“Do you know about this lycan?” Alpha James looked like he was aging for a few years overnight. He looked haggard and in trouble.

How could he not when his only son ran away from the trial and tarnished their name. He didn't have dignity and even the pack member questioned his action. Even if they managed to make him an alpha again, it would be so hard for Aiden to regain his people's respect.

But, aside from that, there was this hard pressing issue that alpha James had to handle first and put aside his thought about his son.

“I have laid out all the information I had about this lycan and that was all that I know.” Hunter looked around this study room. Aiden's scent still reeked this place because he used to stay in this room for hours.

Alpha James sighed. The pressure from the other alphas was very harsh, because they felt Aiden had something to do with this.

Thankfully, Hunter had brought up the topic before, so no one accused him of anything, or maybe he simply used someone to stir the opinion to put the blame on Aiden... no one knew what kind of move this alpha lycan made. Upon closer look, you would be able to notice that his personality had always changed depending on whom he was with and of course, Lilac would always get the best version of him.

“We need to find out where they are coming from,” alpha James stated to no one in particular, he stared at Hunter. “Do you have any idea how to find them?”

Hunter raised his brows, because he thought the question was rather ridiculous. “If I knew how to find them, I would have done that and marched to their pack.”

“Do you think they are rogue?” The beast without territory and even though they were in a group, they would move from one area to the other, since they didn’t have their own territory.

Alpha James was pretty flustered when he was being called out, but he regained his composure pretty fast. “I only thought because you are the lycan too, you know a thing or two that could help with the investigation.”

Hunter said nothing, but the look on his eyes alone could make alpha James felt really uncomfortable. He didn’t mean to offend this alpha. No, he couldn’t afford to offend this alpha lycan. He already had a handful of trouble, not to mention his mate had been crying nonstop because of the missing of their son and how wild the accusation was.

Generally, as werewolf, they didn’t like the lycan, but after what happened and how Lilac turned her back and went with the lycan pack, Jasmine had been hating them with passion. She felt like her own daughter had been stolen.

“I am sorry

if I offended you, you can leave,” alpha James said, deeply apologetic. He tossed away his dignity and gave his sincere apology to Hunter.

want to spend another minute inside this room

However, when he was about to leave, someone opened the door from outside and it was Ruby, she looked surprised to see Hunter was there. Because she thought alpha James was alone.

More so, this must be the first time for her to be this close with him, she could even smell his warm scent, which was very different from Aiden. She preferred this one.

“D- do you want a tea?” Ruby stuttered a bit, she was holding a tray with a tea set.

Hunter didn't answer her, instead he went out without saying anything. He looked callous and couldn't give a shit to his surroundings, but what fascinated Ruby was how he treated Lilac.

She wondered how it felt to be treated that way.

“What are you doing here?”

Alpha James's voice snapped Ruby back to the reality, she startled and tried to hide her thought, as she smiled at alpha James.

“Alpha, I heard you skipped your breakfast. I came here to bring you tea and snack.” Ruby knew that alpha James only had tea and snack for his breakfast and that was why she brought exactly that.

“Bring them back, I don't need it.” Alpha James was not in the mood to eat anything. He was not even able to drink a drop of water, because of the anxiety he felt.

However, instead of leaving like what alpha James told her to do, Ruby entered the room and went straight to alpha James's table. She put the tray down..

"You need to eat something, it's not good to force yourself. Things will not get better if you fell sick." Ruby poured the warm liquid of tea and handed the cup to alpha James. "Aiden is not here and you are the only pillar for this pack. You need to treasure your health. This will help you to calm down and think clearer."

Alpha James stared at the cup and then thanked her for her concern.

"Luna Jasmine is still inside her bedroom. I have delivered her breakfast, but..." Ruby was hesitated for a while, but alpha James knew what she had transpired. He knew his mate like the back of his hand, thus he was well aware of what kind of tantrum she must be throwing right at this moment. "I will send another meal to her once she has calmed down."

"Why do you call Jasmine as luna when you are the luna of the pack?" James sipped his tea. Ruby was right, it helped him to calm down and feel good.

"Because I respect her so much, just like how I respect you, alpha James. You are a good alpha," Ruby said sheepishly.

