Chapter 97

Ruby stared at Aiden. She felt her heart lurched when he brought a woman back to their pack. She was a lycan, without a doubt, she could sense it from her scent, but she didn't have any idea, why her man would bring another woman here. She couldn't grasp why Aiden colluded with a woman from the lycan pack.

"Who is she?" Ruby asked, she approached Aiden with heavy steps, as she stared at the woman next to her mate. "Why there is a lycan here?"

That woman was very beautiful with voluptuous body that made Ruby jealous and insecure, because she was currently very pregnant, thus she was not that attractive anymore, more so, Aiden became less and less cared about her well beings. As long as she brought their child to term, that was all he cared about.

"Go back to your room," Aiden said icily. He then proceeded to take the woman to her bedroom, which actually not too far from their bedroom.

"Who is she?" Ruby followed them, she couldn't stop her aching heart from assuming the worst. "Why are you with her? Who are you?"

"Enough!" Aiden roared at Ruby, which made her startled and took a step back. Aiden looked like he was going to hit her or something.

This was not the first time he showed such intention, but to her relief, he had never really gone through with his threat. He held himself back.

Probably because of the baby in her stomach. Ruby started to think whether Aiden would really hit her if she had given birth to their baby since by that time there was nothing for him to be worried about.

"You don't need to meddle with my business! Go back to your room!" Aiden snapped at Ruby and watched the mother of his child rushed toward their room and slammed the door, very hard until could see the dust falling from the ceiling.

"Don't you think you are too harsh?" Grace asked.

That was right, the woman was Grace. She was rescued from the dungeon and was brought to this pack. Her mother and sister would arrive later, as they managed to flee from the pack before Hunter issued an order to catch them all.

It was lucky her father had foreseen that thing would happen and now it could be a bargain for Hunter. "Don't get involved in my internal matter," Aiden said icily. He didn't change his tone when he talked to Ruby and to Grace. He didn't like this arrangement, but he didn't have any other option. "Make sure you don't roam about this place and exposed yourself. There are a lot of things we need to settle down first and discuss about what we are going to do next now your father failed to escape."

It supposed to be Kellan, who discussed this matter with Aiden, but because that man failed with his rebellion against the alpha lycan, Aiden had to change his strategy too.

Their meeting would happen within two weeks, he just received a letter regarding that. The lycan pack side only mentioned they were having internal struggle and would like to postpone the meeting to hand over all the war prisoner.

"Okay, okay. You don't need to be hostile with me. I don't know why are you treating me so badly." Grace raised both of her arms and they arrived at her bedroom. "But... I am curious about the woman that you cheated on." Grace glanced at the closed door of Aiden's bedroom, where Ruby must be there, crying. "She is not really beautiful, but why do you want to cheat with her?"

Ruby wanted to know how to get man's attention, especially the one, who had their own mate. She knew how the mate bond worked for werewolf, though it didn't happen with the lycan.

Therefore, she was thrilled to learn a thing or two about how to seduce a man who had their own. destined mate, which defied all the nature thing for this man to be so in love with the other woman and got her pregnant.

Maybe Grace could learn something and apply it later when she finally met with Hunter again. it would, be a great thing for her after the whole ordeal.

Yet, Aiden simply glared at her and then opened the door, "Get in." His voice was firm and stern and Grace huffed and puffed when she got inside the room.

She startled and furrowed her brows when Aiden slammed the door close right in front of her face once she was inside.

"Damn. Both of them have the same habit of slamming the door," she said with a frown. "They are really not a good host."

But then, Grace shrugged her shoulders, she asked the wrong person. She should ask Ruby instead, since she was the one, who managed to get Aiden's attention.

Overall, Grace didn't seem to be bothered by the fact she was banned from her own pack and her father was in predicament.

She must be very sick in the head.

Lilac didn't wake up until a few days later, where Hunter had to help her to drink her medicine and the wound on her back slowly healed, but it took some time for her to recover from the mark.

The marking process rendered her weak and vulnerable and coupled with the wound, Lilac's body simply couldn't take it.

When she opened her eyes, the first thing she saw was Hunter. The man was staring at her and greeted her warmly with a kiss.

"You finally open your eyes, angel." Hunter kissed her forehead and tuck strands of hair behind her ear. "You make me scared." He didn't lie when he said that.

"Where am I?" Lilac looked very groggy, she didn't seem to recall what happened to her yet and Hunter helped her to sit down. He poured her a glass of water and helped her to drink.

