Chapter 131

Hunter was not happy for someone like Aria to address his mate casually. That was right that the ceremony had not been held yet, but it didn't mean, Lilac's status was any less. Even when she was not his woman, she was still the future luna of this pack, how could Aria talk to her very easily?

Aria was quick to understand, she blushed, ashamed because Hunter pointed it out how inappropriate her action to approach Iris. The alpha lycan reminded her of the difference between their status and put Aria in her place.

Hunter still not yet forgot about what she had done to his woman. If he didn't come that night in time, the alpha was sure they would be in another war by now.

Aria lowered her head, she looked very ashamed of herself. How could a mere servant approach a luna, a woman with a high status like Lilac? Whether she was in this pack or in the lycan pack, Lilac would always be put in a great place.

"I am sorry for my rudeness. I- I will take my leave..." Aria immediately resigned herself, but Lilac grabbed her hand to stop her.

"Let's talk," Lilac said softly. She was no longer mad at Aria. She indeed had committed a great crime against her, but it didn't mean she would forget about their time together. There were a lot of memories between them to be ignored.

After all, Aria had been punished, she shouldered all the crimes that supposed not to be hers alone.

Aria looked like she was going to tear up when Lilac agreed to talk to her, but then her eyes stole a glance at the alpha lycan, afraid he would be angry.

However, a simple kiss on the lips from Lilac was enough to placate him. At least, for a while.

“If you don’t come back in an hour, I will take you back. Don’t be out of my sight.” Hunter pinched her waist and kissed his mark on her neck, this was as a declaration that this woman was his.

Thankfully, Aiden was no longer there, if he was, the alpha must have stormed toward Hunter and created a ruckus, as he was suffered from anger and jealousy, Lilac chuckled, while Aria looked mortified. She could sense how intimidating this alpha was, but Lilac was actually laughing?

After that, Lilac went with Aria to a quiet corner, but Hunter still could see her from afar, since she knew him quite well now that he indeed would go for her if he were out of his sight.

Lilac wanted to have a peaceful conversation with Aria.

“How are you?” Lilac asked, she smiled softly, observing her old friend. Aria looked thinner than the last time they met, she also became quieter, since between the two of them, it would be Aria, who used to do the talking.

"I am fine." Aria then added awkwardly. "Luna."

Lilac chuckled when she heard the way Aria addressed her. She was not a luna yet before, thus Aria had never addressed her formally with that title.

"I am not a luna yet," Lilac said mirthfully, but Aria glanced at Hunter and she immediately understood.

"He will not be able to hear our conversation. Lift your head up and let's talk like usual."

Aria lifted her head and saw her old friend. She couldn't help, but teared up. She started sobbing pitifully, because she felt so much guilt for what she had done. I am sorry. I am sorry, Lilac..."

Luna Jasmine could see how ashen her son's expression was and she knew for sure. what the reason behind it. She shared the same sentiment too. Lilac was too good for that barbarous lycan like Hunter.

She shouldn't stay there for longer.

"I am sure she wanted to go back to our pack," Luna Jasmine said, which made Aiden's eyes lit up.

"What makes you think like that?" Aiden couldn't hide his curiosity and came closer toward his mother.

Currently, the two of them were in the alpha's bedroom. This room belonged to luna Jasmine and alpha James before, but because Aiden was the current alpha, thus he and Rubby were the one, who occupied this room.

However, Rubby right now was in the nursery room, leaving the two of them only.

“Come to think about this. There is no way Lilac likes to stay in the lycan pack. The way they live is too different from us. You heard it yourself that she went training like those filthy lycan.” Luna Jasmine didn’t hold back her resentment when she spoke. “Do you really think after all the lesson I gave to her and how I built her the way she is right now, she will like the dirty training from the lycan?”

Luna Jasmine kept talking about the different life that Lilac had here and the one she Luna Jasmine kept talking a bo had in the lycan pack. She pictured Lilac as a noble woman, who was well educated, while the lycan was too boisterous for a woman like her.

