

MY PERSONAL LYCAN KING

Chapter 171 - Book-2 -86 The Mate Who She Loves Most, Lived.

Chapter-86

"You don't need to go anywhere, Victoria. We have come here itself," Victoria heard God Madonna's voice from behind her.

Victoria's time in the body of the lion was limited, thus, it was important for her to create as much destruction she could to call the Gods. She needed them to come and hear her out.

However, God Madonna, who already knew that something like this was going to happen, already arrived before Victoria could even start the destruction.

"What is the use of coming, Witch Madonna? You said that the mate whom I love the most will live among the three, didn't you? But what am I seeing here? I did the work that God's had to do. I risked my life and killed Madeline, but what about me? What did I get in the end? Pain? Misery? Loss of mates?" Victoria shouted, her painful cries coming out in angry growls.

Christopher, who heard her words, looked at his granddaughter sadly when he noticed how pained she was with the death of her mates.

He has been living with Azrael for more than a thousand years, and he felt that excruciating pain in his body when Azrael died. It was like someone has ripped his soul apart into millions of shards. Since Victoria had three mates, she must be feeling three times the pain of the loss of a mate.

"Who said your mates are dead, Victoria?" Witch Madonna asked, making Victoria open her eyes as she looked at her confused.

"What do you mean? Don't you see their dead body over there?" Victoria said before turning around, her eyes widening when she saw Daniel's body moving a bit.

"Since the sword of curse broke, all the curses related to witch powers also became null. Now it's all up to your love. The mate that you loved the most will be alive, and rest will die." Witch Madonna said, and Victoria rushed towards Daniel before cupping her hands as she brought some water in her hands through her magic.

"Here, drink it," Victoria told Daniel, making the latter smile as he drank from her hands.

"You did it, Victoria. You saved the world and not only the world but us too," Daniel said, his turquoise eyes looking at Victoria proudly.

Smiling at him, Victoria looked into his eyes for a second when the thought registered in her mind. Only the mate that she loves the most was supposed to live.

Does that mean she loves Daniel the most among the three mates?

Does she love Daniel more than she loves Alexander? Was that really true? She thought and was about to ask Madonna about it when she heard faint coughing from her behind.

Turning her head, she looked at Ashton before placing Daniel's head on a rock gently as she rushed towards Ashton, making him drink the water, just like how she did with Daniel.

"Wait, how is this possible? How are you alive?" Victoria asked, her mind dazed now.

"That's no a very good thing to say to a person who woke up from the dead, don't you think so? Are you sad I am alive? Should I be feeling offended now?" He asked, and Victoria shook her head, worried that he will take it to heart, making him chuckle at her bewildered expression.

Placing, Ashton gently on a tree's support, Victoria ran towards Alexander, hoping he would wake up just like how Ashton did.

She knew that she loved all three of them, but she can't believe that she loves Alexander less than the two. She was confident that she loved Alexander the most in the world.

"Alexander, wake up. Please, wake up. I love you. You know that, right? How can this happen? How come Daniel and Ashton are awake but you aren't. This is impossible. I love all three of you equally. Maybe I love you even more than them, but you can't die on me like this. You have saved my life too many times, I will curse myself whole life if I won't be able to save you," Victoria said before she looked at Witch Madonna with urgency.

"How is this possible? Didn't you say that the mate that I love the most in the world will live? Why is he not waking up!" Victoria screech.

"Because I wanted to catch you off-guard," Victoria heard a voice, and before her mind could register anything, Alexander pulled her on top of him.

However, what he didn't expect was for Victoria's soul to leave the body of the lion at the same time since her time was limited, and thus, when Alexander was about to kiss the lion, the raw growl of the lion as he stood on his forelimbs caught him off-guard. Making everyone chuckle at his bewildered expression, Alexander looked around himself, trying to find Victoria.

Going back into her body, Victoria opened her eyes slowly, her body aching because of the wound that was healing slowly with the presence of her powers.

'It's a good thing that I remembered I will be coming back to this body, in the end, and didn't go for the heart, or I would've been surely damned.' Victoria thought before she looked at her three mates, that were standing in front of her now, their beautiful smiles capturing her heart.

"Well, the mate that you loved the most was supposed to live. It looks like, you love all your mates equally. Have a happy life, Victoria. I hope you will help the world again if some problem comes in the future and will maintain your purity just like this," God Madonna said before she disappeared into thin air.

"Wait, who is going to solve this mate's problems now?" Victoria shouted, but before she could say anything, Madonna was already gone, and she couldn't help but look at her grandfather for help.

MY PERSONAL LYCAN KING

Chapter 172 - Book-2 -87 The Powers Are Not Ready To Leave Her.

