-DELILAH-

"I said I'm sorry, didn't mean to tell her anything. It just slipped out" I uttered as I followed him from behind but he didn't turn nor acknowledge my presence so I jumped in front of him with my arms wide.

"Can you stop this? I've told you to fucking leave me alone" He muttered through clenched teeth and I frowned.

"No I can't because I love you so I'm not leaving you alone. Please talk to me, you have been ignoring me ever since I blabbed to Clara about the date being a plan. I didn't mean it" I murmured and he sighed.

"You could have ruined everything Delilah. You have no idea how hard Damon is trying to be better for Clara and you would have ruined it all because you can't fucking keep your mouth shut. I shouldn't have told you anything in the first place" He murmured then side stepped me and walked away while I stood there frozen.

"He didn't have to be so mean to me" I murmured then hurriedly wiped away the tears as they slipped down my cheeks.

I cleared my throat and plastered a smile on my face as I walked towards Damon's

"What's up Damon... oh no!" I immediately covered my eyes with my hand as I let out a shriek and tried to remove the image of Damon thrusting into Clara.

"Get out!" Damon yelled and I immediately turned around and ran out of the room and heard the door bang behind me.

I let out a sigh as my hand dropped from my face. Everyone was shutting me out now. What was I supposed to do with myself?

I mindlessly walked down the hall and was about to walk out of Damon's mansion when I spotted Luca from afar talking to the pack whore, Felicia.

I frowned when she placed her hand on his biceps while staring seductively at him. Why wasn't he pushing her away? The audacity she has.

Without thinking, I marched up to them, grabbed her hand and pushed her away so hard that she fell to the ground.

"Ow!" She cried out loudly and I rolled my eyes. Why was she being so dramatic?

"Delilah? Are you out of your fucking mind? Why did you do that?" Kade questioned as he went over to help her up from the ground.

"She was touching you, I thought..."

Delilah and for the record, I don't like you "You thought what? I thought I told you to leave me alone. My business shouldn't concern you and I will never like you the way you want so stop all this nonsense" He muttered with a stern look in his eyes which made me frown.

I glanced between them and the bitch had a smirk on her face before she snuggled closer to him.

"I think I might have broken my wrist" She murmured and without giving me another glance, Luca led her away, leaving me standing there

Others who had heard the commotion had come to watch and I could hear them murmuring about the situation.

"What are you murmuring about? Get back to work!" I yelled and they immediately dispersed while I ran towards my house.

As soon as I got inside, I couldn't stop myself from breaking down in tears. Why was he being so mean to me?

Chapter 91

Maybe I read that signs wrongly? Ice have sworn I thought he shared the same feelings with me so why? Why was he doing this to me?

Maybe it's better I give up to save myself from the heart ache.

"Ughh I need a drink" I murmured then carried myself off the ground and towards my bar.

I didn't know how much I drank but all I know is that I felt super numb afterwards which made everything more bearable.

Soon. I passed out there on the counter and was awakened by someone tapping my shoulder.

"Damn it, how much did you drink Delilah?" my eyes

es shot right open. I knew that voice

e to see him properly but I knew his features by heart.

"What are you doing here, Luca?" I drawled, barely able to s

"You called me and I decided to check up on you. Why did you drink so much?" He questioned. I was about to pick up the bottle of alcohol when he grabbed it from me.

"Awwn give it to me!" I whined and he sighed.

"Why are you drinking so much?" He questioned and I frowned at him.

"Because you're being mean to me despite knowing how much I love you. Did I do anything to you huh? Why do you hate me so much huh? I questioned and he sighed.

"I don't hate you" Ge murmured and I scoffed then tried grabbing the bottle from his hand but he just placed it on the top shelf where my hand couldn't reach.

"You're a party poop... ahh" I shrieked when he picked me up from the stool and carried me bridal style.

"Put me down" I drawled as I pounded my fist on his chest but slowly gave in to his warmth and snuggled closer to his chest. I took a sniff before I could stop myself and like always, he smelled heavenly.

I thought I heard him chuckle but they had to just be the alcohol.

We got to my room and as soon as he placed me on the bed, I began taking off my shirt.

“What are you doing?” He questioned as he grabbed onto my hand and I pouted at him.

“I’m hot, I need air” I murmured then yanked my hand out of his grip and proceeded to strip in front of him while keeping my eyes on him.

I didn’t know if it was the alcohol but I could have sworn I saw desire and lust in Luca’s eyes and for some reason, that made me bolder.

I stood up from the bed and slowly walked towards him.

“Delilah…” He called out in a warning tone but stayed in place. I rubbed my hand down his chest when I got in front of me and when I traced the hem of his pants, he sucked in his breath.

“You like what

t you see don’t you?” I questioned while batting my eyes at him innocently.”

“Delilag, you’re drunk” He murmured and I shook my head.

“I’m not that drunk and I’m aware of what I’m doing. You’re not pushing me away, why?” I questioned while my fingers were still playing with the hem of his pants

“I know exactly what I’m saying. You have no idea how many times I’ve had wet dreams because of you. Fuck me, Luca” I urged before pressing my hand against his hard on. Fuck even from his pants, I found feel how big he was.