"If there is something good in Aiden, he must have gotten it from you, alpha James," Ruby said in small voice and sheepish voice. "This period of time must be so hard on you, but I am sure you will be able to handle this problem eventually."

James was startled when he heard how Ruby praised him, he was not someone who was easily fluttered, but then, it was very good to hear someone talked nicely about you and appreciate what you were doing.

He didn't get this affection from Jasmine because her mate was too busy to wallowing their son, who had run away and tarnished their name. Not even once Jasmine thought about this pack.

Of course, she loved this pack so much, but her precious son was above everything. Alpha James remembered how she fought him when he was about to send Aiden to the

But then, alpha James felt guilty because in a way, he sent his son away to his demise because he met this woman.

Alpha James raised his head and looked at Ruby. She looked innocent and genuine. "You can leave, Ruby. There are a lot of things I have to do today."

"Of course, alpha James," Ruby said, she nodded politely at him.

"Thank you for the tea."

"Anytime."

After that, she went out of the study room and walked toward the nursery room, where her son was still sleeping. She caressed his ruddy cheek and smiled bitterly.

"I love you so much baby, but I hate your father," Ruby said in small voice and then kissed her son's forehead.

Later that night Ruby met with alpha Ramon in secret again, she was wearing hoodie that covered her face and was being cautious with her surroundings.

"I don't believe it that you have nothing to do with the lycan's attack," Ruby said, narrowing her eyes at the alpha before her.

Alpha Ramon scowled at the accusation. "If there is anyone to be suspicious of right now, it is you." He approached Ruby, his figure was very intimidating, as if he was going to do something horrendous to this woman. "Watch what you said. Your mate was the only person, who obsessed to know about the other pack of lycan. He was the one, who joined hand with Grace and her father to infiltrate the lycan pack and cause himself ended up in a trial that would ruin his life.

Ruby gulped down hardly. She had never felt very scared like right now, thus out of instinct, she took a few steps back.

"But, you supposed to catch Aiden, yet, you couldn't find him. You lost him." The two of them agreed that they woul

Scheme against Aiden to make him received the heaviest punishment.

Alpha Ramon scoffed when he heard that. He wanted to laugh. "And do you think I deliberately lost him? How funny the way your brain is working."

Ruby hated the remark, because it reminded her that she came from a low family background and how uneducated she was.

"I gain nothing from letting him cape my clutch."

Ruby stared at him for a while, wanted to be sure that she was not being manipulated, but then, she couldn't tell the difference.

"I think our meeting should be ended, since you can't get what I want, I will not give you the one I promised you,"

Ruby promised him to help him schemed against alpha James, so he could claim this pack. That was the depth of her hatred toward the people in this pack, who treated her unfairly.

Aiden, the man, who supposed to be her mate and the father of her son turned his back and became very abusive toward her. He didn't even care at all of how hurtful the word he hurled toward her.

Luna Jasmine, the mother that she wished she would have, would always compare her with Lilac. There was not even a single day that went without her mentioning how good and smart Lilac was and how she wouldn't be able to meet her expectation like Lilac did.

While the rest of the pack member only watched everything in silence, they didn't offer her any help and looked at her as if she was a dirt, even after she gave birth to her son, they didn't count her as one of them.

In that case, she would rather help alpha Ramon to destroy this pack. Her hatred ran so deep and her anger turned into vengeance.

"Look for me again if you managed to find Aiden and bring him back to go through trial."

Alpha Ramon raised his brows. "Did you hate your mate so much?"

"Yes." After saying that, Ruby then walked away.

Meanwhile, alpha Ramon stayed in his place, staring at Ruby's back. He was deep in thought and remembered what the alpha lycan told him.

"He is insane..." he mumbled to himself. "How he could predict this?"

Hunter read this woman just like reading a report. He knew what kind of person this woman could be and how to use her.

More so, Hunter knew that he would agree with this arrangement and joined in in this scheme.

"I hope I will not be on his bad side." Alpha Ramon shook his head and walked away.

That night, storm hit the Golden Claw pack and everyone was forced to stay inside the room, but when morning came the sky was very clear and the air was crispy.

