Chapter 61 -DAMON- 66% "Let go!" Clara screamed as she pushed at my chest after a while as if finally coming to her senses but I held onto her tightly. "No, don't push me away. I'm sorry" I murmured but she kept on shouting and trying to push me away. "Let go!" She screamed again but I didn't want to. "Damon let go of her, this isn't good for her health" Delilah screamed and I finally let go. Clara hurriedly crawled away from me and curled up in a ball as she cried by the wall. She looked so small, so broken. Delilah immediately rushed towards her and wrapped her arms tightly around her. "Come on, let me take you back in" Delilah murmured as she slowly helped Clara up from the ground. "Clara." I called out and tried to reach out for her but she flinched and turned away holding onto Delilah. She was behaving like I was a monster that would kill her or infect her with just a single touch and as much as that hurt me, I tried my hardest not to let it show on my face. Delilah pulled her into the room and I was about to go with them when Luca grabbed my hand, "Give her space for a while and let her speak with Delilah. Her head is not the right space now and you won't be helping matters by pushing her buttons" He murmured and I clenched my fist. "Fine, I'll give her thirty minutes to cool down, nothing more than that" I murmured then yanked my hand out of his grip as I sat down. "I'll take your mother outside to calm her down" My father uttered but I didn't even acknowledge his words which made him sigh but he didn't say anything after that and just led my mother away. Luca and I sat there in silence for a while and I tried my hardest to hear Clara. Whether it was her voice, her laugh, her cough, anything at all but I was met with silence and the fact that I didn't know what was going on in that room pd me th* off.

to get up when Delilah walked out of the room. "I can't take this anymore" I muttered and was about to get up "It's the mother" She muttered with anger in her that showed me that whatever I was about to hear, I wouldn't like it. "Who's mother?" I questioned as I slowly stood up from the bench. "Clara said Liam's mother was the one who told her she was barren. Apparently she had been trying to get pregnant for Liam but it hadn't been working so Liam's mother suggested they go to the doctor to see if anything was wrong and she told Clara that she was Barren but Clara never got to see the test results or hear it directly from the Doctor's mouth. She didn't question it at that time because she had thought that was also the reason. That bh caused this all" Delilah muttered as she clenched her fist and I clenched my jaw. "I need to speak with Clara" I murmured and was about to walk past Delilah when she placed her hand on my chest to stop me. "She doesn't want to see you, Damon" She uttered and I glared at her before swatting her hand away. My wife for crying out loud I muttered before walking into the room and as soon as Clara saw me, she wiped away her tears and turned away. "Leave" She muttered slowly and I sighed. "Leave Damon! I don't want to see you! I don't want to feel your presence! Just leave me alone!" She screamed as loud as she could but that wasn't going to push me away because despite the anger she had in her heart towards me, I was the first person she called when she was in danger. "I know you're angry at me and you have every right to be but please don't push me away. I want to be next to you, to my wife" i murmured and with each sentence, I moved closer to her, "Your wife? You mean the wife you neglected all because you found out she couldn't give you a wife?! The wife you shunned out of your life for being barren? The wife you sent divorce papers to already signed? I'm not your wife and after I get better, I'll leave just like you wanted and you'd never get to see me again" She muttered and I immediately rushed towards her and tried holding her but she kept pushing me away. Let go oof me! Let go of me, Damon!" She screamed as tears streamed down her cheeks. "I'm sorry Dahlia, I know what I did was wrong but I was just being stubborn. I never wanted to divorce you because I don't want to lose you" I murmured and she scoffed. "Your words mean nothing to me anymore. Your words are just like empty promises, everything you have said, all the feelings you have shown me were all just lies" She muttered and I shook my head. "That's a lie, you know that's a lie. Every emotion I showed you was real Clara. I just got carried away by my anger and I regret it dearly because all the times I had to spend away from you, all the times I had to fight myself from running to you felt like torture. I couldn't breathe these past few days without you..." "Shut up Damon!" She screamed but I didn't stop. "You are my wife Clara and I don't fucking care if this marriage was fake at the beginning, it doesn't feel fake to me and I know it doesn't feel fake to you. You have to understand that I've never liked anyone as much as I like you and I don't know how to do things right because It is new to me but I'm willing to do it better this time. Just give me the chance, Clara" I pleaded then grabbed onto her hand but the look in her eyes didn't change. "When I needed you the most you weren't there and that's all that matters now, that's all i can think of. I don't believe your words and the divorce will pull through. -CLARA-

My heart was in shambles and Damon wasn't making it any better er with how clingy he was. Despite the fact that I've tried pushing him away several times, he still stayed close, watching my every move.

I turned to glare at him as he sat beside me while the doctor dressed my wounds for the third time that day since my wounds hadn't healed and I was still bleeding.

"You need to eat then rest Mrs Donovan" The doctor uttered and I turned to glare at him.

“Get your facts straight, I’m no longer Donovan and I cannot sleep with this man staring at me” I muttered and the doctor and Damon both exchanged a look before the doctor sighed and left

Of course he just left, who in the right mind was bold enough to tell Damon to leave this room?

“You have to leave, Damon. She needs to rest” Delilah uttered as she walked into the room and I immediately smiled at her. She was the only one I trusted, her and Luca. They were the only ones who stood by my side during this whole thing and were the ones who truly cared about me.

“I’m not leaving” Damon murmured, turning my attention to him and he was staring directly at me with a look in his eyes that I didn’t even want to understand. I glared at him but said nothing as Delilah sat down on the bed next to me. The doctor had warned me not to stress my vocal cords because it hadn’t healed properly.

I visibly shivered as I remembered how horrible that night was. At least I was grateful to Damon for coming at the right time before that man could kill me even though if I had picked up when I called him earlier, none of this would have happened and I would still be pregnant. © content.

“So you’re just going to sit there and stare at her all day?” Delilah questioned and I turned to Damon just in time to see him nod before balancing himself properly on the chair.

“I have nothing else to do and I enjoy staring at her. Do you have a problem with that?” He questioned Delilah and I glared at him. I had a problem with that!

I was too tired to fight him so I didn’t say anything. Delilah sighed and at that moment, the nurses brought in two trays of food with different varieties. As they placed it on the table, I noticed one of the maids ogling Damon and I hated how I wanted to wring her neck.

because of that.

She could look at him all she wanted, we weren’t together anymore.

I turned to Damon and he had a slight smirk on his face as if he knew exactly what I was thinking and he probably did. Ughh I hated him.

“You need to eat, Clara” Delilah murmured as she took a full spoon of the chicken soup which used to be my favorite but right now, I had no appetite so I shook my head at her.

“Not... hungry” I muttered and she sighed.

