Chapter 136

Alina was going back to her room when she saw Aaron standing out of his room. She passed him and headed to her room. But she stooped when she heard him.

"Where are you going?"

Alina did not turn to him. "I am going back to my room."

"What room? This is your room from now on."

He pointed to his chamber.

Alina frowned and turned to him. "Didn't I tell you that I don't want to stay with you?"

"See if I care."

"Pardon?"

"I don't want to repeat. Let's go." He said and opened his room's door. He entered and did not close the door.

Alina was helpless. He was the King so she had to listen to him.

She went inside and closed the door. She saw him taking out his clothes from the closet and going to the bathroom.

Alina sat on the couch and thought about leaving this kingdom.

'I don't have to wait to recover. I can just go out now. I am free so I can go out of this realm.'

Alina was thinking when she heard the clicking sound of the bathroom door.

She saw Aaron come out in his comfy clothes.

He was wiping his hair with a towel.

Alina was just staring at his handsome face. He looked very fresh and relaxed. The water dripped down to his black t-shirt from his wet hair.

"Done staring at me?" Aaron asked.

That was when Alina realized that he was standing in front of the couch.

Alina stood up and looked away from him. "I was not staring at you."
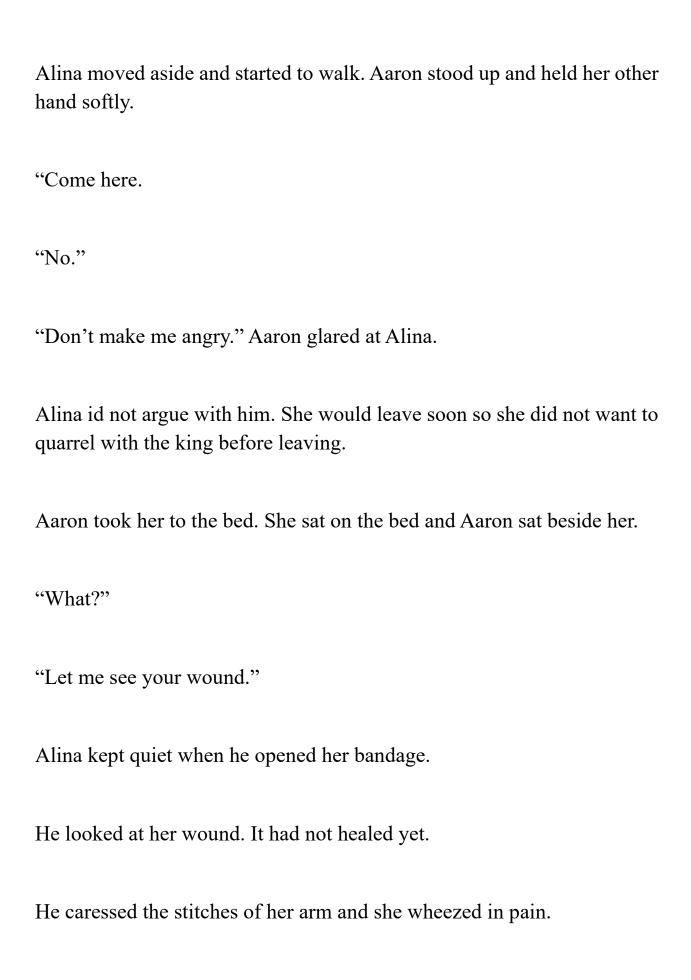

"Liar."

Aaron sat on the couch. Alina frowned at him.

"You always think of me like this. I have never lied to you. But all this time you only think that I was the culprit."

Aaron sighed and grabbed her hand. However, she yanked her hand but ended up feeling pain in her wounded arm.

"What happened to you? Did you feel pain?"

Aaron asked.

Alina moved aside and started to walk. Aaron stood up and held her other hand softly.

"Come here.

"No."

"Don't make me angry." Aaron glared at Alina.

Alina id not argue with him. She would leave soon so she did not want to quarrel with the king before leaving.

