After that, things just became worse between Damon and I but this time, it didn't bother me because I was done trying to see if he and i could work.

I still acted like a caring wife in front of his family and Pack but when we were alone, we were strangers.

Soon, it was the day of Liam's and Veronica's wedding, I wasn't excited to be back at that pack but I was excited to see Aunt Amelia again.

The make up artist and hairstylist finished their magic on me and like last time, I couldn't recognize myself. My blond hair was slicked back on a bun and the no makeup look was done splendidly.

Delilah came in later and helped me get ready and I was in awe of the dress Damon had gotten for me and I couldn't lie, he had style.

"This green dress brings out the slight green in your eyes. You look beautiful, Clara" She complimented and I smiled.

Despite how crazy she was most of the time, Delilah and I had gotten very close and it was nice having a friend besides Aunt Amelia.

"I can't help but notice you and my brother are having issues" Delilah suddenly uttered and i turned to her with wide eyes. I thought Damon and I were acting out the living couple perfectly?

"Why would you say that?" I questioned and she smiled.

"I know my brother and he's been more moody than usual and I had a feeling it had to do with you. Did you guys fight? Look Clara, my brother is a good guy, he..." Unable to stop myself, I let out a scoff and she halted her sentence.

“Can we not talk about this, please? I just want to get this day over with” I murmured and she nodded slightly before leading me out of my room.

Just like last time, Damon and Luca were waiting for me at the bottom of the stairs.

I took a deep breath before walking down the stairs and even though I wasn't looking at him, I could feel Damon's eyes on me.

“You look gorgeous, Madam Clara” Luca complimented and I smiled at him.

“Let's go” Damon uttered then turned around and immediately walked away without glancing back.

“Don't mind him. Let me escort you” Luca uttered and I smiled slightly as he led me out of the house.

Soon, I was inside the car with Damon, the driver and Luca sitting in the front seat.

The tension in the air was almost unbearable and I was tempted to say something but I kept it to myself.

Luca tried breaking the awkward tension by cracking a few jokes but Damon ignored him and I did too so he eventually gave up.

I didn't sleep the whole way there because Damon's Aura was blatantly too suffocating and soon enough, we got to Liam's pack gate.

The guards at the gate came over to run their usual protocol but when they saw Damon, they immediately stepped back and let us through.

As we drove in, a frown appeared on my face when I saw the decorations. I remember discussing this with Liam a year ago about how I wanted our wedding to be like and he did it for Veronica? And I thought my mood couldn't get any worse.

We got to the hall where the wedding was being held and the ache in my heart knew no bounds. Liam was shameless for giving Veronica the wedding of my dreams. How dare he?

“Let’s go” Damon uttered as he opened up his door and I shook my head then turned away from him, I couldn’t let him see me cry.

“Just give me a minute” I murmured and I expected him to just yank me out but Damon just nodded his head and closed the door behind him.

I was alone in the car since they had all stepped out and I took a few deep breaths to calm my nerves.

“Clara, get a hold of yourself. You just have to get him to reject you and then you can move on with your life” I muttered to myself with my wolf trying to calm me down as well.

After taking another deep breath, I climbed out of the car and immediately went to Damon’s side. He glanced down at me like he was making sure I was okay but I just ignored him. I wasn’t going to be fooled by him again.

“Let’s go in” Damon uttered then grabbed my hand as we walked into the building.

Everyone’s eyes immediately turned to us as we walked in and I noticed the way Liam’s eyes widened when he saw me.

He was standing at the a altar with Veronica and it seemed like they had been reciting their vows.

“Good day, Alpha Damon” Everyone immediately simultaneously greeted, even Liam and Damon gave them a curt nod.

“Proceed” And the wedding immediately went on. He wasn’t even the Alpha King and his power was already this intense.

We got to our designated seat and I couldn’t help but notice Liam stealing glances at me from time to time.

Aunt Amelia immediately made her way to me and to say I missed her was an understatement. I immediately got up to hug her tight and ! wished she would just follow me back. Living with Damon would be much more bearable.

We exchanged some pleasantries and she had to go back to her seat.

I sat back down and noticed Liam was still staring at me and it seemed a few people were beginning to notice as well including Damon.

As soon as I sat down, he placed his hand on my thigh and gave it a little squeeze which forced my eyes to him.

"If he keeps staring at you, I'll gouge his eyes out" Damon muttered nonchalantly but I could see he wasn't joking. I could hear the threat

In his tone

"And do you, Alpha Liam Whitlock, take Miss Veronica Dunlop as your lawfully wedded Wife?" The priest questioned and we all turned to Liam who seemed to be hesitating and then he turned to me.

"If Clara agrees to marry me now then no, I will not marry Veronica because I love Clara and want her as my wife" Liam uttered and everyone gasped while I stared at him with wide eyes.

I noticed the way Damon's fingers almost painfully got tighter on my thighs but I was too speechless to turn to him.

Liam suddenly got off the stage as he walked towards our table.

"I'm sorry for what I did to you and I know now it was awfully wrong and I know I don't deserve your forgiveness but I'm willing to make it right. The love we shared wasn't in vain and I love you beyond any mate bond. Will you marry me now, Clara?" Before I could utter a word, Damon suddenly leaped up from the seat and pounced on Liam.

Everyone immediately got up and I was about to rush to them but Luca held me back.

"You'll get hurt," Luca uttered but I didn't care. I glanced down at Liam and it seemed like he could die at any second.

"Stop it Damon, you'll kill him!" I screamed and Damon's list paused mid air.

"How dare you disrespect me by asking my wife to marry you? You insignificant bastard!" Damon screamed and everyone immediately went silent.

I don't... care if... if you married her, she loves me... and I love... I love her too" Liam struggled to say and I could see his words were making Damon angrier.

Damon got off him and roughly pulled Liam up from the ground before turning him to me.

"Reject her now" Damon uttered and my eyes grew wide.

"I... I won't" Liam uttered. Despite his current state, he was still being stubborn.

Damon suddenly drove his hand into Liam's chest and everyone screamed including me

"Damon!" I screamed as fear enveloped me.

"If you don't reject her, I'll kill you and your mark will inevitably disappear so do you want it the hard way or the easy way?" Damon uttered threateningly and the only thing that could be heard were the cries of everyone around, especially Liam's mother's.

Liam pursed his lips as he stared into my eyes and the tears dropped before I could stop myself.

"Liam, reject me. It's okay I murmured and he shook his head.

"I love..." Damon shook his hand further into his chest and Liam groaned in pain before spitting out blood.

"Damon!" I cried out.