He hissed slightly before letting out a groan.

“We can’t do this, Delilah” He murmured and I frowned.

“Why? Because of Damon? He’s not here and I won’t say a word if you don’t” I murmured but he still didn’t seem like he was going to break so I scoffed then rolled my eyes and was about to walk back to my bed when he grabbed my hand, pulled me to him and slammed his lips against mine.

I immediately wrapped my arms around his shoulders as I kissed him back with the same amount of hunger,

“Fuck me, Luca” I urged again again st his lips and he groaned.

“Fuck it” He muttered before picking me up and carrying me to the bed....

Chapter 92

-DELILAH-

My whole body was burning with anticipation as Luca threw me on the bed hurriedly climbed on top of me. I moaned as he leaned down and placed sloppy kisses on my neck. Fuck I wanted this man so much.

I grabbed onto his hand and pressed it against my core which I could feel was already so wet and he hadn’t even done anything yet.

He growled lightly and I moaned as he snuck his fingers underneath my panties and began rubbing on my clit while still kissing my neck.

“Luca” I moaned out his name and he groaned again then thrust two fingers into me and I cried out with pleasure. He wasn’t gentle like I expected him to be. He plunged into me roughly with his fingers, milking me like a cow and I wanted more so with shaky hands, I began to unbutton his shirt while he was still fingering me.

As soon as I was done with the shirt, he pulled his hand away just so he could properly take off the shirt but I couldn’t help but be disappointed till he brought his fingers to his lips and licked my juice off his finger then let out a loud growl and when he stared down at me, I almost choked from the intense lust in his eyes,

He quickly unbuckled his pants and I took that medium to completely take off my clothes till I was bare in front of me. I was very confident in my body.

As a matter of fact, I would walk around naked if it wouldn't make others uncomfortable but at that moment, I was nervous. Was he going to find me attractive

My questions were immediately answered when Luca turned back to me and instantly sucked in his breath.

"You're a goddess" He murmured and before I could react, he slammed his lips on mine while grinding his manhood against my wet core and I moaned lightly.

"Take it off" I managed to say since he was still wearing his boxers.

"Are you sure about this, Delilah? Maybe... This belongs to : ©.

"Oh for fuck sake, I'm already naked now stick your meat into me before I stick it myself" I muttered angrily and he stared at me for a while then laughed and the extreme happiness on his face made me smile.

It has been a while since I saw Luca this carefree, especially with me. He was always so serious and the friendship we once had as a kid was gone but now at this moment, I wasn't going to let anything take this away from me.

I raised my hand and placed my palm on his cheek and he slowly stopped laughing.

"Fuck me, Luca" I murmured while staring into his eyes and in a swift motion, he took off his boxers and slammed into me mercilessly while maintaining eye contact.

My mouth opened wide but no sound came out. I instantly felt so full as pleasure coaxed through my body.

I tried keeping eye contact with him because it felt more intimate but as his thrust got rougher and faster, my eyes began rolling to the back of my head while I moaned and cried out loudly. This intense pleasure, I had never felt before.

"Yes Luca" i muttered through clenched teeth as I placed my hand on his shoulders and he let out a shaky moan before catching one of my nipples in his mouth and sucking on it following the rhythm of his thrust.

I felt like I was on cloud nine. No amount of words could explain how much pleasure I was in, especially when he moaned and groaned into my ear while putting sweet nothings to my ear.

It didn't take long before my whole body shook as I found my release and practically exploded but that didn't stop him from slamming into me although his thrust turned sloppy and the wet sound could be heard from a mile away.

"I love you" The words kept flying out of my mouth as I stared at the pleasure on his face and it didn't take long before he exploded into me and his body almost fully collapsed on mine but he was able to keep some of his weight off me.

We didn't say anything to one another, there was nothing much to say because we had both felt that intense pleasure and our bodies were still relieving it.

Soon, he pushed his body off mine and laid beside me. I wasted no time moving closer to him and snuggling him as closely as I could with a huge smile on my face. I have never felt so happy before and hoped this would open up a new chapter for Luca and I..

It didn't take long for me to fall asleep on his chest but when I woke up the next morning, I reached out and Luca wasn't laying beside me.

I opened my eyes and a smile immediately appeared on my face when I saw him standing facing the door while he dressed up.

I slowly got out of bed, tiptoed over to him and wrapped my arms around his waist.

"Good morning, you could have at least waited for me to wake up. I wanted to wake up with you in bed with me" I murmured and frowned when he grabbed my hands and pulled it away from him.

I stood there with a frown as I stared at his back.

"Yesterday night was a mistake" He uttered and I instantly froze with my eyes wide.

"What are you talking about?" I questioned softly after getting over my initial shock but he didn't reply to me but continued wearing his shoe.

"What do you mean it was a mistake? You and I both felt that intense pleasure, Luca. It wasn't a mistake and you know it" I yelled.

“Well I don’t know how it felt to you but it was to me. Come on, you took off your top in front of me, Delilah. Any man will be seduced by that and you’re not ugly so of course I took advantage of you. It was great sex but...” Before he could finish his words, I turned him around and slapped him hard across the face.

