Chapter 176

Chapter 176

It had been a few days since the last time alpha James met with Ruby after the incident with luna Jasmine. He intentionally avoided her and thankfully, that woman was smart enough not to approach him and let the situation cooled down.

However tonight, alpha James was exceptionally feeling down and he couldn't come to his mate for comfort, because Jasmine was still adamant that he had done something horrendous to their son. She didn't even acknowledge her mistake at all.

In her eyes, everyone else were at fault. Their son wouldn't have runaway if they didn't corner him and accuse him for something horrible.

Jasmine believed alpha Hunter only made up story about the attack to his pack.

And there was no amount of words that could convince Jasmine otherwise. She was too stubborn when it came about their son and he wouldn't accept any other advice, despite the one that she believed was right.

Alpha James was not a weak person, but he also needed someone to comfort him, especially during this tough time. He knew it was wrong, but he wished for Ruby's company. At the very least, he could talk about something else, aside from the problem with the lycan and the other alphas.

At first, alpha James planned to ask Ruby to come seeing him in the afternoon, having a lunch like they used to, but when he was about to return to his bedroom, somehow his feet took him to his grandson's room, in which Ruby's room was next to it.

That was when he heard her cry. She was crying silently in the beginning, but then her cries became more palpable.

"Ruby?" Alpha James tried to call her because he was worried there was someone sneaking inside her bedroom. "Ruby, are you inside?"

Ruby didn't seem to hear him, but because of the urgency of the situation, alpha James decided to take an action right now, as he entered the bedroom without any sound and found her writhing on the bed, she looked like she was in so much agony.

Alpha James looked around, trying to find any threats or any danger that had caused her pain, but there was no one inside the room, aside from the two of them.

In that case, why would Ruby in so much pain? He couldn't understand and then try to wake her up. He shook her body and tried gauge the situation.

Chapter 176

"Ruby! Ruby!" Alpha James called her name loudly, trying to get her back to reality, but it was not easy to get her attention, because she kept thrashing in her sleep, she almost looked like someone just stabbed her and skinned her alive, if that even made sense.

Alpha James looked at her closely, the way her face was contorted in pain and how she asked for help. She pleaded with him to stop the pain, but alpha James didn't have any idea, where the pain was coming from, until he saw it.

Because Ruby was moving around, her hair was brushed back and her neck was exposed, that was when alpha James saw the mark on her neck. Her mark was burning. It was bright red, the sign of betrayal.

When Aiden betrayed Lilac to be with Ruby, he had not yet marked her, that was why Ruby didn't feel anything, but it was different with Ruby right now.

When Aiden betrayed her, she already had a son with him and he already marked her, therefore, when he betrayed her, she would feel this excruciating pain.

"Damn it that son of mine!" Alpha James cursed under his breathe when he realized this. fact.

Not many people knew about this, because a shifter shouldn't have betrayed their other half. That was unacceptable. A mate was for life..

However, his son not only betrayed his destined mate, but he also betrayed the mother of his son. What a scumbag he was to do such abominable thing for the second time. How they could create such vile and vain son?

"It's okay Ruby, you will be fine. It's alright." Alpha James didn't know what to do on how to help her, thus he rushed out to call for a healer.

Meanwhile, Ruby was in so much pain, she was in an extreme agony when Aiden started the ceremony with Danika, spending the night together in the throes of passion, didn't care much about anything else, aside from ending this tradition.

However, Aiden found himself couldn't get enough of this woman. She reminded him of Lilac. Her gloomy side and how her velvety hair brushed his skin. He was a fool for not marking her first and mated with her before he left for the war.

Only if he did that, he would still have her now, she would be tied down with him for life and she wouldn't be able to reject him easily like she did to him.

He was fool not to think that.

Chapter 176

He would still have her now if he marked her.

Meanwhile, not even once it crossed his mind that his action had caused a great pain on Ruby, because like what alpha James said, not everyone knew about this fact. He didn't- know that his action could cause pain to the mate that he had marked and right now, Ruby felt like her heart was being ripped apart.