“So, why she didn’t come here? She can ask for our help. She chose to leave the pack.” Aiden wanted to believe what his mother said.

“I have spent a year with her and watched her closely, even though she looks timid and kind, but she is actually pretty stubborn,” luna Jasmine said. “You need to approach her and talk to her gently. Try to understand her and she will come to you.”

Aiden beamed with happiness. “Are you sure, mother?”

Luna Jasmine smiled too. She caressed his precious son's cheek and nodded. "Of course. I know her."

She was the one, who taught her everything. She knew how much Lilac wanted to be the perfect luna for Aiden, she endured everything to be her son's equal. "You don't need to worry. I have a plan for this, just wait in the garden."

Chapter 132

Chapter 132

"Mother, what are you going to do?" Aiden felt worried because he remembered the last plan his mother had concocted, failed miserably. Not only that, his mother was almost being embarrassed in public.

Albeit, it was Aria, who took the brunt because all the crimes fell on her, but a lot of people already knew, or at least, they had assumed that luna Jasmine had something to do with that.

Aiden didn't want something like that happened again, therefore he became very cautious when he heard his mother had something planned.

"You don't need to worry." Luna Jasmine reassured him. "Mother knows what I am doing."

Because of what happened in the past also, alpha James stepped down from his position, which meant, luna Jasmine shouldn't have addressed as luna anymore. Though that was not the sole reason, but that event had pushed them to give the title to Aiden sooner than they expected.

"She is your mate, she belonged only to you." Luna Jasmine hugged his precious son. She couldn't let go of Lilac too, after what she had done to mold her into a woman she was right now and how Aiden really wanted her so bad, she would do anything to take Lilac back to their side. She would do anything to take Lilac back home.

This was her home, the place she was supposed to be in.

“Don’t worry, my dear. Go to the garden and wait for her there,” luna Jasmine said gently. She hugged him like she used to hug Aiden when he was a little boy.

Rubby tried to fight back her tears, but she couldn’t. This was very hard not to cry your heart was so hurt.

She swore that she didn’t want to care about them anymore, she promised, she would treat Aiden as bad as the way he treated her, but why when she saw the look in his eyes. and the way luna Jasmine stared at Lilac, she felt like she wanted to disappear.

It was very obvious that they wished it was Lilac, who was holding the title of the luna of the Golden Claw pack, instead of her. She knew how mad they were to see Lilac was with the alpha lycan. They didn’t even spare her a glance.

And you know what? Luna Jasmine had the audacity to compare her with Lilac along their way to the nursery room and it was amazing for Rubby not to lose her cool and yell back at her.

Rubby just finished to wipe Azel's body because Lilac just touched him. She didn't want anyone to touch her son, especially that woman.

She then spent almost half the night stayed in the nursery room, but when she was sure Azel had fallen asleep, she decided to take a walk outside. The night was still lively.

It was funny to think this huge commotion was happening to honor the birth of the heir of the pack, but currently the baby was sleeping and the mother was nowhere to be seen. In that case, so what the point of making a big ruckus like this? What an irony...

Rubby closed her eyes, feeling the cold wind that brushed her face, she felt the coldness, but somehow, this was her only comfort.

However, when there was this scent that approached her, the scent that had been annoyed her for the last few days.

It was Grace.

The woman was still living in this pack. Rubby didn't know what she was planning with Aiden, but she knew it must be anything to do with Lilac.

This woman's obsession on the lycan alpha was unparalleled, but now Rubby could understand why.

Having someone like Aiden, really was not a great joy in life.

"What are you doing here? I thought you must hide the whole time when all the alphas were here."

Rubby didn't even try to hide her dislike.

"Nothing much, just look around. The night is beautiful." Grace shrugged her shoulders nonchalantly.