“But you need to eat to take your medicine. Here, just take a few bites” She murmured but I pursed my lips and shook my head stubbornly, “Eat or I’ll feed you. Do you want that instead?” Damon threatened and I turned to glare at him. He knew damn well that I would allow anyone but him to feed or be close to me. This jerki

I let out a defeated sigh as I turned to Delilah and slowly opened my mouth. She happily began to feed me only stopped when I let out a loud groan.

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry” Delilah hurriedly said as she placed the tray on the table next to Damon.

“I’d like to rest now.

both leave” I murmured, staring directly at Damon, I didn’t mind Delilah being there but I couldn’t stand Damon’s presence.

“Leave us Delilah” He ordered and I turned to him with wide eyes.

“You leave” I muttered but he wasn’t staring at me but at Delilah.

She glanced between us then let out a defeated sigh.

“I’ll be right outside, okay?” She murmured and I shook my head at her as I held onto her hand but she was able to pull her hand out of my grip as she walked out of the room. Soon after, I was alone again with Damon.

“I don’t want you here” i murmured as he stood up.

“Too bad, I’m here and I don’t plan on leaving” He walked closer to me and pushed me back gently so I was laying down on the bed before covering me with a blanket.

“You shouldn’t be behaving like my husband when you aren’t I murmured and he scoffed.

“Like it or not, I am your husband and I’ve already b urnt the divorce Papers so it’s invalid” He murmured and I glared at him.

“I don’t want to be married to you anymore. I don’t like you” I murmured and he sighed.

“Too bad, you’re stuck with me because you belong to me and only me” He uttered then leaned down and tried placing a kiss on my lips and as much as I wanted it, I turned my head to the side and avoided it.

“You don’t just get to act like everything is okay when it’s not, Damon,” I murmured and bit my lower lip to stop myself from crying.

*Clara..”

“Now that you know I can give birth, you suddenly want me back?” I questioned.

“I want yo u regardless of if you were able to give me a child or not” He uttered and I scoffed.

“You were ready to leave me on the spot. You fucking sent divorce papers...”

“Because I was angry and hurt, Clara. Yeah I know it was messed up but you lying to me hurt me and I felt betrayed. I hate betrayal more than anything but I never wanted to let you go. I tried convincing myself that that’s what was best and that’s what I wanted but a man can only lie to himself for so long. I know you hate me right now and I understand that. After you get better and the death of our unborn child settles down on you then I’ll give you the little space you need. I know you’re trying to push out that part from your mind, you are trying to think about anything but the death of our unborn child to avoid breaking down in front of me and everyone but I’m not leaving your side. You and I, we need each other right now. I need you right now and that’s why I’m not leaving“.

CHAPTER 63

Chapter 63 -DAMON- I immediately reached forward and wiped away Clara’s tears with my thumb and luckily, she didn’t push me away this time. “You don’t know how much I’ve wanted a baby, Damon. And to think I was pregnant all along and I had no fg idea. If I knew, I would have protected our baby with my life” She murmured softly then slowly caressed her stomach and the fact that she called it ours made me smile I grabbed onto her hand and placed a kiss on her palm. can’t blame yourself, Clara. You’ll blame the one that made you think you were barren but don't worry, I'll take care of that" ! murmured then reached out and was about to place a strand of hair that had fallen on her face behind her ear but she slapped my hand "I've not forgiven you and quite frankly I don't know if I can. You hurt me, Damon. I wanted you, I needed you by my side when everyone was against me but you turned your back on me and now you expect me to come running back into your arms because I'm in a vulnerable state? I'm sorry but that's not going to happen" She muttered and I sighed. "I don't expect you to forgive me so easily and we are mourning the loss of our child together whether you like it or not because I'm not leaving your side. I can't bear to leave your side again. You have no freaking idea how those days without you have been, I don't know what the hell you did to me Clara but whatever you did has made me obsessed with you. I can't breathe without you" I confessed because I couldn't hold it back anymore. My emotions were all over the place at that moment and I wanted her to know how I felt about her, "I'm ready to take this seriously, Clara" I murmured and her eyes widened. "Take... take what seriously?" She questioned softly and I smiled before grabbing onto her hand. "No more fake marriages, no more contracts. Let's make this marriage real" I murmured and she gasped and immediately tears began to

*No more fake marriages gather in her eyes. "But... "No butts, there's nothing to think about. Why do I have to let go of you? You're mine under the law of the moon goddess by birth. You're destined to be mine so I'm not letting you go" I murmured then caressed her cheek before leaning in and kissing away her tears before placing a kiss on the tip of her nose. "I'll give you tonight to consider if you want to be mine or not" I murmured before pulling away and standing up. "And what if I don't want to continue? What then?" She questioned before I could walk away and I smiled. "You'll just have to reconsider because I'm not taking no for an answer. Rest Rest up, okay?" I murmured and was about to walk away again "You said you weren't going to leave" She murmured softly and I smiled. "I have something to take care of. I promise to be back before you wake up, okay?" I murmured and could see her eyes were drooping already. "Okay" She murmured before slowly letting go of my hand then I walked out of the room. I stared at her for a while before leaning down to place a kiss on her lips 11:48 Tue, 2 Jul Chapter 63 "Are you done?" Delilah immediately questioned as I walked out of the room. "I'm going with us, Delilah" I murmured and she immediately jumped up. "We are headed down to Liam's pack and you're coming with us" "Now that's what I like to hear. Let's go" She murmured and at that moment, my parents were walking back towards us. "Are you going somewhere?" My mother questioned and Luca glanced at Delilah and I before nodding "We have something to take care of" He murmured then bowed his head. "I'm leaving Clara in your care, mother. If anything happens, call me immediately" I murmured and her eyes widened. She clearly didn't expect me to entrust Clara's safety to her but I figured there was no use being angry at her anymore. We had all made mistakes and how did I expect Clara to forgive me if I didn't forgive others? "We'll be back before midnight" I murmured then curtly nodded at both of them before waking away. Delilah and Luca immediately caught up with me and we got into the car immediately. "Should I inform Liam's pack about your arrival?" Luca questioned and I shook my head. "I'd like it to be a surprise, Gather some of our men and order them to wait at the warehouse" I ordered. "Copied Alpha" He muttered and the car was quiet for a while till Delilah cleared her throat. "So when was anyone going to tell me that your marriage with Clara was just a contract so you could get the Alpha King title?" She uttered and my eyes widened as I turned to her. "Clara told you?" questioned and she scoffed. "Not directly. When you sent the divorce papers, she said something about a contract and she wasn't supposed to catch feelings so I put two and two together. No wonder you were being so heartless" Delilah muttered and I glared at her. "Shut up, you don't know anything about my relationship with Clara. Besides, I want to make it official now, I don't want our marriage to be based on a contract anymore As soon as I said that the car came to an abrupt stop and Luca turned to me with wide eyes. "Are my ears deceiving me? Did you just say what I think I heard you say?" He uttered and I glared at him. "F start the car. I have to be back in time before Clara wakes up" I muttered and he hurriedly started the car then drove off but I could see the smile on his face. "But you do know you being with Clara is always going to put her in harm's way, right? You haveThis countless enemies, Damon and they have been searching for a weak point for years. She's becoming your weak point" Delilah uttered and I frowned. Did she think I didn't know that? Heck that's why I never wanted to be close to Clara in the first place. "I'll protect her" I muttered and she scoffed. "That man that almost killed her was sent to her because of you. Today just shows that you cannot always protect her, Damon. You are known as a one man squad but if this continues, one of you might get killed" Delilah pointed out the fear we all had. "I will protect her" I murmured and she sighed. "Daman.." "I'm not fg giving her up! I've never felt this way about anyone before, Delilah and now you're asking me to give her up because of fear? I've never been afraid of anyone and if they so much as dare touch a hair on her head again, I'll show the world once again who death Viper is! I muttered menacingly and that immediately shut Delilah up. 2/3 11:49 Tue, 2 Jul Chapter 63 "What are you going to do about the Lakeview pack? Are you going to attack them?" Luca questioned and i shook my head. "You said they are from the south right?" I asked and he nodded slowly. "Yeah" "Then the whole south has gone against me and they shall pay dearly for it. The whole world will know that Clara is not to be messed with after I'm done with them"...