Chapter-87

"Now, what? Everything is solved, but how are we going to solve this mate's problem?" Victoria asked while looking at her three mates as they were sitting in the middle of a forest as if they were having a small picnic after all the trauma.

With the help of the witches and her powers, Victoria erased the memory of all the humans who witnessed the scene and helped the witches in clearing the surroundings. Though a hundred humans died, she made sure that their family members were informed about their deaths through a train mishap, and were given enough compensation.

"What do you mean? Don't look at me like that. I have no idea how to do that. I thought the thing will be resolved after the Christopher thing. But not only was our enemy changed, but our plans also changed drastically. Now I don't have any plan," Daniel said, making Victoria sigh loudly.

"Grandpa, you are the eldest here. You tell us of some solution. You won't let a hybrid live, right? You'll help me un-hybrid, right? If that is even a term." Victoria asked Christopher, who looked at her for a good few seconds before shrugging.

"Killing you or changing you was never my intention. The only thing I was afraid about was you becoming another Madeline, but now that she is dead, and you were the reason she died, I don't have a problem with it anymore." Christopher said, and Victoria looked at him, mouth agape.

"So what? Are we going to be like this? Don't you want an heir to your throne?" Victoria asked, wanting for him to be triggered by anything that could make him help her.

"I do. Of course, I need an heir, but I can wait for a couple of years. Since the main problem is over, I don't think I have anything that I can't handle on my own. You will have kids, and judging from your three mates, I am sure you will have a bunch of them. I will just pick the kid who is more inclined towards the witch powers and will make him/her the heir to the throne. It is as easy as that," Christopher said, making Victoria almost lose her mind over his words.

"Easy my ass!" She shouted angrily, making everyone raise their eyes at her cursing.

They knew that she was getting frustrated with that, but she rarely cursed like that.

"Well, as long as I am getting to have my time with her and my mate Emerald, I don't think I'll have a problem seeing a naked witch king and a naked werewolf king. We can have a foursome you know," Ashton was the one to recommend, and everyone looked at him blankly for a good few minutes, making him chuckle awkwardly.

"Don't look at me like that. I was just suggesting. What I mean to say is, this is also an option if everyone agrees. And as a matter of fact, I am not going to leave her this time," He further added.

"One more solution to this problem is, we can have the division of months. Like one quarter she can live with me, then with Ashton, and then the remaining with Alexander," Daniel said with hopeful eyes, and everyone looked at him as if he sinned by saying that.

"What? You are okay with having sex with her together, but you are not okay with everyone getting a chance with her?" Daniel shouted at Ashton, making him look away.

"How about you guys stay together?" Christopher asked, and everyone turned to look at him as if he has grown two heads.

"I mean, think about it. The only way you all can get her together is by living together. I know that the species are a bit difficult to live with each other, but things can change. Can't they? What if this is for the betterment of the world? Humans live with us all the time, and it's not unknown that Vampires, witches, and werewolves lived together in the human world. If they can live together there, then why not here? This will help you not only rule them all together, but you guys can even handle everything together." Christopher said, and everyone immediately fell into deep thoughts.

"Wait, you guys aren't seriously thinking about that, are you? I am a hybrid! How am I supposed to be living with three men? You said you had a solution to this problem. Won't you guys like feel dirty? Will you be able to spend a night with me after thinking I spend the night with the other king?" Victoria practically shouted out aloud.

"What about you, Alexander? You can't agree to this, right? You used to flip out when a guy used to lay his eyes on me. Will, you let just any other guy insert his dick inside me. Mate or no mate, king or no king, he is the other guy for you, ain't he?" Victoria said, looking at Alexander, who was still deep in thought.

"Please pardon my manners and words," She said to Christopher, who waved his hand awkwardly.

"Victoria, you are shouting at us for telling you all these absurd ideas. You ask your powers, are they ready to leave you? If they are ready to leave you, then we will find a girl of our liking that will look like you and will incorporate the power into that person, but first, you have to be clear," Daniel said, and Victoria paused before she closed her eyes.

'What do you guys want?' Victoria asked, keeping her mind as neutral as she could.

'Since Damien is my mate, and he is Alexander's wolf, I will be living in your body anyways. You can ask Jasmine and Emerald.' Carla said, directly dismissing the thought of kicking her out.

'I have been living with you since you were a child. Carla made her existence known only after you were or certain age and Emerald? She came the last. Also, aren't you the daughter of Martha and Nelson? Martha is a witch. Your grandfather always wanted you to be a witch. I am not leaving,' Jasmine said, sitting in the corner, burning like a fireball.

