

Lusting For Ralph Chapter 4 - Tips

0 5 minutes read

Madison was feeling giddy when her classes ended. She had sat through the whole lectures feeling the wetness between her legs.

Ralph texted that he was going to a frat party later on and she was saying that she had some stuff to do after class.

Both friends would make these excuses every time their banging others, it was an old game they play. Each one trying not to hurt others' feelings, while she knows he was going to chatty Kendra and he knows she was going to her British professor's.

Whenever you're ready. H

The text came when she was just about to start her car and leave for his place. She texted back after applying her lipgloss and plump her lips.

Leaving for yours, Sir. M

She typed her answer quickly while smiling cheekily.

Good girl. H

She arrived half an hour later, his apartment complex was actually close to hers. He greeted her with a kiss on the cheek, she smiled and entered his place.

She took off her denim jacket join him on the couch when he called her to his side.

"No...on my lap, darling. We're starting where we left off."

The way he called her with the British endearment was making her smile wider. His accent was getting tickler with each tease and she was getting hornier.

She sat on his lap sideways just like before. He spread her legs and starts to play with her, she was moaning in seconds.

“You know, I like it when you’re forced to be quiet. And I think it excites you too?”

She replied by nodding to his question while her a.ss was feeling his hardening d!ck.

“Okay, let’s be quiet shall we?” he said l!cking her ear down to the crook of her neck.

“Mmh...stand up for me and take off your dress.”

She followed his instruction and stood between his legs n.aked to her soaked panties and matching lace b.ra. Then he slowly peels off her panties while k!ssing her inner th!ghs. He parted her legs wider then connect his l!ps to her we.tness.

He m0aned while he was l!cking her. She was breathing erratically as he was enjoying her, s.ucking her deep and l!cking her vigorously. Her hands were on his shoulder, while his hands squeeze her a.ss as if he couldn’t get enough of her.

“I always like young women. You taste delicious, Madison.” His words were making her leaked with more ar0usal. He was back to l!cking her until she squirms and climaxes gripping his hair, keeping him close between her legs.

He was praising her for keeping her voice down, telling her that she did good and that he was going to reward her.

He got up and positioned her to kneel on the couch while he stood behind her and trailed his k!sses to her neck. She could hear him unbuckle his belt then unwrapped the condom before he slides himself easily from her ar0usal.

“Fvck!” Madison cursed when she feels him thrust hard inside her.

“Darling, what did we agreed on?”

“Being quiet.” She shuddered in his strong arms.

“Being quiet, what?” he whispered lowly in her ear.

“Being quiet, sir.” She bit her l!p to his demand, her hand grips the couch while she holds back her loud m0ans.

“Very good.” He praised her and spread her legs roughly with his knees and hold her a.ss cheeks with both hands.

His strength and dominance were taking her to another high. She had always liked the older man because of their authoritative manner. And mostly because she knows they want nothing but casual se.x. But that didn't apply to Aaron as he was pissed when she broke up with him.

“Beautiful...” he praised her with a slap on the a.ss. It was hard and wildly arousing making her clenched tighter and he cursed louder.

“Damn it Madison, just like that...again!”

He slapped her on the other side and she was trying her hardest not to moan but then she couldn't help herself and climax when pushed himself deeper and fuck her faster.

The professor didn't stop as he holds her body to the couch and thrust deeper. His hold was tighter and he was grunting as he pushes in and out of her over and over again until he finally lets himself go and pulsates as he fills the condom.

“You're still fully clothed.” She pouted as He pulled out and took her to rest on top of him making him chuckled and caressed her body.

“All in good time my darling, I'm going to take my time with you.” He kissed her slowly and sensually. And that was what made her also likes older men, they like to take their time in pleasuring their partner.

The new lovers parted a couple of hours later after he told her to skip the assistant job because he didn't want their work to be hurried knowing that he would want her and couldn't get enough of her. She agreed thinking she would want the same thing at that moment.

She was sexually pleased and was cozying in her hot bath when Ralph knocked on her bathroom door telling her that he had arrived with their pizza. He too has an extra key to her apartment.

She joined him on the couch and grabbed her beer then lay her still damp hair on his chest.

“So, did you get the TA job?” he asked with his mouth full of pizza.

“Nope, but I did get him.” She smiled widely at him making him laugh.

“And chatty Kendra, you let her feel you up?” she asked in return.

They would casually talk about their day, even their se.xual adventure while both secretly hoping that they could do something se.xual between them.

“Hell yeah, you’re not the only one getting lucky today.” He rubbed her shoulder and pulled her closer to smell her strawberry scented hair that he had accustomed himself to.

“Yet you still like to sniff my hair.” She said snuggling to his body as she cozied herself while the two best friends sit back and start to watch the horror movie that Ralph had picked out.

“Yes, your hair always smells so good.” He exaggeratedly sniffs her hair making her laugh and almost choked on her pizza.

“Slow down Maddie, I might know the Heimlich procedure but with you, I might go further as to feel your b00bies.”

“Ralph! What are you nine? no grown men refer to these beautiful tits as b00bies.” Madison teased him as she feels her so-called b00bies in front of his face.

“Mmh...they are beautiful. But, will you let me touch them this time? Come on! We’ve been friends for decades!”

“Dude you touched them already!” she opens the bag of chips and poured them on the empty bowl then starts munching on the onion chips noisily.

“Maddie! we were ten, I slipped and touched your flats, and back then I thought all girls were gross! Yeah! They were flat so it didn’t count!” Ralph gets himself another slice of the cheesy pizza and finished it within minutes.

She laughed at his childish attitude and flopped back and snuggled to his chest.

“One of these days, when I’m drunk enough I may...I repeat I may let you touch one. And maybe I will let you choose which one.” She laughed and took the heavy blanket and draped it over their legs.

“I’m taking my wins, I’m going to make you so drunk that I’ll get to touch both.”
He said smirking then wiped his greasy hand and relax back with his beer while their attention was back to the zombies that were about to ambush the old couple.

“As long as you protect me from those zombies you won’t have to get me drunk.”

“You know I’ll always get your back, Maddie.”

“Awww...I love you too Ralphy...”

She snuggled in closer and he embraced her lovingly in his arms and silently wished she loves him differently.
