

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 41

Chapter 41

All of his warriors didn't know what had transpired in the pack house of the Golden Claw pack and how the war almost broke out because Aiden had breached the peace treaty.

However, what they worried the most was the look on their alpha's face. There was this storm in his eyes when he barked order to them. They didn't even dare to question him what happened with Lilac.

"What happened with that woman?" one of the warriors asked Darren, the beta and the other chimed in 1.

"What happened to her?"

"How do I know?" Darren rolled his eyes in annoyance when he got a lot of question from these people. "I am also clueless just like you."

"You can ask the alpha, right?" The warrior nudged the beta to knock on the bedroom. "Why don't you the one, who asks the alpha?" Darren protested.

"Because you are the alpha of the pack. The warrior stated that in a matter of fact tone, which was vouched by the other warriors as well.

Darren growled. "I am not going there to suffer a punishment only to sate your curiosity."

And now, the only thing they could do was to wait for the alpha to tell them about this matter himself, but fortunately, or rather unfortunately, later in the early morning, they knew what had happened in the pack house because the alpha was summoned in the meeting with the other alphas

Meanwhile, inside the bedroom. Hunter made sure the healer that he brought from the pack house stayed inside the room and was awake, until Lilac regained her consciousness again. He probably would go berserk if something happened to her. He prayed she would open her eyes immediately, so he could put aside his anxiety and had a good night sleep.

For the meantime, Hunter stayed inside the room too, but he stood next to the window, staring at the dark sky, while Lilac was still asleep and the healer sat next to the bed, checking on her condition every now and then.

“If you need anything, tell me. I will find it for you.” Hunter didn’t even turn around when he spoke, but the healer could feel the temperature inside this room had dropped drastically with only his cold voice that filled the silence.

“Y–yes, yes alpha.” The healer looked so scared, she didn’t even dare to breathe too loud, just in case she would bother him. This was the first time for her to be in the presence of the lycan and they were really intimidating let alone the alpha, even their warriors carried scary aura around them, as if they could kill you in a second and you would die without even knowing what was happening.

That was how scary the lycan was. Their figure was very intimidating, as they were taller and bigger than any normal shifters.

The healer glanced at Lilac, she prayed she would wake up soon, because she didn’t think she could take it any longer to be in the presence of this alpha, it was simply very suffocating.

Please, wake up, Lilac,

She knew Lilac as the future luna of the pack, they were not close, but she liked her because she was very calm and kind person. She was someone, who could calm luna Jasmine’s anger whenever the luna lost her temper.

Please, be well. Lilac...

She couldn’t imagine what would happen or what these lycan would do if something bad happened to Lilac. After all. Aiden was accused of breaching the peace treaty.

After that, silence stretched out inside the bedroom, until the first light of the sun appeared in the horizon and the sky became brighter, as the night ceased down.

At this time, the healer had fallen asleep, as she sat down on the floor with her head rested on the edge of the bed, her other hand was holding Lilac’s hand, she didn’t even realize that she had fallen asleep because of how exhausted the night was

Hunter only moved from the spot he was standing after such a long time because he heard a soft moan from Lilac, she finally regained her consciousness

“Wa-ter..”

The healer immediately woke up as well when she felt the movement from the hand she had been holding the entire night.

“Check on her,” Hunter said, as he brought a glass of water for Lilac and helped her to sit down. He adjusted the pillow behind her back, so she wouldn’t choke when she was drinking. “Slowly.”

Hunter cradled her upper body and helped her to drink, this gesture made the healer frowned because he was very gentle and intimate with Lilac. Why he treated her so well? More so, he only asked Lilac and nothing else in order for him to return all the war prisoner. He was making a generous offer there.

“No one will take the water away drink slowly,” Hunter said tenderly to her ear. “How is she?” Yet, his voice changed, there was a sharp edge on his voice when he asked the healer.

“Sh- she is fine. She is only tired. She only needs to rest a little bit longer and her healing ability will be able to handle it.” The healer then stood up. “I can concoct something for her, to enhance her healing ability.”

“Go.” Hunter put down the water and the tone of his voice softened again when he spoke to Lilac. “Do you want more?”

Lilac shook her head weakly.

“Where am I?” Lilac asked, her voice cracked and she frowned, because it was very uncomfortable to speak.

“You are safe, you don’t need to worry...” Hunter hugged her and caressed her back, while Lilac started to remember the last thing that happened to her and she flinch.

“Ai-Aiden...” She trembled when she remembered what he was going to do to her. “Aiden... he..”

“Ssh.. he didn’t do anything to you

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 42

Chapter 42

Lilac woke up with a great headache, almost like when she drank alcohol too much and ended up in Hunter’s bed, it seemed the same thing happened again right now, but the only different was; she didn’t drink.

Lila remembered that she didn’t drink any alcohol. Knowing how much she was in misery the next day after she got drunk, she promised to herself not to touch that drink again, but the sensation she felt right now was the same.

“Are you awake now?” Hunter’s face was the first thing that Rhea saw. He looked worried and a little bit pale, or maybe it was because of the sunlight.

Lilac looked around her, a little bit disoriented and then the memories flooded back into the front of her mind, as she gasped in horror.

She remembered what happened to her and how Aria had betrayed her. She knew luna Jasmine must be behind all of this, but how could she do that to her without giving any warning?

“It’s okay, there was nothing happened.” Hunter calmed her down the moment, he noticed she remembered the horrendous night. “I came in time, he didn’t do anything to you.

Yes, Aiden didn’t manage to do the deed, but it didn’t mean he didn’t touch her, he saw her naked body and this pissed Hunter off so much.

It took some time for Lilac to finally felt a little bit better and Hunter managed to reassure her that she was safe right now.

“Why the healer is here?” She recognized the healer when she went away to do something, she was not sure what she was saying to Hunter earlier, her mind didn’t work yet.

“You were drugged. I didn’t bring healer from my pack, so the only option is her.” Hunter helped Lilac to rearrange her pillow, so she could lay down comfortably.

