Hearing Anos's words, Emily's face stiffened, but, sensing his newfound influence, she quickly masked her reaction with a graceful smile. She assumed that Anos's apparent admiration for her meant he was still captivated.

Softly, she hushed him, brushing off his jab. "It's just minor, darling. Really, nothing to fret over." Then she looked at him warmly, her eyes glimmering with an eager sparkle. "I can look any way you like."

Anos's brow arched. "... ..."

Inwardly, he couldn't help but scoff. It seemed that in these few years, Emily had indeed perfected the art of the "innocent facade."

He put on an easygoing smile. "Well, sounds good. By the way, I'm starving. Let's get something to eat."

"Alright."

Throughout the meal, Anos barely listened to her chatter. His mind was elsewhere, fully focused on the system's mission and how he might bring it to completion.

When they were nearly finished, Anos snapped his fingers and called for the waiter. "Check, please."

The waiter approached, holding a small device. "The total is 1,300 dollars."

With a smirk, Anos produced his card and handed it over, casually leaning back as if it were no big deal. He shot a mysterious look at Emily and said, "I'll be giving you a surprise soon."

Emily's eyes sparkled. A surprise? Her heart raced. What kind of surprise?

A second later, the device beeped. The waiter glanced at Anos, hesitating. "I'm sorry, sir. It seems your card balance is insufficient."

The smug look on Anos's face only deepened as he looked at her with mock innocence. "How's that for a surprise? Card's empty! Not a penny in it!" He then pulled out his wallet and made a show of shaking it, revealing it was equally barren. "Not a single bill! What do you say?"

Emily's jaw dropped.

"Seriously?!" she muttered under her breath, barely able to keep her composure. But she forced a stiff smile and took a deep breath. He's testing me, she reminded herself. He must be. After all, she had hurt him before. Surely, he was seeing if she could be patient now.

"It's okay," she managed to say, hiding her frustration as she handed her own card to the waiter.

Anos pocketed his empty wallet, putting on an exaggeratedly remorseful expression. "I really am sorry," he said smoothly. "Honestly, I'm surprised there's no money on my card. I was just joking, but... turns out I was the one who got surprised! My sister always said a man should keep life full of surprises for a girl."

"Yes... I understand." Emily forced a tight-lipped smile, accepting the returned card after the payment cleared.

Finishing the meal, Anos glanced at her. "How about I give you a ride home?"

"Thank you."

As they exited the restaurant, Emily's previous irritation quickly faded when she saw Anos open the door to a sleek, black Mercedes-Benz. Her hopes reignited. He's wealthy, she thought, reassured. Of course, he must've just been teasing me back there.

Once seated in the car, Emily looked around approvingly. "Is this your car?" she asked, her voice tinged with admiration.

Anos just chuckled. "One of them. I have a few at home that are even more comfortable."

A short drive later, they arrived at a gated community.

Emily lingered, hesitating as she unbuckled her seatbelt. She seemed to be waiting for something... perhaps an invitation to stay, or at least a hint that he wanted more time with her. Just as she was about to open the door, Anos interrupted.

"Hold on! I've got a surprise for you!" he exclaimed, his voice brimming with enthusiasm.

Emily's heart leapt. She turned, eyes wide with anticipation. "Oh?"

Anos leaned forward, fiddling with a device on the dashboard. A moment later, a soft whirring sound filled the car. "Thank you for riding with Flower City Taxi," a recorded female voice announced. "The total for your trip is 49 dollars."

Anos peeled the printed receipt from the machine, handing it to her with a mischievous grin. "Total's 49 dollars."

Ding... Successfully pranked Emily. Scumbag Points +10,000. Mission progress: 90%.

Emily froze, her eyes flicking between him and the receipt. An angry flush rose in her cheeks.

"Anos, you're messing with me!" she snapped, barely holding back her temper.

"Surprise! You didn't expect that, did you?" He looked entirely too pleased with himself.

With a huff, she slapped a 100-dollar bill into his hand before storming out of the car and slamming the door shut.