"How is she?" Alpha James asked the healer about Ruby's current state and she confirmed what he was afraid of.

"It seemed, you are very right about this one alpha," the healer said in apologetic tone and alpha James had never been so humiliated in his life when he heard that. His son was mating with someone else right now.

When everything fell apart and his mother had been defending him with her life and the pack was in the brink of crumbling. He actually had a gut to mate with another woman!

No wonder. He escaped from this place and the lycan had helped him, what else he expected from his son?

Only less than a year ago, he was so proud of him for actually ending the war with the lycan, but right now, he actually would start a new war, but this would be worse than the last time. Alpha James couldn't think of a way what the reason Aiden did this to himself and his pack.

"What we should do now?" alpha James grimaced to see Ruby was in so much pain and probably because the baby felt what his mother was feeling right now, he started to cry. In the room next to this, the baby started to scream on the top of his lungs, which made. the healer looked uncomfortable.

“There is only one way to alleviate the pain from her, or else, she would feel this pain every time her mate is mating with someone else,” the healer said.

“What is it?” Alpha James frowned, he had heard about this, but he had never heard about how you could deal with it.

The healer looked hesitated when she told him about what should be done in this.

situation.

“She needed to be remarked.” The healer looked at the alpha. “The pain will be subsided, but if her mate was mating again with another woman, she would be in this excruciating pain.”

“What?” Alpha James had never heard anything like this and he was in disbelief. “Remarked her?” SEARCH THE WEBSITE TO ACCESS CHAPTERS OF NOVELS EARLY AND IN THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

“You need to find someone to remark him, alpha.” The healer looked at Ruby with a complicated look. “In that case, she will no longer tie down with alpha Aiden. She will be no longer a luna of the pack.”

Even the healer found it funny when she said it, because no one ever saw her as the luna of the pack, even when she had given birth to the alpha firstborn.

“I will call someone to comfort the baby.” The healer then left because she couldn’t stand the heartbreaking cry of the baby, leaving alpha James to find a solution for this problem.

Alpha James stood there, he was trying to think of the right person to remark Ruby when she suddenly grabbed his hand and pleaded with him.

“Please... please, mark me...” Ruby cried, she didn’t think clearly because of the pain and her request shocked the alpha. “Please, help me, this is very painful.”

Chapter 177

“Please, help me... this is too painful. I am in a lot of pain...” Ruby begged him. “Please, stop the pain. I am in so much agony.” Ruby cried her heart out. She couldn’t wait for alpha James to think of someone to mark her.

It wouldn’t be an easy thing to do, since the person should be willing to mark her and if he didn’t want to, Ruby would be in pain for who knew how long? That bastard mate of her would have done it a few more times.

Ruby was very familiar with his method. He was someone, who wouldn’t be enough get it once. He would do it the whole night and Ruby dreaded the thought she would be in this kind of hellish pain for a whole night, while he drew pleasure from someone else.

“You don’t think straight, Ruby,” Alpha James said sternly, he tried to free her grip from him, but he couldn’t..

It was either he didn’t put an effort to free himself from her, or it might be because Ruby held onto him so tightly.

“Please...” Ruby kept pleading with him, she pushed herself from the bed all of sudden and hugged him. Her warm, ragged breath against his neck, while her scent assaulted his senses.

At this point, alpha James couldn’t think straight. His mind was very muddled ever since he walked into her bedroom and now, he was faced with this.

Her pleading kept echoing in his ears and how her body was trembling because of the pain. He felt angry for his son to act like that. One time was a mistake, but the second time, it was simply stupid and irresponsible..

“Please, alpha...” Ruby moved her head, giving her neck to alpha James. “Remark me...”

Alpha James didn’t know what came to him, but he actually considered it. He licked her neck and he could taste her sweetness, which made Ruby moaned when his warm tongue caressed her sensitive skin. She held her breathe when alpha James put his hand around her body and then tilted her head so he would get a better angle to mark her.