"Morning," Hunter said softly, kissing Lilac's face. She had been terrified the entire night because the sound of the storm was very scary, thus she snuggled against him and Hunter had to hug her to sleep.

"Morning..." Lilac said sleepily, she nuzzled his neck and closed her eyes again.

Hunter couldn't help, but chuckled when he saw how adorable his mate was. Her sleepiness was heavy on her and because of the pregnancy, she became easily sleepy and hungry.

"This is almost noon. You need to wake up." Hunter kissed her forehead. He stared at her sleepy face. This was the best sight in the morning. He felt so blessed to be able to wake up next to her.

"I am sleepy. I don't want to wake up." Instead of waking up, Lilac was trying to fall asleep again. She snuggled against Hunter and hugged him tightly.

At last, lost for what to do, Hunter whispered to her ear, because there were only two things that currently could intrigue his mate.

"Don't you want to eat? I heard the breakfast is delicious here."

Hearing that, Lilac pursed her lips. Hunter knew what to say and as if in command her stomach started grumbling. Ugh.

Of course, Hunter heard that too and started laughing,

"Are you laughing at your hungry, pregnant woman?" Lilac narrowed her eyes at him.

"How could I not? You are very adorable, do you even know that?" Hunter pinched her chin and captured her lips. Those plump lips tasted heavenly and Hunter felt like he could devour them for his breakfast.

However, both of them could hear how Lilac's stomach started grumbling again, which made both of them couldn't hold back their laughter.

"Our baby is hungry." Lilac said with a chuckle.

"Hm. Our baby is growing up."

Somehow, hearing how Hunter said 'our baby', warmed her heart. She couldn't believe it that she finally could have family on her own.

I am glad I have you by my side.” Lilac kissed his cheek and smiled softly at him.

“I am so grateful to wake up everyday by your side. I love you, my everything.” Hunter didn’t even exaggerated when he called her as his everything, because that was how lilac to him. She was everything he needed and wanted.

He would be greedy if he asked much more than What he had right now.

“I thought we are going to eat?” Lilac laughed when Hunter pushed her back to the bed, it was clear to see what he was intending to do.

Hunter growled. He needed to press down his desire for her. Dang! He didn’t think he was going to get enough of her! And this was insane!

Thankfully, in the end Hunter let her go and truly fed her now. The alpha actually bring breakfast to her bed.

“What are you planning to do now?” Lilac asked, munching on her second meat. She heard if you had a good appetite during pregnancy, there was a high chance that the baby was a boy.

Although, Hunter didn’t specifically said he wanted a boy, but in this world, it was very important to have a boy for a man, especially someone with Hunter’s status. He needed someone to pass down his lineage, not to mention because he was the only child and currently, the only one in his family.

“Hunter, you are not planning to conquere this pack, right?” Lilac remembered their last conversation A before the attack.

Her anxiety grew when she saw Hunter didn’t reply to her question. She put down her cuttleries and turned her head toward her.

“Promise me that you will not do it.”

Hunter’s jaw hardened when he heard that and after a while, he gritted out the words.
“They fucking hurt you.”

Chapter 167

Lilac startled to hear so much hatred in his voice. He had never really cursed right in front of her face and this let her know that she needed to choose her words carefully because the man before her would really weigh a war for her. She could see it in his eyes.

“Hunter, you killed your own father in order to stop the war with the werewolf, because you hated it. But, if because of me you started something that you hated, I will never be able to forgive myself.”

However, the plan already started.

“I know that in your eyes, I look like I suffered in this pack, but actually not everything was miserable. I still love this pack. This had been my home for years. It will break my heart to see this pack fall into ruin.”

Now, the question was, would Hunter be able to destroy something that this woman’s love? The answer was very obvious.

“Finished your meal and I will reconsider it.”

However, it was very clear to see that Hunter was going to fold for her. He loved her too much to cause her any pain even in the slightest.

“Thank you, Hunter.” Lilac ate her meal happily and Hunter thought that this woman would really be the death of him.

Meanwhile, because of what was going on, all the alphas agreed to make a group of people that consisted with two representative members from each pack to investigate this lycan that had attacked them.

