Chapter 156

James had a complicated feeling about the baby, he was not sure what to feel about this little one. Sure enough the baby was innocent amidst all of this mess, but then this baby was the beginning of Aiden's downfall,

James stared at the baby's sleeping face. "No. He is sleeping, I don't want to wake him up." He then excused himself.

On the other hand, Ruby didn't insist further, she simply stood there, staring at James' back. He was a good alpha, but unfortunately, he was blessed with a woman like luna Jasmine and a son like Aiden.

For a long time, Ruby just stood there, until James's figure disappeared and then she walked toward Aiden's bedroom, where luna Jasmine was still crying, trying to persuade Aiden to get to his sense. The sight of her was so pitiful. Her precious son surely would be the death of her.

However, Ruby simply didn't care about this mother and son pair. She came here to inform Aiden that alpha Roman wanted to see him in private.

"Why he wanted to see him?" Luna Jasmine narrowed her eyes suspiciously.

"I don't know." Ruby shrugged her shoulders. "I was only told to deliver this message to him." Her voice and tone were very nonchalant, but the two of them didn't notice this in this situation, after all they were too preoccupied with their own trouble.

"Who delivered the message?" luna Jasmine immediately stood up and smoothed her dress, she didn't want to look bad, even in front of Ruby.

“The beta of their pack,” Ruby replied.

With that, luna Jasmine’s eyes lit up, she immediately turned around to face her son, who looked very pathetic. Ruby contemplated her feeling. The mate bond between them had weakened, but it didn’t mean, it had gone completely, thus she was still feeling bad for Aiden, even though she didn’t want to.

“Aiden, I think alpha Roman wanted to make a deal with you, you need to pay him a visit!” luna Jasmine was happy.

“He is not allowed to go out, luna Jasmine,” Ruby reminded her, which made luna Jasmine threw him a dagger look, because she was being corrected, after all, she hated it to look stupid.

“I know!” luna Jasmine growled at her.

“I will leave,” Ruby said, she didn’t want to stay there longer. The two of them suffocated her. Now, she needed a way to survive and her plan just begun...

Everyone in the pack house treated Lilac differently now, they showed their respect toward her and was very careful with her.

“They only act nicely in front of you, don’t think that you already welcomed in the pack,” Mira said, during their training session.

If there was one person, who didn't change, it must be her, because since the beginning, he didn't show any interest in Lilac and even now, she still treated her like a nuisance. Her words were very sharp too.

"I know," Lilac replied curtly.

"Good." Mira then went away to train the other women. She didn't even say 'congratulation' for her search the (Find)NOvel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

ceremony.

Lilac was not sure what she had done so wrong to earn her wrath. She didn't do anything, but it seemed, she hated her so much.

It wasn't that Lilac didn't know about the way people acted. She was well aware that their changed of attitude toward her was because of the ceremony, but behind her... Mira was right. A simple ceremony wouldn't change their sentiment toward her.

"What are you talking about with her?" Raya asked, she approached Lilac, drinking her water. Her body was full of sweat, since she had been training from this early morning and now it was noon. Were they going to war? Why she was training so hard?

"Nothing," Lilac said lightly.

"If there was nothing, your expression wouldn't be like that." Raya pointed it out.

"Like what?" Lilac furrowed her brows and Raya made an ugly face, which made her laughed. "I am not like that!"

"Of course, you are!" Raya laughed too.

The two of them were very close and Lilac was very comfortable with her, as if she was with Aria in the past when their relationship was still good.

Lilac was happy to have someone close to her again, because of Aria's betrayal, she felt like she couldn't trust anyone anymore, thankfully, Raya was here.

"What are you doing here? Let's go to get your body some training, you can't laze around just because you are the luna now," Raya teased her.

Actually, Lilac was here because she wanted to get some fresh air, but her feet brough her to the training ground, maybe because she used to come here often, thus unconsciously, she came here again.

“I want to tell you something,” Lilac said in low voice, her tone became serious.

“What is it? A secret?” Raya couldn’t help, but kept goofing around, thus Lilac pinched her waist, so she would be a little bit more serious. “Aw! Okay, okay. I am all ear now.” She leaned over and gave her ear to Lilac.

Lilac smiled sheepishly. She wanted to share this news with someone. She was very happy and it was a great thing when someone was happy for you too. That was what in Lilac’s mind when she told Raya.

“I am pregnant,” Lilac whispered with cheerful voice. Her heart burst with happiness and the butterfly in her stomach fluttered their wings.

It had been so long since the last time she was very happy like this.

A mother.

That was what she would be in the next few months. She would carry a new life inside her, a new life that was a solid proof of the love Lilac had for Hunter and so did the other way around.