But then, Darren knocked on the door and informed Hunter about the meeting with the other alphas.-It- would happen in an hour from now.

“Alpha James wanted you to bring her as well,” Darren said through the closed door.

Hunter growled. “Tell to the messenger Lilac is still not well to go to the pack house. Make sure everything is prepared. We are going to leave right away!”

Hunter didn’t want to spend another minute in this pack. He was going to leave this pack with Lilac after that arrogant and stupid man received his punishment. He knew that he couldn’t demand a death sentence, but there were still a lot of things that was worst than death.

“Why are you going to the park house? What are you going to do there?” Lilac was a little bit confused with This. She had not yet asked Hunter how he could find her, she was sure she was done for when she ended up in Aiden’s bedroom

“You don’t need to know about this. Just rest well. We are going to have a long journey, you need to prepare yourself.”

Yet, Lilac didn’t want to rest, she wanted to know what was going on, or else, she wouldn’t be able to even close her eyes. More so, she just woke up, she felt better now after some time.

“No, tell me. You need to tell me, what happened last night and how could you find me?” Lilac insisted for Hunter to tell her everything and despite his reluctance, Lilac was pretty persistence until he finally relented.

No, actually, Hunter wanted to tell her about this, but he thought this was not the right time, since she just woke up, yet when he saw the determination in her eyes, he knew she could handle this.

The only reason why he wanted to tell her everything in detail was pretty simple, because he didn’t want Lilac to have any connection or attach to the pack that had betrayed her, at the very least, not to the people, who was willing to harm her.

Hunter had thought about this matter the whole night and the only thing that came up in his mind about the reason why Luna Jasmine made such a nasty attempt to make her son sleep with Lilac was in hope for her to stay in this pack and both of them could rekindle their mate bond again.

Now, Hunter would crush that hope and even though it would make Lilac sad and crush her, it was necessary to cut off any feeling she had for this pack. She had rejected him after all, there was nothing else between them anymore now, aside from the residue of what she thought they had

“Are you, okay?” Hunter asked Lilac tenderly, as he caressed her head. He could see how distraught she was right now.

“I am fine.” The answer was curt. However, Hunter knew that she was anything, but fine. “I will go with you.

“You don’t need to come with me. I will make sure he paid for what he had done to you.”

Lilac lifted her head, her face was still very pale, but there was this determination in her eyes. “No.” She shook her head. “If he is going to be punished, I need to be there to witness it.”

Hunter was actually surprised by the answer that Lilac gave to him, but then he was elated. He liked this spirit. He liked it when someone didn’t act so weak.

“Okay. If that’s what you want. You will come with me after you eat your meal and drink your medicine: Hunter gave her a condition, because there was no way Lilac would be able to attend the meeting for long in this condition.

“But, you need to be there in an hour.”

“Let’s them wait for us.”

“I am fine. There is no need to delay.”

“Look, I am not going to carry you again, okay. You are rather heavy.

“Pardon me?”

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 43

Chapter 43

“Pardon me?”

Hearing that, Lilac gave him a dagger look, as if she was going to claw him again like she did the previous night in the alley.

Well, she didn't mind to do it again if she had enough strength, since this man was really annoying, he was the epitome of callous and recklessness.

“I am not heavy! It's you, who is weak!”

Yet, instead of being angry for what Lilac said, he was laughing at her expression. “You are not going to hurt me with your words, sweetie. Now if you want to go with me to the pack house and see how I will handle that your lovely ex mate, finish your meal and drink your medicine, understood?”

Despite anything. Hunter was still the alpha of the lycan, he had this sense of authority in every word he said and for someone like Lilac, it would be hard for her to be able to get away from it

Begrudgingly, Lilac did what she was told and somehow, despite her annoying feeling toward this alpha, she felt comfortable enough to be close with him.

She didn't need to act nice and watch what she said or the way she acted. Hunter wouldn't get mad or reprimanded her if she was not being polite, strangely enough, this kind of thing was very refreshing for

Lilac

Ever since she lived in the pack house, luna Jasmine would always tell her what to do and what she shouldn't do. She needed to watch every word and every step she made.

But now, she was not the future luna anymore, she didn't need to do that, she could do anything silly without tarnishing the luna's name. Only now Lilac found out how free that kind of feeling was.

“I am done,” Lilac said grimly, as she put down the “Good girl,” Hunter said playfully, as he stretched out his hand and ruffled her hair, but Lilac swatted his hand away and growled at him viciously. “And also feisty Come. Let’s go to the pack house for the last time.

Hunter took Lilac to the pack house with him and by the time they arrived, they were already late by two hours, which made the rest of the alpha growled at him the moment he appeared.

“I need to take care of her first. She needs to be here, since she is the victim. We don’t need to hold this meeting in the first place, if someone knew how to be courteous and keep the end of the agreement well.” That was the only excuse that Hunter gave to them and none of them were dare to confront him for it.

On the other hand, Lilac was amazed by the way Hunter handled the situation, he didn’t look fluster at all, even though this was not his own pack, but he acted as if he owned this place. His personality and presence were very strong and this demanded all of their attention the moment he stepped into the room.

Not all the alpha could pull such stunt.

“Where is he?” Hunter immediately realized there was something missing in this room and all of them realized in an instant, who he was talking about,

Hunter’s deep and dark voice echoed throughout the hall, which made the atmosphere grew uneasy.

If the first person that Hunter noticed when he entered the hall was the absence of Aiden, then the first person that Lilac noticed the moment she stepped into the hall was luna Jasmine. The luna had her eyes on her all the time, they were very piercing and felt like she was going to make a hole on your cheeks.

“He is still sick,” luna Jasmine said, she finally shifted her vicious glare at Lilac toward the alpha lycan. She was still mad by what happened last night, or maybe it was more correct if one said; she was angry because everything didn’t go as she wanted. “He can’t attend this meeting, more so, my son doesn’t have anything to do with this whole thing.”

