

Chapter 105

Alina came out of her room and sat in the bed. She did not have a phone to contact anyone. Actually, she did not use any phone on the Blue Moon pack. Because she had no one to talk with.

Alina thought about Alpha Rick. She was thinking about how he would handle all the guests.

‘Will he handle everything? He has to take humiliation for me. I am good for nothing.’

Alina heard a knock on her door. She stood up and went to open the door.

“This is your dinner Miss Shaline sent for you.” A maid with a plate of food said to Alina.

Alina took the plate and thanked her. The maid nodded and left.

Alina closed the door and looked at the plate. She did not want to eat anything. But she did not want to waste the food.

She began to eat slowly while looking outside from the window.

Aaron was in his office with his officials.

“Aaron, why did you do this?” Beta Lucas asked him. He was mad at Aaron. He knew no matter if he protested the matter in front of everyone, once Aaron made a decision no one could change his mind. So he was quiet at that time but now he was asking questions of him.

“Why do you care?” Aaron said coldly.

“Of course, I care. I can not see any person who did not do anything, getting hurt.”

“I killed so many people before, you didn’t care about them then why?”

“Aaron, don’t twist your words with me.” Lucas said.

Delta Darren and others tried to understand Aaron. But he was like a stone, nothing was affecting his mind.

“That shameless woman needs a man all the time to survive her life. At first a pack fighter, then Alpha Rick.

Not only that, she went to marry that Rick.” Aaron replied coldly.

“So you are jealous?”

“Why would I? She is the murderer of my father.”

“If one day she proves to be innocent, she will leave you, Aaron. You can not stop her if you beg her.”

“Shut up, Lucas. Stop playing with my mind. I haven’t fallen for this woman. You are the one who brain washed me. I don’t want any if you talked to me about her. Stay away from her and let her live as I want.”

Hearing that Beta Lucas stopped himself from saying further. He did not want to enrage Aaron more because he was relieved that Aaron was at least not giving her death.

Aaron looked at his officials who were busy in their thoughts.

“Now you all go back to work. I don’t have much time now. I have so much work to do.” Aaron told them to leave him alone.

All the officials then left.

After one hour Aaron stopped working. He did not have his dinner. He was not in the mood.

His life was totally a mess. He was a King who did not think before taking any decisions.

He wanted to permit his guard to kill her but his heart was agreeing with that.

So he made her his Slave. Aaron knew he was doing partiality. What he was doing was an injustice to his father. But what would he do? He did not want to kill her but gave her pain at the same time.

He got mad at Alina again.

He stood up and came out of his office. He told a maid to tell Alina to come to his room.

Alina was lying down and preparing for her sleep. But before she could sleep another knock was heard on the door.

She opened the door and saw that another maid had come.

“Yes?”

“Miss Brown, King Aaron called you into his chamber.”

“Chamber?”

The maid thought she did not know what chamber meant.

“Yeah, his chamber. I meant his room.”

“Why?”

The maid rolled her eyes at Alina. Alina was surprised by her behavior.

She was a perfectly well trained Luna. She learned all the things in three months. So her personality was also shifted like that.

“Did you just roll your eyes at me?” Alina asked coldly.

The maid frowned at her. “You are just a slave, don’t behave like you are the Queen of our kingdom.”

Alina scoffed at her. Looking at the maid who had the courage to speak rudely with her, she controlled herself and nodded at her.

“You are right. I am just a slave. I will go to the King’s chamber in a few minutes.”

The maid stared at her for a while then shoved a dress to Alina.

“Wear this before going to his room.”

Alina looked down at the dress. It was a very thin red dress. It was a kind of revealing dress.

If she wore this, her body curve and cleavage would be visible to everyone.

Alina heard the loud sound of the door. The maid just left her room.

She did not know why all the royal maids in the King’s residence hated her so much.

Alina changed her clothes and looked in the mirror. Her bare arms and cleavage were showing. Though it was thin, it was a tight fitting dress. She did not know why the maid gave it to her.

However, a fear was rushing into her heart when she thought about Aaron.

She put off the choker or she could say the neck lock from her neck.

She took a big kerchief and wrapped it around her body.

She went out of her room and began to walk to the king's chamber.

Ava stopped in front of his room and started at the shining silver lock.

She slowly twisted it and entered the room. She closed the door and turned around.

She saw Aaron sitting on the couch. In front of him was a bunch of wine bottles.

When he heard the sound of his door, he looked at her and Alina felt sacred with his dark gaze.

She wanted to go back but before she could step back he spoke out,

“COME HERE.”