Aaron took her to the bed. She sat on the bed and Aaron sat beside her.

"What?"

"Let me see your wound."

Alina kept quiet when he opened her bandage.

He looked at her wound. It had not healed yet.

He caressed the stitches of her arm and she wheezed in pain.

Aaron looked at her. "Give me some time. I will help you to heal it."

Alina shook her head. "No, you don't have to."

Aaron did not listen to her and came close to her arm.

He licked her wound and she hissed.

He was healing her arm. Alina did not know what to say or feel.

She was in pain but she looked down at the man who was healing her.

He tried to kill her all this time. She had to live like a hidden chicken for him. Now he was the one who wanted to help her in healing. Why?

"Why are you doing this?" She asked.

Aaron did not stop his actions. He tried his best to heal her. He felt a strange stress inside him. But he did not stop, he kept licking her Wound.

He was a Lycan. His saliva was enough to heal any wound of his mate, especially when it was about an Omega.

However, it was not any simple wound but a poisonous one. So it was affecting Aaron. It was meant to kill werewolves. He was taking the poison for his mate.

He deserved to take any risk for his mate. She was innocent and he denied believing her. She nonchalantly said that she did nothing. But no one trusted her. She had to bear so much pain, only for him. She would never forgive him for that.

Thinking about all these things, he felt pain inside his chest. It was not because of the poison but for the love of his life. He still loved her.
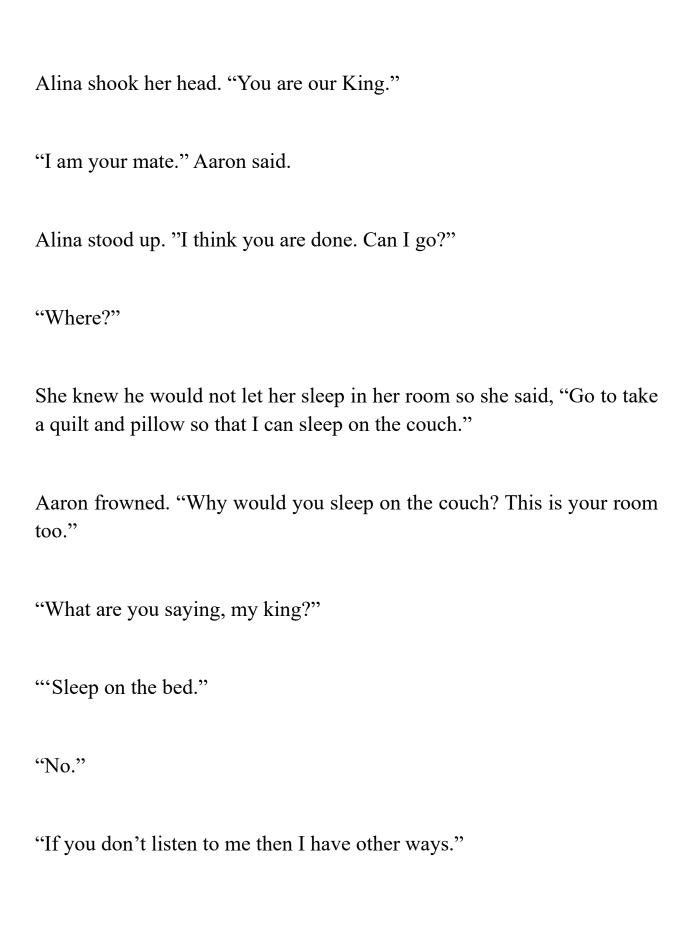

"Are you okay?"

Aaron heard her. He moved from her arm and nodded at her.

"What would happen to me?"

"I saw you closing your eyes tight, so I thought you were not feeling well." Alina replied.

Aaron looked at her arm which was healed a little. "Why? Do you still care for me?"

Alina shook her head. "You are our King."

"I am your mate." Aaron said.

Alina stood up. "I think you are done. Can I go?"

"Where?"

