0 5 minutes read

“We should...” Ralph whispered heavily while slipping his hand under her shirt. He was feeling her n.aked back, and couldn’t stop his fingers from unclasping her b.ra.

She sighed when she felt her b.ra unhooked, then m0aned when his fingers pinched her n!pples.

“Ralph, we need to...” she tried harder to get away from him. But her mind was in a daze and she was wanting more of him.

“Tell me to stop...” he gr0aned when he felt her grind him harder.

“Ralph...so good,” she didn’t want him to stop. She had always wanted him, she had always loved him, and she had always wondered.

She couldn’t take it anymore and finally took off her shirt and her already unhooked b.ra in one pull.

“Madison...” he looked into her eyes as he watched how she bites her lip as he carved in the view of her n.aked upper body displayed for the first time in front of him.

He realized she must’ve been very drunk, and he cursed for being such a good friend to her. He didn’t want her to remember that night and regret it forever.

Ralph knows how much she valued their friendship, so that was when he took her back to her bedroom. He holds her in his arms and k!ssed her until she falls asleep.

And he was right it didn’t take long for her to fall asleep in his arms, he tried to back away from her but she was not letting him go. So he stayed in her bed and hold her n.aked upper body and rubbed her n.aked back until he heard her snore and he smiled and pulled her closer into his arms.

I love you Madison, always.

He pledged on the inside and drifted off to sleep with his extreme hard-on.

But he was not prepared when morning came and he was pushed over her bed and fall with a very loud thump.

“What the fvck?” he gr0aned when his back k!ssed her hard wooden floor.

“Ralph! what did we do! crap!” Madison cursed with her se.xy morning voice that had just made him hard instantly.

“We didn’t do it, Maddie. You were about to, but we didn’t and now I’m regretting my decision.” He got up slowly, and she was quick to get up and cover herself with the blanket.

The sudden movement made her headache known then she was cursing for the second time that morning.

“Cla.ss, I got class.” She said panicking.

“Yeah, and I need to j.erk off before I can even function today.” He gr0aned and leave her bedroom after adjusting his bulge.

And that was how our two best friends go about their day.

She was having a hangover when she entered Professor Hastings’ class. She was late and he noticed her changes, then later call her out after his class ended.

“Are you okay?”

“Yes, I’m sorry Professor Hastings.”

“You should focus on my class,” he said as he walked to his office door and locked it behind him.

“Yes, Sir.”

He smiled when she answered her words to his liking, then pushed her to his desk and k!ssed her sensually.

“Unbuckle my pants and stroke my d!ck Madison.” He m0aned when she did just that, he cupped her cheek and kept on k!ssing her deeper. Then he gr0aned and lower her head and told her to s.uck him off.

“Darling, fvck...!lck and s.uck my tip baby, yes...stroke the rest of it, fvck...fvck...Madison!”

She was gagging when he keeps her head still and he started to thrust back and forth and used her to his liking. She was getting we.t when he told her to start playing herself as he was face fvcking her.

Then he helped her up and lower her jeans and thrust inside her after he sheathed himself with a condom.

That afternoon she fvck her professor while thinking about Ralph, and imagined it was him that was fvcking her hard and fast. It was him who was breathing heavily on her ear. It was him who was putting his hand on her mouth when they both climax second from each other.

She was pulsating and was coming down from her high when she kept on imagining him that was milking himself into the condom inside her pulsating walls.

Then fifteen minutes later after they were done, she leaves his office with another se.xy appointment to his apartment later on that night. She was so se.xed depraved from Ralph, that she said her yes.

She was relaxed and sated but still feels like something was missing.

Madison arrived at her apartment at the same time as the petite woman k!ssed Ralph and was out of his apartment within seconds. She looks beyond happy that she was smiling wildly at her.

Then out of nowhere her insides boiled, she had never been so jealous in her entire life. Ralph looked surprised when he saw her, then he greeted her awkwardly.

“Maddie.”

“Ralph.” She tried to put on a fake smile but she couldn’t, she just go to her apartment and locked the door behind her.

Madison rest her back on the door and sighed deeply, she didn’t even realize that she shed a tear when she was actually waiting for him to come to her door. But he didn’t come, not that late afternoon.

Damn him!

She took a cold shower trying to calm herself down. She wanted him, only him. Bits of pieces of last night were coming back throughout her school day. And it was making her want him more.

Ralph was not sure about what he just saw, she looked jealous. But in his mind, he wasn't sure that she was actually jealous of him and his casual se.x partner. Because he clearly saw her walking towards her professor's office door hours before.

"Boo hoo...someone is jealous!"

His teenage ghost chirped cheerfully in from behind him.

"Damn it, Suzy! I told you to never sneak up on me!"

"Suzy wants Ralph happy. You've been with so many women but you're never happy."

The young female ghost hovering around him, circling him with her neck still wrapped with the rope that she used to end her life with.

"Suzy, I'm fine."

"Yeah? that's what Suzy said every time anyone asked how Suzy was feeling."

Ralph rests his back on his messy bed. He had let out his se.xual frustration, but he didn't feel calm. He still wanted her. He still wants his Madison.

Even Suzy the ghost sees right through him.

"She doesn't want me, Suzy."

"Hmm...humans can be so stupid." The ghost said inches away from his face. Then she left him with her signature dramatic exist as she levitates and walked right into his bedroom wall in frustration.