She was very excited for her life in the near future.

And a few days later, Lilac and Hunter went to Golden Claw pack for the trial.

“A woman’s wrath is very scary,” alpha Ramon said with a chuckle. He stared at Ruby in front of him. He rapped his fingers against the table next to him, his eyes fixed on her.

Ruby just gave birth to a son, but her body was as slim as before she was pregnant, there was no baby weight on her, it could be considered as she lost her weight so easily, or maybe because of what she had to endure all this time, it simply weighed her down, caused her to lose so much weight without even trying.

It was good, but bad at the same time.

“Will you do it?” Ruby asked. She didn’t want to talk about anything else, because she wanted to leave this room as soon as possible. Her hands were trembling, this must be the first time she did something very risky.

“I will do it.” Alpha Ramon nodded. “You gave me a very tempting offer, how could I not?”

Ruby nodded as well. “There is nothing to talk about then. I will wait for what you will do on the trial.” She wanted to flee, but she stilled her heart and took her step slowly, showing that this didn’t bother her at all.

“Wait!” Alpha Ramon stopped her before she could reach the door. Her body froze, but she turned around as casual as possible. “I wonder what made you do this? Did he treat you that bad? He even left his own mate for you and your son.”

Ruby scoffed, she wanted to curse if she could, but she held her tongue and simply replied with the truth. “He didn’t leave her because he wanted to, Lilac was the one, who rejected him, so he didn’t have any other choice, but to settle with me.”

The truth was so painful.

Alpha Ramon looked a little bit taken aback by how honest Ruby was. He didn’t expect she would answer him in that way, so he was a little bit flustered and before he could say something else, Ruby had turned around and then left the room. She didn’t give the alpha a chance to question her anymore.

Once he was alone, alpha Ramon laughed, he felt like he had made a fool out of himself. “Such interesting woman.”

He agreed to help Ruby because he had a grudge against Aiden. Something that happened years ago, but even now, he still couldn’t forget about it completely.

He held his grudge so well and now he was going to bring him down when he was already unable to do anything.

“That woman didn’t know what she is trying to do.”

This deal would benefit him more than it did to Ruby. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

For Ruby, once she managed to get out of the room, she felt her heart was about to burst. She leaned against the wall and panted, clutching her chest because she couldn't breathe properly. It was very scary. It was scary because she knew she had done something completely wrong.

It took a while for Ruby to calm herself down, she was still trembling, but she already felt better now. But, she jumped out of her skin when someone called her name.

"Ruby? What are you doing here?" James asked, he was walking around the garden when he saw her figure. He wanted to avoid her, but she looked like she was going to pass out any minute. "Are you, okay?"

Ruby sighed deeply and then nodded. "I am fine, alpha," she said once she found her voice again.

"What are you doing here alone?"

"I-I..." Ruby stuttered for a while, but she cleared her throat and answered him. "I wanted to get some fresh air, that's why I am here." She licked her dried lips. "Alpha, what are you doing here?"

"I used to walk around when I am thinking." James sighed. He just confronted Aiden again, but his son became a disappointment for him. Not to mention Jasmine didn't help at all. He should have known this since the beginning that the way Jasmine treated their son would be an issue in the future and now, he reaped what he

"Are you, okay alpha?" Ruby asked with concern in her voice because the troubled look on his face was hard to conceal.

"I am fine," James replied, he smiled awkwardly at her.

"Do you want to walk with me?" Ruby grimaced. "I used to walk around too when I was thinking of something..."

James wanted to reject her, because it didn't seem appropriate for him to be seen with her, but then when he saw her pitiful face and knew how his son treated her, he didn't have a heart.

"Sure. Let's walk,"

Hunter stared at his mate dotingly, he caressed her cheeks and kissed the tip of her nose to wake her up. They were already arrived at the Golden Claw pack since an hour ago, but none of them came out of the carriage because Lilac was still sleeping and the alpha lycan didn't have a heart to wake her up.

"Little one, until when will you sleep?" Hunter nudged her chubby cheek.

They were going out of the pack in hurry because they had to leave in last minute because of their ceremony, for that, they couldn't announce Lilac's pregnancy, thus they needed to wait until they returned.

It was an important announcement thus they needed to take care of it carefully.

"Hunter, Lilac! Are you still inside? What are you two doing?" Rye was being impatient. If it was only Hunter inside the carriage, he would have opened the door and dragged him out of there, but because Lilac was still inside, he was afraid, it would be him, who got the heart attack. "I have been waiting under the sun for so long! I almost dry!"