She must be bored out of her mind to have a conversation with Rubby. "I can see how hard this is for you."

"Say someone, who is running away from their own pack."

Grace chuckled, she was not offended by her comment, but instead she found this funny. "You can say whatever you want, but you can't deny one thing; both of us are the same. You are here even though your mate didn't want you and I am here because my mate doesn't want me."

"You are delusional. The alpha lycan is not your mate."

"I see him as my mate," Grace said casually. "I don't care what other said." After that, she walked away from Rubby.

"Where are you going?" Rubby narrowed her eyes. This woman shouldn't have roamed around the pack house, in case someone else saw her.

"To the garden." Grace glanced at Ruby over her shoulder and winked at her. "I saw Aiden went toward that direction. Don't you want to come to comfort him? He looked sad. Don't cry if I snatched your mate because you didn't pay attention to him." Grace laughed. "Being a luna is not bad though..."

That was the nasty thing that Ruby had ever heard. Grace openly threatened her status in this pack.

Right at the same time, someone delivered a message to Hunter. It was a small paper that the man passed down to him when he was standing close to him.

There was nothing long about the letter, it only consisted a few words, but it was enough to make Hunter's expression changed.

'If

you want to know about another lycan pack, come to the library.

That was it. No more explanation. But, who could have learned about another lycan pack? Who else in this pack that knew about this?

The party was so lively and when Lilac toward Hunter's direction, he had gone.

Chatper 133

Chapter 133

Obviously, Hunter wouldn't leave Lilac alone, but he had to do something. The secret message that he received bothered him. Who else knew about another lycan pack? His pack was the only lycan pack in this realm, as far as he knew.

More so, this other lycan didn't seem friendly at all. They actually worked under Kellan's command to attack their pack. There must be more into it.

Hunter walked in this corridor, as he met with a few people. Most of the women would turn their head to take a second glance at him and then giggled, which made Hunter was so mad. The sound of their voices, annoyed him. He didn't like their attention.

It was a good thing that he knew where the library was, since he had been in this pack before and investigated the whole place when these werewolves didn't pay attention to him.

And when he finally reached the library, he realized this was empty. There was no one there. It was very quiet here, while out there, the festivity only started.

Hunter looked around and sniffed the air, thinking the person would come later, he went to the fireplace and picked a random book to look at.

That was when he caught her scent. He knew her scent because he had been with her, but what surprised him was the fact this woman was actually here.

“Hunter, long time no see.” Grace walked inside the library, she locked the door and threw the key away. She was determined not to let him go. “I hope you missed me.”

Hunter narrowed his eyes. “You are in this pack. Alpha Aiden has been sheltering you.” That was not even a question, but a statement and Grace didn’t even deny it.

“I missed you, Hunter.” Grace looked at him with so much longing in her eyes. She was oblivious of how much disdain Hunter had for her right now. “I miss you. I missed when we were together.”

Grace made an advance and threw herself at him.

Meanwhile, inside the party, Lilac looked around her because she couldn’t find Hunter anywhere. There was no way he would leave her alone here when he made sure she wouldn’t roam around out of his sight.

“What are you looking for?” Aria asked when she saw Lilac was a little bit panic. “Are you looking for alpha Hunter?”

“Have you seen him?” Lilac asked, she felt uneasy knowing Hunter left her alone. There must be something going on.

“I don’t know.” Aria shook her head. “He might step outside to get some fresh air.”

Lilac didn’t think that made sense, but she didn’t have any other idea. “I want to look around first.”

“Sure.” Aria was happy to follow her.

Lilac was still unsure whether or not she should leave the party, but after she looked around and still couldn’t find Hunter, she agreed to Aria’s suggestion.

“Why don’t we go out and look for him?” Aria looked around her. “It’s quite stuffy here.”

Both of them stepped out of the main room and walked in the corridor, as they went to the garden. The noise gradually faded away as they walked further from there.