Ruby waited with anticipation. She wondered whether this would be very painful. Would the pain increase? Or the remark would alleviate the pain? Ruby didn't dare to make a speculation and when alpha James's canine penetrated her flesh, Ruby bit her lip to stop herself from screaming and moaning at the same time. Lilac didn't feel better after she talked with her father, if anything, she felt even worse. Kellan didn't offer any new information for her.

From the look of it, not only Hunter had destroyed his hearing, but he also 'accidentally', like how he put it into word, had created a damage on his brain too.

From what they could gather. Lilac's mother was most likely still alive, but no one knew where she was, since she was banished from her own pack.

Kellan didn't keep in touch with her too. He most likely didn't care about her, just like how he didn't care about little Lilac.

"I am going to have him killed two days from now, in front of all the pack member," Hunter said, as both of them laid on the bed. Lilac snuggled against him, because she felt her emotions were all over the places.

"Hm..." Lilac buried her face against his chest.

"We don't need him with anything anymore. He held no more value."

"Hm..." Lilac mumbled. She didn't care what Hunter was going to do to her real father. He could kill him for all she cared.

"Tired?" Hunter asked, as he caressed her back in soothing motion.

"Sleepy."

"Sleep then..." Hunter gave her a kiss on her head and then cradled her to sleep. Lilac fell asleep very fast, in no time, her breathing became even and she had this little snore that Hunter thought very cute. "Sleep, my love."

Hunter knew that Lilac had tried her best to figure out her past and to have someone like Kellan as her father was truly a mess.

However, aside from Kellan, there was Grace too. Grace didn't know anything about Lilac, more so about her mother and she was most likely only got caught in the middle of this situation.

“Sleep well, my love.” Hunter put the blanket over Lilac’s figure and then slowly got off the bed. There were a lot of things he needed to do and in a few days he would need to go back to Golden Claw pack to sort out a few things.

He couldn’t bring Lilac with him, because of her pregnancy. He wanted her to rest in this pack, especially when she didn’t look so thrilled to go back to her former pack.

“I want everything on schedule,” Hunter said to Rye the first thing when he walked out of the bedroom. The gamma had been waiting for him outside and the alpha could sense him.

“Okay,” Rye said, yawning. It was already in the middle of the night and he still had a lot of things to do.

The next day, Lilac was busy to prepare a small ceremony to announce her pregnancy. It would be held within two days later, in which was greeted by surprise and many good wishes for her and the baby.

There was nothing major that happened during that period of time and Lilac felt so happy, like really, really happy for the first time. She loved to be surrounded by these people and looked forward for her little one to come to this world.

Raya, Rose and Lena were always by her side. The three of them were her closest friends and they were soon inseparable. Most of the time, Lilac would tell them to drop the formalities because she didn’t want them to address her with her title and they did just that whenever they were alone.

Aside from Hunter, Lilac would entrust her life to the three of them, that was how much she valued her friends.

But, when Lilac was three months long, Hunter had returned to Golden Claw pack.

“Can’t I come with you?” Lilac pleaded with her eyes. She knew that Hunter would return, but when the day came, she felt it was too hard to let him go. She wanted him to stay with her.

“I am sorry, love. I can’t bring you with me.” Hunter knelt down in front of Lilac and kissed her flat stomach. She had not really been showing yet, only a little bump there, as if she just ate too much.

Lilac pursed her lips.

“I will be back in two months.”

“I am going to give birth.”

Hunter chuckled. “We still have around four months to see the little one, right? I will be there with you.” He kissed her little bump again.

Chapter 177

The healer glanced at Ruby, as she checked on the baby, he had been having a fever, which was not normal for a shifter to have, but then a baby shifter was still fragile, they didn't have the same immune system like an adult shifter.

“How is he?” Ruby asked sternly, she took her baby from his crib and cradled him in her arms when he started to cry. “Is he alright?”

“He will be alright, Ruby. You don't need to worry.”

“I prefer for you to call me as luna,” Ruby said firmly. She looked at the healer in the eyes and she avoided her gaze.