"Hm?" Lilac furrowed her brows because of Rye's voice. She finally opened her eyes.

Lilac opened her eyes groggily because she heard Rye's loud voice and looked around her. She was still trying to figure out where she was when she heard Hunter chuckled.

"From the look of it, you really have a good sleep. I don't want to wake you up, but we really need to go and greet the other alphas." Hunter still caressed her cheek lovingly, sometime, his eyes would drift to her flat stomach. He couldn't wait to see their baby and watch their little one grew up.

But, he would take his time and enjoy his moment alone with Lilac.

"Have we arrived?" Lilac rubbed her sleepy eyes and this made Hunter chuckled even more, but from the sound of it, Rye seemed like he was about to cry.

The gamma had been complaining in his letters because he couldn't attend the ceremony and had to stuck in this pack. He really hated Hunter for that. He missed his big milestone! That was what he said in most of his letter.

"Yes, almost two hours ago."

"What?" Lilac widened her eyes in surprised, she turned her head, but Hunter instead kissed her lips. "Why didn't you wake me up?"

"I did."

If caressing her cheeks and peppered her with light kissed could be called as his effort to wake her up, well, it could be said he really was trying hard to wake her up.

But in the end, it was Rye's impatient that finally stirred her awake.

“Oh, I am sorry,” Lilac said sheepishly.

“You don’t need to be sorry, love. Take your time, I will go out first.” Hunter needed to calm down his gamma.

before he lost his mind.

Lilac blushed. She loved the way he called her and how she made her heart fluttered, as if the butterfly in her stomach came to live.

“I will be out in a minute,” she said, hastily combed her hair with her fingers and checked her dress, while Hunter went out and saw Rye.

The gamma looked like he was on the verge of tears or maybe he was on the verge of breaking down.

“How dare you having a ceremony without me there? How can you do that to me? I thought we are something!” Rye let out his grievances.

“What do you mean with something?” Hunter narrowed his eyes. He didn’t remember that they were ‘something’

“I mean, I am your best friend! Your lovely gamma and we have been through so many things together, but you left me behind! How could you?!”

“I didn’t leave you behind, I left you in this pack,” Hunter said lightly. “Stop being dramatic. Tell me what happened here.”

Rye scoffed, he folded his arms in front of his chest sullenly. "I am not telling you." He looked like a three years old now.

"Should I use my alpha's voice to you?" Hunter raised his brows, which made Rye flinched, he didn't have any other option, but to oblige.

Alpha's voice was not something trivial, you couldn't take it lightly. It happened once in the past and sure enough, Rye didn't want Hunter to use it on him again.

It was like an absolute command, which made you felt nervous and fidgeting the whole time, as if you couldn't think, but immediately did what you were being told. That was what you would feel when you heard the alpha's voice, because it was an ultimate order from the alpha.

With no other option, Rye started to recall all the things that happened in the Golden Claw pack.

"You are right, alpha Ramon made a move."

"I expected that much."

There was something that Hunter had been planning ever since he made Aiden fell into his scheme and it seemed, everything went well according to his plan.

Not long after that, Lilac came out of the carriage, she looked at Rye sheepishly and the gamma started with his spoiled act again, complaining about how he was not there during the ceremony.

Lilac apologized to him, but then she thought about something. "There is something that most of the people not yet heard. Do you want to know?"

“What is it?” Rye couldn’t hide his curious nature, as he leaned over and offered his ear, but Hunter pushed him away, so he wouldn’t be too close with his mate.

“You can just say it. No one will hear you,” Hunter said nonchalantly.

Seeing how Hunter was like this, Lilac chuckled, but Rye pouted his lips. “I am pregnant. There is only a handful of people, who knew about this.”

“Really?!” Rye was shocked. He expected they would be pregnant after their mating, especially when the ceremony was held in hurry, but he didn’t expect this soon. “Did Darren already know about this?”

This was Rye’s main concern. If there was a handful people, he wondered whether the beta beat him in this moment or not.

“No, not yet. Darren has not yet learned about this. Only the healer, your sister and you.” Lilac could see how Rye’s eyes lit up.

“I can brag about this!”

The three of them finally went into the pack house and met with the other alphas, but instead of Aiden, they met with alpha James, his father, because of the trial, he was stripped from his status and for the meantime, it was him, who ruled this pack again.

“It is nice to see you again, Lilac,” alpha James said.

Lilac didn’t hold a grudge toward him, she only felt bad because alpha James couldn’t be firm with his mate and his son, which led them to today. He used to let them do whatever they wanted and turned blind eyes for what Luna Jasmine’s action.

“It is great to see you too, alpha James,” Lilac replied.