“Don’t you miss being here?” Aria asked, engaged her in a conversation, as they walked silently. “I can see you still have some lingering feeling in this place.”

Lilac smiled a little. “How could I not,” she finally admitted it in small voice. “I lived here for years. How can I not miss this place, sometime?”

“Why don’t you comeback then? You don’t need to leave anymore.” Aria stepped in front of her and both of them stopped walking. “You can comeback. I can see alpha Aiden is not happy with that woman. He still loves you. He still wants you. I can see how much he regrets his action and wants you back.”

Lilac stared at Aria. She said nothing and let her kept talking.

“Let go, Lilac. I know you still want him too. This is your time. You don’t need to go back to that barbarous pack anymore. You can stay here and we can be friend like before.”

“I thought you have changed. I guess, I am wrong.” Lilac realized something. She felt stupid to even fell in this trick twice. “What do you want now, Aria? Is this the order from luna Jasmine too?”

Aria startled. She shook her head. “How can you say something like that? Are you questioning me now, Lilac?”

“Yes.” Lilac didn’t even hesitate when she answered her. “After what you have done, or almost done, how could I not question your intention?” Lilac took a step back and looked at her from head to toe.

“And I am right. You did it again.”

Aria wanted to deny it and keep to her pretense, but she knew the moment she saw the look on Lilac’s eyes. She couldn’t keep with her story.

“Lilac. I love you as my friend. I missed you. You are the only friend I have. We are always together, with you not around I feel so miserable. Can’t you comeback and we go back to how things were before all of this? Luna Jasmine and alpha Aiden promised to make things right.”

“How they can make things right?”

“They will get rid of Rubby.”

Lilac didn't know what to feel. She didn't even surprise to hear this vicious plan against Rubby and somehow, she felt pity for that woman. She should have thanked her for getting her way out of this pack, away from these horrendous people.

“What about the baby?” Lilac asked. “The baby is innocent. What are you going to do with the baby?”

“If you gave birth to Aiden's son, we will declare him as the heir to the title.”

Lilac immediately turned around when she heard her voice. She was too angry with Aria to realize her presence.

“Luna Jasmine,” Lilac greeted her.

Chapter 134

Chapter 134

Lilac was not sure why Luna Jasmine couldn't let her go and what more she wanted for her when everything was already very clear.

She didn't have a crazy idea that she still wanted to be with Aiden and was willing to return, right?

However, that was how things seemed like. The Luna still wanted her to be part of this even though Lilac had been humiliated and was about to be banished by Aiden himself, which forced her to reject him openly in front of so many people. Those people could bear witness for that.

“I thought Alpha Aiden said he couldn't find you,” Lilac said without any scrupulous. She didn't even try to be polite in with her right now, because she was too annoyed with this trick and even more with Aria.

She thought, she gave her a chance to repent, but Aria had turned into someone that she didn't recognize anymore.

Luna Jasmine raised her brows, she could hear the annoyance in the way Lilac was talking to her, but she didn't think much of it. only a little bit surprised that this obedient girl would have an attitude with her. "Oh, right. I heard he has been looking for me." Luna Jasmine approached Lilac with the fakest smile on her lips. "But, I know you are the one, who wanted to talk with me, didn't you?"

Lilac held her gaze. In the past, she wouldn't even dare to look at her right in the eyes, but right now she was Hunter's woman and soon she would be the luna, while the woman before her had stepped down from the role, which meant she held higher title than her.

"Yes, you are right." Lilac didn't know where she could find this confident, probably being with Hunter had rubbed some of his arrogance on her. "I am going to ask about the necklace. Alpha Aiden promised my mate that necklace."

Now Lilac could see the annoyance in Luna Jasmine's eyes. Lilac knew how much she hated to be treated this way, but she did it anyway to mess with her.

Luna Jasmine touched the necklace on her neck and smiled sweetly at her, just like in the past. She seemed to have completely forgotten about Aria's presence there.