"You can't keep ignoring mel Veronica yelled as she stamped her feet in front of me and I sighed before glancing up at her.

"I'm not ignoring you. I just don't have time for your tantrums, I'm busy" I murmured and was about to go back to my document when she grabbed it and threw it to the ground

"I'm the one here, I'm the one by your side and yet you still think about her? She's someone's mate and wife for Christ sake. She doesn't even want you anymore, she doesn't love...

"Shut your mouth! What do you fucking know about love? If you hadn't come into my life, Clara would still be mine!" I screamed and her eyes widened in shock. I have never yelled at her before but her constant nagging was getting to me.

I was in my feelings these days. For one, Clara wasn't giving me any attention at all, it was like she had totally forgotten about me but I wasn't given up. What we had was pure love, that bastard was just brainwashing her at the moment. Soon, she'll know who really loved her.

didn't force you to choose me, Liam. You chose me on your free will she murmured and I scoffed. © content.

I never chose you, Veronica. Who in their right senses would choose you over Clara? You manipulated me into pushing Clara away but you can never be her and I can never love you the way I loved her I murmured and she stared at me with which written all over her face.

Truth be told, my feelings or rather the meeting bond was slowly disappearing with each day then passed. All I could think about was Clara. Everytime I heard the news of how she and Alpha Damon had fought, I would think she'd come running to me but instead she made up

"Damon has filed for a divorce and very soon Clara will be free from him. Be ready to pack up your things and leave because I don't want you here when she gets back" I murmured as I slowly stood up from the chair,

I was about to walk past her when she screamed.

"What is wrong with you? I'm your mate, not her! You should love me!" She screamed.

"Well I don't and I don't know if I ever will. Stop fucking screaming" I muttered and was about to walk away when she threw herself at my feet

"Please love me, Liam. I won't nag anymore, I won't talk bad about Clara. Just please love me" She pleaded and I stared at her with a frown before letting out a sigh. Even though I didn't love her romantically, she was still my mate.

“That’s enough, get up” I murmured and outstretched my hand towards her. She was about to take it when a guard barged into my office with his eyes frantic “Alpha, we are under attack!” He screamed and without thinking twice, I rushed out of the room with him tsilinh behind.

“Situation” I questioned.

“Alpha Damon is attacking the pack, Alpha. The guards are currently cently trying to hold him off but he’s too powerful” He replied and I halted in my steps before turning to him with wide eyes.

“You are fighting him back?” questioned and he nodded slowly.

“Yes Alpha” He replied and I grabbed onto his neck.

“You fool, that’s the Death Viper, you don’t fucking fight back. He’s going to fucking kill us all” I muttered before letting go of him and “Tell them to stop fighting back!” I screamed and was about to run out of the house when Damon barged in with two severed heads in his hand. He was covered with blood from head to toe and the smirk on his face sent chills downy spine.

Behind him was his Beta and a woman who I barely knew but by her resemblance to him, she must be his sister.

“To what do I owe this pleasure, Alpha Damon?” I muttered through clenched teeth before bowing my head. Only goddess knew how many people he had killed before getting here.

“You didn’t train your guards well How dare they try to ward me off?” He muttered as he threw the head on the ground and walked into the house.

“I’m sorry for my incompetence. May I ask what I’ve done to anger you?” I questioned and he shook his head.

“You have done a lot of things to anger me but unfortunately I’m not here for you. Where are your family members?” He questioned and as if on cue, my aunts, uncles, cousins, Veronica and my mother came rushing down.

As soon as they saw Damon, their eyes widened and they immediately bowed their heads.

“Alpha Damon” They chorused and he hummed before turning towards Aunt Amelia.

“You must be Aunt Amelia” He uttered and her eyes widened before she nodded her head.

“Yes Alpha, it’s a privilege to meet you” She murmured and I tilted my head.

“You are literally like a mother to my wife so it’s a privilege to meet you. I know you love Clara and therefore you’re going to tell me the truth. Who amongst them bullied my wife when she was here?” He questioned and everyone immediately froze.

“What?” She questioned and he frowned.

“Well I don’t believe I stuttered, did I?” He murmured and she hurriedly shook her head.

“No but...”

“Point now or I’m going to start punishing anyone I like” He muttered and I turned to him with wide eyes.

“Alpha Damon, what is this about?” I questioned and he turned to me.

“I originally came here for your mother but while I’m here, why don’t I just avenge my wife?” He muttered and I furrowed my eyebrows. He was here for my mother?

“If I may ask... why... why are you here for me?” My mother asked softly and I noticed the way his Aura immediately turned cold as he turned to her. Even the other two behind him seemed to have some kind of hatred towards my mother. This wasn’t going to end well.

“You know what to do, Delilah” Don muttered and the girl behind Damon suddenly stepped forward and took slow steps towards my mother while tying up her hair.

“What is the meaning of this?” I questioned frantically knowing exactly what was about to happen.

“Your mother told my wife she was barren and because of that, my wife lost our child and now, your mother is about to lose her life” He muttered so nonchalantly, it almost seemed like he was talking about the weather.