Not long after that, the trial began and Aiden was taken out from the room, where he had been confined. This would get ugly before it got better. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Aiden looked more agitated than usual this morning because he was going to attend his trial. He stared at his reflection on the mirror and couldn't help, but growl in annoyance. This was not the look that he wanted to see.

He looked so haggard and awful. This was the result of pitying himself for a whole week. His eyes sunk to their socket and his complexion looked very pale, as if his skin had never touched the sunlight. His hair was messy and he looked like he lost so much weight.

The look of an alpha, who had ended the war with the lycan and killed their alpha was nowhere to be found.. Even he himself pitied the reflection of the man on the mirror. This was not him.

Today Lilac would attend. He couldn't be seen like this. This was humiliating.

“Are you ready?” Ruby asked, she entered the room to find Aiden was staring at the mirror. His eyes looked empty. “Your mother asked me to check on you.”

Ruby stopped her step for a while, she felt this pity in her heart, but this must be because the remaining of the bond that they shared. Having his mark was one of the foolish decisions she had ever made.

“Aiden?” Ruby approached Aiden, but the man didn’t show any indication that he heard her. “Aiden, are you okay?”

She stopped right behind him and touched his shoulder to get his attention, but then he flinched and turned around.

“Ruby?” Aiden called her name, his voice was a mix of sadness and sorrow, which made Ruby’s heart fluttered.

Was he in this so much pain? Why he looked like he was going to cry? And more importantly, why would I care?

Ruby didn’t want to care anymore about him, but it was hard to do so when you were tied by the bond of the mate.

“Are you... okay?” Ruby couldn’t help, but asked him. She had this urge to reach out to him, to touch him, to console him, which was very ridiculous because she had determined to destroy this man. She didn’t want to care about him anymore.

And then, something even more unanticipated happened, that was when all of sudden Aiden hugged her. He hugged her closely. Squeezed her body and rested his face against Ruby’s neck.

“Aidan... wh- what are you doing?” Ruby felt her heart warmed up. She couldn’t remember the last time he hugged her like this. She couldn’t remember when he treated her nicely.

However right now, it felt like her longing for him came forward. She couldn’t deny that deep down, she missed him.

Only if Aiden treated her right, she wouldn’t have done what she did with alpha Ramon, the deal with that alpha would certainly hurt Aiden.

Ruby was in dilemma right now. Was this a chance? Was there still a chance for them to be together happily?

No matter what, Aiden was still the father of her child. There was no way she didn’t feel anything when she intentionally was going to hurt him. search the Find_Novel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

But, Ruby should learn this. How fool she was to think she saw hope in their relationship with only a simple hug. This mere hug didn’t even cut it for what he had done to her all this time and all the hurtful word that came out of his mouth.

Because once again, the moment he opened his mouth, he shattered her heart into pieces.

“I hope I have never seen you. I hope I have never chosen you,” Aiden said with his sad voice that mixed with sorrow. “If I have never met you. I will live happily with my mate and she will be the one, who gave birth to my firstborn.”

Out of instinct, Ruby pushed him away, as she stepped back to see his face. Her eyes widened in disbelieve and what was more annoying was how her tears threatened to come out. She didn’t want to cry, but her tears streamed down her face.

Meanwhile, Aiden simply stared at her, as if he had never done something wrong. Her tears didn’t move him at all. How could Ruby the only one, who felt this strong feeling, while Aiden’s feeling went to Lilac even after what had happened and the rejection?

This was not fair.

Ruby opened her mouth a few times, as if she was trying to find the right word to say, but in the end, she gritted her teeth and turned around.

After saying that, Ruby walked out of the room. Her heart felt so heavy. This was not the first time her heart was being broken, but she cursed herself for being very stupid to think there was a chance for them.

The trial was held in the main hall, where all the alphas attended and instead of Aiden, it was alpha James, his father, who sat on the chair of the alphas.

Meanwhile, the lunas sat behind their respective partner, waiting for Aiden to make an appearance.

Lilac was sitting next to luna Jasmine. Even without saying anything or looking at her, she could feel how much she hated her now. After all, it was her mate, who had put her precious son into this trial, despite the fact Aiden was the one, who put himself into this trouble.

However, no matter how long they were waiting, Aiden still didn't come.

“Ask someone to check his bedroom.” Alpha James looked agitated, but somehow, alpha Ramon didn't look impatient like the rest of the alpha. Probably, it was only him and Hunter, who didn't seem to be bothered by Aiden's absent.

Not long after that, the warrior that was ordered to fetch Aiden from his room returned, he looked troubled.

