

Belong to the Lycan Alpha

Chapter 101

Aiden had been in a bad mood for days, especially the closer they got to the day where they would meet with Lilac.

You would find him brooding or frowning, it seemed there was nothing in his mind, but his meeting with Lilac.

On the other hand, Ruby had kept her eyes on the interaction between Grace and Aiden, but she didn't think the two of them were in a good term at all, because the only time they were talking the two of them looked like they were trying to make the conversation as short as possible.

Ruby didn't bother Grace anymore, more so, luna Jasmine had been pestering her to be a perfect luna in his perception, since she would go with Aiden to meet with Lilac. She didn't want her to embarrass her son because she was not behaved.

Even now, luna Jasmine was still praising Lilac.

Despite her rage and hostility for the fact Lilac didn't go with her plan and stay in the pack to be the future luna like she wanted and even chose to go with the lycan and later become their luna, luna Jasmine still praised her here and there and compared the two. of them.

By now, Ruby had turned so numb to hear Lilac's name over and over again. She wanted to scream at luna Jasmine's face for treating her so bad, but then she didn't have the courage.

"Are you hungry?" Ruby asked Aiden, she offered a piece of apple that she was eating.

Currently the two of them were inside a carriage that would take them to the meeting point, where they would meet the lycan to retrieve the war prisoner. The presentative of the other five packs also came with them.

Aiden didn't say anything, he didn't even glance at her at all, it almost felt like being in the same carriage with Ruby had suffocated him so much. He wanted to throw the woman away, but then she was his luna now.

However, why he couldn't feel the mate bond between them? Yes, the bond was there, but it was not that strong. It was not even close to what he had with Lilac.

Aiden missed the bond between him and her. It was surreal.

"Aiden?" Ruby tried again. She wanted to get his heart again, but she didn't know how to do so.

When they met the first time, it was so easy to talk with him, but right now it was a different case, he didn't even want to see her face.

"Aiden, I know that you are still thinking about Lilac, but can you..." Ruby immediately clamped her mouth when Aiden finally looked at her way, but she couldn't help, but felt- so stifled when she saw the enmity in his eyes. He didn't look at her with love, but animosity instead.

"Shut your mouth up! I don't need to hear anything from you!" Aiden then closed his eyes and crossed his arms in front of his chest to feign sleeping. He didn't want to hear anything from this woman anymore. It annoyed him to the core.

Biting her lips and clenched her fists, Ruby didn't utter a single word at all after that. She was literally mute on the rest of their way to the meeting point.

However, her silence only made Aiden furrow his brows. Ruby always tried to persuade him and talk to him, she was trying her best to engage in a conversation with him, but now when she was silent, he felt there was something that was missing.

Yet, Aiden brushed off that weird feeling and didn't think much about that. He used to ignore her and that was what he did.

This discomfort on the bottom of his heart made Aiden become reckless because he didn't get the attention that he wanted, thus when night came, he approached Ruby and without saying anything, he started to undress her.

Ruby was startled by how Aiden made this advance move, but she didn't reject him either.

"Aiden..." Ruby called his name when she could feel his mouth on her breast.

"Don't talk," Aiden said gruffly, as he took pleasure from her body.

Because Ruby was heavily pregnant, it was a little bit tricky for them to do this, but Aiden didn't care much, as he laid Ruby on her back and started to thrust inside her, despite her protest, because this position hurt her and she felt like she was being suffocated, since her baby inside her stomach pressed down her organs.

"Aiden, stop... please, stop..." Ruby cried, but Aiden didn't care much with her pleas.

However, Aiden didn't want to stop. This woman had the audacity to ignore him. Now, she wouldn't be able to ignore him anymore!

Aiden did that a few times with Ruby, after all, he had his own demand for pleasure and he had been holding it back because he had been stressing out with this meeting with Lilac, but now he vented it out to Ruby.

It was unsure when Ruby started to be unconscious, but when she woke up, she felt her whole body was hurt, she saw the blood on the bed, while Aiden was nowhere to be seen.

She felt her heart was aching more than her body, but she held back her tears, as she took her dress again and tried to look presentable, afraid Aiden would come and try to do it again.

She opened the window and asked the coachman.

“We will arrive in the meeting point within three hours, luna,” the coachman informed her. He only glanced at her, because he felt very awkward as they did it all night and he and the other warriors had to suffer to hear them.

“Hm.” Ruby then closed the window and then prepared herself. She wiped the blood from between her legs with tears in her eyes.