“How dare you?” I questioned softly as tears rolled down my cheeks but he didn’t reply nor turn to me.

“I’m done with you, Luca. Falling in love with you was the biggest mistake I ever made but I’ve learnt my lesson now. You’re just a bastard, a coward and a jerk and I’m done chasing after you. Get out of my house now” I muttered and he gave me one last glance and I tried to see any form of remorse, any guilt, any emotion would have been good but he just stared back at me blankly,

Without saying anything, he wore his other shoe, opened the door and walked out without looking back and I instantly broke down...

CHAPTER 93

Chapter 93 -CLARA- he placed his I slowly blinked my eyes open and was about to climb out of the bed when Damon’s arms tightened around my waist and he head on my breast, snuggling me. “Where are you going baby?” He questioned and my body instantly reacted to his morning voice. It was so deep and husky, I’m not sure anyone was immune to that 11 “I need to pee badly, Damon”t murmured and he groaned before reluctantly letting me go and I immediately got out of the bed and ran to the bathroom. I instantly felt relieved as soon as I was done and I walked back into the bathroom to see Damon leaning on his elbow with his eyes directly on me while he was still in bed “Is it just me or you’re getting extremely lazy and clingy these days?” i murmured as soon as I slowly crawled into the bed. “I’m only lazy because you’re spoiling me with care, Clara, Why won’t I be clingy when I have my love in my y arms? If I could, I would attach you to me” He murmured jokingly but I knew he meant every word. I grinned before placing a kiss on his lips. “Well you’re fully healed now and I can’t baby you anymore. Besides I have a meeting with that little boy’s mother today” I murmured and couldn’t help the frown they appeared on my face. I had given Damon the freedom to search for the little boy’s mother yesterday and Luca announced last night that he had found her and she wanted to see her son. Seeing the frown on my face, Damon grabbed onto my hand and placed a kiss on my cheek. “It’s going to be okay. May I know why you never gave him a name? You only ever called him little boy” He pointed out and I sighed. “Because I knew one day I was going to ultimately have to let him go since he wasn’t really mine and I knew giving him a name would make the more attached to him so I saved myself from thatBelonging to .

heart ache” I murmured and he stared at me for a while then sat up and I didn’t need to be told before I rested my body on him, placing my head on his bare chest and listening to his steady heart beat. "Don't be sad if his mother ultimately takes him away. Just know that you saved him that day and no matter what, I have a feeling he's always going to remember you even if he's still a child. We wolves never forget that easily" He murmured and I giggled. "I'm just glad I got to have the feeling of being a mother for a while. Hopefully we'll get our own child soon" I murmured and he grabbed onto my hand and placed a kiss on it. "For all the sex we have been having, you might already be pregnant" He murmured then I giggled as he began peppering kisses on my face and only stopped when a knock sounded at the door "Come in" Damon murmured then let out a sigh as Luca walked into the room. "I didn't mean to disturb you but we need to leave, Alpha. Everything is ready" Luca announced and I turned to Damon with a questioning it's going on? Are you going somewhere?" questioned and he placed a kiss on my forehead. "Til only be gone a day or two. I have to go pay back the people that tried to hurt you. You don't have to worry about me, I won't let anyone touch me this time" He murmured and I stared into his eyes for a while then sighed. "Be careful" i murmured and we united before hugging me tighter. Chapter 93 Tue, 2 Jul Just then, Delilah walked into the room dressed in a very sy blue gown and sunglasses and he was holding a luggage. 60% "Good morning, I came to speak with Clara" She uttered as she walked up to our bed. I heard Damon groan as I slowly detached myself wy wa "Are you going somewhere?" I questioned and she nodded.