*This group of lycan was still unknown, but many people, especially the alphas assumed that Aiden knew something about it.

Hunter alone was a threat for them because lycan was not a shifter that you could take them easily. One pack of lycan was already a great threat for them, let alone if there was another one out there that would be willing to fight them without any reason at all.

This on going issue had caused a lot of tension among the alphas and more so an extreme pressure for alpha James. The accusation was in the air that his son got himself involved in that attack.

Lilac went to the orphanage with the protection of Gavin and the other two more warriors. This was Hunter's idea, he didn't accept any refusal when Lilac told him She didn't want to go with a bunch of people.

These were the people that she grew up with and now they didn't even dare to approach her because of the three lycan warriors, who walked with Lilac, looked very scary and intimidating to say the least.

Therefore, they didn't come to her until She was the one, who approached them.

"Lilac!" They called her name when Lilac walked toward them with open arms, but they didn't dare to hug her until she was the one, who initiated it first.

There were three girls around Lilac's age and all of them looked so pleased to be able to see her again. Aside from them, there were these two little girls, whose Lilac used to play with, they were around the age of three to four.

"They look scary." One of the girls whispered to lilac's ear, while staring at Gavin, she hid behind Arabella.

Lilac chuckled when she heard that and she was pretty sure, Gavin also could hear what she said.

"He only looks scary, but actually he is very kind," Lilac whispered back to her.

However, the little girl didn't look convinced by what she said. She pursed her lips and still tried to hide from Gavin's sight.

"People hope you will become the luna and take luna Jasmine's role. No one really like her. Luna Jasmine also became more and more unbearable when you left for the lycan pack." One of them talked in low voice, afraid there was someone overheard her badmouthing the luna.

"How is it living with the lycan?"

"I heard they are very rude?"

"I also heard they didn't treat and outsider really well. They used to be very barbaric."

Lilac laughed when she heard that, that was not true at all. But, she understood where they were coming from. If she didn't live with the lycan and she was still as clueless as them, she would think that way as well.

Therefore, she tried to explain to them that those accusations were only rumor, that they treated her very well, especially the alpha.

At first, they didn't trust her, but then when they saw how happy Lilac was, they slowly believed what she said.

"I feel like I want to live in the lycan pack. They didn't treat us, the orphan really well here."

That was true, because Lilac also went through the same thing with them. They didn't treat her horrendously, but most of the time, the orphan children would be treated like a third class pack member. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

After Lilac's conversation with them, she needed to go back to the pack house, because Hunter would make a big fuss if she didn't return at the time, where they had agreed upon.

Though Hunter was busy with the meeting with the other alphas about the join force for a group formation to gather information about the lycan, but he would always make time to have lunch and dinner with Lilac.

However, when she walked out of the orphanage, she met with Aria.

Lilac met with him when there was an attack a few days ago, where she wanted to see her, but her guards told her to back down and drag her away. This time wouldn't be different if Aria- insisted to do the same stupid thing.

"Lilac..." Aria called her name, but Lilac walked away as if she didn't see her. "I did it for you. I did it because I want to help you and I thought that was the right thing to do to save you from the lycan."

Aria said her last word in small voice, yet the lycan could hear her and they growl, which made Aria flinched in fear.

However, Lilac didn't heed her word, neither she wanted to correct her way of thinking like what she did to the other girls she met and this made Aria cried so hard to be ignored. Still, Lilac didn't give a damn about her.

When she was back to the pack house, she had dinner with Hunter and they had a light talk about what happened throughout the day.

However, the two of them were not the only people, who shared their story with one another, because right now, Ruby did the same thing with alpha James.

Currently, Luna Jasmine was still wailing in pain for losing her precious son, thus she didn't make a public appearance very often, especially whenever she went, she would always hear about how they condemned what Aiden had done.

She would be very furious, but then she couldn't do anything anymore to prevent it, or else, she would only make the situation even worse.

"How was your day, alpha James?" Ruby asked, pouring a glass of water for him.

Chapter 169

Alpha James really appreciated Ruby's company, because everyone didn't seem to care about him, or rather, they had something else more important to care for, including his mate, who refused to talk with him, until he canceled the plan of creating a join force warrior to look for their son.