"Wait!" Anos called, dashing out of the car and intercepting her. Emily turned back, bewildered as his intense gaze locked onto hers, and he leaned in close, closing the distance between them.

He's going to kiss me... she thought, her heart racing. She closed her eyes, imagining the glamorous life that would follow. If he kisses me, it's fate—my life of luxury starts now!

But just as his breath tickled her face, Anos stopped abruptly. "Wow! You really put on a lot of powder. I can see it flying off in the wind! You'd better be careful, or you'll be blamed for the smog!"

Emily's eyes flew open, her expression shifting from hope to pure fury.

"Bastard! Jerk! You...!"

She raised her hand to slap him, but Anos stepped back just in time, dodging her swipe with ease.

"Just you wait, Anos!" she fumed. "I'll remember this!"

Ding... Congratulations! Mission completed. Reward: Scumbag Value +10,000. Target [Emily] is identified as a scumbag. Random special effect: Target's appearance altered—5% chest reduction. Would you like to use it?

A wide grin spread across Anos's face. For a fake, this is just perfect. Absolutely, yes!

The familiar golden light shimmered faintly around him as he activated the effect. Ten seconds later, he felt a rush of new strength coursing through his body—a power he hadn't felt since he was reborn.

Ding... Your realm has increased to Elemental Foundation Realm, Stage-One. Strength +100, Speed +100, Agility +100, Defense +100.

An information panel appeared in front of him.

Spirit: 125

Spiritual Energy: 250

Talent: None

Martial Skills: None

As he read through the new stats, Anos felt the spiritual energy flowing freely within him, a sensation that was both empowering and exhilarating.

The world of Horizon Down was his now—filled with advanced technology, ancient creatures, and boundless potential. But while most humans here practiced martial arts through their "God's Blessing System," which recorded and enhanced their talents, Anos had found something even better.

The [Scumbag System] offered him rewards far beyond anything conventional, unlocking a future he could bend to his will.

Smiling, Anos opened his system's store, eager to see what new opportunities awaited him.

**Experience Fruit**: Eating the Experience Fruit will increase your experience points by 1000. Cost: 100,000 Scumbag Points.

**Spirit Cultivation Fluid**: Increases Spirit by 10 after consumption. The first three consumptions have 100% effect. After the third consumption, the effect decreases by 50%. Cost: 300,000 Scumbag Points.

**Physique Transformation Fluid**: Strengthens physique. Increases Vitality by 10 after consumption. The first three consumptions have 100% effect. After the third consumption, the effect decreases by 50%. Cost: 500,000 Scumbag Points.

**Attribute Exchange**: Can be exchanged for Strength, Vitality, Agility, or Spirit. Any attribute will increase by 100% for 1 minute. Cost: 50,000 Scumbag Points. The same attribute cannot be stacked.

These were the only items in the system store, but each one was incredibly effective for Anos! The Experience Fruit was what Anos desired the most. One Experience Fruit could increase his experience points by 1000. In other words, he only needed three Experience Fruits to enter the Spirit Condensation Realm!

While others had to desperately kill monsters to level up, he only needed enough Scumbag Points to exchange for it!

As for the Attribute Exchange, it was like a cheat code. For example, if he directly exchanged for Strength and increased it by 100%, he would be invincible!

Anos had been flirting with girls for the past two days. In addition to Emily Roy's mission, he had accumulated 310,000 Scumbag Points. In the next moment, he made his decision.

"Ding... You have successfully exchanged for [Experience Fruit] x3."

Anos was slightly taken aback when he saw the three fruits that resembled cherry tomatoes in his hand. Then, he put them into his mouth. Surprisingly, the Experience Fruit flowed into his body like a warm current the moment it entered his mouth. A comfortable and warm sensation spread through his entire body.

"Ding... You have consumed the Experience Fruit. Experience +1000."

"Ding... You have consumed..."

"Ding... Your realm has increased to the Spirit Condensation Realm."

A One-star realm was achieved with just three fruits! Anos felt as if a lifetime had passed as he felt the power in his body increase exponentially once again. His muscles tightened, his senses sharpened, and his energy surged. It was as if he had been reborn.