“What?” Aunt Amelia uttered as she let out a gasp with tear tears streaming down her cheeks.

“You should call Clara, she’ll need you” He murmured softly and Aunt Amelia didn’t waste any time as she ran up the stairs to probably get her phone.

“Mother? Is this true?” I questioned as I turned to my mother and the look on her face already told me the answer.

“I’m sorry, I just told her that because I didn’t want her using a baby to trap you” My mother confessed and I frowned.

“Please let’s talk things out. That’s my mother” I tried reasoning with Damon but I knew this was beyond reasoning.

“I won’t let you hurt my mother” I muttered as I stood before him and he smiled.

“Do you really think you can stop me?” He questioned and I frowned. Even if I couldn’t, I was going to die trying. I didn’t agree with what my mother did and quite frankly I was angry because I knew Clara always wanted a child. She must have felt so devastated when she thought she was barren.

Despite this, she was my mother and everything she did was because she thought it was what was better for me. It wasn’t right but she was my mother.

“My brother isn’t going to kill her, Tam” The lady suddenly uttered and before I could rushed towards them, she landed a sound d slap on my mother’s face resulting in my mother falling to the ground.

“Mother!” I screamed and was about to rush towards them when Damon’s beta rushed towards me and grabbed me from behind.

“Damon is not in a good mood so I’d advice you mind your actions” He muttered into my ear but I just turned to glare at him.

“That’s my mother” I muttered.

“And because of her lie, Clara and Damon lost their first child. How do you think they feel about that? This is his way of coping with loss and if I were you, I won’t anger him unless you want everyone in your pack dead” Luca muttered and I clenched my fist as I watched the girl beat up my mother mercilessly while my mother screamed for mercy.

My other family members just stayed put without turning to my mother. No one was willing to go against Damon, that’s how powerful he

“My friend went through a lot because of you” Delilah screamed and was about to land one final blow to could take my mother’s life when Damon stopped her “Halt, step away from her” He muttered and we all turned to him in shock.

“Why?” The lady whined and he turned to her.

“Because I want her to kneel before my wife and beg for her life. If my wife chooses to spare you, then good for you but if she doesn’t, I’ll end you myself“...

Chapter 65 -CLARA- By the time I woke up, it was late at night and I couldn’t feel Damon’s presence. “You are awake” I heard a a quiet voice and when the speaker came into view, my eyes widened slightly. It was Damon’s mother. I wasn’t comfortable around her anymore after finding out that she had been the first one to be against me. She had tried encouraging Damon to get another wife according to the gossip I heard from the maids. “Do you feel better? Your phone was ringing but I didn’t want it disturbing you so I turned it off. I hope that’s okay?” She questioned and I nodded slowly but didn’t say a word, I didn’t need to say anything because the guilty look on her face as she stared at me told me that what those Maids had said weren’t baseless rumors. “I think I need to clear up the air with you first because I’ve not been able to look at myself in the mirror without feeling disgusted with myself. When I found out you were barren, as a mother I was angry, I was fuming with anger so I called you a gold digger and asked Damon to find himself another wife” She uttered then turned to me maybe to see if I had a reaction but I just stared blankly at her and that made her sigh “You have to understand where I’m coming from, Clara, I know for a fact that you and Damon had a conversation about children before you got married and you not telling him you were barren only made me think that you married him for money and for power so I let my anger consume me but Delilah's words were able to get through me and I realized they I was wrong. Throughout the times I've spent with you and seen the way you were with my son, I realize that your feelings for each are pure and I was just being bitter, I really want Damon to have a family and ever since you came into his life, he has changed for the better and I want to thank you for that" She murmured and I sighed. "At first I married Damon for money so you're not totally wrong but I fell for him along the line and the only reason I didn't tell him I was barren was because I was scared he was going to leave me or reject me and I'll be all alone. I never had a family and a family is something I so dearly want. Coming into Damon's life, I finally felt like I wasn't alone anymore and that I could finally have the family I wanted despite not being able to give him a child. I was so scared that if I told him, that dream of having a family would disappear and I was right. Damon turned against me and everyone immediately shunned me out" I murmured and tried my best to keep my tears at bay. I've been trying not to feel, I've been forcing myself to feel numb to everything but I could feel tears brewing and very soon, I was going to explode. "I have no excuses for my behavior and can only tell you how sorry I am. Delilah was right, having children is one of the greatest joys of a woman and instead of me judging and condemning you, I should have tried to understand you and that's my wrong and I apologize for that but please give Damon a chance. Ever since you came into his life, he has changed for the better despite how much he tries to deny it. You're good for him but you need to understand that he hasn't changed completely. Damon is the kind of person that hates betrayal more than anything and I would know that because I'm still paying for betraying him years ago. He still hasn't been able to let go. The way he acted towards you wasn't because he didn't like you but because he felt betrayed by you. He was really restless and unhappy during the times you guys weren't together but he's a very stubborn man like his father and they don't like showing their weakness and I'm afraid his weakness is you, Clara. He tried to fight it but he cares for you deeply even more than he cares for me, Delilah or even his father. I'm not trying to say what he did was wrong but as his mother who cares for his happiness, I'm asking you to give him another chance" She murmured and I couldn't stop the tears that slipped down my cheeks. "Because of how broken I was without him, I hadn't noticed I was pregnant. If I had known I was pregnant, I would have protected our child with my life but I didn't. You have no idea how long I've been wanting a child and it was tragically taken away from me before I could even realize it and I'm trying not to but I blame him for it I murmured and she frowned. "Look deep inside you and you'll know that you are both at fault. If you had checked yourself and if you had told Damon the truth earlier on, things could have been different. If you guys had been together, nothing like this would have happened. Yes Damon has a fault in the death of your child, we all do but you do too and I don't think it's fair to put the blame on him. Damon lost his child too, he's probably already blaming himself and if you blame him as well, I'm afraid he's going to shut down and I don't want that to happen so please, please give him another chance" She begged and I frowned and opened my mouth to say something when Damon suddenly barged into the room and my 1/2 11:49 Tue, 2 Jul / M-N Chapter 65 eyes widened when I saw Aunt Amelia. "Aunt Amelia..." I called out softly as she rushed towards me and wrapped her arms around me. 65% “I’m so sorry, my love. I can’t believe you were pregnant all along” She murmured as she cried on my shoulder and that broke the little resolve I had. I cried bitterly in her arms as everything suddenly came crashing down on me. I had just lost my first child, I hadn’t even gotten the chance to hold the baby. I hadn’t even met him or her. I had failed them, I had failed my child! looked up slightly and my eyes connected with Damon’s and the sadness behind his broke me. As he stepped forward, Aunt Amelia slowly let go of me and when he leant down to hold me, I immediately buried myself in his arms and held onto him tightly as my tears grew even more frantic. He patted my back lovingly while murmuring reassuring words in my ears but I could hear the sadness in his voice. He sounded so broken that it made my heart ache. My arms tightened around him and I snuggled into his arms. What he had done was wrong and I knew I should stand my ground and give him space but at that moment, being in his arms felt so right He was my safe space...Belonging to .