“Yes, luna.” The healer lowered his head. She was the only one, who knew about this. About how alpha James had remarked Ruby.

It was inappropriate and even more immoral for him to do so, it almost like he was cheating with his son's mate in this regard.

And of course, luna Jasmine could feel it when alpha James remarked Ruby. She had been kicking a fuss to find out the woman that alpha James cheated with, but no one knew about it and the alpha himself didn't open his mouth.

But, luna Jasmine would have never imagined, even in her wildest dream that her mate would have something going on with Ruby.

“I heard the people from the lycan pack will be here in a few weeks,” Ruby said. “Is that true?”

“I am not sure, luna, I was not informed about that kind of thing.”

Chapter 178

Chapter 178

Ruby just confirmed that the people from the lycan pack would be here in four days and what was important was the fact that the alpha lycan and his pack member would come without their luna, because apparently she was pregnant.

The news about Lilac was being pregnant, somehow, upset Ruby, but knowing that was the reason why she couldn't come, her mood lifted up again.

The alpha lycna was very intimidating, but she liked the way he treated Lilac. The way he looked at her would make your knees went weak.

Meanwhile, her relationship with alpha James could be said as good. There was this tension between them after that remark and this made the alpha avoided her, which Ruby did mind at all. She simply sat back and watched how luna Jasmine tried so hard to figure out who was the woman that alpha James had been with. Because of this too, the alpha chose to keep distance from her.

Later, a day before the alpha lycan came to Golden Claw pack, he had to bid his mate goodbye and Lilac became very clingy to him. She didn't want to let him go.

"Are you sure you don't want to take me?" Lilac asked, she hugged Hunter tightly, as they were in their room.

Hunter hugged her back, chuckled. "I want to, but I can't."

"You can do anything that you want, you only need a determination about it." Lilac looked at him in the eyes, pursing her lips because she was not happy at all.

"My love. Even when you came, I can't be always by your side and you are not comfortable in that pack. I don't want you to be stress." Hunter kissed her lips and lifted her off the ground, as he laid her down on the bed. "Remember? You are the one, who wanted to go back."

Lilac frowned because Hunter was right, but she was being stubborn right now, yet before she could protest anymore, Hunter had swallowed her words and kissed her passionately, he traced her body and brushed his hand against her breast, which made Lilac moaned and forgot what she was going to say.

Especially when Hunter ran his hand down, lifting her dress and caressed her inner thigh. She forgot to reason with him and enjoyed his every touch.

“You look so willing,” Hunter teased her. He chuckled when Lilac opened her eyes and glared at him, but she couldn’t be angry for long when his finger brushed aside her undergarment and he inserted his finger, making this delicious motion against her wet opening. “Have I told you that ‘I love you’ today?” Hunter nipped on her chin.

“Yes...” Lilac replied breathlessly, as she savored this moment.

“I love you, Lilac.”

She closed her eyes, but when Hunter traced her jawline down to her neck, he bit his mark there and this made her gasped, at the same time, Hunter used to fingers to pleasure her.

This drove Lilac insane. He knew how to please her, as if he knew every inch of her body. He knew her body more than she herself.

“Let it go, love...” Hunter said, as he increased his pace and it didn’t take long before she came undone and drenched his fingers with her sweetness. “Good girl...” He rewarded her with a kiss and brought his fingers to his lips and licked it, letting Lilac to watch what he was doing. She blushed and she looked even more adorable.

However, Hunter took responsibility for the mess that he made. He then shifted his body and knelt down between her legs.

“Wh- what are you doing?” Lilac asked, feeling embarrassed when Hunter placed his face between her legs. She knew what he was going to do, but she was still savoring her climax when suddenly she could feel his tongue in her openings. He licked her there, cleaned her up. “H- Hunter...”

Lilac felt her body shuddered when his tongue traced her sensitive spot and she came undone fo the second time.

By the time they were done, Lilac was spent. She forced herself to get off the bed to see him leaving. She was still being clingy, but she stopped complaining.

