Chapter 81

So, Aiden and Ruby were the new alpha and luna now? This was news for them.

“I only know about this,” Hunter said lightly, as he wiped his sweat. He didn’t seem bothered by this news, but he glanced at Lilac to see her reaction.

It was whether she didn’t care or she was an expert to hide her own feeling, but he believed it was the former, since she was not good at lying.

“Yes, Aiden took the title of alpha from his father around two days ago from the rumor that I heard.”

“Why? Alpha James wanted an early retirement?” Hunter put on his clothes and then took Lilac’s hand, as the three of them walked back to the pack house.

“I don’t know, I think there is an internal conflict within their pack. I am not sure. You are not interested with what happened there, so I don’t put an effort to find out more.” Rye shrugged his shoulders nonchalantly.

He was right.

After that information, Hunter walked Lilac back to their bedroom and then went to arrange the meeting with his beta and gamma, while she took a bath.

Hunter returned at night when Lilac was about to go to the dining hall to get eat her dinner.

“Let’s have dinner together inside, there is something I want to talk about with you,” Hunter said. It was very rare to see how he looked very serious like right now.

Confused, Lilac blinked her eyes and asked him about what was going on and what he wanted to talk about.

“I believed I have made myself very clear,” Hunter started. He stopped talking when two servants entered the room and brought their dinner. They put a lot of food on the table between the two of them and immediately scurried away.

Lilac had wanted to ask Raya about why people looked very scared with Hunter, because she got this vibe whenever she walked with him. People would lower their head and tried to avoid his eyes, but when they thought Hunter was no longer aware of their existence, they would secretly glance at him with this sheepish smiled on their lips. This happened only to female shifters, while male shifters would look very respectful.

Chapter 81

Lilac didn't think Hunter was a scary alpha, but people around her acted like he was one.

"What do you want to talk about?" Lilac asked, she looked very beautiful and charming after she washed herself from dirt and dust after their training, Hunter could smell her fresh scent and this burned his throat.

"You are my woman, Lilac, but there is one way to assert your title." Hunter stared at Lilac, from her beautiful eyes down to her slender neck. "I need to mark no one would dare to say otherwise when I claim you as my woman."

you, so

His voice was clear and concise, but it didn't deter the heavy meaning behind it at all.

Hunter wanted her, he had made it very clear since the very beginning that he wanted her as his woman, as his mate, if Lilac put it into her understanding.

She knew this moment would come and she thought she was ready, but when she was faced with this question, her heart was thumping wildly.

It didn't mean Lilac didn't want Hunter. No, she wanted him. She wanted this man, who had saved her a few times, someone that belonged to her. Someone that she could call as hers.

But then, she couldn't help, but became really nervous. Her face turned very red.

Why she felt like her heart was going out of her chest? The food in front of her was no longer appetizing anymore.

“So, what do you want to do?” Lilac was glad her voice didn’t falter, because it would be pretty embarrassing if she was shaking when she asked this obvious question.

“I want to mark you. I want to claim you as mine.” Hunter stood up and Lilac prayed he wouldn’t hear her beating heart when he knelt down in front of her and took her hand. “I didn’t want to rush you, but I think I have waited enough for you to open your heart for me. I want to claim you as my woman before our meeting with your former pack.”

“Why so?” Lilac narrowed her eyes. “Is it because you heard Aiden stepped in as the alpha?”

Hunter lifted his head and stared at Lilac straight into her eyes, as if he could read what was in her mind and this made her flustered. “Not really, but that might be one of the reasons.”

Chapter 81

“And what is your main reason?” Lilac felt a little bit disappointed because Hunter considered that as his reason.

“I want you.” Hunter didn’t avert his eyes. “I want you to be mine, fully. I want to claim you so bad since the first time I finally found you. I really want you and your only.”

This blunt answer left Lilac speechless, because she didn’t think this would be his main reason.

Hunter might not realize it, but what he had done and what he had said with all honesty made Lilac’s heart felt very warm.

After what Aiden had done to her and the audacity he showed her by bringing along his pregnant woman and asked her to stay after he kicked her out of the pack, thinking by doing that, he would make her caved in and accept him again, since she didn’t have anywhere to go.

But, probably Lilac would accept that if Hunter didn't offer to take her into his pack. She couldn't imagine how she would be if she had to stay there and accepted. her fate.

"Can you say something? I really want to kiss you, but I am sure, you will be mad at me, if I did without your permission again."

Lilac chuckled and leaned over to kiss him instead.

Chapter 82

This kiss led to another, at first it was only an innocent kiss that Lilac gave to him, but somehow, thing escalated very fast and when she realized it, they were already on bed, half naked with their food was left untouched on the table.

It was a pity, since the meat looked very appetizing, but right now, there were something else that needed their focus. Something both of them couldn't resist the more they touched each other.

"Are you

you sure about this?" Hunter asked, his voice was very deep and husky, he stared at Lilac's eyes deeply. She looked so beautiful under the light and was very captivating, anyone who saw her would agree with him.

Lilac bit her lip, she didn't have any idea how to answer such question, but she didn't want him to stop. She would be annoyed if he actually stopped what he was doing.

"Do you want me to stop?" Hunter asked, his voice was so deep and dark, it reverberated throughout her entire body and if anything, she only wanted him. more, but it was very embarrassing to admit that, even though, Hunter could smell how arouse she was.

He was not new in this kind of thing, thus he knew when his partner wanted him back or not and it didn't take a genius that Lilac had this strong desire for him. She had the same feeling like him.

However, Hunter wanted to make sure she really wanted this and not only because of the heated of moment.