"Say it!" Damon muttered through clenched teeth and I grabbed onto Liam's face.

"It's okay, reject me. Do it now Liam I urged and he let out a sigh before bowing his head.

"I, Alpha Liam Whitlock, reject Clara as..."

"Clara Donovan" Damon growled and I clenched my fist.

Clara Donovan as my chosen mate" As soon as Liam said that, pain shot through my whole body and I fell to the ground instantly.

er to me and immediately, Liam's family ran up to him and rushed him out of

Damon removed his hand from Liam's chest as he walked over the hall.

"I hate you" I muttered softly while clenching onto my chest with tears running down my cheeks.

Chapter 22 CLARA- $73% I didn't fight back as Damon placed me in the car. I just curled up in a ball as I stared out the window. He got in soon after and Luca and the driver followed suit. The car immediately zoomed and I could feel Damon glancing at me from time to time till he let out a sigh. "What's your problem now?" He questioned and I sniffled. "I don't want to do t this with you a anymore" I murmured and he let out a scoff. *Did I hear you right? All because he said he wanted to marry you?!" He was screaming now so I turned to him with a glare tespite the pain I was feeling. "Yes Damon, he was willing to die rather than to reject me, He wanted me and he showed everyone that. I only agreed to this bloody marriage because he didn't want me anymore" I screamed back with tears rolling down my cheeks and Damon stared back at me with disbelief. "I'm your *g mate, Dahlia" He muttered through clenched teeth and scoffed. "Is that supposed to mean anything to me? You and I don't like one another, Damon. I can't do this anymore" I murmured and his face suddenly tumed cold. "Stop the car and get out" He ordered and the car immediately came to a halt. The driver and Luca got down, leaving Damon and I alone together. "We are married, Clara. The reason I married you still hasn't been achieved" He muttered and I sighed. "I don't care, I love Liam and I want to..." Damon suddenly pushed his window glass and I gasped with her eyes wide as the glass shattered into pieces. "Whether you like it or not, we are going to remain married until I achieve my goal and never should you utter those words in front of me again or I'll go back to Liam and kill him without regret" He threatened and I glared at him. When he saw I wasn't saying anything anymore, he snapped his fingers and Luca climbed in with the driver. As soon as the car started, I took off my ring and threw it out the window. "I hate you" I screamed before turning away from him fully as I cried silently. No one said anything after that and I ended up falling asleep and when I woke up, I was in my room. Topened my eyes ast sat up slowly then I winged when I felt a slight pain on my right hand. I raised up my hand and what I saw made my blood run cold. Damon's name was tattooed around my ring finger! I let out a loud scream and Damon walked in smoothly with a knowing look on his face.

4.4 Chapter 22 He rested his body on my door frame and I glared at him. "What the fk is this?!" I screamed and he pushed himself off the door frame then closed the door behind him before walking towards me. "You threw away your ring so I drew on one you cannot get rid of" He uttered and I stared at him in disbelief. Why was he saying it so nonchalantly? "You are a psychopath! Why couldn't you buy another one at least?" I questioned still in shock and he shrugged. "I didn't want you throwing it away again" He murmured and I scoffed. "You are insane Damon. You could have at least drawn a ring but you drew your name so boldly at that!" I screeched and he smirked. © content.

"Now everytime you look at your finger, you'll remember you're mine, Clara. I went easy on you, I only wrote my name once because you said you loved Liam once. If you say it again, I'll add another name till your entire finger is full with my name" He uttered and I stared at him in disbelief. So he did this because I said I loved Liam?! "But you don't even like me. Why are you doing all this?" I questioned and he went silent for a while. "I hate being second to anyone so this is a matter of you bruising my ego and I'm not going to let you get away from me. What do you see in him anyway? He made you share. He doesn't really love you, Clara, he just wants to have you" Damon uttered and I turned to him with a glare. "And how does that concern you? You don't want me nor do you love me. I don't care if you think he doesn't love me, you don't know what we shared together and I crave love, Damon. Are you going to give that to me?" I questioned and I noticed the way his face turned cold. "No, I will never love you. I cannot love you" He murmured and my heart broke. I don't know what I was expecting but he was my mate. Even though I hated everything he stood for, there was still a part of me that knew I would fall for him if he changed his attitude and treated me right because he was my mate but I guess that wasn't happening "Then this conversation is over. In the contract you stated that we couldn't interfere with one another's personal life. You fk or be with whatever girl you want and I'll be with whatever guy I want and I choose Liam" I muttered and the anger in his eyes almost made me retract my words. If I didn't know better, I would think he had some kind of feelings for me but that couldn't be it. Like he said, I was just bruising his ego. I thought he was going to say something but he just turned away. "Fine then" He muttered and I watched as he walked towards the door. He turned the doorknob but the door wouldn't open up. "What the hell?" He muttered as he kept trying to open it but it wouldn't budge. "Open this door this instance" He yelled to no one in particular and I could have sworn I heard giggled before someone cleared their throat. "It has come to my notice that you and your wife are having problems and I can't have that happening. The door is locked from the outside and you can't break it down so just spend the time with your mate, it will be opened in the morning" The Alpha King's voice sounded and I gasped with my eyes wide. "What the fk are you on old man? Open this fg door!" Damon ordered and if I was the one, I would have opened the door immediately but I guess his tone didn't work on the Alpha King. 2,3 11:34 Mon, 1 Jul ti G B. down?" I questioned as I stared at him with wide eyes. "Don't you think I would if I could? The door is made of wrought iron laced with Silver and Wolfsbane so even if I break it down, which i doubt, I'll be badly injured" He explained and I sighed. "So what does that mean?" -DAMON-

This was unbelievable! Today was the worst day to pull this stunt. I won't let this slide easily.

"You can't sleep on my bed" Clara suddenly said, turning my attention to her.

"What?" I muttered as turned to her and she folded her arms.

"You can't sleep on my bed, you'll have to sleep on the floor. I'll lay down a blanket for you" She murmured then walked away and I stood there for a while before letting out a scoff. The Audacity!

I watched as she laid down a blanket next to the bed and only when she was done did I walk over and lay on the bed.

"What are you doing?" She questioned and I turned to her with an innocent look.

"What?" I questioned and she groaned.

"I said you couldn't lay on my bed" She muttered through clenched teeth and I raised an eyebrow.

"The last time I checked, this house belongs to me and so does the bed so if anything, you can't lay on my bed. Now shut up so we can sleep and get this night over it" I muttered then closed my eyes.

"What kind of gentleman are you? You're really going to let a lady lay on the ground?" She uttered and I opened one eye.

