

Chapter 144

“Tell them to come to the forest in an hour. We have a feast today.”

Crystal shook her head. “Don’t do this. I am sorry. I am apologizing. Please let us go.”

Aaron pulled her hair, almost making her bald. “What about my father? Did you show mercy on that man who loved you as his own daughter?”

Alina heard the sentence a lot of the time. Finally, Aaron got the real culprit and could ask the question. Otherwise, she was tired of telling him that she did not do anything.

All the pack fighters came and dragged Crystal outside.

They did not forget to take Darcy with them.

“My son will show her how much mercy he can show.”

Daisy murmured angrily.

“Are you okay?” Alina asked.

“I am okay, dear.” Daisy replied as she looked at Crystal who was being dragged by the guards.

“Will you go with them?” Silvia asked and stood on the other side of Daisy.

“of course, I will go after them. I have to see how she screamed in pain when my son will give justice to his father.”

Alina patted Daisy’s shoulder. They went to the forest and stood behind the officials, a little far from them.

Alina was puzzled by so many giant wolves.

She was looking at the bunch of Lycans. It was like a nightmare. So many giant wolves came together with just a single call from their king.

They started to growl when they saw Crystal and Darcy.

Darcy was an old woman. But this woman was the evil witch. She helped Crystal in her every wrong doing: If she wanted, she could have stopped her. But she tried it when it was too late.

Aaron stood in front of the Lycans and they bowed to him in their wolf forms.

“Today I will introduce you to my royal witch Crystal Graham and her lovely Aunt Darcy.”

Crystal and Darcy cried out loud. They shook their heads numerous times. They knew what was going to happen to them.

Aaron continued, “They are the killer of your former King Atlas,”

All the Lycans growled in anger. They started to snarl as if they would kill them anytime soon.

Aaron turned to Crystal.

“I never thought you could do this to my parents. You destroyed my mate and wrecked my life. Now get ready for your payback.”

Saying that Aaron grabbed her two hands, and everyone heard the sounds of broken bones, he broke her hands.

Her one hand was already broken but now he broke it from the joint of her arm.

He did the same with her legs. Crystal screamed aloud in pain that the whole forest was enchanting her scream.

Aaron threw her to the Lycans like a feather. And all the Lycans captured her body like hungry beasts.

Alina and Silvia took a few steps back when they saw that.

Crystal was screaming. She had not died yet and every Lycan was biting her body alive.

Gamma George did with Darcy what Aaron just did with Crystal.

Darcy died soon because she was old and could not take that unbearable pain.

After a few minutes the screams of Crystal stopped. They could not hear her.

Alina understood that she died.

The Lycans were still biting her body as if they were taking revenge on her for their late king.

Alina felt tears stream out when she saw a glimpse of Crystal's body. Only bone could be seen in her body.

She looked away and left the forest. Silvia followed her and came back to the forest.

Alina went to her room and locked the door.

She slid against the door. She did not want all of this.

Her life could be a little easy but how did all of this happen? She could not believe that everything was over.

Her pain and the villainess of her life had gone.

She rested her head on her knees and cried silently. She was an emotional girl. She could not take all of this.

She remembered what Beta Lucas told her when Aaron killed those boys.

Alina wiped her tears and nodded her head.

“She deserved it.”

The next morning Alina came out of her room after getting ready. She went out of her room and came to the dining room.

She saw no one was there.

So she went to the dining room and sat down on a couch as she waited for everyone.

She realized that she woke up early today. Everyone came late at night, they might come back in the morning, or not come back yet.

Alina decided not to waste any more time. She had decided to leave the pack.

She saw Delta Darren coming from the corner where he stayed.

She stood up and looked at him.

“Alina, Good morning.”

“Good morning.”

“Have you had your breakfast?”

“No, I am waiting for everyone.

“I think they are coming. We came a little late.”

Alina nodded. “I know.”

Delta Darren smiled at her.

“I am sorry Darren.”

“For what?”

“You told me not to believe in Crystal blindly, you all even warned me.

“It’s okay. Next time don’t believe anyone blindly, okay.”

“Yes.” Alina replied and saw one by one, everyone was coming.

They entered the dining room and waited for King Aaron.

Without a king how could they start eating?

After a few minutes, Aaron came there and sat on his royal seat.

They had their breakfast and Alina did not talk to anyone about what she wanted to say. She waited for them to finish their meal.

When they were standing up from their seats, Alina cleared her throat.

“I have something to tell you all. Can you all give me some time?”

Everyone looked at each other as to why she wanted to talk.

They nodded and went back to the living room.

All of them sat on the couch and looked at Alina.

“What happened Alina?” Daisy asked.

Aaron was staring at Alina. So many different things were running through his mind.

He was still not satisfied with how Crystal and Darcy died. He wanted to kill them every day.

“What do you want to talk about?” Aaron asked Alina.

Alina glanced at him and then at Daisy.

“Actually, I am not a slave anymore. I am a totally free person now. So I want to leave this pack right now. I have waited for some time to let things be alright. Now everything is okay so I think I should leave now.”

Everyone was stunned. They could not believe that Alina wanted to leave them.

“How can you say that? I know what we did was wrong.

But Alina we all were bound by spell right? So how can you give us the punishment and leave us?” Daisy asked. Alina shook her head. “No, it’s not like that. Please try to understand. I am also a person. I can’t stay here. I have my own life too. This life is not mine. I should not have come to this place in the first place. I should have lived abroad.”

Silvia grabbed Alina’s hand. She was sitting beside her.

“Don’t say that. You are a part of this family. Please don’t leave us. How can we live without you?”

Alina sighed. “Everything will be okay. You will get along with your new life, so don’t worry, Silvia. You and Aunt Daisy are good company for each other. Take care of her and your mate.”

Beta Lucas frowned. “Alina, you can’t go. Now every problem has been solved. There is nothing wrong in our life right now. We all are now free from the nightmare. It was a curse that we just passed together.”

Alina smiled at Beta Lucas sadly. “Lucas, you helped me a lot. I can’t thank you more, you are my life savior. But I have to go. I don’t want to stay here anymore.

Now everyone's last hope was Aaron. They were looking at him with expectations in their eyes. They wanted Aaron to stop her, only he could stop her.

Delta Darren and Gamma George mind linked Aaron.

“Stop her, Aaron.’

Aaron was silent. He was tight lipped all the time when Alina was talking about leaving.

Alina looked at Aaron and said,

“I am leaving tonight.”

Alina stood up and left the living room.

Everyone was hopeless when they saw Aaron did not react at all.

Aaron left the dining room and followed Alina.

Alina came to her room and was about to close her door when Aaron stopped her by grabbing the door.

Alina stepped backward as she looked at him.

He was looking furious. He came into the room and closed the door with a thud. He turned to her.

“What did you just say outside? You want to leave this pack?”

Alina nodded at him. “Yes.”

Aaron asked again while coming close to her, “You want to leave me?”

Alina did not step back this time. “Yes.”

She replied honestly. She did not want a hide and seek game anymore.

Aaron grabbed her arms and pulled her closer to him.

“I have marked you already. So, you can’t leave me, Darling.”