'I came late because my awakening happened late. If I had come earlier, none of you would've been able to stake your claim on her. It doesn't matter if she doesn't know me enough. I love her, and I am bloody hell not leaving her.' Emerald shouted, making Victoria sigh loudly.

'How dare you say that! Let me burn your dead soul!' Jasmine hollered in anger.

'If you forced me out of the body, then I will drink Victoria's blood and make her a Vampire like me,' Emerald threatened, and Carla growled loudly at that.

"Enough!!" Victoria shouted in anger, making all three of them look at her before they sat quietly.

'We are not leaving,' They said with finality, making Victoria sigh loudly.

Now, what is she supposed to do in a situation like this, where her powers are not ready to leave her, and her mates are not ready to find a feasible solution that doesn't include her sleeping with three men?

Chapter 173 - Book-2 -88 The Wedding Of Victoria

Chapter-88

"Guys, I am not sure about this. This is probably the most hilarious wedding of all time." Victoria said, her eyes looking at Rosaline, who was preparing her for her wedding today.

"Well, I won't refute the hilarious part, but this is going to be awesome. I am sure of it," Rosaline said before she looked at Laila, who has come to attend Victoria's wedding at her request.

"She looks amazing, doesn't she?" Laila asked Martha, who nodded her head in reply.

"She does. After all, she glows like a queen, who has three kings, ready to serve her," Martha said, making everyone chuckle while Victoria blushed scarlet red.

After discussing for a month about what should be done because Victoria's powers weren't leaving her body no matter how much Victoria persuaded them, everyone finally concluded that they will not force Victoria into anything. The kingdoms were finally merged, and though initially, the species retaliated, when they came to know that it was done for their queen, who was stuck with the other two kings, everyone laughed it off and agreed with the settings.

Though there are rogues in all the species, they are handled with the help of Daniel, who came back with his mate Melinda and was shocked after knowing what has happened in Victoria's life in those three months.

Daniel's mate Melinda was a vampire, and since the kingdoms were getting merged, everyone was at much ease regarding their relationship.

Coming back to Victoria, she was still pissed about this mate thing and hasn't let anyone touch her ever since they decided that they all get to have her. She was also pissed with her powers, and so far she has been living the life of a human.

Whenever someone asks her to drop it already because it was of no use, she would say that she feels like a human girlfriend, who is cheating on her three boyfriends with each other.

The outcome of their one-month-long talk was, everyone gets to stay together, and it will be Victoria who will decide who she wants to be with on a particular day. She was also allowed to have a foursome just like Ashton had suggested, and as much as gross it sounded to Victoria, all the kings were ready for that, strangely even Alexander was okay with that.

When Victoria asked him about this decision in private, he said he wants to live an eternity with her, and in a few years, he will get used to it, since they will for more than a thousand years. It was the most wholesome thing Victoria heard as she came to know that he was trying to do his best to adjust to her problems.

It was also decided, when she will be with a particular king, the other powers have the obligation to leave the body if they don't want to be with her at that time.

"You look beautiful, sweetheart," Nelson said as he entered her room.

Wearing her off-shoulder pearl wedding dress that Neptune had especially carved for her, Victoria put on a small crown that had all three emblems of the three powers she had in her.

Adjusting the crown one last time, she stood, her aura screaming respect while she looked at herself in the mirror.

In one month, she has trained herself how to walk and talk like a queen because she was not a mere girl who was the mate of a werewolf king anymore. She was the hybrid queen who was even above the three kings.

Walking downstairs slowly as the long white train of her dress laced with black pearls trailed behind her, she took her father's hand while her father held a large bouquet in his hand in her place.

Walking the aisle from in between of the guests, that included all the alphas and their mates from all the species, Victoria stopped below the stairs, looking at her three men who were looking as dashing as ever in their three-piece suit.

Nelson held out Victoria's hand before looking at the bouquet in Victoria's hand.

Extending her hand, he looked at the three men that were waiting there with their extended hands, ready to take her hand in theirs.

"Give my hand to Alexander. Everyone knows that he will always be the one I love the most in the world. He is, My Personal Lycan King." Victoria said, loud enough for everyone to hear, and though everyone thought that Neptune and Ashton will be jealous of her words and decision, opposite to everyone's thoughts, they laughed it off before they stepped down from the stairs and took Victoria's hands, holding each of her hand in theirs.

Extending her hand, they placed her hand in Alexander's hand, who looked at them gratefully.

"I might be your personal Lycan king, but it's so sad that I can't call you my personal Lycan queen," Alexander said, and Victoria's smile immediately fell, thinking he was offended by something.