"Where's the lady?" I murmured and she glared at me before jumping into bed and laying next to me.

“Fine then we’ll both lay on the bed. Have fun listening to me snore” She muttered and I instantly wrapped my arms around her waist, pulling her close..

She let out a gasp as she stared at me with wide eyes while I just smirked.

“Are you sure you want to lay next to me? We are supposed to be mating, maybe I’ll just...” I trailed off as I dragged my fingers down her thighs. I was just teasing her but with the way my pants were getting tighter, it felt like I was the one getting teased.

Clara immediately moved away from me and got out of the bed.

“Fine, I’ll sleep on the ground!” She uttered exasperatedly and I smiled before turning away.

“Off the lights” I ordered and she sighed then grumbled as she turned off the lights. I listened to her groan as she got on the floor and I opened my eyes slightly to spy on her.

We were both silent for a while, I wasn’t able to sleep because I could hear her tossing and turning on the floor.

“I would never let my colleagues touch you, Clara” I didn’t know why I was saying this but my wolf has been giving me attitude ever since spoke to Clara that way and even I was starting to feel guilty.

“Those girls I gave out to them were sluts and would do anything to climb up the social ladder. They willingly gave themselves to those men, I was just a stepping stone” I murmured and she didn’t say anything for a while then she sighed.

“Why didn’t you say that earlier?” She questioned softly and I pursed my lips.

“I’m not usually one to correct someone when they have a bad perception of me and there’s no doubt that I am a bad person but if we are going to make this happy marriage couple facade possible, we have to learn how to tolerate each other as hard as that sounds” I murmured and she sighed.

“I guess I can learn

to tolerate you but please become Alpha King soon, I don’t know how much longer I can stay with you” She uttered and

“The feeling is mutual little devil” I murmured and was about to close my eyes when she uttered;

“You still cannot interfere in my personal life and I will do the same. We will pretend to be a happy couple in front of everyone but when we are together, we don’t have to pretend” She murmured and I frowned. I didn’t know why her words angered me.

“Sleep” I ordered then heard her sigh.

After a while, her breathing got stable which meant she had fallen asleep while I laid there wide awake. For some reason, I couldn’t fall asleep.

I heard Clara groan as she twisted and turned on the floor and I finally understood why I wasn’t able to fall asleep Belonging to .

I let out a groan before climbing out of bed and walking towards where she was laying on the floor.

I bent down to pick her up but got lost in how beautiful she was when her mouth wasn’t moving. She grimaced slightly and adjusted herself, causing her gown to ride up her legs, exposing her fresh lap. She was still wearing the gown she wore to the wedding and maybe that’s why she seemed so uncomfortable.

I gulped slightly then pulled her gown down before carefully carrying her in my arms and placing her on the bed. She immediately snuggled into the bed and a content smile appeared on her face which made me smile as well.

I climbed into the bed as well and scooted closer to her as I stared at her face, engraving her features into my mind.

Without thinking, I raised my hand and caressed her face. She was going to be trouble to me, I could feel it.

“Today, I felt so jealous of Liam. I’ve never felt that way before and I know it’s because of the mate bond but shit still hurts” I murmured and I don’t know why I said it out loud but it made me feel better.

Whatever I was feeling for her had to stop, be it because of the mate bond or my wolf. I couldn’t have her being my weakness. She wasn’t going to be in my life for long.

After I become Alpha King, she and I are going to go back to being strangers but if this continues, I might not be able to let her go and that’s not going to be fair to her. She doesn’t deserve to be in my world.

“I won’t taint your innocence, Clara. I’ll give you your chance to be free from me“...

CHAPTER 24

Chapter 24 -CLARA- Why was I feeling so warm yet compressed? wondered as I snuggled further into the warmth. It felt so nice. “Damn Clara, just get into my skin” Damon murmured with his early morning husky voice and I froze. I was in Damon’s arms and I had just snuggled him? Why was I in his arms in the first place? Why was I even on the bed? I immediately pulled away from him and let out a shriek as I fell to the floor, hitting my butt really hard. “Damnit!” I muttered as I turned back to Damon and found him still sleeping like nothing happened. Jerk! “Why was I on the bed and why were you holding on to me?” I questioned then hurriedly glanced down and breathed out a sigh of relief when I saw that I was still clothed. “If I remember correctly, you were the one snuggling into me” He murmured without opening his eyes and I frowned. “But how did I get on the bed?” I questioned as I stood up from the floor. “Maybe you sleep walked? Now let me sleep. Someone was hugging me all night so I wasn’t able to sleep properly” He murmured and gasped while my face turned red from embarrassment. “I did not hug you! And I do not sleep walk!” I yelled and he turned his head to the other side. “Keep telling yourself that” He murmured and I wanted to argue more but decided against it and just stood there. “If you want to get back in bed to snuggle with me then you can, Little devil” He muttered and I gasped. “If I had known it was you, I would have never snuggled you. I’d rather snuggle a goat then snuggle you” i murmured and he chuckled before turning to me. Text © 2024 .

“Well last night I remember you vividly saying the opposite of what you just uttered” He murmured and I could have sworn I felt the color drain out of my face. “What?” words you you kept “Oh Damon, hold me tight. You feel so warm. I love being in your arms. Can we snuggle all night? That was exactly they telling me last night. You even forced my arm around your waist” He uttered and I stared at him in horror. “That has to be a lie. I would never say such things. What do you mean force?!” I shrieked and he chuckled. “I have no reason to lie to you, Clara” He uttered and I was about to say something else when a knock sounded at the door. “Alpha” Luca’s voice sounded from the other side of the door. “Let me out this instance” Damon muttered as he climbed out of the bed and walked towards the door, “Have you you both patched things up? I don’t want you both to be awkward around each other anymore” Luca uttered.

“You were the one who planned this, weren’t you? I’m going to kill you as soon as I get out of here” Damon threatened through clenched teeth. “Now hold on, I did you a favor. You know how miserable you have been since you and Clara started beefing each other. You always talked about her and... “Shut up this instance!” Damon hurriedly uttered while I stared at his back with an amused smile on my face.