“Lilac, I need your consent to continue,” Hunter said, his voice was shaking, because he had to control himself for not devouring her right there and then. She was very innocent and the thought of someone else touched her didn’t sit well with him.

He wondered, did she ever do it with Aiden....?

It was pretty obvious that man didn’t have any scrupulous and self control for actually impregnated another woman, who was not his mate, but what about the relationship between him and Lilac, had they done it?

It angered Hunter, though he knew how hypocrite he was to be mad at Lilac if they really had done it, but then he remembered how she was flustered when he asked. the same question not so long ago.

Chapter 82

“Do you want me to stop?” Hunter asked again, above anything else and his crazy thought, he didn’t want their first time was ruined because of this unrelated thing. He only wanted to focus on her, she was his woman now.

“No...” Lilac replied, the answer he had been waiting for and this made Hunter groaned when he touched her again. Her lips were the sweetest thing he had ever tasted.

Lilac breathed raggedly when Hunter touched her skin, she felt like she was burning, her whole body was on fire and his touch only added to the flames, both of them were sweating and their skin became so slippery, glistening under the light from the fireplace and candles around this room.

“You look so beautiful, Lilac, you know that?” Hunter asked hoarse. He traced his fingers from her cheeks, down to her jawline, her collarbone and then her breast. He squeezed her breast and this elicited moan from her.

This only made Hunter became very hard and he knew there was no going back from this. If the two of them were going to burn, he would gladly become ashes for her. She was what he wanted, someone he desired and where his mind always wandered of. She was everything he had ever asked of “Lilac... you are very wet..” he whispered to her ear and then watched how her face turned bright red, she gulped down and tried to curl herself, as if she could hide from him. This was very cute in his eyes.

Right now, Lilac was only on her undergarment, while Hunter was still fully clothes and when he ripped of the last fabric that latched on her body, she gasped, she squirmed and tried to cover herself, as if she just realized what was going on.

It was too late for her to back down, because Hunter wouldn't let her to do so. He lowered himself and started to kiss on her neck, her collarbones and then down to her breast, she squirmed and moaned in delight when he captured his nipple and bit it carefully, while playing with the other one, he pinched it until it turned very red like her face.

She smelled so good, her arousal turned him even harder.

He wanted her, all of her...

“You don't have any idea how much I want you, Lilac. You don't know how long I have been waiting for you to be mine...”

Hunter kept talking to her, while he pleased her and somehow, this made her even more relax, his voice was soothing and she wanted him so badly.

Lilac closed her eyes, while she savored every touch and every kiss. She breathed. heavily, but she opened her eyes when his kiss when south.

“Hun... Hunter, what are you doing?” She stuttered when she watched Hunter kissed her down there, it was very embarrassing, especially when he lifted his head. and their eyes met. She felt very vulnerable and exposed.

“It’s okay, little one... relax,” he said in the same tone.

Lilac wanted to protest, but her complain was swallowed back, as she let out delicious moan when Hunter licked her clit.

He licked and intruded her opening with his tongue and this sent shivered down her spine, as she couldn’t help, but squirmed. The sound of it made her body was hot, very hot, as something built inside of her body.

“Let it go, little one...” Hunter said in his deep voice, as he could feel how she was close to her climax and once it happened, her body was trembling violently, this was the first time for Lilac to feel t

Chapter 83

Lilac felt her world was shattered, but not in a bad way. This feeling and sensation. was very foreign for her, it shocked her because her body could actually respond in that way.

She trembled for a while and Hunter kept licking her, taking everything from her, as he patiently waited until she was done riding her first climax and then kissed. her forehead, the tip of her nose and her lips. She could taste herself in his mouth, which made her blushed.

very red,

“I am not yet done with you. This is just the beginning,” Hunter whispered to Lilac’s ear and this word made her blushed even more, her skin turned but her eyes filled with the anticipation. As embarrassing as it was, Lilac had to admit that she liked it. She liked the way he touched her body and how he gave her pleasure.

Supporting his body on his knees, while still hovering above her, Hunter took off his clothes and then his pants, which made Lilac avert her eyes and this made. Hunter chuckled.

“What is it? Don’t tell me this is the first time for you to see this?” Hunter supported his body with his arm, while he pinched her chin and made her look at him. “Tell me, is this your first time.”

Lilac bit her lip and this made Hunter groan. He must be insane for wanting to bite her lip for her. But, he even more surprised when Lilac actually nodded and admitted it this was her first time.

“Really?” Hunter was in disbelief.

Lilac flinched when she heard how in disbelief he was and tried to wriggle her body away from him, but of course, Hunter would never let her go, not after she had turned him so hard and all he wanted was to bury himself deep into her. She drove him insane.

Lilac obviously was not the first woman he was with, he had been with a lot of them, if one could say, but then no one ever made him feel this way.

Hunter kept kissing her, every part of her, touching and licking and when he placed himself between her legs, both of them moan, the friction of what kind of pleasure that they would get, excited them.

However, when Hunter thrust into her hard, Lilac screamed in pain. She was very tight. She was not lying when she said this was her first time and Hunter felt guilty for forgetting that fact. He had not yet gone all the way in when Lilac was screaming in pain. He stopped and now only half of him was within her.

“I am sorry, I am sorry little one...” Hunter whispered to her ear and tried to ease her pain, by kissing her and helped her to relax again.

Only when she felt more comfortable, Hunter inserted himself and this time he did it very slowly, he let her to stretch for him and adjust herself with his size.

“Are you, okay?” Hunter kept checking on her.

“Hm...” Lilac nodded. She felt so full, but at the same time she wanted more, this was not enough for her.

“Can I go deeper?”