Jasmine thought not fair for their son. She demanded her mate to create their own warrior group to look for Aiden in secret, but alpha James denied the idea because he knew there was an internal turmoil within the warrior and the pack member, as they lost their trust on Aiden.

They were not thrilled to be led by an alpha, who runaway from his own trial and caused a lot of trouble for their pack by provoking the lycan pack.

They started to show their dislike when Aiden betrayed Lilac and returned with a pregnant woman, but that misdemeanor was still covered by his victory, yet it wouldn't work this time. The trick had expired and they didn't really care about Aiden's achievement anymore.

Therefore, the first thing that alpha James should do was to get his people's trust back. Backing his son up would only backfire on him and this pack.

It had been stressful days and no one cared for his well beings, including his mate. it was only Ruby, who came to him to check on him and had a small talk like right now, which helped to reduce his stress.

"Not really good," alpha James said, while he accepted the meat to his plate. The two of them were eating together in his study room. He looked like he had aged for a few decades.

"I am sorry to hear that. You have done so great for this pack."

Alpha James didn't respond to that comment, but he felt good to be appreciated, as they continued to eat, they talked about trivial matter that didn't

the topic about the lycan or whatever problem that the alpha had to face right

Alpha James noticed how clever Ruby was to stir the topic of their conversation and made it as light as possible, so the dinner was delightful.

He thanked her for the meal and for coming to him, as Ruby cleaned up their dinner and said that she would come again later. Alpha James didn't agree, he disagreed with neither that. He simply told her to take care and she didn't prolong her stay there.

However, when Ruby walked out of the room, she bumped into Luna Jasmine, who apparently decided to emerge from her bedroom and grace her mate with her presence. Actually, she had something to ask. This was the same old song. The same demand.

"What are you doing inside?" Luna Jasmine asked, she stared at Ruby with a frown, but this time, the latter didn't look so scared like she usually did.

"I just returned from the alpha's study room," she answered truthfully.

"With meal?" Luna Jasmine's eyes found the tray full of empty plates, where they just had their meal earlier.

"Yes." Ruby smiled softly, but in Luna Jasmine's eyes, it looked like she was mocking her, thus a harsh slap landed on her cheek.

"What are you trying to do?!" Luna Jasmine grabbed her hair and landed another harsh slap on her cheek, as she kicked her down. She was already very agitated when she came here and now when she saw Ruby and what she had done, she immediately jumped into a conclusion. "You bitch!!!"

Right now, Luna Jasmine was sitting on top of Ruby, while delivering a few more harsh slaps, until Ruby couldn't feel her cheeks anymore.

“Are you trying to seduce my mate?! You are not satisfied by seducing my son and now you are trying to get to my mate too?!” luna Jasmine screamed on top of her lungs, while delivering more and more harsh slaps on her face.

Because of this commotion, there were so many people came to see what was going on, but they didn't dare to stop the luna, because they knew damn well how their luna was when she lost her calm. More so, they were not so close with Ruby to help her.

They chose not to interfere and grimace when they saw how swollen Ruby's face was.

This assault continued for another five minutes, until one of them went to get the alpha and once alpha James saw this, he roared angrily, which startled everyone present there.

“What do you think you are doing?!” alpha James asked, as he yanked his mate off Ruby, who was bleeding profusely, as she curled herself on the floor and started crying.

“What do you think I am doing?!” Luna Jasmine lashed out at her mate, she swatted his hand from her and glared down at him viciously. “Do you know what she was trying to do to you?! Are you dumb?!”

Alpha James lost it. He raised his hand and a harsh slap landed on his mate's face, it was so hard, luna Jasmine fell to the floor with blood oozed out her mouth. She was too shock to speak, when she turned her head to look at alpha James in disbelieve.

This was the first time for her mate to lay a hand on her, which surprised alpha James as well, but his anger got the best of him, because of what luna Jasmine tried to implicate with her words in front of so many people. His pride was hurt. After all, he was the alpha, Jasmine should know better not to humiliate him in front of his pack member.

“You went too far!” luna Jasmine roared at alpha James, while holding at her swollen cheek, her split lip had stopped bleeding, but she felt humiliated. “How dare you lay a hand on me!”