“Sorry Alpha. I’m going to set you both free but the Alpha King is currently in the dining room with Queen Luna and your sister. He’s requesting for your presence and wants to make sure you've both patched things up" Luca uttered and I groaned. After what Damon said I said, I didn't want to be close to him for now because truth be told, I did enjoy snuggling with him. "Okay, open up the door first then" Damon muttered and Luca hesitated before he let out a sigh and opened the door. As soon as Luca did that, Damon pulled back his fist and punched him square in the face. Luca fell to the floor with a loud groan and his nose began to bleed. "Ow!" He winced and Damon rolled his eyes before turning to me... "Change your clothes" He muttered and I frowned as I placed my hand on my waist. "Into what? You refused to get me new clothes or my ones and all your clothes are finished in this room" I muttered and he rolled his eyes before walking towards me while taking off his shirt. "Wh... What are you doing?" I questioned with wide eyes then shrieked when his shirt came off. I had wanted to close my eyes but damn, Damon was ripped! His body was sculpted to perfection by the moon goddess herself. I almost reached out to touch if he was real but immediately got slapped back to reality when he threw his shirt at me. "Put that on" He muttered and I hurriedly closed my eyes while clutching onto his shirt in my hand. "Why are you still standing there and why are your eyes closed?" Damon questioned. "You are shirtless," I murmured. "So?" "So I don't want to stare at your chest. Go so I can change" I murmured then gasped when Damon suddenly grabbed me, pulling me to his chest. I stared into his eyes and was very aware that my chest was pressed firmly against his bare chest. Even though I was fully clothed, I could still feel how hard his abs were. "We are married, Clara, Get used to seeing me shirtless" He murmured and I scoffed while trying to get myself free from his hold. "I don't have to get used to anything. It's a fake marriage" I murmured and he placed his fingers under my chin and tilted it upwards so I was staring at him. *Fake or not, we will have to create an Heir so you have to get used to seeing every inch of me and I'll do the same. Now go dress up before I strip you of your clothes and dress you up myself" He muttered before letting me go and I hurriedly ran away without looking back, locking myself in the closet while I breathed heavily.

-CLARA-

After I got dressed in Damon's shirt, the three of us went down to the dining room and as soon as Damon's mother saw me, she stood up and came running towards me.

“Oh honey, I heard your chosen mate rejected you yesterday. I’m sure it must have hurt a lot” She pointed out and I nodded but I had a feeling being rejected by your fated mate was much worse.

“Oh poor girl. Come sit, I made sure to have a hand in the cooking this time” She uttered and Damian groaned behind me..

Mother, are you planning on giving us food poisoning?” Damian uttered as he pulled out his chair and Sat down.

“Watch your mouth boy” His mother replied and I giggled slightly. This was the first time I’ve heard anyone use a scolding tone with him.

“You didn’t mark her” The Alpha King pointed out and everyone’s attention instantly turned to my neck and I was suddenly overwhelmed by the attention.

“Hmm” was all Damian said and the Alpha King sighed.

“You need an Heir, Damon. At your age, your mother was already pregnant with Dimitri The Alpha King uttered and my eyes widened slightly. Dimitri? This was the first time I’ve ever heard anyone talk about him and with the way everyone tensed up and glanced at Damon at the mention of his name, I had an inkling that the two weren’t on good terms.

“You couldn’t keep it in your p pants and Mom was all so willing to spread her legs for you” Damon uttered and even I was shocked by his words.

“Damon! I will not have you disrespecting your mother” The Alpha King boomed and I reflexively bowed my head as a whimper escaped my lips. Such overwhelming power!

Damon let out a humorless laugh then turned to the Alpha King and stared him right in the eye.

“Why are you getting all worked up? It’s the truth isn’t it?” The Alpha King was about to say something but his wife shook her head at him, “Just leave him alone, Dear. Shall we just eat and move on with the day?” His mother uttered and I couldn’t help but glare at Damon.

He had no filter and said whatever he felt no matter how it made others feel. His mother was honestly so sweet and I knew deep down, he cared for his family but why was he always rude to them? I was going to ask him after breakfast.

Everyone instantly forgot about what just happened or at least tried to move past it while Damon stayed quiet. I kept nudging him to speak but he just ignored me and focused on his food.

“Are you two still fighting? You look like you are” Delilah pointed out and only then did Damon look up from his food. He turned to me and I took that as my cue to act like a perfect wife.

I interlocked my arm with his and rested my head on his shoulder. I noticed the way he tensed under my touch but I didn't read too much into it.

“We talked all night and it was all just a misunderstanding Damon here doesn't know how to communicate but that's something he can fix. Right hubs?” I murmured as I turned to him and he smiled slightly before nodding his head.

“Only for you, wife” He uttered and the way he said that made my heart skip a beat. I immediately turned away from him and cleared my throat before letting go of me. This mate pull was stronger than I thought “You too are perfect for each other. I can't wait to see how positively you'll influence him” His mother uttered and I smiled at her.

After breakfast, the Alpha King and his wife had to leave to attend to their duties and Delilah wanted to remain but Damon immediately dismissed her.

She threw a little tantrum but left anyway.

Damon was about to walk away when I spoke;

“Why are you so rude to your family members? They all seem so nice and they care about you dearly. Don't you think you're being a little harsh towards them?” I uttered and he paused in his steps.

“And who are you to meddle into my personal life?” He questioned slowly and I frowned.

“I’m your wife” I replied and he scoffed. Text © 2024 .

“You’re not my wife. You’re a gold digger that’s getting paid to be my wife. Isn’t that why you agreed to this in the first place? Money? Don’t you ever meddle into what doesn’t concern you. How I treat anyone shouldn’t be any of your business” He uttered and the tears slid down my cheeks before I could stop them.

I sniffled as I stood up from my chair.

“I’m sorry, I forgot my place for a second, I thought after yesterday we were closer but I guess I was wrong, I’ll never meddle again” I murmured then walked past him then paused at the door,

“Some of us are alone in this world but you have your whole family with you. Don’t be ungrateful” I murmured before running out of the dining room with my tears blinding my vision.

Luckily, I was able to get to my room without tripping down the stairs..

Ughhh! Why did I keep trying to make a relationship with him? He was clearly just a mean jerk!

“I hate him!” I screamed before wiping away my tears angrily. Why was I even crying over such a douche bag anyway?!

“Stupid bloody bastard! Jerk mcface! Arrogant narcissist! As a matter of fact, why should I let him walk all over Me? I was the one with the upper hand. He needed me, I didn’t need him” I murmured and a smile immediately appeared on my face from the sudden realization.

Maybe it was finally time to give him a piece of my mind. I was going to let him know that my name was Clara and I wasn’t one to run away from bullies like him...