"I'll be gone for a week or so. My friends and I are going to the Bahamas and I just wanted to let you know before I leave" She murmured then opened her arms wide and immediately ran into them "Who gave you the right to go to the Bahamas? Did you take permission from anyone?" Damon questioned and i knew she was rolling her eyes despite the fact that she was wearing sunglasses. -Sorry to burst your bubble but I'm old enough to make decisions on my own and I'm old enough to go anywhere I want" She uttered and he scoffed. "And that's why you keep making stupid decisions and getting yourself in trouble" He murmured and I expected a comeback but she just paused then sighed. "I'm done talking to you. I came here for Clara. I wish you could come with me but my over obsessive and possessive brother won't let you" She uttered "First time you said something smart" Damon murmured behind me and I rolled my eyes. "Well Damon doesn't control me and I might just take you up on your offer" I murmured and like I predicted, Damon wrapped his arms around me and placed his head on my shoulder as he stared up at me. "I won't let you leave me" He murmured. "But you're free to leave me?" I questioned and he pouted. "It's just for a day or two" He uttered and I rolled my eyes. "I'll go with you De "I'll come back tonight" He hurriedly said and I grinned then placed a kiss on his lips. "Ughh I never thought I'd see Damon so.... so. It irks me and makes me want to vomit" Delilah uttered and as if realizing that we were not alone, Damon immediately straightened up as he cleared his throat then turned to glare at them. "Not a word of this to anyone" He muttered and i giggled while Delilah rolled her eyes. "Ughh love, I'm an avid hater right now. See you guys later, I'll send pictures to you Clara. Bye Delilah uttered then was about to walk out the door when Luca spoke "These friends? Do we know them?" He questioned and she scoffed. Jay when Delilah would be so cold to "None of your business" She muttered then walked out of the room and I never thought I'd see the day Luca Did something bad happen between them? Ster's a child, ignore tier" Damon muttered as he climbed out of the bed, oblivious to what i noticed. I turned to Luca and he was avoiding my gaze Something was definitely wrong and i was going to find out one wa vChapter 94 60 -KADE- Clara stared up at me with a frown and I couldn't help but admire how cute she was. Do you really have to go?" She questioned and I chuckled before placing a kiss on her lips. "Yes my love but I promise that I'll be back tonight and I intend to keep that promise" I murmured as I pushed the hair that had fallen over her face behind her ear, "Be careful, okay? if you come back injured this s time, I won't take care of you" She murmured and I chuckled knowing that was a lie. "Steven and Gwen, make sure my wife has all her guards with her today and she goes out. okay?" I ordered sternly and they just bowed their heads at me. You two must follow her w her wherever she goes, I could see that they ey still held hostility towards me but they had warmed up to Clara and that's all that matters. "You worry too much," Clara pointed out and I couldn't help kissing her again. "When it comes to you, I have to because you are always getting yourself into trouble. Don't go ju murmured and she rolled her eyes. jumping into any river this time" | "I don't regret my actions" She murmured and I chuckled. From the curve of my eyes, I saw my parents and Amelia walking towards us and I sighed. Here comes the lecture. "You are leaving My father pointed out the obvious and I gave him a curt nod. "If you're here to give me a lecture then..." Make sure you reach them a good lesson. No one should be allowed to mess with your family" He uttered and I stared at him in shock, wondering if I was hearing things. Clara wrapped her arms around me tightly, bringing me out of the trance I was in and I hugged her back just as tight.

"I'll be cheering you on from here" She murmured and I Chuckled. Even though I won't be needing it, she was too cute to refute, After I was is sure she was going to be okay while I was gone, Luca got into the car with me and the others followed us from behind. "Tell me their current situation" I questioned Luca as we drove out of the pack but I got no reply. I turned to him and found him staring out of the window with a distant look on his face. "Luca" I called loudly this time and he immediately turned to me then cleared his throat apologetically. "I'm sorry, did you say something Alpha?" He questioned and I frowned, "Is something bothering you? You have been acting all gloomy since this morning" I pointed out and he shook his head then flashed me a smile "I was just daydreaming a little, nothing is wrong" He uttered and I sighed. "Then focus, Luca. I asked what their current situation Is." I repeated and he checked his phone before turning to me. "Like you had predicted, they are on the run" Luca uttered and I smirked. 1/3 12:08 Tue, 2 Jul Chapter 94 60% The south didn't know who they were messing with. I was lenient with them before but not anymore. It was time to bring out the death Viper in me and end it quickly so I could go back home and cuddle with my wife. - AUTHOR'S POV- "Do we really have to run? Why can't we just fight him, father?" Alpha Richard turned to his son with a sigh. "Because n no one has ever won against me and I'm not willing to risk anything to find out if we can win. Get owns this.

your things and go to your mother, I'll be right there" He murmured then urged him to leave the house. Alpha Richard gathered all the essentials then left the house and went to meet my family. He couldn't help but relieve that night that he had killed his dearest friend all because the death Viper had tricked him. He won't lie that he had egged on this whole revenge but after a while, he knew it wasn't going to do them any good since not only the death Viper was strong but the entire north could bring the east, west and south down if they wanted to and that was why they were the strongest. The cast has urged them on, lying that they would be behind them every step of the way but yet they refused to grant them refuge but he couldn't blame them. The south had lost a lot due to the other attack they had received from the death Viper. They could barely fend for themselves now. If they were to join the east, they would just be a liability to the east "Alpha Richard" He turned to the voice and saw Alpha Mason walking up to him with his family behind him. "Everyone is ready to leave" Alpha Mason reported and Richard sighed then glanced back at his house before turning back to his family. "Let's go" Before they could take another step, a knife came flying towards them, hitting Mason right in the heart. Mason fell to his knees before his lifeless body fell to the ground. Richard's mother held his son as they all I turned to the source of the knife and wasn't surprised to see Alpha Damon and his men walking towards them and they were all covered in blood, especially Damon. The closer he got, the more their heart thumped in their chest. They were completely unarmed and at that moment, they knew their lives were in Damon's hand. "Tsk tsk, you tried to run after almost having my wife killed? I tried to be lenient and nice last time but it seems you all don't like me being nice. By the way, I already killed everyone I saw on my way here which is why I'm covered in blood. Looks good on me, doesn't it?" He uttered with a manic smile on his face that made Richard's heart drop. His wife immediately fell to her knees as she cried.