"I will do more when I come back," Hunter said against her lips in front of all the warriors, as he lifted her off the ground and hugged her tightly.

"I will wait for that," Lilac replied, giggling.

With that, Hunter left with the other warriors and his gamma to Golden Claw pack. He promised to return as soon as possible and Lilac only needed to be patient.

"You look so in love," Lena teased her. They watched how the alpha kissed her passionately before he left.

"You must see it wrongly..." Lilac couldn't help, but blush.

With that Lena, Rose and Raya teased her, as they returned to the pack house. But, Raya glanced over her shoulder one last time to stare at the distance. She didn't know what to feel about this.

Because Lilac didn't come with them, Hunter and the rest of the warrior reached Golden Claw pack in their beast form, which they could arrive sooner than expected.

There were around thirty warriors, including the gamma and the alpha in this group of lycan beast and all of them looked very intimidating, especially with the alpha led the way for them.

When they finally reached the pack fortress, alpha James was not there because they arrived ahead of the schedule and a few warriors immediately escorted them to the pack house, where alpha James was informed.

Hunter didn't make a big deal out of it and after take some rest, he joined the dinner with the other alphas too, where Ruby attended as well.

Ruby was shocked to see Hunter was there and started to ask around about it.

"Oh, so he really didn't come with his luna," Ruby said to herself. She talked to Ania, she was a woman in her mid thirty and the only person, whom she considered close with. She didn't really like luna Jasmine, but didn't show it publicly.

"Yes, from what I know, he is worried about his luna because she is pregnant with their first child." Ania sighed deeply. She and Ruby were sitting in different table from the alphas. "I thing Lilac is very fortunate to have him as her mate, even though he is a lycan and from what I heard a lycan can be brutal."

“But, he is very affectionate to her.”

“Yeah, I could see that. I think not all the rumor about the lycan is true.”

Ruby kept glancing at Hunter for the whole dinner, until the alphas decided to discuss this matter into a more private room. They left and from the information that Ruby gathered in the morning, the alphas had a meeting until very late night and only this morning they decided to make a move.

However, Ruby wanted to know more about what kind of plan they had and what they were going to do. She wanted to feel involved.

Therefore, she used this reason to start sending lunch again to alpha James. This afternoon, she came with meal for her and him, continued the routine they had before luna Jasmine made any fuss about it.

Alpha James was surprised, but he was also pleased, because seeing Ruby felt like a breath of fresh air amidst the hectic of the situation that they were currently in.

At first, it started with a normal, trivial conversation, but then Ruby drifted the topic about the lycan and the meeting, in which alpha James told her everything. He needed someone on his side to talk about this matter after all and Ruby came at the right time when his mate completely ignored him and only gave him a hard time.

“Lilac, why don’t you try this? I made these cookies, but I am not sure if I got the receipt right,” Raya said, as she offered her a few cookies that she had baked.

“I don’t know that you like cooking,” Lilac said as she ate the cookies.

Currently, they were in the garden, enjoying the morning light and basked themselves in it. The healer said, it was good for the baby.

Chapter 179

“This is delicious,” Lilac thanked Raya for the cookies, she liked chocolate and during this pregnancy, it seemed her sweet teeth became more apparent. She always craved for something sweet in the middle of the night and Hunter used to bring some cookies or chocolate for her just in case she was woken up and wanted to eat those. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Therefore, it was rather hard and lonely for Lilac when Hunter was not around. She didn't mean to be a spoil little girl, but she craved his presence more than these sweets.

“I will bake more of cookies if you really liked it,” Raya said with a warm smile to see how she munched on her cookies.

“Yes, please.”

And with that, Lilac would always have these cookies that Raya made for her. She would refill the jar every time she ran out of it.

And among Raya, Rose and Lena, Lilac was way closer to Raya than the other two, probably because Raya was always available for her.

