Chapter 122

Chapter 122

Lilac was panting heavily, when she felt her whole body was erupted in delight, she felt like she was about to explode when she reached her climax for the second time.

Her body was not only sweaty, but also dirty, yet having sex in the open area like this had its own magical sensation, where she felt very exposed and vulnerable, but at the same time it gave her the thrill she had never experienced before.

This was not the first time, Hunter and she did this in the open area. This might become their tacit understanding, where they enjoyed it the most in this kind of place.

Lilac giggled when Hunter finally came after her, he cursed because he couldn't hold it back any longer.

In the end both of them laughed for no reason at all.

Once their desire was sated, Hunter kissed Lilac's forehead and then supported his body to get up. Both of them were still naked and this made Lilac blushed.

"What are you doing?" Lilac was surprised when Hunter picked her body up and carried her to the river.

"I will wash you," Hunter said playfully. "I need to take care of my mate, since I am the reason she is very tired."

Lilac hissed. She still couldn't get used with how flirty Hunter could be. She didn't know how she could have a lot of personality within him.

"Only wash me, okay?" Lilac said timidly and this made Hunter laughed.

"If you want more than that I will be fine with it," Hunter teased her.

True to his word, Hunter only washed her body and peppered kisses here and there, until she protested and he stopped.

Then, he told her about the invitation and the necklace. He waited for the right moment to bring this topic up.

"What do you think? Do you want to attend the festivity?" Hunter asked, he played with her wet hair and caressed her cheek.

"Should we come?" Lilac pursed her lips.

"Do you want to come?"

Ruby felt very miserable when had to watch them preparing everything to welcome her baby. She was not even being involved in the process with the excuse, she needed to rest after having a difficult labor.

People kept telling her that she needed to be grateful because luna Jasmine was being considerate with her and this was the proof, she was not as bad as Ruby thought she was.

And now, there was no amount of word that could put luna Jasmine into a bad light, even Aiden always rubbed it on her face, how much his mother had done for her and she was still not satisfied.

Right now, Ruby could only watch how her son was being passed around by those people and was only given to her when the baby needed to eat. She felt like she was nothing, but a baby maker and a baby food.

This situation made Ruby sick to her stomach and gradually, her feeling for Aiden became so numb. She was not sure whether the mate bond was still there or it was already thoroughly broken, but there was nothing she wanted more, but to make these people miserable.

"Azal... he is so handsome like his father..." one of the women, who was luna Jasmine's friend gushed over the baby in the luna's arms.

See? Everyone still thought of her as the luna, even though she had stepped down from the role and supposedly not to interfere with the affair with the pack anymore just like alpha James. So, it would give space and time for the new alpha and luna to be more comfortable with the role.

However, luna Jasmine was still as involved as before. She didn't let Ruby to take her role in this pack.

Azel.

Ruby hated that name.

"Why are you being like this again?" Aiden reprimanded her when he saw her expression. "Can't you be happy? Damn. You make things so miserable."

Ruby said nothing and only glanced at him, but Aiden glared at her instead.

"Stop making face. This is not all about you." Aiden gave her a last glare and then walked away. He needed to check the preparation for tomorrow.

Right now, the alpha from the five packs had arrived, but there was still not a word from the lycan pack. Aiden had been waiting for them to arrive, but there was still no news from them, while the festivity would be held tomorrow.

Chapter 122

He narrowed his eyes, as if by doing so, he could see that woman walked into this pack again, returned back home...

Probably, by being here, it would remind her of how she missed this place, after all, she had spent so many years in this place. This pack was her home and the people here was her only family.

From Grace, Aiden learned that Lilac had been attacked twice, it was enough reason for her to leave that pack and would never return again.

He would dump Ruby in front of Lilac if that was what it took for her to go back to him.

But right now, there was another important thing he needed to talk with his mother. Until now, Aiden had not yet talked about the problem with the necklace. He waited until the very end to bring this topic up, because he didn't know how to start it.

"Mother, can I have a word with you for a while?" Aiden asked his mother, as he glanced at his son and touched his cheek. That was the best interaction he had with the baby, since he didn't know what to do with this little thing.

After all, the baby would never remember it. He would start play with him when he was a little bit older, but right now, he didn't need him, that was what in Aiden's mind. It was reasonable for him not to be close with his son when he didn't even need him.

"What do you want to talk about?" luna Jasmine didn't seem to be happy because her time with her grandson was being cut off, but then she relented and gave the baby to one of her friends, instead of to Ruby.
