

Chapter 150

Ending Part 1

Alina was standing in front of the mirror. She was in a white bridal gown.

It had been two months since Aaron asked her to become his Queen and she accepted it.

After that day Alina waited for Aaron to get well.

He decided to hold a Crown Ceremony today.

Looking at the gown, she remembered about it. She chose that gown at first when she went to the royal designer shop to buy her wedding dress.

However, because of her so-called best friend who was the destroyer of her life, she convinced her and Alina could not buy the dress for herself.

She thought fate had written everything from the start.

She was dressed up in that bridal gown. A few women were setting her hair. Silvia came to her.

She was stunned.

“Oh my, my! You are looking so beautiful and gorgeous, Alina “

“Thanks, Silvia. You are also looking very pretty.” Alina replied calmly.

In the last two months, she had learned everything about Lycans and their royal laws. She trained hard and used her power as a practice. To her surprise, she could do many things that Melissa could do. However, she was not a witch but a werewolf, a fragile Omega.

But her mate’s mark always gave her special power and strength.

“Let’s go. It is time for the Crown Ceremony.”

Yeah, Crown Ceremony.

Aaron decided to make her his Queen and arranged the best Ceremony every pack had ever seen. He even called Alpha Rick and his new Luna Selena.

“Yeah, let’s go.” Alina replied and walked out of her room.

She reached the big stage outside. Many guests and the whole pack came to see their new Queen.

Alina came to the stage and saw Aaron in a black Royal robe, looking at her.

He was the Lycan king, he had to wear a royal robe which was stylish enough for him. He could look good in any cloth, whether it was casual or royal.

He offered her his hand and she happily accepted it.

The priest started the vows.

“Do you, King Aaron Robertson, accept your mate and your companion as your wife and your Queen?”

“Yes, I do.”

Aaron said without any hesitation.

“Do you, Alina, accept your mate and your companion as your King and your husband?”

Of course, there was no surname with her first name.

Everyone knew that her parents were not her real parents, so Alina removed their surname from her name.

Aaron caged them for lying to her all these years but Alina forgave them. She told Aaron to let them free because although just in name, for once they were her parents.

Everyone looked at Alina. Alina took a deep breath and nodded her head.

“Yes, I do.”

The priest nodded at them. They signed some papers to become a legally wed couple by witnessing the whole kingdom. Even Lycans also came to attend the Crown ceremony to see and greet their new Queen.

“You two may kiss now.” The priest said.

Aaron looked at Alina. She felt shy. It was not like they had done nothing in these two months but they were in front of others right now.

Aaron held her hand and kissed the back of her hand.

Everyone was amazed by their king's soft action. They were afraid of his dominance but looked like their king was only soft for their Queen.

Aaron made Alina wear the Crown and the whole kingdom started to cheer the royal couple.

Alina became the Queen of Lycans and Queen of other wolves as well.

Alina and Aaron went down from the stage. Daisy hugged Alina and smiled,

“You are not my daughter-in-law but my daughter.”

Alina nodded. “Mom, I will always be your daughter.”

Every official congratulated them. Silvia hugged Alina as she told her how good King Aaron and she looked together.

Aaron introduced Alina to other packs' Alphas and some important Lycans.

Her eyes fell on a couple who were talking with each other.

Alina locked her arm with Aaron. "Let's go to them."

Aaron glanced where Alina was looking. He nodded and went to the couple.

"Alpha Rick." Aaron said.

Alpha Rick smiled at Aaron and Alina. He congratulated them on their wedding and the ceremony.

"Are you enjoying our party?" Aaron asked.

Alpha Rick nodded. "My Luna is actually enjoying it the most. She was eager to come and meet Alin-, I mean your Queen."

Selena blushed when Alpha Rick talked about her.

In these two months, she also worked hard. She tried to be Alpha Rick's perfect match and she finally captured his heart too. She was very happy with him.

Alina grinned when Selena talked to her. "So you both are happy now?" Alina said to them.

Selena and Alpha Rick nodded at the same time.

"I hope you two will always be happy too." Alpha Rick said to Alina.

Alina and Aaron talked with them for some time then gave some time to other guests.

After the royal dinner, Alina felt really tired. She talked about something to Silvia so she took time to go back to her room, which was the king's chamber.

Alina strolled to the room and opened the door.

'Where is he?' She looked around and searched Aaron.

She heard the sound of a shower. "He is taking a shower."

She thought and closed the door.

She went to the dressing table and sat in front of the dressing table.

She put off the Crown. It was heavy. But she had a habit, she got training to carry the crown.

She stood up and put off the crown inside the closet in a safe place.

She was closing the door of the closet when she heard the bathroom's door open.

She turned around and saw her handsome mate in a bathrobe.

Water was dripping out of his soft strands of hair. She glimpsed at his chest. Half of his chest was showing.

Her eyes met his eyes and she looked away.

He smirked at her. He made his way to her and stopped in front of her.

“What? Why so shy? I am totally yours, Darling.”

Alina put her hands on his chest.

“You are still not well “

“Oh come on. I will not listen to your this excuse tonight.”

He said and neared her ear. “You escaped from me for two months by saying this. Do you really think I cannot take you-“

Alina put her palm on his mouth. “Stop being so shameless, my king.”

Aaron kissed her palm and she removed her palm from his mouth.

“Did you just call your king shameless?”

“Yes, I do.” She replied confidently.

Aaron sneered. “You can’t believe how many different types of shameless things I can do with you, Darling.”

Alina pushed him lightly and yawned.

“I am sleepy. Don’t mess with me right now.”

She headed to the dressing table again and put off her jewelry. But when she was about to go to the closet to take out her night clothes, she felt her body lifted in the air.

“Ahhh! Put me down.”

He took her to the bed and laid her down. Before she could deny he went on top of her.

“I will wreck you tonight, My Queen.” With that, he k!ssed her roughly.

Alina could not refuse him anymore. She was very happy tonight. She finally got the love of her life. Finally, every problem was over. She could call him her husband, her king.

She wrapped her hands around his neck. His hand roamed around her back and opened her gown’s chain.

In a few seconds, he took off her every piece of cloth from her body, leaving her naked.

Looking at her soft and delicate body, he lost his mind.

He moved down to her perky bosoms and tasted them.

He slowly licked and sucked them patiently, letting her feel every touch of his tongue.

“Ahhh...” She moaned, clutching his hair tightly which aroused him more.

He kissed every single part of her body and did not let her get down from the bed in the name of shyness.

He put off his clothes and came closer to her face as he began to kiss her.

“I will not hurt you.” He said and parted her legs. He set himself between her entrance and the next moment she felt pain. He was big and huge. So, feeling pain at first was reasonable.

She grabbed his back and scratched in pain.

A few minutes later, the loud moans filled the whole room.

Aaron heard her calling him by his name again and again,

“AARON..”

“What Darling?” He whispered in her ears as he pounced on her hard. He licked her earlobe and started to thrust roughly.

He let her cling to him with her back arched. He moved his hands to her chest and kneaded them.

“Ahh.” Alina gasped.

He was a rough and tough man. She liked it.

She was feeling so high and not able to take more pleasure. “A-Aaron!”

After a long time of slamming each other’s bodies with pleasure, they both released.

Aaron did not move and hugged her tightly.

“I love you, my Queen”