“Yes...”

Lilac breathed raggedly when Hunter started to move in and out of her body, the sound that came from it filled the room and the smell of sex was very thick.

Lilac was grateful for when Hunter kept communicating with her about what he was going to do with her body, so she wouldn't feel scared and at lost. He was being very attentive and gentle with her. Was this the feeling when someone loved you so much, to the point, they didn't want to hurt you?

This feeling was very nice...

After the initial pain and when her body was already adjusted with his size, the feeling that building inside of her started to make her cry, this was very intense. Tears rolled down from her eyes when she threw her head back and her body shattered. This delicious feeling was unbearable, she accidentally scratched Hunter's back and this made the alpha became even more turned on, he came undone not long after her and Lilac could feel warm liquid between her legs.

Once her body calmed down and what was left of her was a sob, Hunter peppered kisses on her face. “Are you, okay?” he asked, worried in his voice.

Lilac nodded weakly, she felt very sleepy and satisfied.

“Sleep, little one.” Hunter caressed her cheek and pulled out from her carefully, which made her flinched, but then she rolled her body to the side and curled her body to sleep, she was too tired to do anything else.

Lilac had never been feeling so fulfilled and satisfied like this, which rendered her unable to move a finger and fell asleep almost immediately,

Chapter 83

Seeing her like this, Hunter smiled, he felt very satisfied to know this was her first time. No one had ever touched her before him and it felt great to know that bastard of an alpha had never seen this side of her or drew pleasure from her.

Hunter leaned over and kissed her arm and her forehead. After he stared at her for a while, he got up and took a towel to clean her. She must be very exhausted to even care about this and Hunter didn't mind to take care of her.

"I love you, Lilac. My sweet little one. I love you..."

Hunter then realized one thing when he caught a sight of unfinished dinner. They had not yet eaten anything when they did it, no wonder. Lilac was very exhausted and he was sure, tomorrow she would be famished.

His hunch was right, because the next day, Lilac woke up because she was very hungry, but when she opened her eyes and found Hunter's sleeping face, she was stunned, as her memory reminded her of what happened the previous night. She blushed profusely.

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 84

Chapter 84

Lilac told herself not to think about what happened last night and acted cool, but she couldn't. Because the more she tried not to think of it, the more vivid the memory came to her mind, she was dumbfounded as of how she could act very promiscuous like that.

She remembered every touch, every kiss and everything that he did to her body and how she reacted to it.

Not to mention how they were sleeping by hugging each other and how their legs tangled with one another, she couldn't help, but blushed again. His skin was very warm to her touch and she liked his smell, as her face was right in front of his bare chest.

Lilac looked down and she gulped so hard when she realized she was also naked.

What she should do now? Should she get up slowly and go to the bathroom to check herself, but what she should do if Hunter woke up? She didn't think she could face him right away.

Lilac tried her hardest not to make a move or any sound, but her stomach couldn't cooperate with her. Her stomach actually let out this embarrassing sound, which reminded her of what the reason she was waking up in the morning.

She was hungry, no, she was starving!

After such vigorous act the other night, she remembered she didn't eat anything! This was a lesson for her, if in the future they were going to do it again, she should eat a lot! Because she would need that energy.

However, the thought of doing it again with Hunter made her gulped down, her body felt so hot again and all the memories returned to her head. This good!

"I think we really need to feed you now."

was!

Lilac shrieked when she heard Hunter's voice. He was awake and there was no trace of sleepiness on his eyes at all!

"Y—you are awake!" Lilac felt like she wanted to dig a hole and bury herself in it because of how embarrassed she was, not to mention the way Hunter chuckled and teased her. He buried his face against her nape and kissed her hot skin when she tried to run away from him.

Chapter 84

"Why are you so flustered?" he asked teasingly, as he licked her skin, this made her gasped and shivered. She could feel her desire for her was awoken.

Hunter was being so mean with her!

"I- I want to eat something. I- I am hungry!" Lilac struggled to get away from him, but no matter what she did, there was nothing she could do and she end up in his arms. He hugged her from behind and innocently brushed his arms against her perked nipples, “Hm... I am hungry too. I feel like I want to eat something too...” Hunter said lazily. He kept nuzzling against Lilac’s neck, breathing in her scent and felt this satisfaction because he managed to make her flustered. This was the best morning that had ever happened in his entire life. He wanted to wake up to his sweet woman like this every day. This must be a blessing.

Lilac wanted to cry, but at the same time she wanted to moan when Hunter pinched her sensitive nipple and started to rub himself against her from behind.

“Hu- Hunter what are you doing?” Lilac asked, she felt so embarrassed when she could feel how he got hard. His phallus was right on top of her ass cheeks. She wanted to push herself against him, but she was still had her conscience intact and her embarrassment stopped her from trying to do so.

However, she didn’t think she would last for long, if Hunter didn’t stop it, maybe she would embarrass herself in the end.

Thankfully, he had some mercy on Lilac when he finally gave her last kiss and then groaned when he pulled away from her and got off the bed.

Lilac felt grateful and she finally could sigh of relief, but at the same time, there was this emptiness she couldn’t describe, she felt a little bit... disappointed because Hunter stopped himself. Despite her hunger, she didn’t think she wanted him to stop.

She had to admit, she wouldn’t mind if Hunter continued...

Lilac really wanted to slap herself for thinking that way.

“Come on, you wake up so late, I am sure there is nothing in the dining hall anymore. Those lycans must have gobbled up all the food there. We need to make something in the kitchen,” Hunter said, as he put on some clothes and pants.

