

Chapter 22

“Why Can’t Your Mate Stop Looking At You Today?”

Alina frowned at Beta Lucas who was smirking at somewhere else. When Alina turned her head to that side, she saw Aaron was talking with Crystal.

Alina turned back to Beta Lucas and said, “Stop teasing me, Beta Lucas.”

Beta Lucas chuckled and shook his head.

“By the way, you are looking beautiful.” He gave a compliment to her.

Alina blushed and thanked him. “You are also looking handsome, Beta Lucas.”

“You can call me Lucas.”

Alina looked at him. “Really?”

Lucas nodded at her. “Hmm I am giving you the permission to call me by my name, so it’s okay.”

“Okay then, I will call you Lucas from now on.”

“Do you want a drink?” He asked.

“No, I am not good at drinking.”

“Okay. Let’s talk.”

“About what?”

“About your life?”

“About my life?” Alina was surprised.

“Yeah, do you have any problem with talking about your life?”

“No, it’s just that nobody asked me about my life before.”

” I am asking you now. First, tell me about your parents.”

Alina looked down when she heard about her parents.

“They don’t want me to come here, that was why they never contacted me in these five years.”

“WHAT?” Lucas was shocked.

Alina nodded. “Yeah. They had always ignored me. Maybe I did something wrong in my childhood, otherwise, why would they be so angry with me?”

Lucas was not expecting these types of things. When he asked her, he thought that she would tell him how happy her life was before. But he had been mistaken.

“Did you try to contact them after coming here?”

“I tried but they didn’t receive my call.”

“Don’t worry, I will find them soon. When the Beta called them they could not resist my call.”

Alina looked up at him and smiled at him. “Thanks but you don’t need to call them by yourself. If they go somewhere and are still there then maybe they are happy there. I don’t want to disturb their lives. I will go back in two weeks anyway.”

When Lucas heard about her going back. He asked her, “Are you sure, Alina? You want to go back? You don’t want to live with your mate?”

When Lucas heard about her going back. He asked her, “Are you sure, Alina? You want to go back? You don’t want to live with your mate?”

“Lucas. He doesn’t like me. I don’t deserve him. So it is impossible for us to be together. And Crystal-“

Alina paused. She almost spilled about Crystal to Lucas.

“Crystal what Alina?”

“Nothing.” Alina said and sipped on her apple juice.

“Crystal likes him.” Lucas said.

Alina’s eyes widened at him. “Y-You knew?”

“Everyone knows about it, Alina.”

“Then does he know about it too?”

“Of course. Who do you think he is? He is the King. Nothing can go unnoticed from his eyes.” Lucas said and laughed.

“Then does he like her too?”

“Why do you want to know? Didn’t you say to me that you will go back soon?”

“I am just curious about it.”

“Oh really? Just curious?”

Alina nodded her head.

“Well, I don’t know what he feels about her. But let me tell you one thing, he is your mate. How can you let go of him?”

Alina ignored the question and asked. “I want to ask one question. Why are you all so rude to Crystal? She is a good woman.”

“We are not rude, we dislike her. We don’t like her, especially how she pretends to be innocent every time. She doesn’t know we werewolves don’t judge anyone without any reason.”

“What reason?” Alina was confused.

“She is your best friend right?”

Alina nodded at him.

“Then I am suggesting to you, don’t believe her blindly. She is a witch, just like her mother.”

“But is it bad to be a witch? She will be our royal witch soon, Lucas. Don’t talk like that about her. She is my best friend. I have known her for ten years. She is a good girl and a good friend, she can die to save me. She loves me a lot.”

“Really?” Lucas asked with a mocking gaze.

“Yes.” Alina nodded.

“That is a good thing then. Hope your trust will never break and you will say the same thing forever. Otherwise, A witch as an enemy is more dangerous than a silver bullet.” Lucas said.

They saw some people entering the hall. Alina looked at that side and saw a few men in black clothes.

“Looks like I wore the most wrong dress today. Every important guest wore black and here I am an Omega wearing black. It will grab their attention easily. I don’t want to be embarrassed.” Alina said.

“Don’t worry. Black is the most expensive color.”

“What? Color can also be expensive and cheap?”

“Of course. Only dominant people choose black. Black is the only color that can’t be transferred into any other color. Whatever color you want to mix with black, it will only give you black in feedback.”

Alina was in deep thought. Lucas was right. She had never thought anything like that.

“Don’t worry, it is only showing how dominant your personality is. When everyone wants to wear a colorful dress, you wear a black dress. It shows that you are very different from them.”

“Lucas, you are saying this so that I won’t get worried, right?”

“No, I am serious. Now let’s go and see who has just come to visit our pack. Maybe the Alpha of the Silver Moon pack.”

“I don’t want to go. You can go there.”

“Oh come on. I can’t leave you alone here. Let’s go with me. Maybe Crystal is also there.” Lucas said and stood up.

Alina could not get another option so she also stood up and went where Aaron and other officials were talking with some men.

When Lucas went there. Aaron glanced at him and Alina then he told the man to whom he was talking. “Here is my Beta.”

The man turned around and looked at Lucas. They shook their hands.
“Beta Lucas.”

“Alpha Rick.”

But then the man’s eyes fell behind Lucas. He frowned at Alina.

“YOU!!”