“Alpha James, alpha Aiden is not in his room,” he said, whispering to alpha James's ear.

Lilac knew there was something going on upon seeing the look on alpha James's face. She knew something must have happened to Aiden, but that was not the only thing that she managed to observe, because she also could tell that Hunter was not completely innocent.

There was no surprise on his face, neither he was agitated because he had to wait for Aiden for hours.

Hunter indeed tried to look indifferent, but after being with this wicked alpha for months, Lilac slowly learned that there was nothing simple with him.

He might look lovey dovey with her and teased her all the time, but now Lilac realized, he was only being like that with her, since all the people in their pack looked shocked whenever he showed that side of him.

Lilac really wanted to ask him what happened, but from where she was sitting, there was no way to have this conversation with him.

And as if he was sensing his mate's restlessness, Hunter turned his head and looked at her with a mirth in his eyes.

Lilac frowned, as if asking; what happened, but all of sudden alpha Gavin stood up. He looked at alpha James, search the FindNovel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

unhappy.

"How long we have to wait?! How dare he let us wait like this?!" alpha Gavin was well known with his bad temper. He hated to wait and the most impatient alpha among the other six alphas.

Seeing how things turned out, Lilac almost could guess what would happen next and she turned her head just in time to see Luna Jasmine stood up, she was fuming because her precious son was being blamed and scolded right in front of her.

“Don’t you dare to raise your voice, alpha Gavin!” Luna Jasmine said sternly through her gritted teeth, Lilac could see how she balled her hands into tight fists.

Well, at the very least, it wouldn’t be boring anymore...

“Luna Jasmine! Don’t you dare to cross the line!” alpha Gavin roared, but Luna Jasmine didn’t back down. “Be quiet and know your place!”

allowed to talk or having an argumentation with the other alpha.

Their equality was limited within their pack and their own mate, but outside from it, the Luna’s status didn’t make you equal with the other alpha.

Luna Jasmine had been complaining about this every now and then when Lilac was still under her tutelage and even now, Lilac still admired her for standing up for herself and thought how wrong that rule was.

Thankfully, Hunter didn’t have the same thought and Lilac knew about that for sure.

“You must have forgotten that my son was the person who had ended the war and killed the previous alpha lycan! You can’t put aside his merit and turned blind eyes! Because of this trivial problem, you saw him as a villain!”

All eyes were on Hunter when Luna Jasmine addressed the fact that her son had killed his father.

That certainly true, but this was not something that you could talk lightly. No matter what, the previous alpha was still alpha Hunter’s father.

However, to everyone surprised Hunter didn’t show any indication that he was upset, but then it was hard to tell if you talked about this alpha.

“Alpha James! Is this how you managed your mate?!” alpha Gavin called out alpha James, which made all the attention was distracted from Hunter.

Alpha James stood up and asked for his warrior to remove Jasmine from the main hall.

“James!” luna Jasmine felt so humiliated. Not only her mate didn’t side with her, but he actually let other people criticized their son! “James! You know this is not our son’s fault! He is not at fault! This trial is nonsense!”

“Take her away!”

Alpha James had his own reason why he couldn’t side with his son and his mate, because at this moment, they had lost favor from the other alpha and with what Jasmine said earlier and the other alphas’ reaction, he couldn’t risk to get the situation even more out of hand if Hunter was trying to do something.

Once luna Jasmine was out of the picture, the room became quiet again, until one of the warriors of alpha Ramon came and whispered to his ear.

After the report, this time alpha Ramon stood up and announced that alpha Aiden had run away.

“He was spotted on the south part of Dtemi mountain!” he announced this loudly.

A buzz of people talking spread throughout the room and they were in disbelief that the alpha they praised so much just a few months ago had committed such low act by running away from the law.

“What are you going to do now?” Hunter finally opened his mouth and the room quieted down immediately. His dark and sharp eyes were on alpha James. “Are you not going to do anything?”

Alpha James’s face turned red. He had guessed it that Aiden had run away when he heard that he was not in his room, but even he himself couldn’t believe what a cowardice act he had committed, neither he thought his son was capable of doing it.

“Gather all the warriors and search the whole mountain!” alpha James finally gave an order.

“Are you sure your people will not cave in and let him go?” Hunter asked again. His intention was clear. “He is still the alpha of the pack, he held the status for quite some time, do you think your warrior will really capture him?”

Alpha Ramon immediately offered his warriors. “I will deploy my warrior to help,” he said and as if on cue, the other five alphas immediately offered the same thing too.

And a few moment later, most of the people headed toward the mountain.

Hunter turned around and smiled at Lilac. “Do you want to take a walk in the mountain, love?”
