

Belong to the Lycan Alpha

Chapter 103

Hearing what Aiden said earlier, Hunter only gave a glance before he focused on his mate again, as he whispered something to her ear and made her blush even more, though she gave the alpha a sharp glare, but one look people would know she was not really mad at him.

On the other hand, now Ruby realized what made Aiden changed his attitude very drastically when he took her out of the carriage, as it turned out, it was because of Lilac. Lilac and her mate.

In one look, you could see that she was happy, she even looked healthier than when she left the pack a few months ago. But, what even more apparent was the fact how happy she looked right now. She was beaming. Her eyes lit up, as if she held all the stars in the sky.

Lilac was very happy and you could see that in her eyes.

Ruby clenched her fists tightly. So as it turned out, her little hope that she had only a few second ago was shattered by this reality.

Aiden didn't want to treat her well, he only wanted to one up Lilac, showing how happy he was too.

Ruby could see it through his schemes very well. He had feigned it so well, until she wanted to believe him, but then, here she was, having her heart shattered into pieces. again.

Ruby didn't know how expression right now, but a kiss from Aiden shocked her. Yes, he actually pecked her cheek and smiled as bright as the sunlight. This hurt her heart even more. Why would he treat her like this?

Didn't she deserve to be loved too? More so when she was carrying their child.

Meanwhile, Lilac didn't really care about Ruby anymore, because Hunter was teasing her. This man was a pe rvert! He actually put his hand on her back and squeezed her bottom every now and then, which made her cheeks turned bright red.

“How you feel?” Hunter whispered to her ear.

“Annoyed,” Lilac replied in a matter of fact tone. “Cane you stop doing that?”

“Okay, you only need to ask me, little one.” Hunter kissed her cheek, this action was what made Aiden kissed Ruby too earlier, but neither of them really paid attention to the other pair. “I only feel relief because you don’t feel nervous to meet with your ex mate.”

Chapter 103

Lilac blinked her eyes and then only now she realized what Hunter said was right. She was no longer feeling nervous for meeting with Aiden and Ruby, to see the two of them together and even more when Ruby’s pregnancy was very clear to be seen now her stomach grew bigger.

She didn’t hold any resentment, neither she was nervous with the sight of the two of them. She didn’t even notice that until Hunter pointed it out carlier.

“Should I thank you for that?” Lilac ask, the glint in her eyes turned very mischievous when she spoke so lightly with him.

On the other hand, the other warriors from both parties were dumbfounded. They felt there was something wrong with the entire situation, because instead of talking in serious manner to hand over the war prisoner, the two alphas and lunas were acting a little bit affectionate with each other.

But, all of the people there could tell, while Lilac and Hunter were genuinely teasing each other, Aiden and Ruby looked like they were forcing it and how uncomfortable the pregnant woman was when her mate kissed her.

Currently they were in the desert and there were a long entourage that followed the alphas and lunas from two packs.

Couldn’t bear it any longer, finally it was Aiden, who was the first to break this awkward situation between them. “Are you not handing the war prisoner?!” he raised his voice, just in case Hunter couldn’t hear him, but in truth, he wanted to make the two of them stopped staring at each other and whispering sweet nothing!

He hated the sight!

Aiden's blood boiled when he saw how Lilac was being affectionate with Hunter and how the two of them didn't bother with him, even when he told them his mate was pregnant, which in hindsight, it was not an announcement at all, since all living soul already knew about this, what else he expected?

"Let's wrap this up quickly!" Aiden literally growled at this point, because the two of them were still busy with themselves.

Hunter finally lifted his head and shifted his attention toward the alpha werewolf, deigning his existence.

"Sure," Hunter said with a smirk curled on the corner of his lips.

Aiden didn't know what the meaning of that, but he felt there was something not right with this whole situation, but he couldn't put his finger on why he felt a little bit uncomfortable with the way Hunter was smiling.

"You can get your men over there," Hunter said, as he nodded to the back of his entourage, where there were hundred of warriors, walked in their human form, but with ankles and wrists tied up with silver chains, all of them lowered their head, as if they were ashamed with their current situation.

Aiden didn't think much of it, as he went to consult this with the other representative of the five alphas, leaving Ruby alone, now his nature came to light; he didn't care about her.

Meanwhile, Ruby stood there awkwardly, didn't know what to do or where to look, she felt embarrassed in front of Lilac because she had snatched her mate, but there was this little feeling that nagged at the corner of her heart that told her; the man was not worth it.

Aiden returned and demanded to see the war prisoners. "Bring them up here!" He ordered his people to fetch all the warriors.

However, what he was going to witness next left him unable to utter a single word.