"Please have mercy on the children, they had nothing to do with this so please. Have mercy" She pleaded and Richard couldn't help clenching his fist. Why did Damon always have to win? Why did we have to cower in front of him? He was just a regular wolf like all of us so why? "I would have but you all dared come for my wife again despite what happened last time so I'm done being nice. Slaughter all of them and crush their bones while you're at it. I don't want any remains. I want them all exhumed from existence like they ry never existed 20 12:08 Tue, 2 Jul

Chapter 95 -CLARA- I couldn't help tapping my feet anxiously as we waited for the little boy's mother to show up. I was so nervous, I didn't know what to expect or how I was going to react. *Madam Clara, we can't stay here any longer. It's getting dark and there's still no sign of her" Steven pointed out but I didn't want to leave, not yet, I had a feeling she was going to show up and I just wanted to ask her why, why she had felt the need to abandon her child. I stared down at the little boy who was sleeping in my chest with a smile then began caressing his back. Gwen and his nanny had been the one taking care of him while I was busy with Damon. I hadn't even spent enough time with him and now, he might leave me. The sun had already begun to set and we were just about to leave when I heard someone call my name from behind. "Madam Donovan, please wait" I turned to the voice and saw the little boy's mother running towards me. As soon as she saw the boy in my arms, she started crying immediately and even fell to her knees. I wanted to go help her up but she didn't. She stood up some seconds later and sat down on the bench with me. We stayed silent for a while and I could see her staring at the little boy fondly. I didn't want to admit it but she did have that motherly look in her eyes. "What's his name?" Was that the first question I asked and she reluctantly teared her eyes away from the boy and turned to me. "Levi, he's name is Levi" She murmured and I slowly nodded. "Will you explain why you tried to kill your son? Why did you abandon him in the river?" I questioned, heading straight to the point and she shook her head frantically. "It wasn't me, I would never do that. I love my yson" She uttered and I scoffed : ©.

"I saw you leaving..." "Yes I admit you saw me but that was my other personality, Jane. I have dissociative identity disorder. Jane doesn't like has and that's why I try my best to not be around my son when I know I'm about to switch but that day at the park was out of the blue. It just my son, she never happened and I couldn't fight it. After I regained my senses, I tried finding him and actually thought I had killed my son..." She paused as she cried silently and my heart instantly broke for her, "You have Madam Donovan to thank for that. She risked her life trying to save your son" Steven uttered and I turned to him with a glare. it wasn't her fault she had DID. If anything, I felt sorry for her because she knew she wasn't always safe with her son and that has to be the worst thing that can happen to a mother. "Thank you, Madam Donovan. If Beta Luca hadn't reached out to me and told me everything, I would have lived with the guilt of knowing! had killed my only son unknowingly. I cannot thank you enough" She murmured and I pursed my lips before staring down at Levi and a small smile appeared on my lips. "I would do it again in a heartbeat. You have a brilliant son" I pointed out and she chuckled lightly. "He takes after his father" She murmured and I smiled slightly. "His father is still in the picture?" I questioned and she shook her head. "No, my mate died months ago" She told me and I nodded slowly then frowned. So Levi was all she had as a reminder of her mate?i 1/2 bu% 12:08 Tue, 2 Jul Chapter 95 couldn't take that away from her. "As long as you have DID, you know he's not safe with you right?" I questioned softly and she nodded. "I'm going to go get the help I need while he'll be staying with his grandparents in the meantime" She uttered and I frowned. She had thought it all out huh? "Oh, well then" I murmured then forced a smile on my face. "You can take him then I murmured and she wasted no time in taking the little boy from my arms but as soon as she carried him, he woke up and the minute he saw her face, he began to laugh and I could have sworn his eyes had stars in them. He recognized his mother instantly and in that moment, she wished she was a kid that could easily forgive and forget then maybe she would forget about her miscarriage and Levi. I wasted no time in leaving there after giving her everything I had bought for Levi. We got into the car and Steven immediately drove off. The car ride home was quiet, no one dared to speak. I could feel Gwen's worried gaze at the back of my neck but I didn't turn to her because I was afraid if I saw the pity on their faces, I wouldn't be able to hold it back anymore and bawl my eyes out in this car. As soon as we got back to the mansion, I got out of the car and ran in, straight to our room then plopped on the bed and cried my eyes out till I couldn't cry anymore. I tried to call Dahlia and tell her about everything so she would try calming me down but I didn't want to bother her so I opted for sleeping since my body felt weak after all the crying. Later during the night, I felt the bed dip and I didn't need to be told twice to know it was Damon. He got into bed, wrapping his arms around my waist and placing a kiss. "You're Late" i murmured and he sighed. placing a kiss on my cheek. "I'm sorry, I... Before he could complete his sentence, I turned around in his arms and began crying on his chest. "She took him, Damon. He's gone...