CHAPTER 26

Chapter 26 -DAMON- I clenched my fist as a sudden wave of regret washed over me. Fk, I have never felt this way before. “Damn bro, you need to chill out” Luca uttered as he walked up to me and I turned to glare at him. “How about you try minding your fg business and I'm not your bro" I muttered then walked out of the room only to be met with Clara's angry small face. bunny with her nose all scrunched up in anger. Not going to lie, she looked like a cute little bunny "Clara..." My eyes widened as she slapped her hand over my mouth. "No, you're done talking, it's my turn now. I'm not going to let you demean or be a jerk to me any longer. If you continue with your attitude, I'll tell your father everything and then you'll never get to be the Alpha King" She uttered then huffed and was about to walk away when I grabbed her hand. "How dare you threaten me and try to walk away? if you dare tell my father anything, I'll end you" I muttered as coldly as I could and anyone would have their tails in between their legs but clara, my daring stubborn wife just stared back at me with Defiance. "I have no life anyway so do as you will but I'll make sure I ruin you first. I'm not afraid of you, Damon, The sooner you learn that, the better. So, what's it going to be? Are you going to stop being a jerk towards me or is your inheritance going to be revoked?" She murmured and a smirk appeared on her face. I should be mad, no one has ever talked to me like that and lived but with Clara, she intrigued me. "What do you want? I cannot determine that I'll be nice to you but I'll try my best if that's what you want I muttered and she stared at me for a while before huffing. "I don't want that anymore, you being nice to me is the least you could do for accepting to marry someone as narcissistic as you" She muttered and I scoffed. "You know you struck gold when you married me, Clara. I'm everyone's dream, both men and women" I murmured and she scoffed.

"Well not my dream. Will you adhere to my wishes or not?" She questioned and I stared at her for a while before letting out a sigh. "What is your wish?" I questioned. "Wishes, I want you to grant five wishes. One wish is too small for someone of your caliber" She murmured and I rolled my eyes. "One" 1/3 "Two" "One" "Three" She muttered and I let out a sigh. "Okay, three wishes, so what do you want? Hurry up, I've got things to do" I murmured and she grinned. "Number one, I want to go shopping for clothes and other necessities and you have to come with me" She murmured and I groaned. "Why do I have to come with you? We don't like each other's presence" I muttered and she nodded. Chapter 26 "That's exactly the point. We need to learn how to tolerate one another because we are living in the same space and in order for your father to believe we are a couple so this can be over with, we need to learn how to tolerate each other. I'm doing it because of you. This is going to benefit you more than it's going to benefit me. So are you in?" She questioned. "She's got a point boss" Luca pointed out and I glared at him before turning back to her with a sigh. "Fine, what's your second wish?" I questioned and she made a thinking expression. "I want a job," She muttered. "No" I uttered with a deadpan expression on my face and she groaned. "But why?" She whined as she grabbed onto my hand and I sighed. "Why would my wife be working? So everyone will think I don't cater for your needs?" I questioned and pouted. "But you don't" She murmured and I nodded.

*No one has to know that honey. No" I muttered as I snatched my hand out of her hand. She groaned then stomped her foot. "Well it's one of my wishes and you have to grant it" She murmured. *You did promise her though" Luca uttered before I could utter another no and I turned to him with a glare. "I'll get you a job at the pack house or something..." "No, I want a real job. I want to work in a bakery or coffee chop" She muttered and I furrowed my eyebrows. "Of all jobs, that's what you want?" I questioned and she nodded. "It's a cute little job. One time, I followed Aunt Amelia to..." "Don't care, next wish I muttered and she glared at me then mumbled incoherently. "I don't know what my third wish is yet so you can fulfil those two wishes first" She murmured and I sighed before turning to Luca. "Check my schedule and tell me when I'm less busy" I murmured. "You are less busy today, Alpha" He muttered and I turned to him with furrowed eyebrows. "What? But I thought..." "Your presence isn't really needed for the signing so I can go in your place and I can also meet Alpha Jace in your place as well. He likes me better so" Luca uttered and I frowned. "But..." "He said you're free so we can go today right?, I'll go get ready" Clara uttered excitedly before running away and I glared at Luca. "You bastard" I muttered and he grinned. "I'm just trying to help you out, Alpha. Who knows? You might fall in love with her if you spend more time with her" He murmured and I scoffed. "Stop talking nonsense and get out of my face before I give you a dent in your head" He grinned then ran away. This is from .

10:52 Tue, 2 Jul G. Chapter 26 "Have fun with your wife and don't be too stiff" He called out before disappearing and I groaned. I had shopped with other woman before

CHAPTER 27

74% Chapter 27 -CLARA- ~~W~~ 74% I got dressed in a pair of jeans and a crop top Delilah had given me. I had wanted to wear a gown but none of her gowns would fit me since we were evidently not the same size. Even the trousers were tight but it was either that or Damon's boxers I admired myself in the mirror with a frown. I wasn't one to be insecure about my body mainly because I knew I had a good figure but my stomach was starting to poke out and it was making me rethink wearing a crop top. "You are beautiful and you're sexy" I murmured then nodded confidently before putting on a pair of sneakers Delilah had also given me and luckily, we were the same shoe size. I was putting on a baby blue crop top that had puff sleeves and it honestly looked so cute. I decided to let my hair fall with a blue clip at the "Looking cute" I squealed before leaving the room. I found Damon waiting at the edge of the stairs for me with an impatient look on his face. "Sorry for keeping you waiting" I murmured and he glanced up at me and a frown adorned his face which made me frown as well. Was it because he could see my stomach rolls? Oh my goddess, I was getting insecure. "You don't like the outfit?" I questioned as I stood in front of me. "I don't care/Let's go" He muttered then walked away and I frowned before rushing upstairs to change. It was better I wore something! was comfortable in than something I was not. I threw on one of Damon's shirts before rushing out of the room. I walked out of the house and found him standing by the car so I walked towards him. "Let's go" I murmured with a smile but the frown was still on his face. What now? Was it the jeans? Did I look too fat in it?

Without saying anything, he climbed into the car and I was really tempted to go change the jeans but I could see I was already wasting his time so I climbed in. "Where are we headed?" I questioned as the car started but he just ignored me so I stopped asking. We got to a huge building and from the looks only, I could tell it wasn't going to be cheap. "Why can't we just go to the mall or somewhere cheaper?" I questioned as the car came to a halt. "This is a personal mall for my family and why would my wife have anything cheap? Get your aDown before I kick it out" He muttered before climbing out and I rolled my eyes before climbing out as well. I felt so out of place as we walked into the building. I was first hit by the cool AC and the smell oozing from the place smelt like riches and pure luxury A woman immediately walked up to us and smiled brightly at Damon. "Alpha Damon, it's so nice to finally meet you. Usually, you send Beta Luca so it's an honor to have you here" She murmured and my eyes widened. He had never been here physically before? "I'm here for my wife so show me the women's section" He murmured and the woman immediately nodded before leading him further into 13 10:52 Tue, 2 Jul Chapter 27 the building and when Damon had said it was a mall for his family, I didn't expect it to be like a mall. It had all the sections. Bags sections, jewelry section, shoes section, phone section even a few food courts and man did the food smell amazing. "Here we are Alpha" The last uttered as we walked into the clothing section and I gasped and how humongous it was. I walked towards the aisle and was about to pick out a dress when I saw the price and almost choked on my saliva. Twenty thousand dollars for a gown? Was it made by the goddess? "Excuse us," Damon uttered to the woman before walking towards me.