Chapter 66 -DAMON- “What are we going to do about Liam’s mother? Luca is currently holding her Delilah murmured and I glanced down at Clara who was sleeping soundly in my arms. I had originally brought Liam’s mother over so that she could kneel before Clara and beg for mercy but Clara was in such a vulnerable state right now and it wasn’t something she needed now. “Tell Luca to keep her down in the dungeons with no food or water. When Clara is better, we’ll go see her” I murmured and Delilah nodded before walking out of the room and I was finally alone with Clara. My mother had left with Aunt Amelia as soon as Clara had fallen asleep and those two had immediately hit it off. Clara groaned slightly as she wiggled her body before she settled down and I just stared at her, engraving her features in my head. She was breathtaking and she was all mine. I i I placed a kiss on the tip of her nose before adjusting myself so I was in a comfortable position. After a while, I fell asleep as well and was only awoken by the sound of something falling I opened my eyes slowly and frowned when I noticed Clara wasn’t in my arms, How had she moved and I hadn’t noticed? I must have been very tired. I turned towards the source of the noise and saw Clara standing by the mirror with a broken vase in front of her. What shocked me wasn’t the fact that she had broken the case but the fact that she had a pillow in her stomach, mimicking a pregnancy bump. “I would have looked so good with a bump, don’t you think?” She questioned softly as she kept staring at herself in the mirror, not even minding the broken vase in front of her feet “Don’t move baby, you’ll hurt yourself” i murmured as I immediately jumped up and ran towards her. I picked her up and carried her away from the broken glass then set her down in the bed before ringing for the nurses.

“What happened? Did you smash the vase on the ground?” I questioned softly as i searched her body for any injuries. I sighed when I saw some cuts on her legs. “It fell, I didn’t smash it” She murmured softly and I sighed., “You hurt yourself” I murmured at the same time the nurses walked in. I showed them the broken vase and asked for a first aid kit. “I’m okay, they don’t hurt” She murmured and I tilted my head at her. “I don’t care if they don’t care, I care that you’re injured” I murmured then glanced down at the pillow protruding from her stomach with a frown. "I just wanted to see what I would look like. I'll take it out now" She murmured as she pulled out the pillow and threw it on the bed. I stared at her for a while and the emptiness in her eyes broke me. The Clara I knew always had some sort of mischief twirling in her eyes Her eyes were always bright with life but now... It was just empty. "Are you okay?" I questioned softly as I caressed her cheek and she sighed before shaking her head as a few tears dropped down her cheeks "No, I lost our child, Damon. It's going to take a while before I get over it She murmured and I reached forward and placed a kiss on her lips. 10 11:50 Tue, 2 Jul er Chapter 66 65% "We'll get through it together. It was very unfortunate but I don't want to dwell on it too much because I have to be strong for you. It's okay to be sad, it's okay to cry, it's okay to mourn. Maybe after you get better, we can make another one" I joked and she scoffed. "We can't just make another one, Damon," She murmured and I smiled. "We can. We just have to have sex every day and that sounds like a dream to me. We'll make another one and this time, we'll protect him or her with our lives" I murmured and she stared at me for a while then nodded.

"We can start with the process now" She murmured then dragged her hand down my chest and instantly felt my dk twitch. It felt like I haven't tasted her in years. ot the best time, you're not completely healed yet. The doctor said you had to rest" I murmured as I grabbed onto her hand and "Now is not she frowned. "You u can be gentle She uttered and I chuckled. "Baby you know I'm anything but gentle" I murmured and soon after, the nurse brought the first aid kit and I cleaned up Clara's bruises while they cleaned up the mess. After they left, I urged Clara to lay down but she was being stubborn, rest, Clara" I tried reasoning with her but she just shook her head. "You need to rest, questioned "I'm not tired and my head hurts from lying down for too long. I want to speak with Aunt Amelia. You brought her here?" She ques and I nodded slowly. "She was really worried about you and I knew her presence would make you feel better" I murmured and she nodded. "It did, thank you" She replied softly and I smiled before placing a kiss on her lips. "We'll have a better wedding, a real one this time and I'll make you my Luna finally, I was us to be official, I want you by my side. I've already had your things moved back into our mansion but you no longer have a room because you'll be staying in mine which is our bedroom now" I murmured and she raised an eyebrow. "Don't I get a say anymore? Besides I didn't say I agreed to be with you again and I like that house so I think I'll continue staying on my own" she muttered and I rolled my eyes. "Very funny. I already told you, you're mine now. You cannot get rid of me that easily" I murmured and she rolled her eyes. "I don't belong to you and I'm free to do whatever I want" S

She uttered then folded her arms stubbornly and I sighed. "Stop being stubborn or I'll burn down that house and you'll never get to go there again" I murmured and she gasped dramatically. "Did you just threaten me?" She questioned and I chuckled. "It's not a threat, it's a warning. Say you're be with me" I murmured and she pursed her lips. "No" I reached forward and placed a kiss on her lips. "Say you'll be with me" I murmured again and I could hear her heart rate beating faster. "No," She muttered. So she was still being stubborn? I reached under her hospital gown, slowly trailing my fingers up her thighs till I could feel the heat emanating from her core. "Say you'll be with me and I'll “finger you” I murmured and placed her fingers on her panties that were already soaking wet. My ck twitched painfully in my trousers but I paid no attention to it. “You... you said we couldn’t have sex” She stuttered and I smirked. “Yes but I never said I couldn’t finger you. Say you’ll mine and you’ll be with me and I’ll let you find your release but if you don’t...” I trailed off as I slowly began to redraw to fingers when she grabbed onto my hand to stop it in place. “I’ll be with you, I’ll start over with you” She murmured while staring intently into my ears and my heart suddenly began to thump in my chest. “And?” I urged. “And I’m yours” She said instantly and I grinned then pushed her panties aside and as soon as my fingers touched her clt, she let out a slowm

My whole body was on fire and I wanted nothing more re than for Damon to have his way with me. I’m supposed to be mad at him for crying out loud but my body wasn’t cooperating in the slightest.

“Hmmm fuck!” I moaned as I grinded against his fingers. Fuck I’ve missed his touch so much, “I’ll let you come and then you’ll rest okay?” He murmured and I cried as he captured my already hardened nipples through the hospital gown’s material and gritted his teeth against it gently as his fingers pumped in and out of me roughly.