Hunter raised his brows, he didn't look pleased at all, despite the small on his face. "He doesn't have anything to do with this? If its not your son's stupidity, we will not waste our time here.

Luna Jasmine gritted her teeth, she had to endure such humiliation. How could someone like her, who loved her son so badly would be able to stand the way Hunter talk about him in such derisive and degrading tone?

However, the fact that she didn't blow her top made Lilac frowned, because she knew how much luna Jasmine loved Aiden.

Lilac had learned a lot of things from her, which allowed her to notice it pretty quickly, if the luna had created a plan to get away from this trouble.

Lilac glanced at Hunter, she wanted to tell him, but she didn't know how to let him know, for him to be more careful with the plot that Juna Jasmine had concocted.

"My son is innocent, it was me, who had planned everything" Luna Jasmine then shifted her attention toward Lilac. "Not only I drugged her, but I also drugged my son, so they can be together. My son was in his right mind when the event last night happened

Lilac knew it. She must have come up with a way to save Aiden.

s not

Meanwhile, Hunter narrowed his eyes when he heard that, but then a vicious smirk appeared on the corner of his lips. He knew what this cunning luna was trying to do and figure out there was no point for him to retort that.

Therefore, there was only one way to solve this problem. Well, he needed to apologize to Lilac because he failed to fulfill his promise.

"In that case, there will be only death punishment for you," Hunter said casually, which erupted chaos.

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 45

Chapter 45

Alpha James was speechless by the way his son was thinking. How could this young man was his son, someone who had stopped the war between the werewolf and the lycan, the person, who had killed the previous alpha lycan, when he couldn't even think thoroughly about the consequences of his action.

Not to mention his mate. She should be the voice of reason, but actually, she was the mastermind behind. this silly scheme.

"Do you want to go to war with the lycan?!" alpha James roared, while luna Jasmine sat silently, tears streamed down her face. "Do you think the other five alphas will support you?! They want the war ended. and get their mate back! What is wrong with you?! Do you really thing they will go through losing their pack member again because of your stupidity?!"

*Then what are you going to do, father?! Will you let mother be humiliated in public?! Being lashed at hundred times?! How could you do that?!" Aiden barked back t his father. He couldn't think rationally.

"What else?! What else you can do?! If you can make such ridiculous scheme against the alpha lycan, try to make the same plan to get your mother out of here!"

Both father and son snarled at each other, they looked like they were going for each other's throat and the sight broke Juna Jasmine's heart. She knew what she had done was wrong, but she only wanted the best for her son.

"You should be ashamed of yourself." alpha James hissed viciously, after a heavy silence between them and how they glared at one another. "You can't even keep your dick inside your pants and caused this trouble! If you can be loyal, all of this will not happen! You don't deserve any respect!"

The words that alpha James said hit Aiden so hard, because he used to idolize his father, but right now, he degraded him in such a way, which made him unable to say a word.

"Enough!" Luna Jasmine finally spoke, she stood up and stared at her mate with disappointment for what he just said. "How can you say something like that to our son?!"

"He needs to know why we are in this situation! We will not be here and you don't need to pull silly scheme if he didn't mess up in the first place!"

up—such-

Luna Jasmine looked dejected and Aiden came to her to console his mother

“Don’t talk to mother like that!” Aiden hissed, but luna Jasmine held him closely, she tried to calm her son. She didn’t want him to fight his own father or ruined the relationship between them.

“I will take the punishment,” luna Jasmine said in trembling voice. It was not the pain that she feared the most, but rather the humiliation that would come after.

“I will take the punishment for you, mother,” Aiden said determinedly,

Yet, a second latter, luna Jasmine’s eyes lit up. “No. I have an idea... she gritted his teeth. “But, you need to help me to convince the other alphas, James,”

“Are you going to try to convince them to go into a war with you? I have told you...” Alpha James had not yet finished his sentence when his mate cut him off icily.

No. Luna Jasmine’s jaw hardened. “I have a plan to avoid the punishment. This is not only my fault.

There is someone else at fault here.”

He might not be able to avoid the punishment completely, but at the very least, she still could save her reputation.

The punishment would be delivered within an hour and it would happen in the public area, in the town square, where right now, people started to gather. They were trying to figure out whether the rumor was true if the luna had schemed against Lilac so her son could sleep with her, in order to humiliate the alpha lycan, since he wanted the ex mate of her son.

Within a short time, the rumors that circulated around became more and more confusing, where it went astray from the truth, but people like drama.

“You can’t get him. I don’t think you will be able to get her either.” Lilac stared at the distance from the window of the carriage, where Hunter was sipping his drink casually.

The plan was; after they witnessed the punishment for luna Jasmine they would go straight away to the lycan pack and this would be the last time Lilac was in her pack.

“I know, I have made a wrong calculation and underestimated your luna, but how she can get away from this? Please, enlighten me.” Hunter was pissed off when the result was not as he expected. He really wanted to see the death of Aiden, so Lilac would stop thinking about her ex mate.

This woman was romanticizing the mate bond and it didn't sit well with him at all. He wanted to eradicate anything that could make her second guess herself for being away from this pack.

“Why do

you

think that way?” Hunter put down his waterskin and paid close attention to her. She still looked a little bit pale, but aside from that, he could see the light in her eyes and how she held so much hatred in her heart for what had happened. That was great.

“Luna Jasmine is very cunning, she has schemed more than you can imagine,” Lilac said, her tone was even, since she had learned a lot from her.

No, she tried to grasp everything from her, because she wanted to be a perfect luna for Aiden, but as it turned out, that man didn't even deserve her loyalty at all.

Now she had recovered from the side effect of the rejection, she could think clearly. She felt very stupid now to cry over a man like him.

“You seem to know her very well.”

“You can say so.”

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 44

Chapter 44

The moment Hunter heard luna Jasmine stepped forward and admitted the mistake that she didn't even do, he knew what kind of game she was playing and he wouldn't fall for that.