“Shut up!”

“What trouble you?” Hunter asked, he watched how Lilac didn’t really enjoy her meal. “Do you want to eat something else?” This pack was Lilac’s former pack, Hunter was not sure what she felt about stayed here for a little bit longer. “Something is bothering you in the orphanage?”

Hunter stretched out his hand and caressed her cheek. She looked so beautiful and a little bit chubbier due to her pregnancy, but he really liked it, because Lilac used to be very skinny and pale when she arrived at his pack in the beginning.

“Nothing.” Lilac had told him about her encounter with Aria and in fact, it didn’t really bother her. She didn’t feel sad for the loss of years friendship. But, there was indeed something else that she kept thinking about.

“You know that you can tell me anything,” Hunter said softly, he leaned over and kissed her forehead tenderly. He loved to see her, but the troubled look on her face really didn’t sit well with him.

Hunter gave her time to process and he was right, because in the end, Lilac couldn’t help, but voice out her concern.

“Hunter... can you please stop?”

Hunter stared at her for a while and then immediately knew what she was talking about. “Love, no matter what I did, this pack will meet its demise sooner or later.” Hunter had predicted everything.

If this pack would be fallen in the end, he only wanted to get a benefit from it, but more importantly, he wanted those people, who had hurt his mate to be in pain, he wanted them. to suffer. That was his main reason, while he gathered more benefit from it.

“There will be no war or blood that will be spilled. You don’t need to worry about that.” Hunter was thinking the cruelest way possible, but knowing his mate, Lilac wouldn’t agree with his action, thus he changed his plan accordingly.

“What do you mean?” Lilac frowned. She didn’t understand, but Hunter simply chuckled and stood up.

“Come I will show you something interesting.” He stretched out his hand for her to take. “I am not sure whether this will make you feel better or not, but I hope this will soothe your disappointment and misery.”

“What is it?” Lilac took his hand and followed him out, where Hunter took her to alpha James’s study room and witnessed everything from the distance. “What is happening?”

Right before her eyes, alpha James and luna Jasmine engaged in a heated argument, while Ruby was sitting on the floor, looked miserable and pitiful, as the other pack member stared at the whole situation with a mixed feeling and expression.

Meanwhile, Ruby was at lost too, because she didn’t think the situation would escalate this fast, but deep down, she felt this happiness that spread in her veins, where she could feel her heart was beating so fast to see how distraught and humiliated luna Jasmine was. This was something that she wanted for her.

This luna should know the feeling what Ruby felt during her life being humiliated and even though this couldn’t cover

However, on the surface, she didn't show it. She lowered her head in fear like everyone else here.

"Go back to your room and stay with your son," alpha James talked to Ruby, his voice was not as harsh as when he talked to luna Jasmine, but it was very stern and he looked very impatient.

Ruby immediately left the scene, which made the situation became even more awkward for luna Jasmine, who was still sitting on the floor, her eyes widened and she looked like she was going to cry her heart out or scream on the top of her lungs.

But, before she could do any of that, alpha James had left her there, he walked back to his study room. He had a lot on his plate, he didn't need any additional headache that could – waste his time.

And once the alpha left luna Jasmine there, she started to She lashed out on everyone there, who still stared at her, scared them away.

"Wh- what do you mean with this?" Lilac asked, she looked at Hunter with confusion, as her mate took her away from the commotion. "You are the one, who caused this?"

"Yes, and no."

Lilac frowned. She couldn't understand with that ambiguous reply. "What do you mean with that?"

"I only said the right thing to the right people, giving them a suggestion of what they should do." Hunter shrugged his shoulder. "Thankfully, they are smart enough to understand that."

"You don't have to." Hunter took her hand and kissed her forehead. "I promise you there will be no war."

“But, you are going to destroy this pack.” Lilac didn’t know the extent of Hunter’s hatred toward this pack and his desire to destroy this place, especially after Aiden’s attempt to get his mate back.

“Yes and you can’t make me change my mind.” Hunter kissed her lips before she could protest and pressed her body against the wall. Thankfully, there was no one in this corridor.

Meanwhile, miles away, Aiden was facing the most difficult choice in his life...