CHAPTER 96

Chapter 96 -CLARA- My eyelashes fluttered open and the first thing I saw was Damon's face above mine as he stared down at me with a frown. "How long have you been up?" I questioned and was about to reach out to him when he slapped my hand away. "Ouch, why did you do that?" I questioned with wide eyes, confused by his reaction. "Because you left me" He murmured and I furrowed my eyebrows. "Neft you? What are you talking about?" I asked. "In my dream, you left me for another man" He growled and I snorted then rolled my eyes. "It was just a dream, why are you so serious about it? I have to go pee" I murmured and was about to climb out of the bed when he pulled me to him. "You can't leave me, I won't allow it. You are not allowed to leave me" He uttered and I frowned. "Why are you getting so worked up? It was just a dream, it wasn't real" I pointed out. "It felt real to me, Clara. Everything felt real and I won't allow it. No matter what, you're mine" He murmured and when I saw how serious he was and how all the usual playfulness in his eyes had disappeared, I knew this was no joking matter. This dream really shook him. is face with both hands and stared into his eyes. I grabbed onto his "It was just a dream, I'm still here aren't I? I'm not going anywhere, okay?" We stayed in each other's arms for a while and I couldn't help but wonder what I had done in his dream that bothered him this. After that, we went to have a bath so we could start our day but ended up spending up to two hours in there because Damon couldn't keep his hands to himself. He poured all his emotions into f g me that after we were done, I could barely feel in between my legs. I wasn't complaining though. That whole day, Damon was clingier than usual. He wanted to be by my side all the time, so much so that I had to follow Luca and him to his company. He made me sit next to him while he was having his meeting with his board of directors and from time to time, he stopped listening just focused all his attention on me and kept asking if I was okay or if I was

"What's going on with you?" I questioned and he blinked his eyes innocently at me. "What are you talking about?" He questioned.

"You have been extra clingy to me today. What's that about?" I questioned and he feigned ignorance. "I don't know what you're talking about" He uttered and I groaned before turning to Luca who was standing behind Damon. "Can you please explain to him how he has been acting all day?" I asked Luca and he sighed. "Not to be rude but you have been acting like an obsessive puppy, even more obsessive than usual" Luca pointed out. "Don't fg speak, this is between me and my wife" He growled and Luca held up his hand in surrender while I gasped at Damon. "Why are you being mean to him? I asked him a question. You're unbelievable" I murmured and was about to walk past him but Damon just grabbed onto my waist and pulled me closer. "You're mad at me. Is it bad to be so in love with my wife? I'm obsessed with you, Clara and it grows more and more each day. If I had my way, I'd have you attached to me" He revealed and I sighed before turning around in his arms. "Are you acting this way because of the dream you had? Why does it bother you so much? What exactly did you see?" I questioned. "Because it felt real," He argued. "But it isn't, I'm right here, aren't I?" I questioned and he sighed. "Clara... "Why are you so bothered? Who did you see me with?" I urged. "Let's just drop it, I don't want to talk about it" He murmured. "Damon..." "Clara drop it!" He yelled and his eyes immediately softened when he realized he had yelled at me. It was obvious whatever dream he had was bothering him seriously but how could I reassure him if I didn't know why it was bothering him so much. "Tell me why it bothers you so much" I murmured softly and he sighed. "Promise me you won't get mad" He uttered and I frowned. Why would I be mad? "I won't. My arms tightened around her when a frown appeared on her face. I wasn't dumb, I knew she wouldn't like it if I mentioned another girl. and I know if I told her why the dream was really bugging me, she'd want a full explanation and I didn't know if I was ready to give her that.

"How many women have you kept close?" She questioned and I smiled before interlocking my fingers with hers.

"They don't matter because you're the only one I've ever loved and want by my side forever" I murmured while staring into her eyes so she could see how sincere I was.

A beautiful smile appeared on her face and she leaned down, placing a kiss on my lips.

"You and your brother, did you both have a fall out over a girl?" She questioned and I stared at her before nodding.

"My brother is my mortal enemy so we weren't on talking terms before they happened. The girl involved wasn't just close to me, she was my best friend. She helped me with a lot of stuff and besides Luca, she was the only one I felt comfortable with and..." I paused when I suddenly felt Clara's Aura change.

“Are you okay?” I questioned as I grabbed onto her face and she frowned.

“It seems you had a lot of connection with that girl. Are you sure you didn’t love her?” She questioned and I frowned.

“Clara I didn’t even know what love was until I met you. If you’re not comfortable about talking about her then...”

“No I’m sorry, my jealousy got the best of me. My wolf doesn’t like hearing that another girl was your best friend but I’m okay now, I want to hear the full story” She murmured and I placed a kiss on her lips.

“I and my wolf belong to you and your wolf, okay? Nothing can change that” I murmured and she smiled,

“What did your brother do to this girl? I heard from Delilah that you both found standing over her dead body and you were holding a knife in your hand” She revealed and I nodded slowly.

“My brother raped her to spite me” I revealed and she gasped as her eyes widened.

“I had heard her screaming but I was already too late when I walked in, they were both naked and she had bruises all over her body. She begged me that she couldn’t stay in the pack anymore because she didn’t want to be near my brother. I didn’t want to let her go but she really wanted and she couldn’t just leave without a reasonable explanation, my father would have never let her. She was the greatest herbalist in the pack if not in the world, she was a gem so we staged her death and I took the fall for it because no one would date question me since everyone was afraid of me then. After that, I told my brother to leave and threatened him to never step foot in the pack for as long as I lived” I explained and she looked really interested.

“So she’s not dead? And your parents let you banish your brother just like that?” She questioned and I nodded.

“She’s not but I have no idea where she is and I have no idea where my brother is either. My parents tried to fight against it but my brother wanted to leave so he left and never turned back” I explained and she whistled.