As days passed, Lilac was not really lonely again, especially when Hunter would write for her all the time. There would always be a reply to her letter, even though he didn't say much, but it would always end up with ‘I love you’ and ‘I miss you’.

That was not enough for Lilac, but it was way better than she expected, because she thought Hunter would only reply to her letter once in a blue moon. Actually, she started to enjoy this exchange of letter with him.

However, recently she felt lethargic, probably because her baby was growing and her mood would be all over the places some time, thus waking up in the morning was really not her thing.

Meanwhile, Hunter was working his ass off to get everything done in the Golden Claw pack, because he wanted to go back home as soon as possible, but this bastard Aiden only made everything more complicated.

There was this attack near at the territory of alpha Delvin's pack, where they spotted it was actually the lycan attack. They couldn't confirm whether Aiden was part of it or not, but alpha Delvin was furious. He was enraged because ten of his warriors died during this sudden attack and he demanded Aiden to be killed on the spot the moment they found him.

But, when this demand reached luna Jasmine's ears, she kicked another fuss.

“You can’t let them slaughter our son!” she roared angrily, throwing anything that she could reach. “How can you let them talking about killing our son and you didn’t do anything!?”

“What can I do!?” Alpha James was between rock and hard place. He hardly could think of anything and the way Jasmine screached at him only made him even more furious with her.

Chapter 179

“That’s his fault! He was the one, who brought this mess upon himself! If he couldn’t clear his own name, he didn’t deserve to be the alpha of the pack! We didn’t need him!”

That was right. They didn’t den anymore. He was a lost cause ared oow they irul Az his grandson. There was no need for Aiden to be presence anymore.

Because if alpha James had to defend his son, he would be against the other five alphas and the alpha lycan too. That would cost him his life and his pack. I cost him his life and his pack.

But, luna Jasmine couldn’t think clearly al But, luna Jasmine couldn’t think clearly about that. She only wanted her precious son and whatever reason James told her didn’t make her changed her opinion and saw things in different perspective or the consequences of the situation they were in right now.

Therefore, a harsh slap landed on alpha James’s face the moment he finished his words.

“How dare you to trade your own son with that bitch’s son!?” Luna Jasmine completely couldn’t accept that.

Yes, she loved Azel, because the baby was her son’s firstborn and he was her first grandson too, but half of his blood was that bitch’s. Ever since what happened the other day, she still couldn’t stand the sight of Ruby without imagining tearing her face. That woman had ruined everything. Her son’s life and her life too. She couldn’t stand her at all!

“That’s your grandson!” James hollered, he raised his hand to slap her face too, but he held back himself. He only had ever hit her once before and he promised himself to never do it again.

However, he couldn't lie that he was very livid. Mad was an understatement to describe how he felt right now.

Therefore, before he could do something more and his judgment was cloud with his anger, he needed to go. He pushed Jasmine out of his way and rushed out of the room, leaving his mate was screaming in madness.

Jasmine felt her heart burst into thousand pieces, as she fell to the ground and cry her heart out to think her own mate was having a meeting to discuss how to hunt down and kill their son.

But then, an hour later when she started to calm down a bit, she was hit by this sudden pain. The sharp pain left her breathless and she screamed to ask for help, but she knew what the cause of this pain.

Her mate betrayed her. Her mate was having it with someone else...

Jasmine couldn't believe this. She had been looking for the woman for the past few weeks, but she couldn't catch who it was, but right now James was having his moment with her!

"Luna, what happened?" One of the servants heard her scream and immediately came into her room, thinking something horrible had happened to her, but she met with her animosity.

"Where is the alpha!?" She roared angrily, she tried to stand up and walk. She needed to find James right now to catch the woman he was with. This was her only chance, thus despite the agony, she forced herself to walk.

"I- I don't know, luna..." the servant looked very scared to see luna Jasmine like this.

"Find out where he is! Now!"

The servants immediately dashed away to ask around about the alpha's whereabouts.

The night was silent and quiet, it was a peaceful night, but there would be a commotion that was going to happen.