This woman should know what kind of consequences that she would get by trying to take the brunt in this serious matter.

"What do you mean with death punishment?!" luna Jasmine roared angrily and alpha James had to physically held his mate back before she could attack Hunter out of anger.

The alpha was not happy with the irrational suggestion too.

"Alpha Hunter, you need to watch what you said." The other alpha looked uncomfortable with how things unfolded before their eyes.

"You can't say the word lightly."

On the other hand, Lilac couldn't say a word. She was upset because once again luna Jasmine tried to protect her own son in such ridiculous way.

"You were trying to assault my woman. In my pack, a death punishment would fit the crime." Hunter held Lilac's hand tightly. She glanced at him when he addressed her as his woman, because it made her stomach fluttered.

"Don't be ridiculous! This is not your pack! Your punishment is not working here!" luna Jasmine roared and once again alpha James gave her a stern warning to shut her mouth.

The alpha had learned what actually happened. Yes, it was his mate's plan in the first place to make Aiden impregnated Lilac, but at the same time, his son was willing enough to do the deed without thinking of the consequences.

More so, instead of talking about it to him and warn him what they were going to do, they actually did it behind his back, which made them reached this point. It was very upsetting to say the least. Of course, alpha James wouldn't agree with such nasty plan, that was why they didn't tell him in the first place.

“Then what punishment for such crime in this pack?” Hunter tilted his head. He thought it would be done within an hour, but apparently, they wanted to make this more complicated than it should be. Well, he would entertain that. “Tell me, what punishment for the crime?”

All of them went silence, they didn't want to say it, because the punishment was not better than death, therefore, Hunter turned his head and looked at Lilac.

“What punishment for that?” Hunter asked her with gentle tone, it was very contradicting with the way he talked earlier and his tone rubbed luna Jasmine in the wrong way.

Yet, she couldn't do anything because her mate was glaring at her to shut her mouth. She was also furious with herself for not being able to compose herself. This was not like her at all to lose her temper very easily. She shouldn't have been provoked by what Hunter said!

“The punishment is being lashed a hundred times in public,” Lilac said coldly. If luna Jasmine, the person that she thought as a mother figure for her could do something like that, she knew there was no helping at all. She didn't want this woman in her life.

She should accept the consequences of her action.

“Lilac!” luna Jasmine roared angrily, she wanted to approach Lilac and slap her harshly, so she would know her place! How could she betray her like that?!

But. Lilac was done with them. She didn't deserve an ounce of her pity after the trick that she pulled through. It was one thing when she suggested it, but it was another thing when she drugged her and let her son to assault her. Aiden was going to rape her and that was the turning point for Lilac

She realized how shitty things could be and how she would feel if Aiden succeeded. She couldn't imagine how she was right now if Hunter didn't come in time.

“How dare you!” luna Jasmine was struggling against her mate, who tried to calm her down, but she was too emotional to listen to him.

“Is that true?” Hunter asked alpha James, he stared at the alpha with the look of disdain. “A hundred lashes? Only?”

“In public.” Lilac added. She felt this liberty when she went against luna Jasmine because she used to accept whatever luna Jasmine did to her and the way she taught her everything harshly.

Hunter was right. She needed to get out of this pack as soon as possible.

She didn't need to be here anymore.

“Make it public will not make it any better, but it will be very amusing indeed.” Hunter brought Lilac's hand to his lips, which startled all of them there, including Lilac herself. She didn't understand what Hunter meant with such intimate gesture. “Shall we do it now?”

A hundred lashes wouldn't kill a shifter, but of course, it would leave a permanent damage on their body, let alone if it was done in public, where all the pack member could see. The humiliation was another scar that shouldn't be taken lightly.

“Father! You can't do that to mother!” Aiden snarled at alpha James angrily. “Say the word and I am going to kill that bastard! I am going to kill that barbaric lycan!”

“Shut up!” alpha James barked, he was enraged.

Right now, they were preparing punishment for luna Jasmine after a heated argumentation with Hunter and the other alphas. It was this punishment or death sentence, neither was better.

“I can kill him! I am sure I can kill him! I killed his father, right? Don't you remember? I am the one, who stopped the war against the lycan and I can start it again!” Aiden was devastated when he heard the punishment for his mother. He couldn't believe his father would accept that easily.

What the hell was wrong with him?!

“Shut up! Do you really think the other packs will help you this time?! They wanted their pack member back!”

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 46

Chapter 46

True to what Lilac told him, luna Jasmine was not the only person, who received the punishment. No, actually, she didn't get much negative attention, because it was Aria, who had taken the brunt for what had transpired last night

Aria admitted that she was the one, who put the drug inside Lilac's drink and luna Jasmine was actually innocent, since the only mistake she did was to let Aiden slept on the same bedroom like Lilac.

Apparently, the story was twisted. Aiden was drunk last night because he was very happy to welcome his firstborn and his chosen mate would be the future luna of the pack. They were celebrating that, the reason why he was drunk in the first place and was not in his right mind when he saw Lilac on his bed.

The bond must have played the role for what happened next, since they just recently broke the bond and everyone knew about this. The feeling was still there.

"What a good narration," Hunter scoffed disdainfully, for them actually could get away from this mess unscathed.

People condemned Aria for what she had done and looked at luna Jasmine in different light, but that feeling wouldn't last for long, since they focused their hatred on Aria. After all, they wouldn't be able to do anything against the luna, neither they could show their displeasure for her reckless decision.

Therefore, it was Aria, who needed to take the downfall. It didn't take a genius to know she would be a social pariah after this. No one would trust her and comfortable enough to be around her.

She was doomed.

"I told you before, right? It will not as easy as you think to take her down." Lilac didn't seem like she was interested in this matter, she closed the curtain of the carriage and then stared at Hunter's annoyed expression.

The lycan had underestimated the level of luna Jasmine wickedness.

“It seems, she is really annoyed and wants to sever any ties with you. She declared how happy your ex mate to welcome his firstborn.” Hunter glanced at Lilac to see her expression, but she didn’t seem to be bothered by that fact.