"Damon I know you have the money but this is ridiculous" I murmured but he ignored me like always and began scanning through the aisle and throwing the clothes that he picked out at me and I had to catch them. I couldn't let something this expensive touch the ground. "Why are you picking out clothes for me?" I questioned and he paused before turning to me. "I've said it before, Clara. You have the fashion sense of a five year old and that's me being nice" He muttered then turned back to the aisle. I wasn't complaining, I love the gowns Damon had picked out for me before. He suddenly paused then picked out a top and my eyes widened when he picked out a top that looked almost identical to the crop top! had originally worn. It just has a different color and minor design changes. He threw it at me and I frowned. "I thought you didn't like it on me when I wore it earlier I murmured and he tilted his head. "Why would you think that?" "Because you had a disapproving look on your face" I murmured and he chuckled before turning away. did I care what he thought of my outfit? do you care what I think?" He questioned and I thought over his words. Why di "Because you're my husband so I should care" I murmured and he paused again before letting out a chuckle. "I loved it you, I just didn't like the idea of other men seeing you the way I saw you in it" He uttered then walked away leaving me stunned. A slow smile slowly crept on my face as I ran up to catch up with him. "So you don't think my stomach rolls are ugly?" I questioned and I gasped when he threw another cloth at my face. "Shut up and go try those on" He muttered then clapped his fingers and some women immediately came to help me get to the changing room. As I walked away, I couldn't help the smile that appeared on my Belonging to .

top. face. His words made me wonder how he saw me when I wore that crop An image of Damon shirtless popped into my head and it made my cheeks hot. I was such a pervert...

CHAPTER 28

Chapter 28 -DAMON- I sat down in the waiting area with a magazine in my hand as I waited for Clara. I scoffed at the picture of me in the magazine. Couldn't they have put me on the front page? How did they expect to get engagement this way? Stupid marketing. "How is this dress on me?" I looked up as soon as Clara uttered and my breath hitched for a second, it was a simple everyday short blue gown but the way it hugged her curves were sinful. "It looks good, next" i uttered and went back to my book but noticed she was still standing there. I wanted to ignore her but sighed and turned back to her. "Do you have something to say?" I questioned and she nodded with a pout. "All the gowns you gave me are skin tight" She murmured and I furrowed my eyebrows. "So?" I uttered and she sighed before fidgeting on her feet. "Well I'm not in the right shape right now to..." "Stop talking nonsense and go get changed. Why would I pick out something that won't fit you?" Buttered and she bit her lower lip before letting out a sigh. "I guess I'll go wear another one" She murmured before walking away and I couldn't help but admire her from behind. Where was this sudden insecurity coming from? She came back some minutes later wearing that cute little crop top and a pair of jeans that hugged her  perfectly. "How does this look?" She questioned as she turned around and that slight movement made her a jle in the jeans and dn! I didn't know a could le in jeans. My pants were starting to feel a little uncomfortable so I raised my hip slightly to adjust it. I needed to get fg laid.

"Everything looks fine, let's leave" I muttered as I stood up from the chair. "But I haven't..." *Pack up all the clothes and pick out shoes and bags for her. Have them all sent to my house tonight. Let's go, Clara" I muttered but she shook her head. "I have to go change first, Delilah gave me those pairs of jeans, I can't just leave it" She murmured. "Don't worry ma'am, we'll pack up everything for you. What's your shoe size?" They questioned and Clara seemed hesitant to tell them but she did anyway. As soon as we left the women's section, I heard her stomach growl and she let out an awkward laugh. "I hadn't eaten that much this morning? She murmured and i sighed before walking towards the food court. They immediately rushed out to greet while Clara trailed behind me. "Good day Alpha, it's good to see you. What would you like?" They uttered and I sighed before taking a hold of Clara's hand and pulling her 1/3 10:52 Tue, 2 Jul G. Chapter 28 forward. She gasped slightly but was able to regain her posture. 74% *Didn't you see my wife? Aren't you going to greet her?" I uttered and their eyes immediately widened with fear before they turned to her. "Sorry Ma'am, Good day ma'am. It's a pleasure to have you here, what would you like?" They questioned and I could see Clara was feeling a little overwhelmed so I ordered for us. When the food was ready, we took it and left the building. "That was overwhelming. I don't think I can ever get used to people always wanting to be on my good side. It wasn't like that with Liam She murmured and I growled but said nothing but she seemed to get the message.

She cleared her throat before reaching out for the burger, "I can eat right?" She questioned and I nodded. She grinned at me before she began munching and usually I hate the sound of anyone eating beside me especially because of the munching sound but I didn't mind hers "And about my job?" She questioned before taking another bite. "You can start tomorrow. Now get out" i muttered as the car came to a halt. She furrowed her eyebrows before glancing out the window. "But we are not home yet" She murmured. "You can walk all the way back right? Get out now, I have important things to do" I murmured and she frowned. "But Luca said you had nothing to do today" She murmured and I glared at her. "Get out before I push you out" She pouted at me then huffed before placing all the food in a plastic bag. She got out of the car and the driver immediately zoomed off. "She's still standing there Alpha" The driver uttered and I sighed before reaching out for my phone. "Clara is at the gate, go pick her up now" I ordered one of my men before hanging up. "Where are we going now, Alpha?" The driver questioned. "Just keep driving. I need to cool off" I muttered before massaging my temples. What was the growing sexual attraction I was having for my wife. It needed to stop. "Alpha, Clara is crying by the pond again" Luca uttered as soon as I arrived back home in the evening. I furrowed my eyebrows at him as we both walked towards the lake. "Why?" I questioned as Clara's figure came into view. She was wearing one of my skirts like last time and was sitting by the lake. "it might have something to do with this," Luca uttered before handing me his phone. It stated that Liam Whitlock had just gotten married to his mate, Veronica Evans.