After a while, my whole body shook as I came on his fingers and clean.

he caressed my core a little bit before pulling out and licking his fingers

“Let’s get you washed up” He murmured and when he stood up, my eyes immediately flew to the bulge in his pants.

“I can help you with that” I murmured and he glanced down before letting out a chuckle.

“Don’t worry, you don’t have to stress...”

“I want to do it. Come” I ordered and his eyes widened with Surprise before he chuckled and walked over to stand in front of me.

While staring up at him, I slowly unbuckled his pants and dragged it down with one hand while the other was rubbing his cock through his boxers. He let out a strained moan as he kept staring down at me.

I pulled down his boxers and his cock immediately sprang free, almost hitting me on the face, Fuck, I had almost forgotten how big and thick he was. My core was already throbbing as I grabbed onto his cock and he hissed.

on baby” He urged and I slowly moved my hand up and down his length while staring up at him and the way his face contorted with pleasure made my core ache. Fuck, I wanted this man so much.

Wanting to taste him, I took as much of him as I could into my mouth and gagged when he hit the back of my throat. His groan vibrated through his whole body as he buried his fingers into my hair.

“Fuck Clara” He moaned as he guided my head up and down his length, I gagged every second but still didn’t pull away. I loved the taste of him in my mouth and I loved the fact that I was causing him pleasure.

I sunk my mouth further down and he groaned then stilled before exploding in my mouth and I swallowed his cum before pulling away and staring up at him while he breathed heavily, still clinging onto my hair.

“Fuck, I’ve never come so fast before. I could have kissed you but I don’t want to taste myself on your lips. Let’s go wash up” He murmured then carried me up from the bed and into the bathroom.

I expected us to break out into a full blown make out session in the bathroom but pamon was very focused on bathing me and he was so gentle as well.

After we were done in the bathroom, he carried me out of the bathroom and helped me put on some clothes they had brought for me earlier. It was a simple gown that was easy to put on and extremely comfortable.

He didn’t have what to change into so he wore what he was wearing earlier.

“You’ll get discharged tomorrow, I don’t want you staying here any longer” He murmured as he got me into bed and made sure I was laying down comfortably.

“Of course. You thought I was lying when I said I didn’t want to be away from your anymore?” He murmured then leaned down and placed a kiss on my forehead.

“I’ll just go speak with Luca for a few minutes while you talk with Aunt Amelia and Delilah, okay? I’m sure they’re both worried about you” He uttered and as much as I didn’t want him to leave, I really wanted to speak with Aunt Amelia so I reluctantly let him go.

As soon as he

“You are looking so much better, Clara, Delilah pointed out as Aunt Amelia sat down on the bed and caressed my cheek

“My poor baby” Aunt Amelia murmured and I rolled my eyes at her.

“I’m not a baby” I murmured and she rolled her eyes.

“So it’s okay if Alpha Damon calls you baby but I can’t the questioned and my cheeks immediately turned red.

“Don’t tell me

She was like a parent to me and it felt weird knowing she had heard Damon and I. I could only imagine what they would have heard if we had sex

“No need to be shy, we have all gone through that you have right darling?” Aunt Amelia questioned as she turned towards Delilah who nodded.

“Yeah once but I could only imagine how good it would feel with your fated mate” She murmured Bd Aunt Amelia nodded.

“It feels so good. Most times my husband

“Aunt Amelia that’s enough!” I yelled with wide eyes before she traumatized me and I won’t be able to get the image of her and uncle going “I’ll tell you later” She murmured to Delilah and I rolled my eyes.

We spoke for a while and I instantly felt better knowing Aunt Amelia and Delilah were getting along really well. They both meant a lot to me so I was happy about that.

“I won’t lie, these past few days when you called me and were crying because of Alpha Daman, I began to hate him” Aunt Amelia suddenly revealed Content is © 2024 .

“It understandable. I love my brother but even i was starting to hate him but I’ve understood my brother. “He means a lot to me too” i murmured and they both gasped.

“Does that mean you have forgiven him completely?” Delilah questioned

“Well she did suck his dick so "I have no idea. I'm just happy we can be husband and wife for real this time and...why are you crying Aunt Amelia?" I questioned as she sniffled and wiped away her tears.

*Because I know how much you want a family and I know how much you like him, Clara. I'm just so happy for you" As she spoke, I couldn't stop the tears from flowing down my cheeks. Even Delilah began to cry.

She hugged Aunt Amelia and they both cried in each other's arms while I watched them with tears in my eyes as well but with a smile on my face. These two didn't know how much I loved them.

After a while, Damon came back in and Aunt Amelia and Delilah immediately stood up to leave.

"I'm watching you and I may be afraid of you but when it comes to Clara, I will push that fear behind and fight till death if I have to. Don't hurt her again" Aunt Amelia warned as she stopped in front of Damon and he smiled.

"I don't plan on it. I will never make Clara cry y ever again" He murmured then turned to me with a smile and I smiled back at him even though there was a nagging feeling in my head

Clara and I spent the whole night talking about anything and everything while being snuggled in each other's arms and I couldn't help but let out a sigh of contentment. This felt right, this felt great.

Clara, noticing she was still sleeping in my arms. I didn't want to wake her but she'd want to have her bath before "Clara" I called out softly, leaving.

She groaned slightly as she snuggled further into me and I chuckled and couldn't resist the urge to kiss her.

"You're cute and all but we need to leave and get back home" I murmured while caressing her head and she sighed.

"Can't you just carry me home without waking me up. I'm tired and my body aches" She murmured then pouted at me and instantly gave After signing the papers, I carried Clara back to the car.

"Where is Aunt Amelia?" Clara questioned as I slowly got into the backseat with her in my arms.

"She went back with my parents and will be staying there as long as she wants" I murmured and I expected her to be happy about that but instead, she frowned.

"Why can't she stay with us? There's plenty of room in our home" She murmured and I couldn't help but smile. She was finally calling it our home.

"Baby I'm sorry but you're the only one I can tolerate...sometimes" I murmured and she rolled her eyes at me.

"if she won't stay with us then take me back to that small house, she'll stay with me there" Clara threatened and I scoffed. This woman!

*I could burn down that house and you'll have nowhere else to go, you know that right?" I murmured and she scoffed.

Jokes on you, Aunt Amelia has different houses scattered around the world. She may look small but she's mighty" Clara bragged and I sighed.

"Why can't she just stay with my parents? She'll be well taken care of there And she'll be with people her own age. Do you want her butting into everything we do?" I questioned and she sighed.

"Aunt Amelia is not like that. She's very cool" Clara muttered and I raised an eyebrow.