"You are, OUR Hybrid queen," He said before he looked at Neptune and Ashton, who engulfed her in a bear hug.

"Stop it! Everyone is looking at us," Victoria squealed, making them laugh out loud.

"This is so hilarious. No girl would've ever married three men at a time like I am doing," Victoria mumbled, and Neptune held her hand before looking into her eyes.

"You were born to make history, Victoria," He said, his words calming her heart like always.

Hearing his words, Victoria looked at the three men before a tear slipped from her eyes as she thought about the past and all the troubles they went through to achieve this day.

She used to think that no one loved her. She used to think that she was cursed, and now that she has gotten three amazing men to love her, she can't help but cry.

"Hey, what happened? Why are you crying? Look, if you don't like anything, we will cancel it. What is it?" The three of them panicked, and Victoria raised her hand in the air, confusing them.

"I only have one ring finger," Victoria said, and everyone paused to look at her before they started chuckling at her childishness. Queen or no queen, she would always be their baby girl, and nothing in the world can change that.

"Don't worry, we will make you wear one ring only," Alexander said before he took out his ring and held her hand.

Placing the ring in her finger with Alexander×Victoria, he nodded at the other two men, who came one by one and placed their rings on her finger with Daniel Neptune×Victoria and Ashton×Victoria carved on them.

After they were done, Daniel placed his finger on top of her rings, and they merged into one, thus, completing the ceremony and easing Victoria's tension.

After placing the rings on their fingers, Victoria waited for the priest to complete the ceremony.

"Do you take Daniel Neptune (King of dark witches), Ashton (King of Vampires), and Alexander (King of Werewolves) as your mates and husbands?" The priest said in confusion, making everyone chuckle.

"I do," Victoria smiled, a blush creeping on her neck.

"Do you take Miss Victoria, the beholder of Jasmine, Emerald, and Carla, as your wife?"

"We do," They said, and the priest sighed out aloud in exasperation.

"You guys may kiss," Priest said, and Daniel and Ashton each took her hand in theirs, kissing the top of them while Alexander kissed her cheek from behind, the photo captured by the photographer showcasing how much they love her and she loves them.

"Queen Victoria of Vampires! Queen of werewolves! Queen of witches!" Everyone started to holler when they saw the ceremony ending, and some even started telling each other that she belonged to a particular species, making a small tension start to form in the crowd.

Seeing the commotion in the public, Victoria brought out a mic from thin air before switching it on.

"Shut the fuck off, will you? It's the hybrid queen Victoria, for all of you," Victoria said with a roll of her eyes, making everyone holler with laughter as she was abducted by the three men before she starts cursing out loud again.

This was something they have gotten used to, but they didn't want her to be in a sour mood on the day of her wedding, that to be when they had been waiting for this day for a long time.

MY PERSONAL LYCAN KING

Chapter 174 - Book-2 -89 The End

After a few years....

"Mom! Mom!" Victoria heard loud shouting from upstairs, and she was about to go and check what was going on when her 6 years old daughter came running to her with tear-brimming eyes.

"Azrael? What happened to you, sweetheart? Who painted your face like this?" Victoria asked her 5 years old daughter that she had with Alexander, her eyes creased in confusion.

"Wuwuw... It's brother Blake, mom. He and brother Jackson did this to me!" Azrael cried, making Victoria look at the boys in annoyance as she lifted her daughter in her arms.

"Now, why would you guys do that?" Victoria asked while she cleaned her daughter's face.

"Mom, we need to do that. It was important. And she should be wearing this bedsheet from now on. She isn't allowed to wear those clothes. Those clothes show off her skin," Jackson shouted while lifting a small bedsheet in his hand.

"And why do you think, she should be wearing this?" Victoria asked before she shook her head at Chris, who was about to come and talk to her about some matters as they were planning to go out.

She needed to handle her kids first.

"Because if she doesn't, then she will turn out like you. And that's the last thing we want!" Blake shouted, making Victoria squint her brows.

"And what is that supposed to mean, young man?" She asked, walking towards the couch.

"We know all about you, mom. Back then, when you were 18, all the guys used to roam around you because you were this beautiful, and everyone wanted to have you. You are still beautiful, and I have caught many people looking at you differently. Azrael is still a kid, but she is so cute. What if she turns out like you?

We can't have boys wanting her for themselves. She is ours. Therefore, she should paint her face and wear only a bedsheet or a duvet as clothing."

Jackson reasoned with a proud face, and Victoria couldn't help herself as she chuckled at his words.

"That's what you brothers are here for, aren't you? You will keep bad guys away from her, no?"

