

Chapter 150 Dominant?

Chapter-150

AMALTHEA'S POV

"Yeah? How did you catch him? I mean, yes, you did a good job. But I thought you lost him. So how?" I asked Throb as I sat on my bed and Augustus walked inside the room with a questioning look on his face.

"Who are you talking to?" Augustus mouthed to me and I shook my head as he came to me and sat beside me before pushing me onto the bed.

"I had indeed lost him because I couldn't follow his smell or see his footsteps. I ran in that direction randomly. First, I had thought that he would run to the area from where we entered because it was the easiest exit, but then I felt like something was wrong," Throb said and I hummed when Augustus pecked my neck softly, making me clear my throat as I looked at him with disbelief.

"It looked like he also thought that I would be going for the obvious path, but I have been with him for so long that I knew he would choose a different path. That's why I went towards a different exit and caught up to him eventually. He is locked up in the other room of the hotel I am staying in, but I hope you know the hotel regulations," Throb trailed off and I hummed before biting my lips.

"Don't worry about it. I'll come and get that bas*ard soon. Maybe by tonight. I need you to come with me to Black blood pack too. Are you going to come?" I asked Throb with great difficulty as Augustus snuggled his hand under my waist before pulling me on him, making me breathless.

"What?" I asked with raised brows and he made a kissing face at me, making my cheeks turn a bit hotter.

"Will it be fun?" Throb asked me and I hummed.

"I am not sure about it," I said in a dazed tone when Augustus massaged my belly, making me bite my lips again as I sighed at him.

"Well, is there something in your life that is not fun? I'll join, I guess," Throb said and I hummed before ending the call.

Looking at Augustus, I glared at him and he just pulled me closer to himself.

"I missed you," He said before kissing my lips and then departing, leaving me for more.

"If you miss me so much, can you kiss me more?" I asked and he grinned before placing me on the bed and coming over to me.

"How can I deny any demand from my queen?" He said before dipping his head and capturing my lips with his lips as his hands started to travel around my body, making me muddle-headed.

"Augustus, I need to leave for the Black blood pack after a few minutes. I might have to -" I couldn't speak anymore as he captured my lips again.

"Just for a few minutes, forget all your worries and just look into my eyes and feel what I am feeling for you. Let all your worries be free. Trust the process. Just like how you controlled the mob of so many shapeshifters, I am sure you'll have everything in control," He said before pecking my forehead and I placed my hand on his cheeks as I looked into his eyes.

"I will, Augustus. You are indeed my peace. Where will I go if I do not feel my solace and peace with you?" I asked as I hugged him.

"Why are you acting so all lovey-dovey? That's not the only thing I am here for," Augustus said as he placed his mouth on my mark before sucking the spot, making me gasp as I curled my toes.

"Augustus, what are you -" the rest of the words stuck in my throat as a moan escaped my lips, making me arch my back when he suddenly sucked my br*ast from above my top.

"Shhhhh, let me please you, my queen. I know it has been hard for you today and I want you to relax in my arms. You said I am your solace and peace, right? Let me take away your fatigue and help you release all the stress building up here and here," Augustus said as he pecked my forehead before pecking my breast and then placing his mouth right over my abdomen.

"Let me help you, baby," he said as he looked at me with that Predatory gaze that I noticed for the first time.

I don't know why, but it felt like he was a completely different personality right now.

"Augustus?" I asked and he hummed before looking at me more intensely, his eyes undressing me slowly, making me feel wet as they held a promise of what he wanted to do to me.

"Yes, my love?" He asked me after a few seconds and I quirked my brows at him.

"Are you by any chance into dominant and submissive kind of thing?" I asked and as if I unravelled something great, he raised his brows before slowly coming up again, like a predator inching closer to his prey.

"Yes, I am, sweetheart. Do you have a problem with being my submissive?" He asked as he looked into my eyes, drowning me like an intoxicating wine that I want to drink again and again.

"I am not the submissive type," I mumbled and he smiled while looking into my eyes as he separated my legs before turning me around and spanking my bum cheeks, making me widen my eyes as a whimper left my mouth.

"Do you or do you not like it?" He asked me as he spanked me again and as much as I wanted to say no to him, and know that I would've torn apart any person who would've tried to do that to me, for some reason, when it was Augustus's hand, I wanted to feel more of it.

"I don't," I lied through my teeth as I felt a bit embarrassed about it.

"You are lying," he said after a while and I gritted my teeth when he turned me around and immediately tied my hands on the headboard, making me look at him with disbelief.

"What are you doing, Augustus?" I asked and he smirked at me.

"Just relax. Do you trust me?" He asked and I nodded.

"More than my life," I said and he smiled before pecking my forehead again.

"That's all I need to know," he said and before I could say anything else, he took off my shorts and panties in a single go, making me exposed to himself.

"Already wet. Just like how I want," He said before pressing his finger right above my abdomen as he trailed his finger down on my inner things, making me clear my throat as I cleared my throat again.

"Augustus," I said and he looked up before smirking as he came over to me and unclasped my bra.

"You are so beautiful, my love. I don't think I'll ever get enough of you," he said before grabbing my bosom as he started going down with his kisses, making me bit my lower lip as I arched my back to him.

I don't even know if I was just turned on or was giving him better access and my consent to do that to me. It felt so good that it was harder to concentrate on anything as his large hands were doing wonders on my body.