Lilac stared at Hunter’s body, he looked very big and he didn’t seem to bother with the fake, he was naked in front of her. This must be because he had done it dozen of times, so he was unfazed when he was being unclothed in front of a woman.

The thought to fit made Lilac felt her stomach churned her appetite dropped. She had the fact there were other women before her and this made her felt unwell.

Caught Lilac was ogling at him, Hunter tilted his head, amusement on the corner of his lips when he asked her what she was staring at?

“Nothing,” Lilac said hastily, as she averted her eyes from him.

“Do you like what you are seeing? Or, should I show it to you again?” Hunter approached Lilac, who was still on the bed, clutching the blanket to cover herself.

“I was not staring at you!” Even Lilac herself could feel the blatant lie in her denial.

“Okay, okay,” Hunter laughed. He wanted to tease her again, but he didn’t have a heart to see how already red her face was, if he had to follow his heart, they wouldn’t have their meal in an hour, because he would have devoured something else that was way more interesting for him. “Come on, you want to go out with the blanket?”

“Can you turn around?”

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 85

Chapter 85

“And why should I turn around?” Micah crossed his arms in front of his chest. There was this amusement in his eyes when he spoke and this made Lilac’s face. turned even redder. She looked like she was about to cry when she naively. answered that question.

“Because I don’t wear anything.” Lilac clutched her blanket.

“And then why?” Micah couldn’t help, but continued this childish game. “I have seen everything, Lilac and it is safe to say I have touched and licked every inch of your body. What are you trying to hide from me? Is there something that I have not yet seen?”

“Hunter!” This time, because she was too embarrassed, she raised her voice and growled, knowing this man found pleasure by teasing her. She was right! This man was so mean! “Get out from the room!”

Lilac threw a pillow at him.

“We just spent the night together, but you already threw me out of the room? I thought I satisfied you last night.” Hunter leaned over very quick and landed a kiss. on her lips before he pulled away from her again, a smirk on his lips because he could manage to make her flustered yet again. “Did I do something that is not to your liking?”

“Hunter!” Lilac buried her face against the pillow and Hunter laughed even harder, but he caressed her head and then walked out of the room, giving her the space she needed.

“I will wait outside of the door,” Hunter said before he closed the door and there was this quietness.

Realizing Hunter was no longer inside the room, Lilac lifted her head and found herself was alone in this room. She took a deep breath to control her thumping heart.

Lilac thought, she knew how mischievous Hunter was, but as it turned out, she still did not the extent of his mischievousness.

However, after her initial embarrassment, she felt her heart was so warm. Yes, it was annoying to be teased, but at least, she knew how much he wanted her.

Somehow, with the way how Hunter treated her, this healed her self esteem that had been destroyed by Aiden’s betrayal.

10:43 Mon, 1 Jan 0

Chapter 85

Her stomach grumbled once again when she was thinking about this, urged her to put on some clothes and immediately went out to the man, who had been waiting for her patiently. She was so hungry, it seemed, she needed to suppress the feeling of her embarrassment until she was fed.

It took her ten minutes before she finally came out and saw Hunter was talking with Rye, he took her hand and ended the conversation with Rye.

“You need to be careful,” Rye said as his parting words, he smiled and waved at Lilac before he walked away from them.

“What happened?” Lilac asked out of curiosity. Because it was not everyday you would hear your gamma to ask you to be careful. This must be something important, though Hunter didn’t look concern about whatever the topic he was talking with his gamma.

“You can cook?” Lilac asked with her brows raised. It seemed, Hunter didn’t want to tell her, therefore, no matter how she coaxed him, she didn’t think he would tell her. More so, she was trained not to involve herself in a matter of the pack, especially when your mate was the alpha of the pack. There were a few secrets that they couldn’t tell you.

“Of course.” Hunter looked proud of himself. “There is no way I don’t know the basic skill to survive.” Despite the fact they could eat raw meat when they were in their beast form, but as shifters, they preferred to eat like human. It was way more. comfortable.

“Really?” Lilac widened her eyes.

Disbelief must be very apparent on her face when she asked for the confirmation of it, which made Hunter smirked.

“You can just sit and relax, I will cook something for you.” He pulled her closer and kissed the top of her head, which made everyone around them took the second glance when they walked past them.

At this point, Hunter was no longer cared, he felt so happy to have Lilac in his arms right now. She was his and there was nothing could say otherwise, especially after he claimed her last night. Though, he supposed to mark her, but seeing how she was still trying to adjust with him and engage in this sexual activity, he didn't want to overwhelm her by marking her just yet.

"Okay, I want to try the food that you cook." Lilac felt more comfortable with Hunter now, she hugged his arm and ignored the people, who stared at them when they headed toward the kitchen, just like what Hunter did.

If Hunter didn't care about it, why would she care?

More so, she was curious what kind of food that Hunter could cook, since back in her pack, men usually didn't do this kind of stuff. This job would fall on the woman, therefore, almost all the man in the werewolf packs didn't know how to cook.

When they went to the war, there were a few women, who came with them too, to cook, clean their clothes and tended to them.

Ruby must be one of the women, who came to the forefront. She obviously came. from low rank family. If Lilac was not the future luna and she was only a mere orphan girl, she would have been sent to the forefront too.

The irony of the reality...

When they finally in the kitchen, all of the women immediately went silent upon the arrival of the alpha. Hunter then told them to leave the kitchen when they asked if he wanted something.

Confused, they left the kitchen, leaving the two of them alone.

"Now, do you have something particular you wanted to eat?" Hunter asked.

"No. Surprised me."

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 86

Chapter 86

Lilac was in awed when Hunter really proved it to her that he could cook. He was actually really great at it. He cooked two main courses and five side dishes within less than an hour.