“I will not be part of this pack anymore, there is no need to hold onto me.”

“Whatever it is. We need to go now,” Hunter said in grim tone. He hated it when he was proven wrong. More so, he didn’t want to spend another second in this pack

“Is it possible if I see Aria before we left?” Lilac knew this was impossible, but then she had nothing to lose if she asked Hunter about it.

Hunter narrowed his eyes. “Do you still want to see her? That so called friend of yours?”

Yes Lilac bit her lip, trying so hard to appear nonchalant. “I will go from this pack and will never return, at the very least, I want to know why she agreed to what luna Jasmine told her to do.”

Hunter rolled his eyes, as if the question was very ridiculous in his ears. “She is the luna, what else the reason, even now, do you really think she wanted to be beaten half death like that?” Hunter nodded at the revery out there, where they took Aria away after a hundred lashes that she received was done

Chapter 46

True to what Lilac told him, luna Jasmine was not the only person, who received the punishment. No, actually, she didn’t get much negative attention, because it was Aria, who had taken the brunt for what had transpired last night.

Aria admitted that she was the one, who put the drug inside Lilac’s drink and luna Jasmine was actually innocent, since the only mistake she did was to let Aiden slept on the same bedroom like Lilac,

Apparently, the story was twisted. Aiden was drunk last night because he was very happy to welcome his firstborn and his chosen mate would be the future luna of the pack. They were celebrating that, the reason why he was drunk in the first place and was not in his right mind when he saw Lilac on his bed.

The bond must have played the role for what happened next, since they just recently broke the bond and everyone knew about this. The feeling was still there.

“What a good narration,” Hunter scoffed disdainfully, for them actually could get away from this mess unscathed.

People condemned Aria for what she had done and looked at luna Jasmine in different light, but that feeling wouldn't last for long, since they focused their hatred on Aria. After all, they wouldn't be able to do anything against the luna, neither they could show their displeasure for her reckless decision.

Therefore, it was Aria, who needed to take the downfall. It didn't take a genius to know she would be social pariah after this. No one would trust her and comfortable enough to be around her.

She was doomed.

I told you before, right? It will not as easy as you think to take her down.” Lilac didn't seem like she was interested in this matter, she closed the curtain of the carriage and then stared at Hunter's expression,

The lycan had underestimated the level of luna Jasmine wickedness.

annoyed

“It seems, she is really annoyed and wants to sever any ties with you. She declared how happy your ex mate to welcome his firstborn.” Hunter glanced at Lilac to see her expression, but she didn't seem to be bothered by that fact.

“I will not be part of this pack anymore, there is no need to hold onto me.”

“Whatever it is. We need to go now,” Hunter said in grim tone. He hated it when he was proven wrong- More so, he didn't want to spend another second in this pack.

“Is it possible if I see Aria before we left?” Lilac knew this was impossible, but then she had nothing to lose if she asked Hunter about it.

Hunter narrowed his eyes. “Do you still want to see her? That so called friend of yours?”

“Yes.” Lilac bit her lip, trying so hard to appear nonchalant. “I will go from this pack and will never return, at the very least. I want to know why she agreed to what Luna Jasmine told her to do.

Hunter rolled his eyes, as if the question was very ridiculous in his ears. “She is the Luna, what else the reason, even now, do you really think she wanted to be beaten half death like that Hunter nodded at the Kenery out there, where they took Aria away after a hundred lashes that she received was done.

She was still alive, but heaven only knew when she would be able to fully recover, if she really could make it this harsh punishment.

“And what she was thinking about it.” Lilac added.

“Look.” Hunter was losing his patient right now. He had delayed their return for long enough for his liking. “There is no way I will agree to this.”

The way Hunter spoke, as if there was no room for any negotiation, but then an hour later, the two of them were standing right in front of the door of the bedroom, where Aria was taking rest. A healer just came out from there to give her medicine and to keep her alive, but it would take months for her to be able to get back to her usual self.

“I don’t believe it. I actually agreed to delay this.” Hunter was in disbelief to his impulsiveness. He couldn’t stand the sight of Lilac was being very forlorn for not being able to get the closure she needed from her friend.

“Thank you,” Lilac said, she touched his arm and that was all she needed to defeat him.

“Make it fast. I want to get away from this pack as soon as possible,” Hunter said, annoyed, but more to himself rather than to Lilac.

“Okay, I will,” Lilac said in light tone before she pushed opened the door and was greeted by the sight of Aria’s back. Her body was wrapped tightly in white bandages, but right now the bandage was stained by her blood that seeped through the fabric, Lilac was not sure that she would get a proper conversation with Aria, but Hunter wouldn’t be so patient with her if she asked for another day to stay, thus she only could give her best shot.

“Aria, are you awake?” Lilac knelt down next to her bed. This room was very small. Now, she had woken up inside a big room in the mansion that the lycan occupied, she could see how small this room was and how inappropriate this was as the future Juna’s bedroom, yet she was very thankful for luna Jasmine to give her a small place that she could call her own.

How pitiful she was to be very happy when she didn’t receive what she deserved for such heavy title as the future luna of the pack.

Now, she didn’t need to care about that anymore.

Aria moved slightly, she opened her eyes and tears started to flow down from her eyes. “Li- Lilac... sorry...”

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 47

Chapter 47

Aria couldn’t sense Lilac’s scent, because the pain that she had to endure was very great, she couldn’t even feel the tip of her fingers.

“Li- Lilac... sorry.. I am truly sorry.” Aria’s voice was trembling so fiercely, as tears. streamed down her cheeks. She looked so miserable and pitiful, which made Lilac faltered with her decision to demand the answer from her.

Lilac wanted to scream at Aria and curse her, but seeing her like this, there was no way she would do such thing.

For a moment, Lilac didn’t say anything, as she listened to the way Aria apologized. to her over and over again, till the point where her words were incoherent, because she was crying so hard.