2/3 I let out a sigh before handing him back his phone. "Stay here and watch out for my father" I ordered before walking towards her "I can't keep finding you in this position little devil" I murmured before pausing beside her. She sniffled then glanced up at me and I could see that she had been crying. "I didn't fall into the pond this time" She murmured weakly and I sighed before sitting down next to her. "Tell me what's wrong" I murmured and she sighed. "I know it shouldn't hurt because I'm married as well but my marriage with you is fake and I thought after he professed his feelings for me, he wouldn't..." "Marry his mate? She's his mate, Clara. He had to marry her for the fortune of his pack. Besides, why aren't you over him yet? He's not all that" I muttered as I suddenly felt jealous. How could she have someone like me as her husband and still be craving for someone else? "You are right, maybe I need to forget about him. I need a distraction" She murmured then turned to me and the look in her eyes made me gulp. "Clara..." Before I could complete my sentence, she jumped on me and straddled me. "Maybe you can help me forget him" She murmured as she dragged her fingers down my opened chest. I tried not to react to her touch but I was sure the way my body tensed up gave that away I slapped her fingers away and glared hard at her. "Stop behaving like a harlot and get off me" I muttered and her eyes widened but she still didn't get off. "What's the matter? We are married and I have to give you an Heir right? We would have to have sex sooner or later so why are you fighting it?" She questioned and I sighed as the bulge in my pants was starting to hurt.

"if we have sex, you'll fall in love with me and I don't want that" I muttered and she seemed surprised by my words but I was damn serious. All the girls I had slept with always ended up falling for me and I hated it because I couldn't return their feelings thus hurting them. "Then we'll have a no strings attached sexual relationship, strictly sex. Deal?" She uttered then outstretched her hand towards me and my eyes widened. Was she for real? "Strictly sex? If I bring another girl home or have sex with another girl, you won't mind? If I fuck another girl in front of you, you won't mind?" I questioned and I could already feel the sexual tension in the air thickening, "I won't as long as I can do the same" She uttered and I growled not liking the sound of her being with other guys.

“Are you! e you sure you want to do this? There’s no going back once we start. I’ll have you whenever and wherever I want. Are you ready for that?” I muttered through clenched teeth and her eyes sparkled with excitement. “Don’t go easy on me” She She murmured and I smirked. “You’ll be begging me to stop in a minute... 曲Owned by .

-CLARA-

Was I going to regret it? Yes but was I going to stop him from carrying me to his room? No.

My whole body was jiggling with excitement and every ry other reasonable thought was out the door. I needed Damon now to make me forget Liam.

We got to his room and he placed me back on the floor. Awkwardness started to settle around us and I suddenly felt shy.

“You can’t be thinking of backing out now” His deep husky voice, heavily tainted with desire, muttered out and I gulped before shaking my head.

“I want this” i murmured then took a bold step and took off his shirt, exposing my bare body to him and he groaned.

“You weren’t wearing anything underneath?” He questioned roughly and I shook my head.

“I had nothing to wear underneath. Thave no underwear and Delilah’s won’t size me” I explained then bit my lower lip as I began to fidget because of how his eyes were scanning me.

I

I was suddenly feeling conscious and was about to cover my belly when he spoke

“You’re perfect Clara, absolutely perfect” He

He muttered as he slowly walked towards and I couldn’t stop the moans that escaped my throat when he grabbed onto my boobs and gave it a little squeeze.

“Perfect” He murmured, then bent down and captured one of my nipples in his mouth and I could already feel myself flooding my pants.

“Damon” I moaned out his name and he groaned before pulling back his head to stare at me.

“Undress me” He muttered and I immediately did as I was told. I unbuttoned his shirt and helped him take it off and was lost for a second. He was heavenly built!

off.

“You can touch” He murmured and I didn’t waste any time dragging my hand down his sculpted hard abs.

“You are so sexy” I murmured without thinking and immediately got embarrassed when he laughed.

“I know, love” He murmured and I rolled my eyes then reluctantly dragged my eyes away from his chest and focused on getting his pants

I pulled down his pants and he kicked it off before he took off his boxers and I gasped when his cock sprang free. I always thought Liam’s own was big but damn!

I was starting to have second thoughts and it seemed Damon could see that so he grabbed me and pulled me close.

“It’s going to fit, don’t worry” He murmured and i gulped before nodding. This was starting to get real..

Before I could think of what to do next, Damion slammed his lips on mine and immediately kissed him back with the same amount of urgency. This was the first time we were locking lips and it felt amazing.

He grabbed my hand and I gasped when he placed it on his hardened standing cock.

“Damon” I moaned against his lip. My fingers couldn’t even go around it.

“You don’t know how much I want to fuck you senselessly right now, Clara. I won’t be gentle, can you handle that?” He murmured and !

slowly nodded even though I wasn't sure if I could.

He sucked in his breath and I gasped as he pushed me and I landed on his soft bed. I hadn't even realized we had gotten to the bed.

"I would really like to taste and touch every inch of you but I want to be buried inside you first" He murmured as he climbed on top of me, widened my leg and settled himself in front of my core. This is from .

I let out another moan as my body shook with pleasure. He wasn't even in yet but the way he held and touched me did things to my body.

"No condom?" I questioned softly and he just chuckled before thrusting fully into me with one go. I cried out in pain while he let out a groan filled with pleasure.

"Fuck, you feel better than I imagined" He murmured as he sunk further into me and I clutched onto the bedsheets while I writhed with pain.

"Ow!" I cried out and he bent down to place kisses on my face.

"Shhh, it will go down. It's because you're so fucking tight, baby. I'll wait till you adjust to my size" He murmured and I could see it was hard for him to control himself.

After a while, I wrapped my legs around his waist and nodded at him. He immediately understood what that meant and began moving slowly. With every thrust, I moaned like never before. Fuck, I felt so full and even though it still hurt, the pleasure was slowly overtaking.

"I can't go slow anymore, Clara" He murmured through clenched teeth and I nodded.

"Then don't" I muttered and as soon as I said that, Damon began t thrusting into me senselessly and roughly.

"Oh fuck!" I moaned while arching my back as my eyes nearly rolled to the back of my head. What was this intense pleasure? I had never felt it before.

"Oh fuck, Clara. You feel so good" Damon moaned and his moans gave me courage I had never felt before.

I sat up slowly and flipped us so I was on top of him. His eyes widened with amusement as I grabbed his cock and settled it in front of my core.

“Oh” I moaned as I slowly pushed it in. Goddess, he was so full. Damon hissed without taking his eyes off me and I tried my best to ride him as fast as I could.

I knew I was doing good when his moans began to match up with mine.

“Faster Clara” He muttered and I groaned. I couldn’t move any faster, I was about to explode.

Noticing this, Damon flipped us back so he was on top of me and thrust into me like a monster. I could have sworn I saw stars.