"You do remember that I promised you that I will give you this necklace the moment you are the luna of this pack, once you have become one with Aiden,” luna Jasmine touched Lilac’s arm, which made her felt uncomfortable and stepped back. “What I want to say it. This necklace originally belonged to you.

You don’t need your mate to get it.”

“Maybe you got me wrong here, luna Jasmine. But, I am here to get the necklace that was promised to my mate, because my mate saved the future alpha of this pack. I hope you can understand this explanation. I don’t have any intention to return to this pack. I don’t belong to this pack anymore. I belonged to the lycan pack and there, where I will go.”

You could see how the luna was not at all happy with Lilac’s speech, she then waved her hand to dismiss Aria, but Lilac came with her instead, since she didn’t want to spend another second with her.

“I hope you don’t cause trouble anymore, Jasmine.” Lilac’s heart beat so fast when she addressed her without her title.

Even though, by norm, Lilac was not wrong, since Jasmine was no longer a luna of this pack, but Lilac did it out of spite.

“You have changed, Lilac.” Luna Jasmine tilted her head, watched this little girl, who was very obedient to her in the past, had the audacity to turn her back against her. “You think being the luna of the lycan pack is so great? You have anyone there aside from Hunter's affection, but once it disappeared, you are all alone. Do you really think the lycan will see you, a werewolf, as their true luna? Have you heard about how many women Hunter had slept with before you?"

Luna Jasmine smiled, because she could see how stiff Iris's shoulders when she said those things. It affected her and this was enough as her payback for disrespecting her.

She got her.

This little girl was trying to play mind game with her, when she was the one, who taught her that.

Aria looked at Lilac and then at luna Jasmine, she looked so scared because she could feel the atmosphere became so tensed. She knew she was beyond redemption. Lilac would be so mad at her and she probably wouldn't forgive her in this lifetime, but she was still thinking it was best for her to return to this pack.

"What are you staring at?!" luna Jasmine growled at Aria. "Scram!"

Aria didn't need to be told twice, she glanced at Lilac briefly before she rushed away from there, she was afraid to face luna Jasmine's wrath.

However, when luna Jasmine spoke again with Lilac, her voice actually softened.

"Lilac. Don't you think it's very ironic?" Luna Jasmine approached Lilac and stood in front of her, so she could see her eyes when she laid out the truth to her. This silly girl needed a few more lesson about life. "Aiden only slept with one woman, while Hunter slept with more than that. Do you even know how many women he had slept with?"

III

94%

Chapter 134

+5

Of course, Lilac knew. Twenty nine. That was the exact number that Hunter gave to her. She was the thirtieth woman he slept with. The number irked her so much and Luna Jasmine could see it in her eyes.

“You rejected Aiden just because he slept with one woman, he made a mistake, but you abandoned him immediately and here you are, accepting a man, who had slept with countless women in a heartbeat. Don't you think it's not fair?” Luna Jasmine used her motherly voice to Lilac.

Chapter 135

Chapter 135

Right now, Luna Jasmine was playing with Lilac's emotion.

“Do you even know where he is right now?” Luna Jasmine caressed Lilac's cheek, like she used to do in the past, whenever she tried to soothe her after being so harsh in her lesson. “Don't you wonder where he is right now?”

Lilac stared into her eyes, but she didn't say anything. She was here because she couldn't find Hunter and Luna Jasmine must have known about that, since Aria was once again betrayed her and chose to help with Luna Jasmine. She was a fool to think Aria was regretful for what she had done to her.

“Lilac. The lycan pack is not your place. Here is your place with your mate. The lycan doesn't have mate, they don't have the blessing from the moon goddess to have this bond. Don't ruin yourself by temporary anger, until you can't see what's best for you. Come back here, my dear." Luna Jasmine pulled her into a hug.

This was the hug that Lilac always longed for, because she missed to have a mother in her life and Luna Jasmine knew about that. She played with her.