She waited for her to calm down, trying to think what else she wanted to know. Hunter was right when he told her she wouldn’t get anything from this meeting and seeing Aria like this would make her felt even worse. He was right about that and she couldn’t deny the heavy feeling that settled in her chest to see Aria’s condition.

V

Her friend was a victim too, she was a victim of the failed plan from the luna. What else Aria-could do? It was not like she could deny the order from the luna. Once the order was issued, there was only one option for Aria. She needed to oblige to the order that was it.

“Did you really want to drug me, Aria?” Lilac finally asked when Aria was a little bit. calm enough to hold a conversation with her.

Aria shook her head vigorously.

"There is no way I want to harm you, Lilac... I don't want you to be hurt... you are my friend, my only friend..." Aria said between her tears and then she cried again. "I am sorry...."

Lilac nodded. She forgave her. Maybe this was so easy for her to forgive Aria for betraying her, but then, she was not in the position to have a choice of what she wanted to do or not.

"I forgave you. I hope when we met again, we will have moved on from this matter." Lilac didn't know when they would meet again, there was a high chance this would be the last time they saw each other.

"I am sorry," Aria said once again when Lilac stood up from her seat and walked out of the bedroom, she held back her own tears. She wanted to part way with Aria. In a happy occasion, that was why she insisted to meet with her that night, but who would have thought their last meeting would be like this.

Chapter 47

"Are you done?" Hunter asked, bored to his mind.

"Yes..." Lilac nodded. Her emotions were all over the places.

"Let's go

o then. I am suffocated in this place." Hunter took her hand, but Lilac tried to shake it off, unfortunately she was not strong enough to do so.

"Let go of my hand." Lilac narrowed her eyes when Hunter tightened his grip, since she struggled to free herself from him.

"Be nice. I only hold your hand. This is a cheap compensation for making me waiting for so long."

"I only stayed inside less than twenty minutes."

"Do you really think an alpha deserved to wait for that long, especially for a price woman like you?" Hunter raised his brows and he could see the sadness in her eyes vanished, replaced by a fleeting of anger, because of what he said.

That was great. He would prefer for her to be mad than sad.

At the very least, anger could make you less gloomy than sadness.

However, Hunter didn't expect he would be the one, who would look gloomy a minute later, because when the two since the Ivcan wanted to annoy the were arguing for such trivial thing, his mate, Ruby.

next to him, they met with Aiden and Because of the way her hair was styled and how she wore low cut dress that exposed her neck, Lilac and Hunter could see the mark on her neck. Yes, that was right. Aiden had marked her as his mate, which made it official. The mark was no there last night and it still looked very fresh, which meant, she was just marked recently.

This time, Lilac didn't struggle to get away from Hunter's grip, instead, she held his hand back and walked calmly passed the two of them. Rubby stared at her, she didn't even try to hide it, while Aiden did the same, but his eyes traveled down to Lilac and Hunter's hand together, as they walked hand in hand

Chapter 47

When Lilac thought Aiden wouldn't make a scene because of what just happened, the man proved her wrong.

"Lilac, I want to talk." Aiden stood in front of Lilac, blocked her way from leaving.

"I don't want to talk with you," Lilac said, she didn't even spare him a glance. Hunter had enough with Aiden's antic, he even tried to show his nasty side in front of his own mate. "Are you deaf? She said, she didn't want to talk with you," Hunter stood in front of Lilac to cover her behind his back.

"I am not talking with you!" Aiden hissed viciously. He was ready for a battle. "I will kill you if you don't move away from my sight! Scram!" He looked like a mad man.

Hunter chuckled when he heard that. "Do you really think you can kill me?"

Rubby stepped away from the two of them, she was afraid, they could fight in any time and Aiden wouldn't care less about her.

"I killed your father! Do you really think I can't kill you!?" Aiden roared angrily, but Hunter actually laughed at what he said.

A" You don't kill him, Aiden. Be honest. You found him death in the room. He had died when you arrived in his tent."

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 48

Chapter 48

The truth was; Aiden had never killed the previous alpha lycan. He didn't even have a fierce fight against the alpha, because the moment he entered his tent, the alpha had died.

It was also the moment, where they managed to infiltrate the garrison of the lycan and he led his warriors deep into the heart of their based.

There were so many warriors died at that time and he thought he was going to die as well because the lycans were fighting like a madman, like a crazy beast.

The only thing that Aiden did was beheaded the alpha lycan's head and brought it outside to show all the people that the other alpha had died and it stopped the war immediately, that was when Hunter stepped up to be the alpha of the lycan and suggested a truce.

However, no one should have known about it, no one should have known about that because he was the one, who found that dead alpha lycan's body, unless... it was the person, who had killed the previous alpha for real.

Unless it was the true murderer, there was no way anyone could tell...

But, Hunter could tell, was that meant...

Hunter smiled harmlessly at Aiden after what he whispered to his ear, there was this malice that glinted in his eyes, he looked so terrifying, even though he was smiling at this moment and for some reason, Aiden felt the fear ran down his spine. There was no way this man would know about that secret, unless...

However, before Aiden could react, or said something, Hunter had grabbed Lilac's hand and took her away from there. His steps were light and he looked like he was in a good mood after he couldn't catch Aiden himself and subjected him into a harsh punishment.

"What did you say to him?" Lilac asked in confusion, she glanced over her shoulders, but all she could see was Aiden was still in dumbstruck state, he was frowning deeply and stared at Hunter, he looked like he was in deep thought about something, but of course, Lilac couldn't tell what was that.

Meanwhile, Ruby stared at her, but she couldn't tell what was in her mind, neither she cared to find out what the other woman was thinking about her

Lilac was going to leave this pack, there was nothing else matter now, Ruby could hate her all she wanted and she could have Aiden for herself. There was nothing that could hold Lilac back anymore, especially when Luna Jasmine had announced Ruby had been marked and acknowledged her to be the future Luna of the pack.

Chapter 48

The Luna must have felt betrayed by Lilac after what she said during the meeting about the right punishment for her.