“I’m going... I’m going to cum” I managed to say and he growled before burying his head in my neck and just as I was about to come, I felt his fangs pierce my neck and at first I felt pain but it soon turned into an imaginable pleasure as Damon continued smashing into me.

At that moment, something snapped into place between us but we were too busy giving each other pleasure to notice...

CHAPTER 30

Chapter 30 -DAMON- 74%8 I made a mistake, a bloody mistake. I couldn’t keep my hands off her anymore. I had never been an insatiable type but with her, I wanted to be buried in her 24/7 If I could. The only reason I let her go was because I knew she was tired and I didn’t know how many rounds her body could take before it collapsed but even while we slept, I held onto her tightly. It was only one night and I was already obsessed with her body. Never had sex felt so intensely pleasurable to me before. After a while, I fell asleep and by the time I woke Clara wasn’t laying next to me and I didn’t know why that made me angry, I was usually the one leaving the girls on the bed, not the other way around. I quickly got out of bed and had my bath then got dressed before going downstairs for breakfast. I paused by the stairs as soon as I heard Clara laughing with Delilah and I scoffed before stomping my way to the dining room. As soon as I walked in, they all went silent as they turned to me. I noticed the way Clara’s face immediately reddened and she looked away. “Good morning Alpha,” Luca greeted. *Good morning brother” Delilah greeted happily but my eyes were on her even though she wasn’t looking at me. I waited for her to greet me but when she didn’t, I huffed and went to sit next to her. She tensed up but still didn’t turn to me. “You guys seemed to be having fun. Why did you stop your conversation?” I questioned as I glanced at all of them before settling on Clara who wasn’t still staring at me. “I heard Clara has a job now and I want a job now. Then we talked about how...” immediately tuned Delilah out as I kept staring at Clara but she was ignoring my stare. “Are you ignoring me, Clara?” I questioned and Delilah immediately went quiet as she turned to us.

“Why would you ask that? Of course not” She murmured and I scoffed. “Look at me” I muttered and she shook her head, refusing to stare at me. “Everyone out now” out now” I muttered through clenched teeth and they all immediately left, leaving Clara and I alone. “Damon please...” “Why are you ignoring me?” I questioned and she sighed. “Because I didn’t know how to face you after everything we did last night. I’m shy” She murmured and I stared at her for a while before letting out a chuckle. “Look at me, Clara” I murmured and she shook her head. “I don’t want to” She uttered and I rolled my eyes before turning her chair so she could face me. As soon as our eyes met, her face turned even redder than before. “You said no string attached so why are you shy now? What we did last night was amazing so there’s nothing for you to be embarrassed about. If you weren’t fate for work, I would have gone for another round here and ed you till you begged me to stop” I murmured and she gasped with her e reyes wide. 1/3 Chapter 30 74 “Damon” She muttered my name and I instantly got flashbacks of her moaning my name last night and my pants tightened. “Sorry but Clara has to get to work now. Despite her being your wife, she is to be treated like everyone else thus being late equates to a sanction” Luca uttered as he walked into the room and I growled slowly as Clara stood up from the chair. “I guess I’ll see you later” She muttered before hurriedly walking out of the room with her heels clicking on the floor. Thankfully, her clothes had been brought in last night. I let out a sigh then furrowed my eyebrows when I saw Luca staring at me with a weird look in his eyes.

“What is it?” I questioned. “I can smell you all over her and was that a fresh mate mark on her neck? You do know what happens when you finally mate with your mate right? You become obsessed with her” He uttered and I scoffed as I stood up from my chair. “Save that bit for someone who gives a fg dn” But I soon found out that Luca was right. Even at meetings, work, signings with other Alphas, the only thing I could think about was Clara and it was driving me fg insane. I had to cancel several meetings because my mind wasn’t cooperating with me. “This is f*g bit! Clara has to be a witch of some kind” I muttered to myself as I paced my office while Luca just sighed. “She’s not a witch” He uttered and I turned to him. “Then why can’t I get her out of my head? I’ve had countless of sex and none of them have stayed in my mind even while we were having sex so why is hers different?” I asked myself in particular, “Because she’s your mate. How did you feel when having sex with her? Wasn’t it different from the other sex you’ve had?” Luca questioned and I nodded. It did feel different and my dk was already hardening knowing I was going to have her again tonight. “There you have it. She’s your mate s so you’re bound to be obsessed about her” Luca uttered and I scoffed. “That isn’t the case. I just need to fk other girls. Let’s go to the sex parlor” I muttered then turned to Luca for approval but he just frowned at me. “What?” I questioned and he sighed before standing up. “You’re the Alpha so I can’t question your actions but don’t hurt her. She has been hurt by her last lover already” He murmured and I glared at him. “No one asked for your opinion so shut your mouth before I shut it for you. At the end of the day, I’m going to hurt her because if it’s love she wants, I cannot give her that. It’s never going to happen” I muttered and he stared at me for a while before letting out a sigh and bowing his head. Soon after, I ordered him to drive me to a sex parlor and on the way there, we passed by Clara's workplace. "Stop" I ordered and the car immediately came to a halt. I didn't know how long I had been staring at the building until Luca called out. "Alpha? Are you okay? You've been staring at the building for some minutes now" He muttered. "Why can't I see her?" I questioned and immediately regretted it when Luca bursted out laughing. "Wow, are you stalking her now?" He questioned and I growled. 10:53 Chapter 30 Tue, 2 Jul 04 "Of course not. I just want to make sure she's doing her job properly" I muttered and he chuckled. "How about I go check up on her?" He uttered and I raised my chin. "Well if you want to but I didn't ask you to" I muttered and he chuckled again before climbing out of the car and as soon as he swung the door open, my breath hitched when my eyes settled on her. She was walking around with a tray in her hand and a beautiful smile on her face. I almost felt jealous of the men in there who got to see my beautiful wife. The door swung shut and the disappointment that settled down on me made me growl. "What the fk is going on with me?" I muttered as I massaged my temples. I must be going insane. Luca came out of the building soon after with two bags in hand and I tried to see if I could catch a glimpse of Clara but was greatly disappointed. Luca climbed in and handed me a "She's in there and she asked me to give you this specially. She said it's the best in the house" Luca uttered and I couldn't fight the smile that crept on my face. I scoffed lightly before opening the bag and pulling out the pastry. "Why is she suddenly acting caring... tulips!" I yelled then immediately threw the pastry at Luca and he threw it out the window before turning to me with wide eyes. "Did your wife just try to kill you?" He muttered and I clenched my fist. That bh!... This is from .