Chapter 98

Lilac felt very sluggish and her movement was very slow, while her mind was clouded. She was not sure what to think about, but she really felt not like herself. She wanted to vomit after she drank the water, thus she pressed her tongue to the ceiling of her mouth, to hold back the urge.

“Are you okay?” Concern in Hunter’s voice when he saw how Lilac was. “I am going to call the healer,” he growled and then went straight to the door and ordered a guard to call the healer to come and informed her that Lilac had regained her consciousness.

However, when he returned to her side, Lilac had bent her body to the edge of the bed and then vomited to the floor. She emptied her stomach and this set Hunter in alarm.

“No... don’t look...” Lilac felt self awareness when Hunter came to her and held her hair for her, so she wouldn’t dirty it, but she didn’t want him to see her like this. She didn’t want him to resent her after this.

Luna Jasmine always said that a woman should be gracious and beautiful, this kind of thing was not acceptable for your mate to see.

If luna Jasmine saw this, she would have chewed her out for being very ignorant and not push Hunter away from witnessing such scene.

However, how she could do that when she was barely able to even sit down. She didn’t have time to go to the adjoint bathroom too, which caused her this mess.

“I am sorry... please go...” Lilac vomited again, she tried to push Hunter away, but her attempt was so weak for that to work out.

“What are you talking about?” Hunter asked, he kept holding her hair behind her nape and massaged her back to ease her pain. “I am not going anywhere, little one. You don’t need to worry about anything.” Somehow, what Hunter said warmed her heart, but she couldn’t help, but still felt this self awareness because she didn’t follow what she believed, or rather what luna Jasmine taught her how to be a good woman and luna for your mate.

Lilac felt so bad and even more she kept going on until the healer came and seeing that, she immediately called two maids to clean up after Lilac.

“Let’s do the check up in the room next to this,” Hunter said in impassive voice. He then proceeded to carry Lilac out of the room to the next one and let the two maids to clean the main bedroom.

up

Lilac still looked sluggish, she tried to get away from him because she felt uncomfortable after he saw her vomiting like that, but there was no way in hell, Hunter would listen to that. In his eyes, there was nothing wrong with it and his mate needed him the most out all this time.

The healer followed them and then when Hunter laid her down on the bed, the healer came to Lilac’s side and checked on her. She was quiet for a while and Hunter busied himself to take care of his mate. He wiped her mouth with wet towel that a maid brought for him and ordered someone to bring a bowl of porridge so Lilac could eat, of course, he discussed this with the healer to, whether or not Lilac could eat it

“She will be fine, alpha. You don’t need to worry.” The healer reassured the alpha and told him what he should pay close attention to and what he had to expect. “She will need to stay in bed for at least a week, after that she will be fine.”

Hunter took a mental note when he listened to the healer and make sure everything would be smooth for Lilac.

After speaking to the alpha, the healer went to talk with Lilac. “You can’t move around and make a ruckus, okay? You need to rest and gain your strength back, only then you can fully heal, Lilac.”

However, suddenly the alpha gave the healer a gentle warning about Lilac’s current status. She shouldn’t call her by her name casually. She must have seen the mark on her neck, there was no way she would miss it.

“She is the luna now, address her properly,” Hunter said in firm tone, which made the healer was taken “Spread my word. Lilac is the luna of the pack star from now on, I want all of you to address her she deserved.

Immediately lowered her head and nodded. "Yes, alpha. I am going to relay your other pack member."

Lilac wanted to protest, she felt embarrassed because Hunter was being very blunt, but she didn't want to confront him with the healer presence, because it was not the right thing to do. In the end of the day, Lilac was still listening to what luna Jasmine had taught her.

Her lesson had run too deep into her veins and she couldn't shake it off this feeling and followed luna Jasmine's tutelage unconsciously, even when she was no longer able to influence her in any way. After that, the healer left the two of them alone, that was when Lilac voiced out her concern.

"Don't you think it is too fast to tell the pack member about this?" Lilac asked, she looked lethargic and sleepy, it seemed, it still not occurred to her about what had transpired. Her back was already healed and she could lay down again now.

"You don't need to worry about it. I will handle everything, all you need to focus on is to heal," Hunter said extremely gentle with her and then kissed her lips, as he hugged her to sleep. "Sleep, little one."

A week after this, they would meet with Aiden. It would be an interesting meeting after such a long time. and Hunter was really looking forward into it.

Chapter 99

Ruby had been very upset ever since Aiden let that lycan woman to stay close to their bedroom, she had been harboring this ill intention toward her, but she didn’t know what to do in this kind of situation. She didn’t have any friend, neither she had an ally.