Lilac couldn't even hide her amazement when Hunter moved very fluidly in the kitchen, as if he used with all of this.

How could an alpha be able to do this?!

Lilac stared at her steak, which the aroma that came from it really tickled her appetite. She blinked her eyes in disbelief.

"The food will not finish if you only planning to stare at it," Hunter teased her. He prepared small table and arranged everything on top of it. "Come and sit here."

Hunter took her hand and opened the chair like a gentleman, while Lilac was in awe, she looked so proud to be able to call this man as hers. He was hers. Hunter told her the same thing, right? So, she didn't need to be embarrassed to think that way.

"How? How can you cook so well?" Lilac blinked her eyes in awed, while Hunter cut the meat into smaller pieces, so she wouldn't have a trouble when she was eating.

"Little one, I know how awesome I am, but you need to eat if you want to stop the grumbling on your stomach," Hunter said lightly, as he kissed her head. "You can stare at me all you want after you finished your food, okay?"

Lilac was speechless by how Hunter's words sounded so full of himself, but then he was right. She was starving and the food in front of her was a temptation.

"Hm!" Lilac widened her eyes in delight when the juicy meat touched her taste buds. She had never eaten anything so delicious like this, even when she lived in the pack house as the future luna. She required to eat modestly. More so, she didn't think there was anyone back in her pack that could cook so perfectly like this one,

"Do you like it?" Hunter asked. He didn't want to eat and missed the expression that Lilac made. She looked so adorable when she was being very expressive like this.

“Very! This is very delicious!” Lilac then cleared her throat, she corrected what she said earlier. “I meant, probably because I am too hungry, that’s why this is taste so good.”

Chapter 86

Hunter laughed when he heard that. He didn’t feel offended at all. “Like I thought, you are very adorable!”

And with that they spent a peaceful afternoon over the lunch that Hunter had cooked and somehow, Lilac ate more than she usually did. She loved his cooking.

“I will cook more if you really liked it.” Hunter was happy enough to see Lilac ate a lot. Hm. It seemed, late night sex and a homecooked meal were a great combination. He didn’t mind to let her eat his food in the afternoon, as long as he let her eat her in the evening.

“You don’t need to do that,” Lilac said sheepishly, she stared at her cleaned plate and felt a little bit self conscious. Back when she was in the pack, she would be reprimanded if she ate too much like this and Luna Jasmine would have given her a stern look whenever she ate too much. She needed to maintain her weight, or else,” she wouldn’t look attractive anymore.

As it turned out, even after she starved herself, she still couldn’t keep Aiden from cheating on her, what irony...

Lilac smiled at Hunter. “I will cook for you later, okay?”

Hunter grinned. “I will look forward for our homecooked meal. He leaned over and kissed her lips, he kissed her a little bit longer, until she was out of breath.

After that, Hunter stood up. “Let’s go to our waterfall,” he said cheerfully. He was in a good mood, therefore, he wanted to go to their place. “We will go there in our beast form, it has been a while since you let out your beast.”

Lilac was still in the same training with Hunter.

“Let’s go!” Lilac then caught a glance of the dirty plates on the table. “Oh, I will clean this first.”

Hunter frowned when he saw Lilac was about to tidy the table, he caught her hand, “What are you doing?” He didn’t look happy upon seeing what his woman was going to do.

“I need to clean this first.” Lilac repeated what she said, as if there was nothing wrong with that, but it was a completely wrong thing to do. “You have cooked, so I will clean.”

“What kind of logic is that?” Hunter took the plate in Lilac’s hand and put it down again on the table. “Someone will clean this up, you don’t need to do it,” Hunter said. He frowned when Lilac furrowed her brows. “What?”

“I…” Lilac bit her lip.

“Let’s go.” Hunter took her hand and went out of the kitchen. “You don’t need to do any of that anymore, Lilac. You are the future luna of this pack, you don’t need to bother yourself with that trivial thing.”

“But, it will not hurt anyone if I cleaned the table.” Lilac followed Hunter out of the kitchen.

However, she stopped walking when Hunter suddenly turned around and faced her, currently they were in the garden, as this path would lead them to the forest, where they would find their waterfall.

“You are the future luna of the pack. You need to act like one. If you don’t assert yourself and make people see the value in you, they will take you lightly. I don’t mind if you wanted to clean a plate or two after you ate something, but I don’t recommend that. Sometime, you need people to do what they should do, so they will not forget their place.”

Hunter knew there were still a lot of people talked bad about Lilac, as she would be the luna of the pack.

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 87

Chapter 87

Hunter learned that it was what Luna Jasmine taught her and this made him mad. How could she teach someone as the future Luna, but at the same time, she treated her not too far from someone was treating a maid? This was ridiculous in his opinion.

In the end, Hunter realized, there were a lot of things that Lilac had to relearn again, because from what he knew of Luna Jasmine's method of teaching her, she wanted to create a submissive mate for her own son, someone that couldn't voice out their opinion and go along with their mate's word no matter what they said.

This was not right and Hunter didn't want someone, who couldn't even say what they thought. Therefore, he needed to tell Lilac slowly that what she learned was not right, but of course, it would take time, since what Luna Jasmine taught her had been rooted in her heart and mind.

From the look of it, Luna Jasmine wanted a woman, who she could control, even though she was no longer a Luna, once her son became the alpha of the pack.

"It has been a while, since we are here..." Lilac said, she sighed deeply. She shifted into her human form, the moment she arrived in this place. Hunter was adamant to train her beast form, in order for her to have a better health, since she was very weak, even for a female werewolf.