"I am here, Lilac. I am sorry for what you have gone through, but I think this is time to let go. We are even now. Aiden has been very miserable without you, even though he didn't want to admit it." Luna Jasmine caressed her head and her back soothingly. "Come back home, okay? This is your home, this is your family."

There was no response from Lilac and Luna. Jasmine thought she had her wrapped around her fingers, but then she heard a loud commotion in the past and the people in the party were screaming in panic.

"What is that?!" Luna Jasmine immediately let go of Lilac and looked around, as if she could find the answer by doing so.

However, that was the time Lilac gave a response to what Luna Jasmine said earlier. There was this beautiful smile that curled on the corner of her lips.

"What did you say?" Lilac asked, her voice was very cold, so did the way she gazed at the Luna. "This is my home? No. This is not my home. My home is wherever Hunter is."

Luna Jasmine was not happy to hear that. "You make a fool of yourself if you thought he would never abandon you."

However, Lilac didn't falter, she actually smirked at the Luna and spoke in low and vicious voice. "You asked before about whereabouts of Hunter, but I can assure you that I know exactly where he is.”

Luna Jasmine frowned. She didn't understand what Lilac was saying and why she looked very different. More so, why there was this loud commotion from the main hall?

This loud commotion was not only heard by Luna Jasmine and Lilac, but Aiden heard that too. He was currently in the garden, as per his mother's instruction when he heard this.

“Aiden, what are you doing here?!” Al approached Aiden, he had been looking for him. “The alpha...

the alpha from the lycan pack!” he trembled in panic.

Al was Aiden's gamma and he was supposed to be in charge in the main gates, to make sure the security of the pack because there were so many alphas from different pack here, but what he was doing in the pack house instead of his post?

“Around three hundred lycan warriors marched here!” Al looked flustered.

“They brought three dead bodies and demanded to see you! And in the main hall! It's a chaos!”

“What happened in the main hall?” Aiden immediately stood up. He couldn't stay here. and wait for Lilac anymore.

What was going on?

“The lycan... I meant, the alpha lycan...” Al looked flustered and this made Aiden become very impatient.

“Talk clearly! What is going on?!” Aiden roared.

“The alpha lycan found that woman... the woman that sought for refuge to our pack!” Al followed Aiden, both of them rushed toward the main hall, where the commotion became more and more loud.

“The alpha lycan dragged the woman by her hair and asked for the audience.”

“What?!” Aiden was furious. Grace should know better not to meet with Hunter because it would implicate him, since all of them knew this woman was being hunted down by Hunter because of what her father had done in their pack. “What a stupid woman!” Aiden growled furiously.

“What happened in the main gates?!” Aiden asked for more detail as they ran. His heart beat against his ears, he knew how bad the situation could be. “Gather all the warriors and be ready for a battle!”

“We can’t do that! They will think we are taking their alpha as custody if we took aggressive stance!”

“If they were not asking for a battle, why three hundred lycan warriors marched to our gates?!”

Chapter 135

“They demanded to see you and ask for their alpha too, because they had captured traitors!” Al glanced at Aiden worriedly. “You don’t do anything reckless, right?”

Aiden didn’t answer that.

And once they reached the main hall, all the women had moved to the side and the alphas looked very furious as they stared at Hunter, who was standing tall with a woman knelt down on the floor near his legs.

“What is going on here!?” Aiden roared furiously, which silenced the entire room and the argumentation between the alpha died down.

The silence that ensued was very deafening and now, he was face to face with the alpha lycan.

“What are you doing in my son’s festivity!?” Aiden took an aggressive stance, while Hunter looked serene and the woman on his feet was crying.

“I should be the one who asked you. How this woman can be in your pack?” Hunter didn’t raise his voice, but you could feel the killing intent that emanated from his body. “Are you trying to break peace treaty again? Are you asking for another war?”