She knew he would not let her sleep in her room so she said, "Go to take a quilt and pillow so that I can sleep on the couch."

Aaron frowned. "Why would you sleep on the couch? This is your room too."

"What are you saying, my king?"

"'Sleep on the bed."

"No."

"If you don't listen to me then I have other ways."

Alina tightened her fists and went to the bed.

She lay on the bed and covered herself with a guilt.

"Good night." She said and turned to the other side.

Aaron was still sitting where he was sitting. He looked at Alina's back.
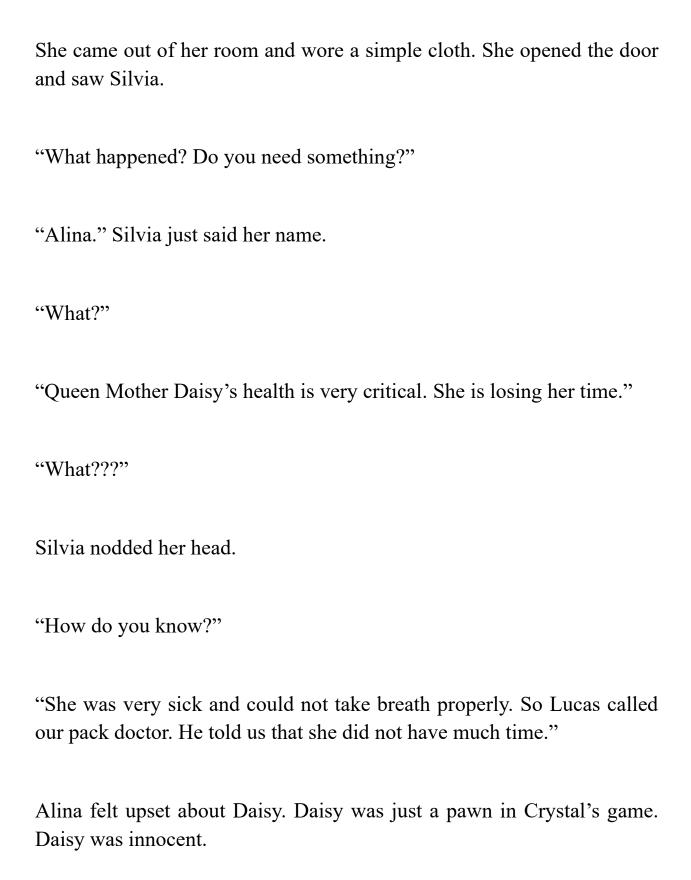

He stood up and lay down beside her. He did not touch her nor did he disturb her.

The next morning Alina woke up and saw she was alone in the bed. She felt relaxed. She did not want to talk to Aaron much.

"Today I will tell him that I want to leave his kingdom. I just hope he will not have any problem with it.' Alina thought.

She took a shower and felt surprised that her wound was almost healed. She stroked her stitches and it would not feel much pain.

"His saliva really worked. He is the Lycan king for a reason."

She came out of her room and wore a simple cloth. She opened the door and saw Silvia.

"What happened? Do you need something?"

"Alina." Silvia just said her name.

"What?"

"Queen Mother Daisy's health is very critical. She is losing her time."

"What???"

Silvia nodded her head.

"How do you know?"

"She was very sick and could not take breath properly. So Lucas called our pack doctor. He told us that she did not have much time."

Alina felt upset about Daisy. Daisy was just a pawn in Crystal's game. Daisy was innocent.

"Lucas told me to call you in the Queen Mother's room. I was about to knock on your door but a maid told me you are in the king's chamber.'

Alina nodded. She didn't explain anything. She went to Daisy's room.

She saw that no guard was stopping her. She entered and looked at the woman who was lying on the bed for a long time.