“That’s a whole damn story. Delilah said you used to be close to your brother” She murmured and I nodded.

“Yes but a lot of things happened along the way. Anyway, I just don’t want you anywhere around my brother. If in the near future my brother happens to come back, stay away from him, okay?” I murmured and she nodded.

“Okay” After cuddling with her for a while, she sat back down on her seat and called Luca and the driver back. They got into the car and we wasted no time getting to the Mansion.

I let out a groan when I saw my father standing in front of my house.

We got out of the car and I held onto Clara’s hand as soon as she was close enough before she walked towards the house.

“Wait inside for me, I need to talk to my father” I murmured then placed a kiss on her cheek. She nodded then bowed her head at my father before walking into the house.

“She still hates me, doesn’t she?” He questioned and I nodded.

“I mean you did have her mate imprisoned” I murmured and he chuckled.

“If only she knew how thick headed and thick skinned you were, she wouldn’t have cared that much. Anyway we need to discuss, come with me to my study” He offered and I shook my head.

“I want to be with my wife” I uttered and he rolled his eyes.

“Oh please I’m not asking you to go on a vacation with me, besides your mother is in there. She wants to talk to your wife. She still feels bad for how she treated Clara that time and can’t seem to get over it so we should let the women discuss while we discuss” He suggested and I pursed my lips.

I was about to go with him when we heard a thud followed by Clara’s scream.

Without wasting a second, I ran into the house and saw Clara standing over my mother’s unconscious body.

“Darling” My father yelled as he ran towards my mother and carried her in his arms. I walked towards Clara and pulled her to my chest.

“What happened?” I questioned while I watched as my father hurriedly carried my mother out of the house.

Chapter 98 -CLARA- Σ 59% 1 I sat down next to Damon and drew reassuring circles on the back of his palm with my head on his shoulder as we waited for a verdict on his mother’s sudden unconsciousness. She was being treated by the house doctor who I came to realize stayed in the Alpha King’s mansion. “I’m okay, Clara,” Damon murmured, then smiled before placing a kiss on my lips. “It’s okay if you’re worried, Damon. I know you care” I murmured back and he pursed his lips then said nothing after that. “Where’s mother?!” I turned towards the voice and saw Delilah walking into the house with her luggage being dragged behind her. I didn’t miss the way Luca was about to get up from his seat and go to her but he was able to control himself She walked towards us and I immediately stood up to hug her. “How’s my mother? Is she okay?” She questioned and I sighed. “Your father hasn’t come out of the room yet and neither has the doctor. We are still waiting for the verdict” I replied and she sighed as we pulled away from the hug “You said she fainted just like that?” She questioned me and I nodded. With the way she exchanged glances with Damon, that indicated that this had happened before. “You don’t think...” Before Delilah could complete her sentence, the doctor and the Alpha King walked out of the room and with the solemn look on the Alpha King’s face, whatever was about to be said wasn’t going to be good, “Your mother has relapsed” The Alpha King uttered and Delilah gasped while Damon stayed quiet although I saw the way he clenched his jaw. “So what now? Can you help her?” Delilah questioned the doctor who shook his head with a sigh.

“I’m just a doctor, I don’t create herbs or medicine that can help her case. I’ll do everything in my power to help as much as I can. If you’ll excuse me, I’ll go get some of my equipment back at the hospital” The doctor uttered then bowed his head at everyone before walking away. “What do we do? Where can we find an herbalist that can help her? The only person that could was Alicia and...” Delilah suddenly stopped talking then turned to Damon who was staring at the ground. Everything suddenly started clicking into place. That girl Damon and his brother had fought over was Alicia and the reason why they had to take her death was because the Alpha King, would have never let her go because she was busy treating the Queen Luna. “I’ll find an herbalist” Damon muttered then stood up from the couch and was about to walk away when I spoke up. “I can treat her” I uttered and they all immediately turned to me. They all had a surprised f k on their face as they stared at me. “You... you can?” Damon questioned a little unsurely and I nodded. "I used to treat a lot of sick wolves back in my old pack. I even treated the Alpha but he ultimately died because his sickness was incurable" I told them and Damon marched up to me and grabbed my hands. "Why hadn't you told me this before? He questioned and I shrugged. 1/3 12:09 Tue, 2 Jul Chapter 98 "Didn't see the need to. I'm willing to help in whatever way I can" I murmured and he smiled at me. "Are you sure about this? curable. We just haven't found the right herb or medicine but I believe in you, Clara" Damon murmured then leaned in and placed a kiss on my lips. "Where do you keep your herbs and can you tell me what symptoms she has? Take me back to the first time she discovered she was sick" I murmured and the Alpha King was the one who told me the story instead and I realized how serious her sickness actually was. Apparently she had it even before she got pregnant with Damon, After hearing all about the sickness, I was taken to a storage room where all their herbs were kept and I couldn't help but gasp in awe at all the unique and rare herbs they had. What did I expect anyway? This was the Alpha king's herbs' storage room, of course he had everything. "I can make the medicine, I've seen all the herbs I need" I murmured as I turned back to them and the Alpha King nodded. "How soon can you start the treatment?" He questioned. "As soon as I'm done making the medicine, the treatment starts" I uttered and he nodded before walking towards me and grabbing my hand. "If you end up healing my wife, not only I but the entire wolf clan would be indebted to you The Alpha King uttered and I smiled slightly then watched as he walked away, probably going to be by his wife's side, then turned to Damon who had a proud smile on his face. He opened his arms wide and I immediately ran into it. "You have many talents, Clara. I would have never guessed you knew how to make medicine" Delilah muttered and I shrugged. "I dabbled in it because I didn't want to feel indebted to anyone although I got hated on because of it though. Many people called me a nerd and made fun of me I murmured and she scoffed. "They were just jealous. I wish I could concoct medicine. How cool would I have been but then again, I can't be too perfect, can I? I'll go home and drop my luggage then be right back to watch you, okay?" Delilah uttered then blew me a kiss before walking away and I noticed the way Luca slipped away and followed her. "I know you're going to make me proud, Clara and I'll be with you every step of the way. I'll be your little assistant" He volunteered and I snorted "Nothing about you is little" I murmured and he grinned. "And that's why you love me "Unfortunately"...Original from .