"So what if I want to fuck you in the kitchen, in the dining room or the living room? Are you okay with her watching us because I am" I muttered and Luca cleared his throat while Delilah made a gagging sound.

Clara's cheeks immediately turned pink and she turned to glare at me.

"We don't have to have sex in those places, Damon" She uttered and I shrugged,

"I can't control myself around you. Whenever I want it no matter the place or who's watching i'll get it. As a matter of fact, I want it right now" i munnured and was about to lean down when three voices screamed at once.

"Just let her stay with my parents" Delilah screamed and Clara groaned.

"I'm sorry, did you just say from Luca?" I questioned and she nodded.

"Yes because Luca is more romantic than you" She muttered and I was about to get pissed when I saw the mischievous look in her eyes and knew she was deliberately pushing my buttons.

I moved closer to her, giving her no space to breath as I grabbed onto her face and stared down at her.

Do you want me to punish you, little devil? Because your words pissed me off regardless of if it was a joke or not," I muttered while staring into her eyes and she smirked.

"And how exactly are you going to punish me? You won't have sex with me because i'm not fully healed, right?" She murmured seductively and I sucked in my breath when her hand settled on top of the bulge in my pants.

"Yes I'll still punish you with sex but since you're not better yet..." I trailed off and instantly began to tickle her.

"Damond Stop!" She cried out in between laughs and my pace just doubled.

Chapter 69 -IN THE SOUTH- 65% The Alpha of the lake view pack, Hunter “Can you all stop fidgeting? It has been four days now and he still hasn’t attacked or said anything” Th muttered as he stared at the heads of the south all seated in front of him. The leader of the south and Alpha of the biggest pack in the south, Alpha Raymond turned to glare at him. “Don’t you know who Alpha Damon is for crying out loud? He’s the death Viper and it’s because everywhere is so quiet, that’s why we are fidgeting. He is going to attack and you're going to suffer the consequences for putting us in this mess" Raymond muttered making Hunter sigh. "Listen, I didn't attack anyone he cared about. Haven't you heard the rumors? He not only sent his wife out of their mansion but also plans to divorce her. He doesn't care about her Hunter reasoned and they all scoffed. "Then if you knew he didn't care about her, why did you attack her then?" Raymond questioned. "Because he killed my wife for crying out loud, he killed my mate and do you understand the agony I've been through because of that? I couldn't just let him keep living his life like he hasn't destroyed countless other lives. I need my revenge" Hunter explained and Raymond sighed before walking towards him and placing his hand on his shoulder. "We all understand your anger. Alpha Damon has taken something from each and everyone of us here but we are not strong enough to go against him. That man has killed an entire army of wolves by himself with his bare hands. We can't defeat him alone and that's why we need to conquer the east and west before we can have a chance against him but what you have done is stage a war not only against him but the entire north and if he comes, you'll be held accountable" Raymond muttered and Hunter frowned. "It's because of this fear you all show him that's why he feels like a god, we need to show him that we are not afraid of him" Hunter announced.

"But we are afraid of him, Hunter! Don't you remember what he did to you? To your family? He was only twenty then with not much experience. How powerful do you think he is now for crying out loud? He has been laying low and we shouldn't have triggered him till we were strong enough" Raymond reasoned with Hunter. "He already killed the man I sent after his wife, I doubt he'd come after me" Hunter uttered and Raymond sighed. He really didn't know who the death Viper was. "ALPHA!" They all turned towards the voice and saw a guard running towards them with torn limbs and several bullet holes on his body. "Death viper" was all the guard could say before falling to the ground. They all stood in shock as they stared down at the dead body and that was when they began to hear the screams coming from outside the mansion. "You have killed us all" Raymond muttered softly as he turned to Hunter whose face was already as white as a ghost. Raymond immediately dispatched all the army in the north to go fight against Damon and his troops but they were losing the battle at a last pace. very "We need to go to him" Hunter muttered as he turned to the other Alpha's that had gathered at Alpha Raymond's mansion. "We! You should go to him and fg offer yourself as a sacrifice. Why is he even attacking all of us? All these grown men were all afraid of a man five times younger than them. Damon was really a menace. "You'll lead the way," Raymond told Hunter as they walked out of the mansion.

They were instantly met with dead bodies while most of the people were injured very badly. Just in a few minutes, Damon had almost wiped out the whole south. "Are you finally man enough to face me or do I have to kill your family members now?" They all turned towards the voice and their eyes widened when they saw each of their family members kneeling down in front of Damon and they were all tied up. Hunter growled when he saw his daughter and sons tied up as well. He was about to lunge at Damon but luckily, he was held back by Raymond. "Alpha Damon, we..." "You do not have the right to utter my name and I do not want to hear a word from you. You hurt my wife" Damon muttered as he turned to Hunter. "You killed my wife, my mate. I've been in agony ever since" Hunter immediately said while glaring at Damon and the demonic smoke that appeared on Damon's face made all of them shudder in pain. "Oh so you tried to kill my wife for revenge, is that it?" Damon questioned but this time, Hunter didn't say a word and just kept glancing at his children." "Do you know your stupid act cost me my first child?" Damon uttered and they all immediately froze. "What?" Raymond muttered before turning to Hunter who began to shake his head frantically. "I... I didn't know that I swear...I wouldn't have..." "You wouldn't have tried to hurt my wife if you knew she was pregnant?" Damon questioned, "I thought she meant nothing to you and I wanted you to know how it felt to lose a mate..." Hunter's eyes almost bulged out from its socket when Damon appeared in front of him and grabbed him by the neck.

"My wife means everything to me and you have just crossed the line by messing with her Damon muttered before letting go of Hunter's neck. Hunter coughed a little before falling to his knees. "Spare everyone, spare my children. You can kill me instead" Hunter muttered while his children cried and screamed for their father to be released. "Oh killing your children isn't punishment enough. I'm going to give you a chance to redeem yourself" Damon muttered before picking up a gun and handing it to Hunter. "What... what am I to do with this?" Hunter stuttered. "You have 10 seconds to kill the families of the other Alphas. "I'm sorry Raymand" Hunter muttered and was about to pull the trigger when Raymond stuck his hand into Hunter's chest from the back and ripped out his head. Hunter's lifeless body immediately fell to the ground and his children began to scream. "Bravo! I thought you were going to let him kill your family" Damon uttered with an amused look on his face as he clapped before he reached down and grabbed onto the gun still in Hunter's hands. He twisted Hunter's fingers and broke two as he took out the gun from his grip then he pointed it at Raymond's wife again while staring at Raymond, "Please, I'm begging you!" Raymond pleaded and fell to his knees. Damon pulled the trigger but no bullet came out. What?! "This is a lesson to all of you. If you touch anybody close to me, especially my wife, I won't be as lenient as I am today. You have my wife to thank for sparing your lives. Take Hunter's sons and daughter, they're coming with us" Damon muttered then spared the Alphas one last glance before walking away. His guards immediately released the Alphas family and Raymond's wife ran towards him with tears in her eyes. -CLARA-

I missed him so much! Damon left last night and we talked the next morning on the phone but I've been trying his number for the past four hours and he wasn't picking up. I was told I shouldn't worry because he was busy and I wasn't worried. My husband could take care of himself but I missed him too much and just wanted to hear his voice.