She slowly made her way to her. Aaron was sitting on the edge of the bed. She stood in front of the bed.
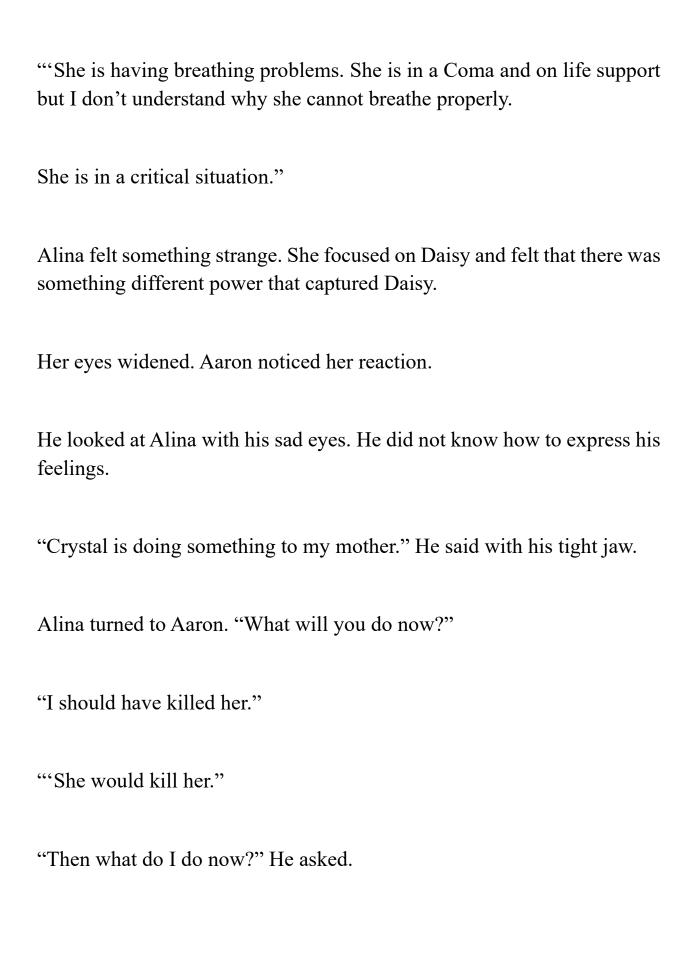

All the officials were there.

"I called you here, Alina." Beta Lucas said.

Alina looked at him and then at the back doctor.

"What happened to her?"

The pack doctor looked at Alina's arm which looked good today then he replied to Alina,

"'She is having breathing problems. She is in a Coma and on life support but I don't understand why she cannot breathe properly.

She is in a critical situation."

Alina felt something strange. She focused on Daisy and felt that there was something different power that captured Daisy.

Her eyes widened. Aaron noticed her reaction.

He looked at Alina with his sad eyes. He did not know how to express his feelings.

"Crystal is doing something to my mother." He said with his tight jaw.

Alina turned to Aaron. "What will you do now?"

"I should have killed her."

"'She would kill her."

"Then what do I do now?" He asked.

Alina was silent. Lucas looked at her. He knew about Alina. She had changed a lot in these three months.

"Alina, I know you can help her."

"I? How can I help her?"

"You have tried to break the spell before, right?" Lucas asked.

Aaron frowned. He did not know about it or he did not want to know about it.

He knew she went to a witch to do something.

"Break the spell?" He asked.

Alina nodded. "I almost died that time. Crystal tried to kill me. But Melissa saved me. She is a powerful witch too."

"She tried to kill you?" Aaron asked in anger.

Alina glanced at her. "It was not a new fact.

she blamed the whole thing on me.

Aaron clenched his fist. "I will handle her."

"How?"

"Don't worry. Just tell me if you can help my mother or not.'"

Alina was silent for a minute. She looked at Daisy for some while.

Then she nodded and turned her head to Aaron and then Lucas.

"I don't think I can help. I don't have that power. But.."

"But?" Aaron asked.

"But I think the Royal Witch can help her."

"The royal witch?"

"Yeah, the royal witch of the Blue Moon pack."

Aaron nodded. He said to his officials,

"Call the head Alpha of the Blue Moon pack and ask for his royal witch, my mother needs her."