“Stop staring at him.” Hunter moved slightly to cover Lilac’s sight from Aiden, but she didn’t like it when this woman paid attention to someone else.

Lilac lifted her head and then shifted her attention toward Hunter. This man was very tall and she felt like she would break her neck if she stared at him in this position for so long.

“What did you say to him? Why he looks like he just saw a ghost?” Lilac frowned, she tried to steal a glance at Aiden one more time, but this time Hunter really blocked her line of sight toward him without being subtle about it.

“Stop staring at him.” He repeated the same thing again. “It’s only small thing.”

“There is no way he will be shocked over small thing.” Lilac frowned because this alpha acted like a jerk now by cupping her face and forcing her to look in front of her. “Did you threaten him?”

That was the only thing that came to her mind.

“No.” Hunter was telling her the truth because he indeed didn’t threaten Aiden at all. “I only told him a little secret.

“What secret?” Lilac frowned her brows when she heard that. She leaned her body over toward Hunter, the gesture that she didn’t realize she used to do it whenever she was intrigued by something.

Yet, Hunter laughed at her curiosity and then cupped her face. “Let’s go. We need to go now.”

“No, tell me what secret?” Lilac was adamant, she wouldn’t be able to sleep and eat if her curiosity was not fulfilled, especially on this one, what did he say?

“If I told you, it will no longer be a secret anymore,” Hunter said. “I didn’t tell you because it's secret.”

“What is that mean? You can share it with me.”

“You don't want to share a kiss with me, why should I share a secret with you? You are my woman after all, I should be able to do anything with you.”
Hunter's eyes ghtated mischievously when he saw the way Lilac blushed.

Chapter 48

“I don't understand what you meant with that. That's ridiculous. I am not your woman.” Lilac then be quiet, she didn't talk about it anymore, but he knew her curiosity would get the better of her and she would ask again the same question sooner or later.

Despite she was still curious and thought she couldn't eat and sleep properly, but in truth, Lilac fell asleep almost immediately the moment he entered the carriage that would take her to her new home, if she could call that place home at all.

She was exhausted after a long day and what happened. She was sleep soundly, until she didn't realize Hunter had been staring at her sleeping face the entire journey, his eyes were hard to read and his expression didn't change. He looked a little bit somber at one second and glad at the other second.

“Lilac...” he whispered her name and crept closer toward her, very gently he leaned his body over and pressed his lips against her cheek. “Sweet Lilac... I finally found you.”

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 49

Chapter 49

All the people in the lycan pack couldn't understand what had gotten into the alpha when he clearly was very fond of this woman. He went to the extent of freeing the war prisoners only to get her.

He could ask more and those alphas would have obliged, but all he wanted was this woman and nothing more. This was silly and incredulously ridiculous.

Yet, there was nothing they could do to make their alpha changed his mind. Especially when he looked very infatuated with this young woman.

Probably because she was too exhausted and she was not aware of her surroundings, or maybe because Lilac finally could feel a sense of relief and safety after turmoil week, she fell asleep like a baby, her exhaustion finally caught up to her and her body demanded her to make it up to it.

Meanwhile, Hunter was having so much fun to watch Lilac was sleeping. She looked very adorable and sweet whenever she was not upset with him, which happened very often recently.

It took them a few days to arrive in the lycan pack and by that time, Lilac had enough her sleep that could allow her to stay awake during their journey to the lycan pack.

“What mountain is that?” Lilac stared at a magnificent mountain, which the summit couldn’t be seen because it covered by cloud. “That mountain is very huge!”

Lilac had only happened to see a few hills, since their pack was surrounded by flat land.

“That a Gerrerrear mountain.” Hunter put down the book he was reading and watched how Lilac frowned her brows.

“Ge.. what?” She couldn’t get the word because it was very strange to her ears.

“Gerrerrear mountain,” Hunter repeated the name of the mountain, but even so, Lilac still couldn’t get it.

“Huh?” She scrunched her nose. “What its name very difficult?”

Only when Hunter was laughing at her confusion, she realized this alpha was messing around with her, which made her pursed her lips and stopped asking “Fine. I will never ask you anything.”

Hunter chuckled because he managed to get on her nerves again, before he answered her properly. “That’s Sarasa mountain. That’s the highest mountain in this continent. Haven't you heard about it?" Hunter watched her expression closely.

"Sarasa mountain..." Lilac repeated the name of the mountain and for some reason, she felt familiar with the name, as if she had heard about it somewhere from someone, but she couldn't recall the memory.

"Yes. Haven't you heard about it?" Hunter asked again and Lilac shook her head.

"No. I have never heard that." She tilted her head, still trying to remember this familiar feeling, but then she easily gave up when she couldn't find any in her memory.

"How long we will arrive in your territory?" The scenery was very beautiful and Lilac felt like she could go on this trip forever. She didn't want to arrive in his pack because by that time, she needed to settle down and faced the reality that would be her new life.

"This area is already part of my territory."

"Really?" Lilac widened her eyes in disbelief.

"Yes, my territory is around thrice the size of your former pack." Hunter didn't even hide it when he looked very smug, as he talked about it.

"You don't need to be very arrogant about it, you know," Lilac said in annoyed tone, but she couldn't hide her amazement to see this beautiful scenery and know all of this belonged to the annoying alpha before her eyes.

"Don't worry, I will take you often to look around my pack." Hunter smiled genuinely at Lilac this time, but she didn't look at his direction.

For a while, there was silence between them, while Lilac enjoyed the view, Hunter was devouring the sight before his eyes. He loved to see her and the way her eyes twinkled like stars.

But then, it was Lilac, who broke the silence, because her curiosity got the best of her.

What did you say to Aiden until he looked very shaken up?" Lilac shifted her attention toward Hunter and waited for his response.

Chapter 49

Hunter smirked and gave the answer that was so far from being satisfying. "Secret."