I tried his number again but it just rang to voicemail.

"Ughh this is so stupid" I muttered as I fell back on the bed. I stared up at the ceiling for a while and couldn't help but think of Damon.

"want this to be real" His voice echoed in my head and I grinned. I had never expected that he was the one that was going to suggest that, I thought it was going to be me but like always, he was full of surprises.

"Okay get up, no more sulking" Delilah uttered as she walked into the room.

"I'm not sulking. Has Damon reached out to you?" I questioned as I turned to her and she shook her head.

"Of course not but Luca has and he said they'll soon be back. They have accomplished what they went to do" She murmured as she walked over to the bed and sat down.

"Damon said he had a war to win, what did he mean by that?" questioned and she made a zipping motion across her lips.

* can't tell you anything, you can ask him yourself" She muttered and I glared at her before letting o ut a sigh.

"Leave me to sulk, I don't have that strength to leave this room" I murmured and she went quiet for a while.

immediately regretted it when my whole body ached as “Thave a crush on Luca” She hurriedly said and I gasped then hurriedly sat up and in a consequence.

“Are you okay?” Delilah okay?” Delilah questioned as she moved closer to help me sit up.

“You like Luca?” I questioned as I stared at her with wide eyes and she sighed.

“Yeah, I thought it was pretty obvious” She uttered and I shook my head. It wasn’t obvious at all “Why haven’t you made a move then if you like him?” I questioned and she groaned.

“I’ve tried several times but he either brushes it off or tells me straight to my face that he doesn’t see me that way and sees me like a small sister but I know he has some sort of feelings for me” She murmured and I could hear the genuine hurt in her voice.

Delilah and Luca? They were two polar opposite. He was cool while she was loud. That was a good combo though.

“Then why do you think he’s holding back?” I questioned and she scoffed.

“Why else? It’s because of Damon. I’m sure Damon made him promise not to date me and Luca’s loyalty lies with Damon and I get that but I want him so much. Luca is everything a man should be. It was very easy to fall in love with him. Trust me, I’ve tried dating other people to forget him, I’ve even tried searching for my m ate just so I could get rid of these feelings but I just can’t. My feelings for him and genuine, I love him Clara” She revealed and my eyes widened. She loved him?

“If you truly love him and you feel like he has feelings for you then you shouldn’t give up on him. Luca is indeed a good him are hard to see these days” I murmured and she nodded.

all, he's going to become the Alpha king's beta but I don't want Damon finding out. I don't know what he'll do to Luca. I don't want Luca getting in trouble because of me" She uttered then let out a sigh and I placed my hand on her shoulder.

"I don't think Damon would ever want to get in the way of yours and Luca's happiness. He cares about both of you too much to do that but if it makes you feel any better, I can sneakily ask him. He won't suspect a thing, don't worry" I murmured and she grinned.

"That would be perfect, thank you" She uttered and I smiled at her.

"Alpha Damon has arrived!" We suddenly heard someone announce from outside and my eyes widened. He was back? He was really back?!

Without thinking, I jumped out of bed and ignored Delilah who was yelling at me from behind to be careful. I hadn't totally healed yet but at that moment, I couldn't feel any pain. I was just so excited to see Damon.

I got outside of the mansion and stood in front of the door as I watched my perfect husband climb out of his car. Our eyes immediately met and the wife smile that appeared on his face warmed my heart.

He opened his arms wide a forehead then my lips.

and I didn't even hesitate. I ran towards him and he enveloped me in his embrace before placing a kiss on my see you missed me" He pointed out with a smile as he caressed my face.

"Yes, I missed you a whole lot. You didn't pick my y calls I murmured with a pout.

"I'm sorry, I was busy but you were all I could think about. I couldn't wait till I got home to you. How are you feeling, better?" He questioned and I shook my head.

"No, because you left me.

Don't you know the only way I can heal faster is if my mate is close to me?" I murmured and he chuckled before running his nose against mine.

"You are acting cting too cute, little devil. I don't think I can take it" He murmured and I didn't know why his words turned me on but it did and I could feel how wet I was down there.

“What do I do with the intakes, Alpha?” I turned towards the voice and saw Luca standing beside three boys that were handcuffed and held down by a guard and a girl who seemed to have worn herself out by crying. They all looked to be in the same age range as Damon,

“Who are they?” I questioned as I turned back to Damon.

“Oh I forgot to introduce them. What’s your name, girl?” He questioned but the girl didn’t say anything and just kept staring at the ground.

“Her name is Gwen” The one who seemed the most collected out of all of them spoke and the anger in his voice and eyes scared me. What has Damon done to them?

“Gwen is going to be your personal maid from now on. You can do with her as you please while these three men are going to be your personal bodyguards. Your life is their priority and their lives are in your hands” He murmured and I frowned before turning to them.

“But we have enough maids and bodyguards” I uttered and he sighed.

“I heard about what he maids and bodyguards I place to serve you did after what happened between us and I never want that to happen again. This time, their loyalty will be to you, not me. They hate me so I doubt they’ll ever be loyal to me” He muttered nonchalantly and I frowned.

“What did you do to them? Who are they?” I questioned and he shook his head.

“They ar

are nobodies, at least not anymore. Get them settled in and dressed, Luca” He uttered and Luca nodded his head before leading away.

“Who are they? They are too young to be maids and guards, Damon. What did you do to them? I questioned and he grabbed onto my face.

“I spared their life and not only that, they get to work under someone as amazing as you and to me, that seems more like a blessing doesn’t it?” He tried to make light of the whole situation but the looks on their faces suggested otherwise but Damon didn't seem like he was going to tell me.

"Damon..."

"You should be happy that I didn't kill them, I wanted to but I didn't because of you" He murmured while caressing my face with his thumb. I let out a sigh and was about to say something when we heard a loud growl that shook the ground.

Damon wrapped his arms around my waist and pulled me closer and we both stared at his raging father as he stomped his way towards us, I don't think I've ever seen the Alpha King this Angry before.

The power was so overwhelming that I had no other choice but to bow my head and almost even fell to my knees

The Alpha King was unbelievably powerful.

"Damon, what have you done?!" ...