God may have closed a door for him, but at the same time, He opened another door in form of a window! Anos's cultivation door had been closed, but now his window had been opened. Moreover, it was a window many times wider than the door!

There was also a big wheel in the system store. Anos didn't know what it was, but it was worth 500,000 Scumbag Points! There were too many items, so he had never used them! But he was looking forward to it.

"From now on, I, Anos Voldigoad, am no longer a cripple!"

Anos would never forget how he died. Three years ago on Earth, Anos and his beloved Eva Frost were chased to the Heart-Burying Cliff by the Voldigoad Family, the Frost Family, and the Dankworth family. These three families were all ancient cultivation sects in Central Plain. Anos was born with terminated meridians and was unable to cultivate.

His parents died because of a scheme, and he was ostracized, ridiculed, and chased out of the family.

He would never forget Eva's heart-wrenching cries as she was forcefully taken away by the Frost Family. He would never forget Michael Dankworth from the Dankworth Family, who had always coveted Eva. He would never forget that Michael was the one who personally crushed his meridians and threw him into the abyss!

Now, with his newfound power, Anos vowed to reclaim everything he had lost and exact his revenge on those who had wronged him. The path ahead was fraught with danger, but Anos was no longer the helpless boy he once was. He was ready to face whatever challenges lay ahead.

After reincarnating, Anos thought that he was not destined to die. However, without the God's Blessing System on Planet "Horizon Down", he despaired! Three years passed in a daze! Until now, he had transformed! He could cultivate! It was said that once he cultivated to the hundredth level of the Heavenly Dao Realm, he would be able to shatter the void.

He wanted to shatter the void and return to Earth to take back everything he had lost. He wanted to sacrifice those who deserved to die!

In this life, he wanted to be the Heavenly Dao Realm expert! The system had given him the qualifications! And all of this was buried deep in Anos's heart, never to be forgotten!

When he returned home, Luna was in the middle of cooking dinner with an apron wrapped around her. Their house had three bedrooms and one living room. In a city like Flower City, it would have cost quite a bit in this era.

In this era, demon beasts were everywhere. Planet " Horizon Down " was divided into five countries. Anos lived in Wind Nation. Out of the six hundred cities in Wind Nation, half of them had already become demon beasts' territory. The human population had been greatly reduced. Now, there was a powerful barrier around the cities.

Generally, demon beasts would not enter, so it was quite safe. On Planet " Horizon Down " , there was only one thing that was revered — strength was everything!

"Coming." Luna wiped her hands and walked out of the kitchen with a bowl of soup. There were already several dishes on the table, all of which were Anos's favorites.

Anos picked up a piece of meat and put it in his mouth. Then, he said with satisfaction,

"Little Fairy, your cooking is getting better and better."

Little Fairy was the name Anos used exclusively for Luna. At first, Luna rejected it, but after getting used to it, she followed along with Anos.

Actually, Luna was very curious about Anos's change. A few days ago, Anos was still as muddle-headed as before. But suddenly, he changed. He became fond of joking around. It was as if he had become a completely different person! But slowly, she felt that perhaps Anos had thought things through.

This was really good! Actually, the muddle-headed state was because Anos was still unable to cultivate after coming here. The change was because he had obtained the system. He had obtained the qualifications to cultivate. His world had lit up!

Luna rolled her eyes at Anos, as if she was used to his behavior. Then, she asked, "How was the blind date?"

Anos wiped his hands and rolled his eyes, "Don't mention it. I say, what kind of taste do you have? Her face is full of hyaluronic acid and fake body. I don't even know what she looks like now. Even the powder is a centimeter thick. You want to find someone like that to be my blind date partner?"

I say, Little Fairy, your taste is really bad. It's far worse than mine."

'Ding ... Successfully teased Luna. Scumbag Man Points + 10000.'

What made Anos surprised was that this was possible? She was his elder sister! But thinking about it, they were not related by blood. Naturally, it could be triggered!

"Hehe!"

A vulgar thought appeared in Anos's mind.

"It can't be? Plastic surgery? My friend introduced her to me. I thought she would be very good." Luna's beautiful face was a bit embarrassed.