Not to mention, her problem was not only with Aiden and this woman named Grace, but also with luna Jasmine. The luna didn’t give her some slack at all in her daily lesson.

Even though she was no longer a luna, because alpha James had retreated from his position as the alpha of the pack, but she still handled most of the things inside the pack house, instead of giving the authority to Grace, since she was the luna of the pack right now.

Her reason would be because of her pregnancy and she didn’t want her to be more stressful than this if she had to be burdened by a lot of tasks, and yet, contrary of what she said, she gave Ruby a lot of things to do, so she wouldn’t forget her lesson.

There was time when her stomach felt the cramp and only then luna Jasmine seemed a little bit more understanding with her, because before this, she would have scoffed to see how tired she was.

“Who are you actually? What do you want to be here?” Ruby finally confronted Grace one morning before they went to the dining hall to get their breakfast.

Ruby didn’t want to go out of her bedroom, but luna Jasmine insisted for her to make an appearance during breakfast.

Grace didn’t regard her at all, she only glanced at Ruby and her bulging stomach before striding away, but Ruby insisted, as she grabbed her hand tightly and this made Grace furious, as she shoved her aside.

“Don’t you dare to touch me!” Grace roared.

Fortunately, Ruby could get her balance just in time, or else, she would have crashed down and put her baby at risk.

“How dare you to talk with me like this!? I am the luna of the pack!” At this time, Ruby remembered what luna Jasmine taught her. She needed to stand up for herself, no matter what, she was the face of the pack now and no one could tram ple her so easily.

That was how luna Jasmine taught her, but in truth, it was she herself, who always treated her no more than an unpleasant sight.

“Luna?” Grace scowled when she heard that words. “You can only be a luna because you are a wh ore, who can’t close your legs to a man,” she said, the insult sounded effortlessly.

It sounded even more hypocrite when it came from her, because heaven knew how many men that Grace had bedded until now, while Ruby only had been with one.

“Lilac should be the luna of the pack if you were not in the picture and seduced her mate.” In that case, Hunter wouldn’t have brought that slut back to her lycan pack! So, in another word, this bitch before her eyes was also responsible for Grace’s misery!

She couldn’t help, but felt this bitterness in her heart. If only this woman didn’t seduce Aiden, Lilac would still be in this pack and that stupid mate bond would tie them together for life.

All of sudden, Grace let out a strong killing intent that was enough to make Ruby shut her mouth. She was not a fighter and Grace, as a lycan, was physically stronger than a pregnant woman like her.

“Don’t you dare to touch me again!” Grace warned her before she continued walking toward the dining hall.

Meanwhile Ruby looked desperate, her back looked very lonely. She thought by coming here, she would be able to better her life, but who would have thought that her life would be more miserable than ever.

She loved Aiden and she was genuinely happy with him at first, but right now, she couldn’t tell about how she was feeling about him for sure.

Seething in anger, Ruby decided not to join with them to have breakfast. Probably, it would be better if this baby didn’t need to be born at all.

“So, are you changing your mind about hanging me in the square?” Kellan taunted Hunter.

Hunter had threatened to kill him and ultimately humiliated him in front of the whole pack for his betrayal, but then he didn’t do it.

Hunter crossed his arms in front of his chest. His eyes fixed on the beaten up Kellan. He had asked someone to dutifully beaten him up on the verge of dying, but not really killed him.

“Yes, I changed my mind. I thought death is too kind for you. I want you to live a long life.” Hunter didn’t change his expression at all when he said that, which made Kellan narrowed his eyes. “I like it to see you bleeding like this.” He lowered his body and his voice became very vicious. “Death will only end thing for you. I want you to live to suffer.”

There was this flicker of fear in Kellan’s eyes when he heard that. He didn’t want to show his fear, but he wouldn’t help bile usert from brating so fant

“Now, I will ask you again. Where did you get those lycan? Are they rogue?” Hunter repeated the same question over and over again.

However, when Kal ian didn’t anewer his question, he simply turned around and waved so the guard to continue beating him.

This action was al m o st like he was telling Kellan that he could wait for as long as he wanted to play this game, but surely, the disad van ta ge of the situation would be on Kellan, since he was the one, who suffered the most because of his stubbornness.

“Hunter Hunter! You ba st ard!” Kellan cursed without restraint, as he howled when the guards landed punch after punch and only stopped when he was almost died.

Lilac stared at the mark on her neck and she pressed her lips to stop herself from smiling. She liked the look of it, but she couldn't show this expression to Hunter because that man would tease her to no end.

