

Chapter 108

Daisy ran to Alina and grabbed her arm. “What is this??” She asked her.

Alina just looked down and kept silent.

All the officials looked at each other. They did not know that Aaron marked Alina.

Aaron was not in the pack house so they thought to ask Alina to have breakfast with them.

But looking at Alina's neck, they were also shocked.

“I don't think it's King. That's why she is such a quiet Aunt Daisy.” Selena said.

She was also startled by that matter. She felt a shake in her heart because the position was chasing was going to loosen from her hand.

“You are right, Selena. You will be my son’s mate. She is nothing in front of you.” Daisy said proudly.

Ava was listening to them. She did not dare to look up. She knew these three women would only create problems for her, so it was better for her to shut her mouth.

She did not want Aaron to mark her. He was the one who forcibly took her virginity and then marked her. Then left her alone in his bed.

Alina felt sad about her fate. It was hilarious.

All the Officials went to Alina.

“Where is he?” Delta Darren asked her.

Alina looked at the officials. She shook her head and replied to Delta Darren.

“I don’t know.”

Alina now felt more embarrassment. She scolded Aaron inside her heart that he left her in this situation to let her humiliate herself.

“Aaron marked her.” Beta Lucas said to Daisy.

Daisy frowned at him. “NO! My son could not do that. My husband’s killer can not be my son’s mate.”

Lucas and others tried to calm her.

“Please calm down. Let Aaron come here first. We will talk about it after that.”? Gamma Gorge said.

Daisy shook her head. “It is not a matter to calm down, Gorge. Aaron’s father called her name last time before his death, he tried to tell me that don’t let Aaron mated with her or make her his Queen. How can I be so calm when Aaron did this!!”

Alina tightened her fists. She knew why King Atlas called her name last time. But the reason was totally opposite to what Daisy understood. It was again another misunderstanding. How could she solve everything?

“Call Aaron. Ask him where he is.” Daisy said.

Theta Cooper nodded to her and took out his phone.

He called Aaron and they could hear the ringtone from outside.

Everyone looked outside and saw Aaron coming from outside. He entered the pack house.

Daisy glared at him. “What did you do, Aaron?”

Aaron stopped and narrowed his eyes. “About what?”

“About what? You marked the killer of your father.”

Aaron glanced at Alina whose head was down. He saw his mark on her neck.

He looked back at his mother. “I marked my slave.”

Alina felt a pain piercing her heart when she heard that. She looked at the man who marked her last night.

“AARON!”

“Mom, you don’t have to worry about it.”

“What do you mean I don’t have to worry about it? You literally marked her. What does it mean? At first, you did not declare her as a killer of your father to the pack. Then she ran away from the dungeon which was totally shocking because you told us that she died in the fire. Not only that, you took her back to the pack and made her your slave. Now you marked her.? I can not understand what is going on in your mind.”

Aaron replied simply, “She is just my slave, mom. About the punishment, she is getting her punishment. Being a slave and will never get a chance to be someone’s wife is the best punishment for a woman.”

Crystal scoffed but immediately controlled her expression and said,

“Sorry to say, my king. But a woman like her would never feel it as a punishment. She is just a shameless woman. Being the slave of the king is the opportunity for her to live her life more comfortably than living in hell in the dungeon. It is not a punishment for her.”

Beta Lucas glared at her. He gritted his teeth and warned her.

“You don’t have to say whether it is a punishment for her or not. You should think about yourself first, Crystal.”

Crystal frowned at him. She did not know that Alina told them everything.

What she knew was Alina told everyone about the truth in front of her to everyone about her when Aaron took her back to this pack. But everyone was so foolish that they did not believe in her at all.

Crystal thought for a moment. ‘Did Lucas believe in Alina and doubt me? Because it is not good for me. Beta Lucas is the second in command and Aaron’s best friend. He should not doubt her.’

Crystal wanted to say to Beta Lucas that she was just caring about everyone but Daisy spoke out.

For the first time, she took her support and said,

“She is absolutely right. I can not believe my own son is betraying his father. He marked his father’s murderer.”

Aaron exhaled. He went to his mother and stood in front of her.

“Mom, I didn’t do it intentionally.”

The moment Aaron said the sentence, Alina was startled. Her eyes became glossy.

“What do you mean?” Daisy asked.

Aaron replied, “I was just drunk. And it was my wolf who marked her. I was not in my senses.”

Ava felt a sharp scratch inside her heart as if someone was ripping her heart apart.

She did not want to live now. She was losing all hope of staying alive.

The man marked her forcefully. She was the one who was begging him to let her go but he did not listen to her at all. But now he just said it was not his intention?

“Then what about her slavery neck lock?” Daisy asked

Aaron looked at Alina and ordered her with a deep voice.

“How dare you put off your Slavery tag from your neck, Slave?”
