, and wanted a kiss that was sweeter than honey from their parents. They would want to hear their mother's gentle comfort or hum a tune that they could not understand.

But what greeted them was disgust.

"Why is it a girl? How useless. She can't even give birth to a boy!"

Disgust and disdain made them feel aggrieved and suffocated. The smiles on their faces were replaced by grievance and pain.

They could feel their bodies going hot and cold, or the pain of someone pinching their flesh.

Someone opened his mouth as if he wanted to shout, but he couldn't make a sound.

Someone cried and shook his head in silent pain.

The first to wake up were Su Yanyu and the others who had nothing to do with River Village. Su Yanyu's face was ashen, and his servants did not dare to speak. No one expected that they would be able to experience such pain and despair.

They were awake, but everyone in River Village was still immersed in it.

Blood seeped out of the corner of Liu Sanniang's mouth. Her face was pale, and her strength had weakened. She had suffered a great backlash, and the thick smell of blood surged in her throat. However, she swallowed it back down again.

Liu Sanniang felt extreme pain, as if her internal organs were being crushed. She opened her eyes. She was still not strong enough. If she could increase her strength by a level or two, she would be able to make these people feel more of the despair and pain.

However, she could not do it yet. Her strength had already been drained. She swallowed the blood in her throat and looked at the people who had opened their eyes with a puzzled expression.

Liu Sanniang knew that they hadn't fully experienced the pain, so when they came back to their senses, they would only be angry.

The sound of footsteps came from behind Liu Sanniang. She felt someone sitting behind her. A large hand was placed on her shoulder and a powerful force was transmitted to her body and gradually healed the injuries that she suffered from the backlash. The man's calm voice entered her ears. "Continue."

1

Liu Sanniang immediately closed her eyes and released her power again. This time, the power seemed to be endless. It was powerful and thick. In an instant, everyone was taken to another dimension.