Currently, the alpha lycan was having a private discussion with alpha Ramon, they met secretly like usual. The two alphas discussed the progress with Aiden's search, where they exchanged their own information that they didn't share in the meeting with the other alpha.

"You are really cruel, you know," alpha Ramon said, he stared at Hunter, but his eyes with mirth, as if he actually adored Hunter.

Even though, to be honest, he was rather scared to mess with him. In no any circumstances, he would want to be on his bad side.

"What did your mate think when she learned that you are actually trying to get rid her former pack?" he was curios because of how much Hunter doted on Lilac, but at the same time, he wanted to destroy the place where she grew up

1. in.

That was pretty messed up in his opinion.,

"She knew."

"And then?"

"She didn't agree."

"But, you did it anyway."

"Yes."

"I am glad a woman's opinion didn't stop you."

Hunter narrowed his eyes at him, his comment sounded like he was degrading Lilac and thankfully alpha Ramon was wise enough to realize his mistake and correct what he said.

"No, I mean, you respected her opinion, but as an alpha, we need to take charge of what more important."

"Because I know she will not agree, we go around like this. If I disregarded her opinion, we will not be here talking about strategy, but talking about the distribution of this pack.”

+5

Which meant, if it was not because Hunter knew Lilac wouldn't agree, they would have this pack within their palm by now. There would be a lot of bloodshed, but then it would be faster than this plans.

Alpha Ramon didn't say anything anymore, he didn't want to dig his own grave and the look of warning in Hunter's eyes was enough for him to not add anything and agree with him readily.

But, in the middle of discussion, they caught something. It was alpha James's scent and another person, but before they could leave the area, they heard their moaning.

The moaning was very obvious. You could hear it very clearly from here and from the scent that they caught in the air, they knew, whose that lustful moans belonged to.

Hunter narrowed his eyes, he looked disgusted to hear this. “Did you push her this far?”

His initial plan was to use Ruby in order to get the higher punishment for Aiden and also to create more rift from within the pack, but he didn't even imagine that thing would escalate this far.

“No. I didn't.” Alpha Ramon raised both of his hands, indicating that he was innocent in this matter, but there was this smirk on the corner of his lips, he didn't look bother at all with this, truth be told, he looked enjoying this awkward moment. “I think she took the initiative to improvise the plan. Don't you think this is perfect for us?”

For Ruby to have an affair with alpha James was enough trouble that they needed to shake this pack from within.

“This woman was really something else.” Alpha Ramon shook his head, but his voice filled with mirth and he was in awe by Ruby’s bold move actually. “She literally bedded James’s son and now she fucked the father too. Wow. I think she has a thing for being a walking disaster. What do you think?”

“We can fasten our plan.”

That was all Hunter said before he left. It was so sickening to hear them. He was barely able to stand there. He was not going to spend another second.

“Well, technically you are right. With this, we can fasten our plan.” Alpha Ramon grinned.

Instead of going with Hunter, he chose to stay and listen to them. Seeing this, Hunter didn’t bother to tell him to leave. Ramon was not a child and this was none of his business.

With that, Hunter returned to his bedroom and thought about his mate. He took all the letters she wrote for him and reread everything, until sleep came to him.

Meanwhile, at that night, Luna Jasmine turned everything upside down to look for her mate. She was furious beyond word. She didn’t explain why she needed her mate, because it would be very embarrassing for her to explain the betrayal that was going on currently.

However, she became more deranged when the pain lasted more than an hour!

James must be insane to do it over and over again!

Luna Jasmine couldn’t believe it! He betrayed her like that! When they were in this crisis, he turned his back against her and then f ucking some bi tch out there!

How he could do that to her?!

In the end, Luna Jasmine returned to their bedroom and slammed the door so hard, the hinges were broken, but she didn't allow anyone to come inside, as she thrashed everything in this bedroom, crying and screaming in between.

The sound of her wailing was gut wrenching.

People would think the alpha was dead or something, because this was the sound that you would hear when you lost someone that you loved. Probably, that was right. Luna Jasmine lost her mate.

