

Chapter 101

“What happened?”

Are you not happy to come here, Darling?”

Alina was speechless. She did not know what to reply to him.

“Why did you call me here?” She asked.

Aaron looked angry. Alina’s legs were shaking and almost lost her body control.

“I thought you would come here with a bridal gown. I guess your Alpha Ricks’s parents are very happy with just an ordinary omega so you did not have to kill one of his parents. Otherwise, I would see you in your second bridal gown with stains of b***d.

Alina closed her eyes. She knew he would humiliate her like that.

“What do you want?”

“What if I tell you that I want your death?”

Alina nodded at him. “I know you want revenge on me for your father.”

When Aaron heard about his father he immediately went close to her and grabbed her neck.

He pushed her onto a tree, still grabbing her neck.

“Don’t talk about my father with your dirty mouth woman.”

Alina shut down her eyes and leaned her head against the tree. ‘I know he will not believe me, so I don’t have to explain more,’

“I really want to kill you with my bare hands, Omega.”

Alina was controlling her tears. The way she learned everything about a Luna or a Queen. She took it so seriously that she made herself like one of them.

She was now not a crybaby anymore. She controlled her tear which was the most difficult one.

“I know what you want.”

“Oh really?” Aaron asked and looked at her face. She was shaking in fear but still behaving like she did not care.

“You want to kill me now. Then just kill me. I know that I can not escape from you. So I don’t want to risk others’ lives because of me.”

“Others? What others?”

“I-I mean I don’t want this pack’s people to get my punishment.”

“This pack’s people? Or this pack’s Alpha?”

Alina opened her eyes and looked at him. She saw him smirking at her.

“Both.” She replied.

She felt his grip tighten and she hissed.

“How can I forget that the woman who can kill the Lycan king’s father can also behave without manners in front of him?”

She could not speak right now. He grabbed her neck totally as if he would kill her right now.

Alina tried to push him but he did not loosen his grip.

Second by second Alina felt that she could not breathe anymore. Her face was looking pale and she thought she would die right now.

Alina knew that he would kill her now. She thought gave up on herself and her life would be easier than anything else but she was so wrong. When his hands tightened she wanted to breathe. She wanted to live more.

Her pulse and heartbeat both were about to stop but Aaron let her neck go.

Alina took a deep breath but started to cough.

She coughed hard. She did not believe she was alive after this attempt to strangle her.

“Can you just not let me live? Why do you come after me again?” Alina asked so slowly.

However, King Aaron heard her very clearly.

“I will never forgive you. You killed my father.”

“I didn’t kill him.”

“Okay, I get it. Now show me proof. What happened that one week? Did you think that you would get busy with your boyfriend and prepare for the wedding without showing me any proof? Did you really think your so-called true b***d will stop me? Stop The King of Lycans?”

He asked him and laughed at her.

He looked at her scarf and her clothes.

“How foolish you are. Do you even wear these clothes to hide yourself? Did you think if they stopped you, I would not come there to get you?”

Alina did not reply to him. She just wanted to know what he would do to her. She did not want to die. Normal strangling was about being afraid of death.

Alina stared at the man in front of her. She thought in her mind, ‘How much you have changed. You told me that you will make me happy all the time now you are the one who wants to snatch my smile from me. You want to kill me.’

Aaron glared at her when he saw her staring at him with soft eyes. His heart wanted to believe her once again for just a second but how could he forget what his mother told him?

He knew he could trust his mother blindly. In his whole life, his mother had never lied to him. In fact, she was the biggest well wishes in his life. She even liked Alina but the truth was bitter that she had to face the truth. She saw the killer killing her husband in front of her eyes.

He had to believe his mother. He could not believe that this Omega was this evil.

She killed his father for the throne as if it was a war.

Aaron told her to get ready for her new hell.

Alina was confused. ‘I thought he would kill me. Where is it going?’

“I gave you one week after you escaped from your punishment. I showed too much mercy on you. But now your time is done. You could not prove yourself. In fact, you were going to marry another man to run away from your retribution. I have always shown you my good side but you will see what King Aaron will do with you.”

Aaron grabbed her wrist tightly and started to walk ahead. He pulled her with him.

“W-Where are you taking me???”

“The place where you always wanted to stay. For that, you killed my father and made my mother a widow.”

Alina was bewildered by his words. “What??”

Aaron did not care to reply to her. He took her out of the forest area. She was struggling hard but who could win against the Lycan king?

When Alina got to see a glance at his car in front of her, Aaron stopped there.

Alina pushed him and let out her hand from his grip.

“I didn’t do anything. Let me go. I will never cross your path again. I want to restart my life. It’s my wedding day.”

Aaron laughed. “Wedding? You can’t marry him.”

“Why??”

“Because you are still my mate,

I haven’t rejected you as my mate yet.”
