Chapter 1

The night started off as his usual Fridays, hanging out at Players. That day he was there with his brothers Tyler and Larry. His other estranged brother Dale was his closest one growing up, but since he married Amanda, he was living his life and secluded himself with his little family.

They were seating in the VIP lounge at that time and were talking about Tyler's situation.

"Bro, seriously forget about her. I know she's trouble from the start."

"You don't even fvcking know her, ginger!" Tyler snapped at Ralph as he was drinking his third shot of the night, while Larry was busy fl!rting with a se.xy brunette.

Tyler his oldest brother after Dale had been very grumpy lately since their mom keeps on pushing him to get married and follow in Dale's footsteps. She wanted him to settle down and stop working too hard.

"Whoa, feisty! you must really like her?" Ralph was acting like a true nagging little brother and he was milking the situation. It was very rare for him to spend time with his brothers. They usually spend most of their time behind office doors working their a.ss off until it's past working hours.

Tyler didn't say anything back to him as he took another drink, a fine-looking malt seeing the fine color and the sultry waitress who puts it there. Tyler sent away the waiter with a big tip, while Ralph finally lets him off the hook as Larry introduced him to the lovely black haired woman who had been eyeing him since Larry fl!rted with her friend.

"You know they say you can tell how two people are compatible with each other just by dancing?" Ralph fl!rted with the voluptuous looking woman in very tight clubwear.

"You know you could just ask me to dance rather than throwing around some nonaccountable facts?" she said sweetly at him and put her hand on his c.hest, then smiled feeling his hard pecs.

“No... where’s the fun in that?” Ralph winked then took her hand and ushered her to the dance floor where Larry was already dancing with his hands all over the brunette.

“Well, they do say that red hair has more se.x than blondes and brunettes.” She nudged her friend then both laugh while Ralph expertly slithered his hand to her wa!st. His other hand was to her small back pulling her closer to him when they reached the dance floor.

“Well then maybe tonight is your lucky night?” he whispered in her ear, making her let out fl!rtatious laughter.

“Right, so how do you think we’re measuring up to now?” she stepped closer and put her hand to the back of his neck and pull him down, but didn’t k!ss him. She teased and waited for him to make the first move.

The music changed to an upbeat rhythm making him decide to turn her around and move her body with his. Ralph took her arms above her head, whispering naughty words in her ear. And let both of their body move to the beat of the music. Then he trails his hands slowly down to her side while keeping his grip on her wa!st. She was smiling and sighing in content until he goes for the k!ll when he pushes his hardness to her a.ss, grinding and showing her how aroused he was by her.

ur place or mine?” Ralph whispered huskily, while she rests her head on his c.hest and quickly replied saying hers.

No names were exchanged, he was smiling on the inside. Some women do prefer easy hookups and he was all for it. He said goodbyes to his brothers and took a taxi back to her apartment.

“Do you want something to drink?” she asked once they entered her place.

“Yeah, you.” Ralph pushed her body to the couch and slid his hand under her dress. He smirked when he finds her drench already, and she m0ans feeling his fingers pleasuring her expertly.

They got undressed within seconds and his condom covered length was inside her the moment she begged him to.

“Oh my God, fvck yes!” she screamed when he thrust her in the right spot.

He was taking both of them higher and she was praising him with more sexual endearments. Both were a bit drunk from their alcohol consumption at the club. The intoxication was making them lose control and the sex was even hotter until they both climaxed.

But the night was young and he sheathed himself again with a new condom and thrust into her and fvck her eagerly.

He left her place just before dawn, she was asleep and he was going straight to his bachelor pad near campus.

His neighbor was awake and she could hear his heavy steps just like every time he came back home very early in the morning. She waited silently knowing he would always have difficulties in putting his keys to open his door.

And then she heard it, the jingle sound of his keys falling to the floor. She took a deep breath and put on her sneakers. She couldn't remember how many times she had done this for him already. She should just let him be, but there was something about him that made her just couldn't let him be.

Aside from being the most popular man whore on campus, Ralph has always been sweet to her. He never tried anything since the first time she said no to him. And he would always help her in any situation from homework to apartment maintenance.

He has been the sweetest childhood friend and neighbor any woman would want. So remembering that important fact she opened her door and helped him into his apartment.

“Ralph, get some sleep I'll make you breakfast later. I'm going for a run.”

It was still cold outside but she wants to keep up with her running schedule.

“Oookay...” he slumped to his couch and quickly snored. She shook her head and smile at his little quirks. She took a blanket from his room and cover his body with it. There were no boundaries between them anymore, they had been the best of friends for over a decade and have seen each other at their worst.

She caressed his soft strands and kissed his forehead telling him to rest.

“I love you Maddie...” he mumbled the words easily while his eyes were still closed.

“I know Ralph, and I love you too.” She whispered and finally leave him snoring on his couch.

She took a deep breath and started her day with her scheduled morning run.

Ralph...what am I going to do with you?

She started thinking about him as she inhales the fresh morning air.