"Hm... do you like this place?" Hunter hugged her from behind. "Do you have recollection of your memory in this place?"

Hunter didn't ask this question often, but every time, he asked her about this, Lilac always felt like he really hoped she could suddenly remember their past together when they met for the first time in this place, where she saved his life, Though Hunter didn't say it, but he was really fond of the memory.

"I am sorry, I can't remember anything," she said in small and regretful voice, feeling guilty for forgetting something so important for her man.

Unfortunately, Lilac couldn't remember it.

"You don't need to be sorry," Hunter said in small voice that sounded like a whisper. Lilac couldn't see the expression that he made because of their position, but it didn't make her feel better.

This would be the answer that Hunter gave to her, whenever she said there was no memory came to her mind when they visited this place.

"Don't think too much." Hunter turned her body around and as if he could read what was in her mind, he leaned over and captured her lips. He kissed her deeply until she forgot her worry. "We still have a lot of time to make so many memories. I will remember our first meeting in this place, while you can remember our first meeting when I kissed you in that dark alley.”

“That’s not romantic at all.” Lilac pursed her lips and Hunter scrunched his brows.

“I don’t think almost died because someone poisoned me was a romantic situation for a first meeting. Seriously, I will rather take that dark alley any day.” Hunter grinned.

Thinking in that way, Hunter was right, Lilac didn’t think it was a romantic situation for a first impression. She laughed and felt a little bit better. Hunter always knew how to improve her mood and for some unknown reason, the more she spent her time with him, the more comfortable she was. She wanted to be with him all the time.

But, of course, she wouldn’t say it out loud, just in case Hunter would have a big head when she admitted this.

He was a fun person to be with. And probably... just maybe... spending the rest of her life with him was not something bad... actually, she looked forward into it.

Hunter made her felt something she had never felt before, something that was not even her own destined mate could give her, she felt loved and protected. He treated her so well, even though he could be overbearing and teasing her endlessly. but she liked this dynamic.

“Okay, I know how handsome I am, so stop ogling at me,” Hunter said, which shattered Lilac’s amazement on him. “Now, shift into your beast, let’s explored this place.”

Lilac groaned. She took back some of his words that said he was a fun person, because right now, Hunter was anything, but fun.

“Can’t we stay for a while here?” Lilac pursed her lips, she didn’t want to shift into her beast often, because it was very tiring, though she was better now and she could feel the benefit from it, where she became a little bit more energized, as if she had a lot of strength to start her day.

But, still...

“No.” Hunter could be very stern when it came to build up her strength. He was not very happy when he learned how many times Lilac shifted in a year.

No wonder,

her body was very weak. “Shift now, okay.”

Hunter gave her a deep kiss to coax her, as if it would make her obliged.

“Okay...” Lilac said begrudgingly.

But apparently, it worked just fine and his mate started to shift into her honey brown wolf, which looked very beautiful, he always mesmerized by her beast’s form. She looked so beautiful and graceful. It might be sounded cheesy and partial, but he had never seen someone so attractive like her. After that, Hunter followed her and shifted into his beast too. He intentionally ran slightly behind her, or he would slow down if Lilac fell behind. Only when the sun set, they finally returned to the waterfall and the only thing that illuminated this place was the light from the pack house and the town, where torches had been lit up in every corner. Hunter shifted into his human form and took off his clothes and his pants, as he walked toward the lake. "Do you want to join me?"

Chapter 88

"Do you want to join me?" Hunter asked Lilac, as he walked toward the lake that was created under the waterfall.

The question itself was a temptation for Lilac, because the look on his face right now didn't have any indication that he was trying to tease her. He looked very serious and solemn.

"But, it will be cold..." Lilac said, she didn't even realize why she was whispering like this, but apparently, her throat was tightened because of the sight of him. The scenery before her eyes with Hunter as the main point was something that came out of the picture.

"It will not. Promise." Hunter kept walking and now he had dipped himself into the water and half of his body had submerged. He turned around and looked at Lilac, as if waiting for her, inviting her to come with him. "I will help you to clean you up."

Lilac was hesitated for a while, but there was something inside of her that urged her to come with Hunter. The sky had turned dark, but this place looked so dreamy with the warm light from the moon above them.

Hunter didn't hurry her to come with him, but he simply waited for her to come to him. His eyes were very intense, as if he could see straight into her soul and this left Lilac speechless. She wanted to know what was in his mind at this moment and how he looked at her.

He had told her countless time, how much he loved her and he proved it over and over again that he was different from Aiden, yet Lilae felt not enough. She had this tendency to seek for validation, whether she had done everything right or not.

Her mind told her by coming with him to the water was not the right thing to do, someone could walk on them and this was not appropriate place to be naked. Once again, Juna Jasmine's tutelage got into her head.

This time, Lilac chose to abandon all the things she had learned in this past one year and started to undress herself. She felt her fingers were shaking and her whole body was trembling. The wind felt colder than usual, or maybe it was only herself, who felt that way.

Lilac felt she moved in a slow motion, something that would make you impatient, but when she glanced over and over again toward Hunter, he didn't seem to be bothered, if anything, he looked like he was enjoying her clumsiness.

Lilac gulped down so hard when she finished undressing herself and left her with only her undergarment. She contemplated whether or not she needed to take them off too, but in the end, she decided to unclasp her bra and pulled down her panties, because she didn't want them to get wet. Well, that was one of the reasons...

After that, Lilac felt self conscious, as she covered her breast with her long hair. She walked timidly toward the water, where Hunter had waited for her there.

Hunter stared at her intensely, almost like this was the first time for him to see a woman, or rather this was the first time for him to witness something so wonder, fragile and precious.