“Why are you following me? Delilah questioned as she turned around and glared at me. We were standing directly in front of her house.

“I wanted to make sure you got home safely I murmured, not really knowing what excuse to give. Was it wrong to say that I missed her? Fuck, I missed her so damn much.

“Exactly, we used to be close but I don't want to be close to you anymore because I don't want to ever feel the way you made me feel that day” She murmured and I frowned. I tried reaching out to her but she moved away and in the process, her phone fell down and immediately, her phone started ringing.

When I saw the caller ID, my whole body began to boil. Why the fuck did it say boyfriend on her phone?

She immediately picked it up then pressed it to her ear

“Baby” She called out and I was sure the sour look on my face could not be hidden but she wasn't staring at me. She was so engrossed in her call that she had totally forgotten about me.

“I miss you princess, when are you coming to visit me?” I heard the guy's voice from the other side of the phone and my face turned sdur.

“Hey what’s wrong with you?! Give me my phone right now! She yelled and tried to take it from me but I held it over my head and she was too short to reach it.

“Does Damon know you have a boyfriend?” I questioned and she scoffed.

-Unlike you, my brother doesn’t control my life now, hand it over” She yelled then jumped as she tried to reach it and all I could stare at were her boobs as it bounced. Fuck, I still remembered how soft and plump they were.

Because of how distracted I was, she was able to drag the phone out of my hand and she huff then threw a glare at me before pressing the phone against her ear.

“I’m sorry, a man I don’t know grabbed the phone. I have no idea why he’s being so nosy” She muttered then glared at me before unlocking the door and walking inside.

She was about to bang the door in my face but I was quick and was able to maneuver my way in.

“Hold on, I’ll call you later baby” She murmured into her phone then hung up before turning to me.

“Can I help you? Why are you in my house?” She questioned and I frowned.

“You know what, I’m tired and when you’re tired, you’ll leave. I would have told you to turn around but you have seen all of it before so no need” She murmured then began taking off her clothes and I sucked in my breath as I watched her.

I was convinced that Delilah didn’t know how sexy and beautiful she was. I haven’t been able to get her and her body out of my mind ever since that night. Hell, I’ve nutted to just the memory.

I knew I would get even more obsessed with her if I had tasted her and that’s why I tried my hardest not to give in to her advances. We couldn’t work out, we weren’t meant to be together.

“Has he touched you?” I questioned and she frowned.

“What are you talking about? Get out” She ordered but I just grabbed her by the face and pushed her against the wall, not minding to be gentle and I guess that turned her on because despite the strong fragrance of her soap, her arousal instantly hit my nose.

“Has he fucked you?” I rephrased my question and she stared into my eyes then glared at me.

“And if he has? What exactly are you going to do?” She questioned and I let out a growl.

“You bastard. Get out, I don’t want to see you, Why are you still fucking here?! Get out!” She screamed then stopped when I grabbed onto her wrist

“That night wasn’t a mistake. You and I both know what we felt. It was magical and every second of the day, all I can think of is how perfectly you and I fit” I murmured and something flashed in her eyes but it was gone in a flash.

What I think about is that “I don’t believe you. I’m just easy sex to you and you’re trying to get into my pants again” She murmured and I sighed.

“I won’t deny the fact that I want to fuck you again. Hell, that’s all I’ve been able to think about but I’m not lying to you. This time, I’m being genuine” I murmured and she stared into my eyes for a while then frowned.

“How do I know if you’re being genuine now?” She questioned and I grabbed onto her face with a small smile on my face.

“Look into my eyes, don’t you see how genuine I am?” I questioned and she stared into my eyes for a while then let out a sigh.

“Then why? Why have you been so mean to me?” She questioned and I sighed.

“Damon will never agree to this. He would rather kill me than have me date you” I murmured and she scoffed.

“Why does he have to dictate for you? Control you? You and I are old enough to know what we want” She uttered and I sighed.

“It is that simple, you just don’t want to go against Damon” She pointed out and I sighed.

“My loyalty stands with him and he’s afraid that if I start dating you, I’m going to neglect my duties and him because of you” I explained and she scoffed.