Lilac scrunched her nose, she hated such answer the most and this was not the first time for Hunter to give her such reply. "Don't you think you hold so many secrets from me?"

"Oh, my sweet Lilac, you don't have any idea about that." Hunter indeed held back a lot of secrets from her, but he didn't intend to bring it to his dead. Of course, there would be time, he would let her know all of those things that he had hidden from her, but right now was not the right moment for that.

Lilac frowned with that strange endearment words from him. "Don't call me that."

"What to do... I like it. After all, I am not lying. You are very sweet. I feel like I will hurt my teeth." Hunter talked in a way he was talking about candy.

Lilac rolled her eyes dramatically, she cringed with such tacky pick up line.

And with that, their conversation ended again. The entourage finally arrived at the pack house around midnight, where Lilac was already sleeping, she curled herself on the bed, while Hunter went out to take care of something.

It was Darren, the beta, who came to look after her and find her was still sleeping.

"Hey, wake up, we are already here," Darren said, he called Lilac's name a few times, but she was still sound asleep.

"What are you doing?" Hunter came over and pulled Darren away from the carriage, his eyes fixed on his beta.

"I am waking her up," Darren replied innocently.

"Who told you to wake her up?" Hunter asked, he was unhappy.

"And then? Do you want to wait until she wakes up on her own?"

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 50

Chapter 50

98%

“And then? Do you want to wait until she wakes up on her own?” Darren couldn’t understand with Hunter’s obsession with this woman. They just met on that night, but he was being infatuated with her. What this woman had done to his alpha?

On the outside perspective, they might think Hunter as an easy-going person and used to joke around, but he knew better that Hunter was a calculative and cold-blooded person, who would do anything to achieve what he wanted.

That was the alpha lycan.

More so, Darren had witnessed the thing that he thought, Hunter wouldn’t be capable of doing, but in truth, the betta had underestimated him for thinking that he couldn’t.

Right now, Darren watched how Hunter carried Lilac in his arms carefully. Even though this was not the first time he was doing this, but right now they were not in the Golden Claw pack. They had returned to their pack and if people saw him like this, it wouldn’t be good for Hunter.

What actually he was thinking about?

“Hunter, I don’t think it will be wise for you to carry her like this, why don’t you hand her over and I will bring her back to her bedroom?” Darren tried to talk sense into his alpha, because he knew better that once Hunter wanted something, there was nothing or no one could stop him.

“Her bedroom?” Hunter stopped walking for a while when he heard that and glared at Darren, but then he resumed his pace and the beta was struggling to follow him.

“I will ask someone to prepare a bedroom for her, it will be a nice bedroom, you don’t need to worry about it.” Darren tried to coax Hunter and he felt so desperate because the more people was seeing them, the harder it would be to cover it up.

He bet, in the morning, people would be talking about this and the beta was desperately trying to save whatever was left from his alpha.

“Hunter, don’t do this.” Darren shook his head. “What if Grace saw you. She will not be happy at all. She will be very mad and it will not good for you or for her.

Once again, Hunter stopped walking and turned around to face his beta. “Can you top talking? You will wake her up.

Darren clamped his mouth in grievances, but when Hunter continued to walk again, Darren couldn’t help it, but asked.

Chapter 50

“Where will you bring her?” There was no way he would bring her there, right?
“To my bedroom.”

Damn it. Darren knew it! Seeing how infatuated Hunter was, he knew that would be his answer, but he was still dumbstruck.

The beta stopped following the crazy alpha and just stood there, until Rye, the gamma came approaching him.

“Who is that woman that Hunter is carrying?” Rye was as speechless as Darren. He happened to see Hunter and Lilac before they entered the alpha’s bedroom. “Why he took that woman into his bedroom?”

“Don’t ask me, I don’t know.” Darren shook his head and went toward different direction.

“What do you mean you don’t know?” Rye followed closely behind him and kept asking question.

“You will not believe me.”

“Well, try me.”

And with that, Darren told the gamma what had happened in the Golden Claw pack and how strange the alpha was the moment he saw Lilac.

Darren also told Rye what Hunter had done.

So, the letter about letting go all of the prisoner war is true?” Rye thought that was a joke and he was about to ask some question related to this matter when he saw Hunter entered his room with a woman in his arms and he relented. “I can’t believe it...”

“I have told you, right? You will not believe it.”

Lilac woke up when she felt the sun shone brightly, spilled through the window and it was very refreshing. A little bit cold, but it was nice, Lilac stretched her body and flapped her arms around, she expected she would hit wall, but instead, she touched something warm and sturdy. It felt strangely like skin, but then she didn’t remember there was someone in her bedroom.

10:17 Mon, 1 Jan GO

Chapter 50

In her mind, she was back to her old, tiny bedroom. She had a strange dream about it.

98%

Yet, when Lilac rubbed her palm against it, she became even more certain that she was touching someone else’s skin, his chest to be precise.

“Can you stop groping me? I can’t sleep.”

There was this low grunt. Definitely man’s voice, which made Lilac startled and opened her eyes almost immediately, she sat down straight and widened her eyes. at the sight of man by her side.

The sunlight fell on his face and Lilac recognized him. "What are you doing here?!" Lilac shrieked, she could feel her heart was palpitating rapidly, she was trying to remember what happened last night, but her last memories were when she fell asleep inside the carriage.

That was right. She was not in her old bedroom in the Golden Light pack, they must have arrived last night when she was asleep. But then, where she was right. now? And more importantly, what this man was doing, sleeping on the same bed with her?

"What do you mean what I am doing here?" Hunter stretched his body, but he closed his eyes again, ready to sleep a little bit longer. "This is my bedroom, of course, I will be here."

"What?!" Lilac widened her eyes in disbelief. She was shocked beyond words. "Be quiet for a while, I need to sleep. I can't function properly if I don't sleep." And with that, Hunter was really falling asleep, he even snored slightly, which made Lilac was reluctant to wake him up, knowing he must be tired. Didn't know what to do, Lilac decided to go out of the bedroom.