

Chapter 126

“Did you do something to my mother?”

Alina shook her head. “No. I didn’t do anything. I was in my room.”

Alina felt scared that she had to take another blame in her head when she did not even know what was happening. She had taken enough, she could not take anything again.

Crystal spoke out,

“Aunt Daisy was scolding you today. Did you get angry at her? She even convinced the King to give the Queen’s position to Selena. Did you take revenge on her because of that? How could you Alina?”

Selena nodded her head. “Yes, my king. She is the one. There is no reason for others to do anything to her except Alina. She did not want me to stay beside you, that was why she did something for sure.”

Silvia looked at Alina. Alina was shocked enough to reply to anything.

All the officials growled when they heard another accusation against Alina.

Selena was afraid and Silvia almost screamed out hearing that.

“Don’t try to provoke us. We know what is happening everywhere.” Lucas said to Crystal.

“If you all know everything then find out about Aunt Daisy’s health. She is very sick. I am feeling like someone did something to her.”

Aaron asked all the servants about his mother. But everyone said they did not know anything.

Aaron wanted to kill every servant, why didn’t they take care of his mother?

His mother was totally fine. It was not like there was any wound on her body. So he could not say anyone hurt his mother.

But still, it was his concern that what his mother was doing in another room but not in her own room.

“I am warning all of you. If I found out someone did something to my mother, I would kill them immediately. This time I will not wait to declare anything officially.”

All the officials nodded but their eyes were only on Crystal. They doubted her.

“Shift my mother to my palace. I will take care of my mother. I don’t believe anyone.” Aaron said and left the living room.

Alina was looking down until Aaron left from there. When one by one was going Alina looked at Crystal.

She went to her and grabbed her hand then took her to the garden.

“Why did you take me here?” Crystal asked.

She looked annoyed with Alina. Alina tried to read her face but Crystal frowned at her.

“Answer me.” Crystal said.

“What did you do to her, Crystal?”

“What did I do? I didn’t do anything to her but you did.”

Alina gasped. “What did you say? I did? Are you kidding me? I was in my room all day.”

“Same to me, bestie.”

“Don’t call me that. I know you did that to her. Tell me what you did. Save her. Don’t kill her. She is innocent.” Alina said with a dismal face.

Crystal laughed at her. “Look at your face, dumbo. She told you so many things. How can you want her to be saved? It is good if she dies. It is good for you.”

“How can you say that?”

“Why can’t I?”

“I’m telling you again. Don’t kill her. She is innocent. You killed her husband and are now trying to kill her too? Why??” Alina yelled at her.

They were far away from the gate of the garden. The garden was not big like the King’s garden yet it was big enough that no one was listening to their yelling.

Alina knew if she would not take her far, she did not tell her the truth.

“Don’t tell at me. I have been listening to your nonsense for five minutes. I don’t want to talk to you.” Crystal said wanted to go. But Alina held her hands.

“Please, don’t do this to her.”

Crystal jerked her hand away from her. “Stop talking about that woman. She is just a pawn in my game. She is nothing. I will never save her.”

“Why are you doing this to everyone? You can just tell Aaron to marry you and make you his Queen. Why can’t you stay away from playing with others’ lives?”

Alina was angry at Crystal. She was not that powerful to kill Crystal. If she was not an Omega but a powerful rank’s female wolf, she would have killed Crystal the day she came to the dungeon to tell her the truth.

However, she was powerless. She liked and respected Daisy a lot. Though Daisy hated her and slapped her, though Daisy kept wanting her to die but she knew it was not Daisy’s fault.

If that day she was in her shoes and the person who got killed was not King Atlas but King Aaron, she would have behaved the same. So Alina was not cursing her in her heart.

The main criminal was standing in front of her. The yin witch who destroyed the whole family and her life.

“If I was not an Omega, you would have died in my hands.” Alina said with gritted teeth.

Crystal got angry hearing that. She glared at Alina.

“Seems like the last electric shock was not enough for you. Should I make you taste that again?” Crystal said and started to come close to Alina.

Alina felt a shiver when she heard Crystal. She remembered how she felt when Crystal grabbed her wrist last time. Her wrist was still swollen.

When she saw that Crystal was moving toward her, she understood she would try to give her pain again.

Alina did not know what she deemed in her mind; she suddenly raised her hand when Crystal was inches away from her.

Crystal felt a force push her hard. She fell to the ground and turned to Alina with a shocked looking face.

She could not believe what Alina just did to her, without touching her.

Alina was shocked by her own moves. But she did not show it to Crystal and said, “Don’t mess up with me again.” She left the garden leaving Crystal alone.

Crystal stared at Alina’s back with her eyes wide open.

How could Alina have the power of force? Even she did not have that.

She wondered,

“Aaron’s mark is giving her power!!!”