For a while, Lilac forgot of how Raya looked a little bit strange with her. Probably because she was still trying to adjust herself with the fact Lilac was her luna now, since Hunter was not shy to declare that, especially with the proof of this mark.

"Do you like it that much?" Hunter asked, which startled Lilac, because she couldn't see him coming, neither he appeared in front of the mirror.

Red color tinged her cheeks, which she tried to hide it, pretending she didn't know what Hunter meant with that, but the man was too shrewd to not be able to see it. through her.

He came toward her and hugged her from behind, buried his nose on the crook of her neck and breathed in her scent. This action was very endearing, though Lilac would some time pretending she didn't like it, but in actuality, she loved it that much, since it made her felt wanted.

"I am not," Lilac murmured, she felt goosebumps on her skin when Hunter kissed her neck and then licked her sensitive skin, as he squeezed her breast, this made Lilac moaned, in which she immediately cleared her throat and regained her composure.

However, Hunter looked like in a good mood right now, because he actually became very playful with her. He kept licking and squeezing her breast, as he slipped his hand under her shirt and started to feel her tender skin. Her body was very perfect in his arms.

As if, she was made only for her.

The moon Goddess must have been mistaken when she put the Aiden as Lilac's mate, because the two of them were not compatible at all. If the mate bond was really exist, it should be him, who became her mate.

"My mate..." Hunter murmured and then his kisses became even more bold, as he turned her body around and started to leave trail of wet kisses on her neck, collarbones, her breast and this made Lilac breathless. She really wanted to tell Hunter to stop, but her desire to make him stop was weaker than her urge to make him continued his action, because he really made her felt so good.

However, Hunter abruptly stop, mischievous glinted in his eyes when he saw how confused Lilac was, she looked like someone just poured a cold water on her before she realized this was another way for Hunter to tease her.

"Hunter!" Lilac was screaming in desperation. He turned her on, but left her hanging like this!

"You can just ask me, you know and I will do what you want." Hunter crossed his arms. in front of his chest, his gaze was enough to make Lilac felt naked. How he could do that?!

He turned her on even more when he didn't even touch her.

Unfortunately, their teasing game needed to end when they heard a knock on the door, it was the guard, who informed them that their carriage was ready and they could go out now.

Lilac gulped down with difficulty, as she tried to act like there was nothing happened, she missed the glint in Hunter's eyes.

“I think we need to go now,” she said in small voice, she didn’t want to go before she got what she wanted, but at the same time, she was too embarrassed. “We need to go now.”

Lilac became nervous because Hunter stared at her intently, but when she was about to leave, he suddenly hugged her from behind and pushed her toward the bed.

“This will be quick,” Hunter said, as he started kissing her in earnest and the sound of frustration in his voice made Lilac laughed.

Yet, it didn’t take long for Hunter to make that sound of laughter became a delicious moan that filled the entire room.

SHIN

Today was the day where they would meet with Aiden, as Hunter would hand over the war prisoner.

But, inside the carriage, there was a certain woman, who was currently sulking. Lilac didn’t look happy at all, while Hunter mused her expression.

“Still hurt?” Hunter asked, while Lilac mewled and buried her face against his chest. She groaned.

“It hurt,” she said curtly.

“I am sorry.” Hunter nuzzled her head with his cheek and rubbed her back. was a little bit excited.”

Lilac didn’t accept that, she raised her head and glared at him. “That’s not a little, that’s a lot.” She remembered, how he ravaged her, but she couldn’t help, but blushing when she was reminded of the pleasure she got afterward.

“I thought you like it, because as I remember it, you told me to go even faster, don’t you?” he teased her relentlessly. “Oh, I also remember...”

But, before Hunter could talk even more, Lilac had covered his mouth with her own hand and glared at him, warning him not to continue to talk about this.

See? She was very cute when she was flustered! Hunter couldn't help himself, but kissed her cheek.

"Don't kiss me," Lilac said sternly, but her face couldn't lie to Hunter that she liked it. She hated herself for not being able to lie properly.

With that, Hunter only chuckled in delight, but their happiness didn't last long because soon after they arrived at their meeting point, where they met with Aiden and his warriors. Not only that, he also brought along his pregnant mate.

Ruby looked even more pregnant than before, it must be only a few more months before she gave birth to their child.

Lilac had been worried with this moment, she was not sure what she would feel when she saw the two of them again, but to her surprised, she felt nothing.

"Should I impregnant you?" Hunter whispered.
