

Chapter 102

“Because you are still my mate,

I haven't rejected you as my mate yet.”

Alina was stunned. “W-What do you mean? So what if I am your mate? You rejected me as a person. I can now go and start my life again with someone else.”

She clearly remembered he told her that he rejected her as his Queen.

Aaron raised an eyebrow and replied,

“I rejected you as my Queen, not as my mate. So, darling, you are still my mate and I did not let you marry another guy to mark you as his. So do you know what it means?”

Alina was frightened to hear anything more. Aaron told her,

“It means I will do anything with you and no one can stop me. You have to live your life as I want you to live.”

Alina stared at Aaron. She was lost in his words.

“What will I have to do?”

“You will know when you go back to my realm.”

Alina nodded at him. She did not want to argue anymore because she knew she had lost it.

Aaron frowned at her when he saw she did not resist anything.

“Let’s go.”

He said and Alina walked to his car with him. When she was getting inside the car she looked at the forest area for the last time.

‘Maybe you still don’t get the news but it’s good for you not to come here. Thank you for everything, Rick.’

She got in the car and Aaron sat in the driver's seat.

He turned his head to Alina who looked outside as if she would miss this pack very much.

He started the car and focused on the road.

Alina was surprised that Aaron did not kill her. She knew he was right on his side, he was thinking of her as his father's killer. Anyone would react like that.

The scene of Crystal killing King Atlas came to her mind. She felt her heart shaking. She had never thought of anything like that.

Alina understood Daisy now. Though Daisy liked her a lot, the way she saw everything in front of her eyes, that broke her heart.

Now Alina did not want to blame anyone. Everyone was right in their shoes.

However, the one who should get punished was Crystal. Crystal even tried to hurt her. Alina was amazed thinking that Black magic was really powerful. Crystal could kill her in that illusion where Alina was only with spells, standing there like a stone because she did not know black magic.

“If I say I am not the culprit and the killer is still roaming around without getting the punishment, will you agree?” Alina said without looking at Aaron.

Aaron did not respond to her. She turned her head and saw him driving the car as if it was the main thing right now.

Alina looked at his features carefully. She tried to hate this man but she was defeated by her heart.

Whenever he came in front of her, there were two reactions in her heart. One was of fear and another one was of love.

How much she wanted him in her life, those one month was the best time when she got the chance to see him. He was rude that time too, but he had never tried to do something violent.

Alina understood that his answer was NO. He would never believe her.

Alina saw the car was crossing the territory. She closed her eyes and let them rest for some time. She fell asleep in his car again.

Aaron stopped the car in front of the pack house. Every guard came to him hurriedly.

Aaron opened the door where Alina was sitting. She pulled her arm harshly. Alina immediately opened her eyes and was startled.

Aaron pulled her out of the car and took her inside the pack house.

Alina looked down while walking beside him.

Aaron came to the living launch and pushed her. She fell to the ground with a thud.

Aaron looked at his guards. “Call everyone here now. Tell them their king has something to announce.”

Alina was feeling scared when she heard Aaron would announce something. ‘Will he announce my Date of death again?’

Everyone came to the living room. They were shocked when they saw the woman sitting on the floor.

“Alina!” Beta Lucas exclaimed.

Every official was shocked. They knew that Alina was alive. Lucas and George told them about Crystal too. They kept an eye on her. But could not find any evidence against her.

They could not tell anything about Aaron because the King only believed in the proof, not the words. The person who was present in that scene was his own mother. She was an eyewitness and it was enough proof to declare anyone as a criminal.

Crystal was stunned when she saw Alina after a long time. No one told her that she was alive. But two days ago she felt that someone was trying to break her spell which made her crazy. When she got that, the one who was doing that was none other than Alina. She tried to kill Alina with the Magic.

She thought Alina was dead but how could she still be alive? Was the royal witch of Blue Moon Pack much more powerful? She took Alina out of the illusion of that time.

‘Bloody Bitch! What is she doing again?’ She thought.

Selena did not understand what was happening. Because she knew who Alina was.

She was soon to be her mate's chosen mate. Why did Aaron take her here? What was the relationship between them? So many questions popped up in her mind.

Daisy narrowed her eyes at Alina. Anger was enraging her mind. Blood was boiling in outrage.

A growl came from Daisy. Everyone was looking at Daisy. They had never seen her in this anger.

She was not this angry when her husband died. She was only crying that day. But now she knew what a lonely life was. Her husband was not perfect but she loved him by heart so he was precious to her.

She had a nightmare two days ago. It was the same moment when her husband died or she could say when Alina killed her husband. She felt blurred for some time between the dreams. But she again felt the same pain in her chest. She almost fell sick because of that. She hated Alina but after the nightmare, she now hated Alina more.

She thought Alina had died in the fire. Beta Lucas told everyone that she burned and her body could not be recognized because of the burning.

She did not feel a single bit of sympathy for those who killed her husband.

But now she could see her alive.

‘Does it mean this woman got away from her punishment of death? How? How can anyone escape from our dungeon? Did my own son save her and hide her away from me and tell me that she had died?’

Different types of things came into her mind. She thought Aaron needed a Queen and Crystal was ready to take her son’s Queen’s position so she did not waste more time and went to the Lycan realm. She knew only a Lycan could beat Crystal.

So what if Alina was not a good woman? That did not mean she would accept Crystal. She could not do that.

She brought Selena with her and forced her son to make Selena his chosen mate. At first, her son told her that would not make anyone his mate but when she convinced him he agreed and told her that he would do that only because of his kingdom.

Daisy glared at Alina. She wanted to kill her now. She wanted to shift and bite her body to give her pain.

Daisy looked at Aaron angrily and asked,

“How can she still be alive, Aaron?”