She couldn't find that bitch!

And when the morning came and there was no part of the room that had not been thrashed, alpha James finally came.

He heard from his men what his mate had done and he knew, he was walking into a disaster. He knew what he had done with Ruby was wrong, but it felt good to have someone that desired you and put less stress on you.

'It's alright. You remarked me, remember? You claimed me. It's alright...'

That was what Ruby said to him and that was the reason why he did it with her in the first place. He was not thinking straight and Ruby knew what to say to get to him. He liked it.

He regretted because he hurt Jasmine, because no matter what she was still his mate, but on the other hand, he didn't regret doing it with Ruby. He felt pity for her because his son left her.

"You son of a bitch!" Luna Jasmine threw a broken statue toward alpha James the moment he entered the room.

Thankfully, the alpha had a great reflex, where he could dodge it in time.

"How dare you betrayed me like that!? How dare you to humiliate me like that?!" Jasmine screeched, but her throat was very sore, she couldn't even talk properly when once again all of her emotions came to her and all she could do was crying without sound. James felt his heart ached when he saw Jasmine like this. She had never been this insane. She always put a great effort to make her appearance and image impeccable, he knew her for more than thirty years and not even once she looked very crestfallen and let go of everything that she held dear.

James couldn't take it, he approached her and hugged her, but Jasmine tried to push him

"I am sorry."

James couldn't say anything else aside from that simple sentence, which made Jasmine hated him even more, but the pain from within her wrecked her heart.

"I am sorry."

And that was all James could say again and again.

Hunter and the other warriors found a trace of the other lycan pack, which led them to the north of the continent, to the Cralys mountain.

Not anyone could enter this mountain, since it filled with a lot of monsters.

"What are we going to do now?" Ramon asked Hunter. "Most likely Aiden was there too with the lycan. I am sure alpha James will love the news about his son." He couldn't help, but laugh at his own joke.

The fight between alpha James and luna Jasmine three days ago had spread like wildfire and the aftermath was massive.

Luna Jasmine was about to reject alpha James when he stopped her in time before she could finish her word, they talked about it and whatever they were talking about, it stopped the luna from rejecting her mate, but she always looked angry.

"Sent two people to investigate this mountain," Hunter ordered the warrior, ignoring Ramon's attempt to make a lewd comment here and there.

Ramon shrugged his shoulders nonchalantly because he had gotten used to be ignored by the alpha, he continued with his rambling, until Hunter gave him a dagger look and he stopped.

Later that night, the seven alphas received the report.

They couldn't spot Aiden, but they indeed confirmed there was a group of shifters inside the mountain, but aside from that, they couldn't find anything else and needed more time to investigate further.

“We need to march toward the mountain and destroy them all, giving an element of surprise in our attack,” Alpha Dillon suggested. He was so mad and wanted this bulls hit to end.

“We can’t do that, we will walk straight into their territory. We didn’t even know that mountain.” Alpha Ramon disagreed with the idea. “We need to investigate further.”

Chapter 180

They were split in this opinion, but the majority of them believed it was the right time to strike.

“What do you think about this alpha James?” Hunter casually asked the alpha, who had been very quiet.

Alpha James balled his fists and when he spoke, his words sounded very depressing. “I agree for us to attack.”

Alpha Ramon nodded. “We are going to attack the mountain! And killed all of the lycan and the traitor Aidan!”

James flinched when Ramon addressed his son as a traitor, he felt like he was going to tear his head apart, but he knew better not to do that.

However, a moment later there was this commotion out there and then followed by the loud sound of the ringing bell, indicating danger that came to their way.

‘Attack! We are under attack!’ one of the warriors mind link alpha James, telling him what was going on before his figure appeared before them.

“Alpha! We need to evacuate!” He said in hurry. “The lycan is here! They are here! We are under attack!”

“How can they be here?!” Alpha James growled. “There is no report from the borders warriors!”

“No, alpha.” The warrior shook his head. “Apparently, they had been inside the fortress!”