"I don't want to wear that, mommy," Azrael said, and Victoria was about to say something when her elder sons returned with Neptune and Sean.

"You look beautiful, sweetheart. Are you going somewhere?" Neptune asked her before pecking her lips and then looking at Azrael.

"Boys, how many times do I need to tell you that you can't pain your sister's face like this?" He said, looking at Jackson and Blake, who hid behind their elder brothers.

"You are definitely not wearing that. It is showing off your legs," Victoria heard a voice, making her roll her eyes.

"By legs, you mean a little bit of skin above my feet, right?" Victoria asked before she sighed exasperatedly. Things were already bad with her three men around her, always acting so protective and possessive, and now that her sons were growing up, they were no better than their dads. If anything, they were even worse when it comes to possessiveness.

"Well, it is showing off your curves too," Alexander said before he walked over to her and hugged her.

"Awwe, my baby. Who made you cry? Who touched my princess again? Daddy is going to take revenge," Alexander said before kissing Azrael's nose, making her giggle.

"Go get 'em, papa," She said happily, and Alexander turned to Jackson and Blake, who hid further behind their elder brothers.

"Since you both are here, handle the kids. I am going now. I have this important meeting lined up, and I can't be late," Victoria lied when she was going to buy her three mates the anniversary gifts that were the day after tomorrow.

"Mom, didn't you hear what dad said? You can't go like that. Change your clothes." Her elder son Ben said, and Victoria tilted her head before looking at him.

"And, who are you to tell me that? I will wear what I want. You and your dad can take your advice and shove it-" Victoria couldn't complete her words as Ashton place a hand on her mouth with the speed of light.

"-shove up your brain," Victoria completed, making Ashton roll his eyes before he kissed her cheeks and hugged her from behind.

"Don't go like that, please? You know the committee is filled with men, and we can't sit here, knowing all too well that every other guy out there will be lusting over you," Ashton said, still hugging her from behind.

"Guys, there is nothing like that. You can stop with your overreacting. Not only you are a pain in my a- mind, but you have made your sons like yourselves too. It would've been better if I had gotten more daughters instead." Victoria said before she took her purse.

"That was mean!" Her sons shouted, and she gave them the look, making them pout.

"Am I wrong? You don't even let me wear my favorite dresses." She sighed.

"Mom, dad Ashton is right. You look damn hot. If I were a couple of years older and not your son, then I would've surely wanted to eat you. You just look delicious in this peach dress," Ben's twin Adam said, and Victoria widened her eyes in shock.

"Who the hell is teaching him these things?!" She shouted angrily, and everyone looked at Ashton in accusation.

He was the only guy without a filter over his mouth among her three mates.

"Hey, don't look at me like that. I just casually slipped it one day. I just said your mom looks so delicious that sometimes I can't control myself but want to eat her." Ashton said in his defense, and everyone gave him 'the look'.

Victoria was about to scold him for using such words in front of their kids when Azrael started crying, followed by her twin Sam.

"What is it, sweetheart? What made you cry?" Victoria asked, concerned.

"Wwuwu... Dad Ashton and brother Adam want to eat my mommy. They will eat my mommy." Azrael cried, and so did Sam, making her look at Ashton and Adam with a tired sigh.

"If this was your plan to stop me from going, it worked," Victoria said before she gave Azrael to Alexander and started rocking Sam, who was extending his hands for her to take.

"No one's eating your mom, sweetheart. Dad Ashton is just making fun of her. He is not going to eat her-"

"-at least not how you are thinking," Ashton added, cutting Alexander off, and the elder sons Ben and Adam, who understood his meaning scrunched their brows, making Victoria's face heat up with embarrassment.

"You are sleeping in the guest room for the next six months," She said to Ashton before she walked inside the kitchen to prepare milk for Azrael.

Looking in the shiny cabinet of the kitchen, she couldn't help herself as a tiny smile crept up her face.

It all started with entering the town of Pearly Canines and a chance encounter with Alexander in the same University.

In these days, she came to know that the constant feeling that someone was watching her was because of Neptune and Ashton, who were keeping an eye on her from day one since she entered Pearly Canines.

There were many ups and downs in their lives, and they all had a near-death experience, but in the end, it was all worth it.

Though she still loves Alexander the most, since he was her personal Lycan king, she can't help but proudly say that she loves all her three mates and her 6 kids with two still in her womb.

Her cursed life had now turned into a boon, and she can't be happier about it. Her life was full of happiness now and though there were little ups and downs, they were nothing they can't handle together.

“Victoria, why are you gone for soo long? Come back. We are going for a picnic at Christopher’s house,” Ashton shouted and Victoria smiled while shaking her head.

The End.