The alpha stretched out his hand and helped her to get into the water. The way he looked at her, almost like he worshipped her with all of his heart. He would give up his life only for her.

was what the deepest love that a lycan would have for their woman. They would worship the ground they walked on.

“You look so beautiful. Hunter caressed her cheek when both of them were already on the water. Only half of their body that was still on the surface.

“Thank you,” Lilac said and when she was about to compliment him, Hunter had swallowed her words when he kissed her..

He deepened their kiss when he pulled her closed to him. He explored her mouth with his tongue and this was not enough for him to get a taste of her.

The cold wind blew, but they were burning from the passion within themselves, they looked like they were going to burn the entire world with their desire for each other.

“I want to mark you so badly,” Hunter said against her lips.

“Then do it. Lilac replied, she didn’t even think twice when she said that, her mind was a blur and she could feel nothing, but him. She wanted him. She wanted all of him. “I want you, Hunter...

Hunter groaned when he heard the way she called his name and this made him went insane. He slipped his hand under her knees and lifted her up without even breaking the kiss, while Lilac wrapped her arms around his neck and she felt the cold wind whispered against her back when Hunter took her somewhere.

At this point, Lilac couldn’t care less about where Hunter would take her, as long as she was with him, everything was fine. She would be more than willing to go with him wherever he went.

Hunter took her out of the water and laid her down on top of his cloak, as he hovered above her.

“I want to mark you....” Hunter said. He was breathing heavily.

Marking their woman was an important thing for a lycan, which meant, they would only love one woman for the rest of their life and they wouldn’t take anyone. else as theirs.

And Hunter had made it very clear, he only wanted her.

“Do it...” Lilac said and she moaned when Hunter thrust himself into her, this was not as painful as the first time, but still, she needed to adjust herself with his size.

Lilac blushed when Hunter whispered to her ear, as he thrust her slowly.

“The mark from the lycan can be very painful, but I will make it as pleasurable as possible for you.”

Chapter 89

Lilac was not sure, whether she would die because of the pain or she was going to die because of the pleasure she got from Hunter.

When Lilac reached her climax and her world shattered deliciously in pleasure, she screamed out of pain the moment Hunter sank his teeth on her neck, it was very painful, this marking process was even more unbearable than when she rejected Aiden, at the time their bond was broken.

Lilac gasped, she couldn't breathe properly, as the pain spread throughout her entire body, she was still riding her climax, somehow, the pain from the marking process only intensified her climax to the point it was really hurt.

“Hu- hunter... stop...” Lilac didn't think she could bear this any longer, but instead of stopping what he was doing, she could feel his fangs dug deeper into her flesh. The smell of blood filled the cold night, carried by the wind.

Lilac didn't know what she felt anymore, as her whole body was burning in so much pain and pleasure at the same time, she couldn't hold it back anymore.

It was not sure how long she passed out, but it seemed, it was not for long because she was still near the waterfall, where she could hear the rumbling sound not too far from where she was laying down. Hunter must have put on some clothes on her because she could feel this was not too cold.

“Awake?”

Hunter's deep voice caressed her ears and this sent shivers down her spine. She loved his voice.

"Are you hurt somewhere?"

Lilac tried to open her eyes, but she was too tired to do so, therefore, she chose to close them and stretched out her arms, looking for comfort from her mate.

That was right. Lilac could feel this burning sensation on her neck. She was already marked!

"Hunter?" Lilac could feel his arms comforted her when he hugged her.

"I am here little one." Hunter gave her a kiss on her forehead. "I wanted to take you back to the pack house, but you are sleeping so peacefully and every time I tried to move you, you will flinch because of pain. So, I thought, I will wait for a while here..."

La

Chapter 89

Hunter explained himself about why they were still in the open area.

"Hm..." Lilac nuzzled against the crook of his neck and then kissed his cheek. "How long I have been sleeping?" her voice was still very weak, but she thought all of her training with Hunter was paid off now.

"Two hours," Hunter replied. "Is it still very painful?"

If it was her before, she wouldn't have been able to wake up within a few days. "Not really... I am sleepy."

"Sleep, little one, I will take you back to the pack house later."

"Hm." Lilac snuggled against his chest and was thankful that Hunter was thoughtful enough to put on her dress, so she wouldn't get cold. She became even more and more comfortable in this position when suddenly Hunter's body went stiff. "Hm? What happened?" She was about to fall asleep when suddenly Hunter moved away from her. He laid her down on the cloak that was placed beneath her.

“What are you doing here?” Hunter asked someone.

Lilac was alerted when she heard the hostility in Hunter’s voice: She tried to open her eyes, despite the sleepiness that kept lingering. She wanted to see, to whom Hunter directed his enmity of “Well, well... I don’t know the alpha will be very shameless to have sex in the open area like this. Don’t you think this is a fate for us to meet again?” He guffawed. “Fate... ha ha ha!”

Hunter didn’t find that funny at all.

“Who is he?” Lilac was on alert when she felt this enmity feeling in the air. Whoever this person, he must not be a friend, seeing how strong Hunter reacted to his presence.

However, Hunter didn’t answer her question, instead he stood up and shielded Lilac behind his back, as he faced this man.

“What now? Don’t tell me you have marked that outsider?” he scoffed disdainfully. “I still can’t believe you are the alpha of the pack. Your father will cry out of humiliation in his grave.”

“What do you want, Kellan?” Hunter asked, coldness laced in voice, as one could feel the anger that emanated from his body. He looked like he was going to kill this person right in this instant.

Chapter 89

Meanwhile, Lilac couldn’t understand with the anger that came from Hunter. Was he an enemy? Why he was being very rude with Hunter when he was the alpha?