Anos rubbed his chin and muttered, "But actually, she has her advantages."

"What advantages?"

"Her breasts are bigger than yours. Her butt is more perky than yours."

'Ding ... Successfully teased Luna. Scumbag Man Points + 10000.'

Luna was stunned. Then, she walked over and pinched Anos's ear. She gritted her teeth and pretended to be angry, "Say that again."

"Ouch, ouch, ouch. Little Fairy, be gentle. I'm just joking."

Luna obviously couldn't bear to use force. Then, she let go of Anos. She also knew that Anos was just joking. She was very confident in her appearance and figure.

"Hurry and wash your hands and eat." Luna said and walked to the kitchen. Then, she heard Anos's muttering behind her, "People who don't know would think that she's an ice goddess. Actually, she's very violent."

'Ding ... Successfully teased Luna. Scumbag Man Points + 10000.'

Luna took a deep breath and walked into the kitchen.

Anos often teased Luna. Luna was already used to it.

When they were eating, Anos said, "Oh right, Little Fairy, there's something I need to tell you."

"Don't talk when eating." Luna said and ate her rice in small bites.

Anos paused for a bit before continuing, "That ... I can cultivate."

Hearing Anos's words, Luna's body trembled. She stared at Anos.

"What? Did you just say that you can cultivate? What's going on? Didn't you not have the God's Blessing System? Did you get it?"

A series of questions came out of Luna's mouth.

She knew that this was Anos's greatest pain. It was also where her heart ached the most. She wanted to help Anos, but she couldn't. Especially for a man, not being able to cultivate was very lowly in this era where strength was respected. But Anos suddenly said that he could cultivate. How could Luna not be shocked and excited?

Anos picked up his bowl and calmly ate a mouthful of rice. Then, he slowly said, "Don't talk when eating. Little Fairy, you talk too much."

Luna's head was filled with black lines.

'Ding ... Successfully teased Luna. Scumbag Man Points + 10000.'

"Go to hell! Don't talk when you eat or sleep! Tell me! What's going on!"

In the outside world, Luna was indeed the Ice Goddess. But she would only show her violent and gentle personality to Anos.

Anos smiled and said, "I randomly got the God's Blessing System. I don't know why."

Anos wouldn't tell Luna about the Scumbag System. It wasn't that he didn't trust Luna, but he didn't know how to explain it. He might as well just say that he got the God's Blessing System.

"That's great. I'll go open a bottle of champagne to celebrate." Luna smiled and quickly got up.

"I still have school tomorrow."

Luna rolled her eyes at Anos. "Everyone has a girlfriend in university. What about you? You still have the nerve to say that you're going to school?"

Anos: "..."

After eating, Anos returned to his room. He lay on his bed and looked at the night sky outside the window.

Now that he could cultivate, his biggest goal was to cultivate to the highest level and become a powerful being. Then he could step through the void and return to Earth! But before that, he had one more thing to do on Planet Horizon Down! It was about Luna!

Anos had been reborn three years ago. The original owner of this body had died because of one person. His name was John Gill! In his memory, Luna had a special Ice Body that could double her ability to control ice. That night, that person called John Gill barged into their house. He used a secret technique to forcefully transfer Luna's Ice Body onto his body.

Anos saw all of this. He killed Anos with a single palm strike. That was how Anos had been reborn into his body!

Luna did not know about this. She did not even know that she had a Special Ice Body. Her memory of that night had been erased.

All of this was the original owner's memory. After being reborn, Anos had seen John Gill. He had become the top genius of Orchid Flower Academy. Anos had also pretended to have lost his memory. Although John Gill had seen Anos and was surprised that he was not dead, he did not do anything after seeing that Anos had "lost his memory".

He was afraid that the more he tried, the easier it would be for him to be exposed!

In everyone's eyes, John Gill was a proud son of heaven, a genius. However, only Anos knew how disgusting his heart was behind that gentlemanly facade! Previously, Anos did not dare to expose himself because he could not cultivate. But now, what John Gill owed Luna, what he owed the original owner of this body, Anos would make him pay!