“I want you to get my daughter out of the dungeon.” The man named Kellan posted his request. He had been banned to enter the pack house, but thankfully, he knew where to find the alpha and right now was the perfect moment to demand his request, since Hunter had been avoiding him all this time.

Hunter narrowed his eyes. "I am sure you know the answer that I will give to you." His voice was as cold as the cold wind in the winter coupled with killing intent that emanated from his body.

This feeling made Lilac a little bit restless, she immediately stood up too and was very grateful once again because Hunter had put dress on her, or else, she would be naked in front of this stranger.

"Lilac, go back to the pack house," Hunter said in deep voice. His eyes were still fixed on Kellan.

"Do you really think you can go back to the pack house?" Kellan raised his brows and then he clapped his hands.

From the dark, emerged at least fifteen beasts.

Hunter widened his eyes in surprised, because he couldn't sense their presence. until recently, but then they looked even more dangerous,

"What is this, Kellan?" Hunter growled viciously. "Are you trying to revolt?"

"I only want my daughter, Hunter."

Belong to the Lycan Alpha by Jikanyotomare Chapter 90

Chapter 90

Hunter was surprised because he didn't realize there were so many people hid in the dark until they emerged. They were in their beast form and from the look of it, they must be men under Kellan.

No matter whether Kellan was his father's beta, in which he still held so much power over the people in this pack, because it was still less than a year since the death of the previous alpha and Hunter was still trying to grasp his power within the people in the pack.

"Give me back my daughter and I will let you live." Kellan had the audacity to make this threat, which meant, he was very serious with what he said.

"You are really bold to threaten your alpha, Kellan." Hunter grabbed Lilac's hand and pulled her closer to him. They were away from the pack house, caused his mind link couldn't reach the nearby guard or warriors and this made them on their own right now.

"I didn't ask much, Hunter. More so, I have never seen you as an alpha." Kellan took a step closer toward Hunter and Lilac. "Moreover, I am sure there was a fault play in the death of your father. I don't believe Aiden was the one, who had killed him. You know your father, we both know him, that man child like Aiden will never stand a chance to kill him."

Hunter raised his brows. "Are you trying to slender my name by saying I am the who had killed him?" Hunter scoffed disdainfully.

one,

"Drop the pretense, Hunter. I know how cunning you are." Kellan was not pleased at all with the development of the situation. He looked at Hunter with hatred. "A lycan alpha will be not easily killed by a mere man child like Aiden."

Hunter smirked.

What is this? You sounded very familiar with him." He tilted his head. "Have you happened talking with him behind my back?"

"I will not say anything if you gave me back my daughter. I will leave this matter as it is."

"Do you really think I will believe you, especially after threaten me?"

you talked so big and

"You are not in the position of making a request here. I can finish you both within a second."

am impressed."

Lilac gulped down, she looked around and was sure if the battle happened, Hunter wouldn't be able to take this many lycan on his own and she wouldn't be much help at all. Not to mention how she was in pain, even if she was in her best condition, she wouldn't be able to fight a beast!

Lilac was sure if they started fighting, she would be the first person, who was killed without a doubt. She grimaced to think her life would end here when she thought she just started to find happiness.

Without doubt, Kellan must be Grace's father and he was trying to revolt against Hunter to get his daughter back, but what puzzled Lilac was; why Hunter was very adamant to not let go of Grace when their life was in danger?

That was not a wise move, right?

"After your threat, do you think I will believe you will let me out of here alive?" Hunter was not a fool. He knew Kellan asking of his daughter was a mere excuse to meet him here. "What do you want?"

Kellan smiled back at him, but this kind of smile didn't reach his eyes at all. "I know you are smart and I am not wrong with that. You are indeed very smart." Kellan nodded. "I want to know why did you kill your father."

Lilac furrowed her brows when she heard that, she looked back and forth between Hunter and Kellan. Where the accusation came from? Everyone knew it was Aiden, who had killed Hunter's father. Moreover, why would Hunter kill his own father?

However, to Lilac's surprise, Hunter admitted it.

"Aiden. You must have talked with that coward, right?" Hunter chuckled and the sound of it was very eerie, as if he had turned into a devil himself.

"You can say so." Kellan nodded solemnly, he stared at Kellan. "When we are talking right now, everything that you hold dear is crumbling."

"Is it happening?" Hunter crossed his arms in front of his chest. He didn't seem to care with what he was saying next and the sight of his aloofness only irritated Kellan even more. "You are rebelling against me now? You chose tonight to work on your plan?"

"I adored you when you were young and I thought you will choose Grace as your woman, but now when I saw how shamelessly you take this outsider as your woman, I know there is no hope for you anymore."

“You should think there is no hope between me and your daughter since the very beginning. I have never seen someone as shameless as her.” Hunter mocked Kellan, he didn’t hide how disgusted he was with Grace. “If you really want to give me your daughter, you gave me a wrong daughter.”

Chapter 90

Kellan scrunched his brows. He didn’t understand what Hunter meant with what he was saying. He only had a daughter, therefore, he doted on her so much, seeing her suffering because Hunter rejected her love was already difficult enough, but right now, he witnessed it with his own eyes, how he had marked an outsider. which meant, there was no hope anymore.

If his daughter couldn’t get him, no one should have him and as a revenge, he would take Hunter down. This was a plan that he had concocted long time ago, actually, despite the matter with Grace.

He thought, it would be more smooth and have less blood if Hunter accepted Grace, but this young man was really stubborn.

Kellan raised his hand and all the beasts were ready to attack. “We shouldn’t have come to this point if you agreed to be with my daughter.”
