

Chapter 24

“SHE’S WITH ME TONIGHT.”

Alina’s heart was beating fast when she heard Aaron. She turned to him and saw Aaron looking at Alpha Rick with a calm face.

Alpha Rick heard him and looked at Alina. He didn’t let her hand go so he wanted to know her answer.

Alina looked down without saying anything. Rick got angry and let go of her hand. ‘For a few minutes I thought she was a good woman, but she is just an embarrassment. Whenever I meet this woman, she only embarrasses me.’

Rick moved away from her and replied to Aaron. “Sure.” Then he left the dance floor.

Crystal and everyone were shocked when they saw their King was on the dance floor. Crystal was trying to convince him to dance with her. When she told him that he should dance. He replied that she was right, he should dance. Crystal thought he was going to dance with her. But little did she know that he was going to dance with her best friend who was already dancing with someone else.

Beta Lucas sat on a couch and told all the officials to sit there. They ordered their drinks and sat there.

“Enjoy the show everyone.” Beta Lucas said.

“What show? And what’s wrong with him?” Delta Darren asked Lucas while signaling him to King Aaron.

“Nothing happened yet. But very soon, something will happen.” Lucas said while smirking.

“That day you told me to train Crystal until Aaron left the training hall. That day he was also with Alina. What is happening, buddy?” Gamma George asked curiously.

“I saw him angry at some fighter wolves and asked them if they knew Alina. I was also confused that day. Now after seeing him going to the dance floor for her. I have a dark imagination. But he is Aaron Robertson, so it’s not possible.” Theta Cooper said.

“You all are thinking right. But let me tell you, your king has fallen for this woman. Mark my words.” Lucas said.

“But what about her rank? She is an Omega.” Gamma George said.

“Do you care about ranks?”

“No, but he does. What if he will regret it after that?”

“He will not.” Lucas said while gulping his drink. He looked at the couple on the dance floor and thought, ‘He can’t regret it because she is his fated mate. How can he resist her long? It is their destiny. I can’t let anyone destroy his life just because his mate is not a high ranked wolf. We are enough to protect our Queen, he doesn’t need to think about protections.’

Meanwhile on the dance floor,

Aaron looked at Alina. Alina’s head was down. She didn’t look up.

He took her right hand and pulled her to him. Alina was stunned by the sudden pull. She immediately looked at him with her widened eyes.

“You were dancing and smiling with him a few minutes ago. Now, what happens? Pretending to be a shy woman? You never stop me to disgust you.” He said while putting her hand on his shoulder.

He grabbed her waist.

Alina didn’t want to dance with him. This man has crossed his line today. He told her that he disgusted her. What did she do to him that he disgusted her? She never tried to meet him again, she never tried to convince him to accept her, and she never tried to talk with him. But here he was telling her these things without any reason.

She tried to move from him. But Aaron grabbed her tightly and pulled her close to his body.

Alina felt his smell and she closed her eyes.

“You dare to move away when I am here dancing with you?” Aaron said angrily.

“I-I don’t wan-want to dance with yo-you.” Alina got the courage and said to him but ended up stuttering.

Alina felt the grip on her waist tighten. She could not help but hissed in pain.

Aaron began to move and that made Alina move too.

Everyone was watching as their king was dancing with a woman. They never thought their king would care to dance. They were shocked and amazed.

Women were feeling jealous of Alina. They looked at Alina and gave her a disgusting look. They were shocked that their king was dancing with an Omega.

Crystal was also stupefied when she saw Aaron dancing with Alina so closely and she didn't even resist the dance. She got angry and left the party.

Alina saw others and looked up at him. "People are watching us."

"So what?" He asked while looking at her angrily.

Alina could not understand the reason for his anger.

"They will misunderstand us."

“What about that time when you were dancing with the Alpha Rick? Didn’t they misunderstand you at that time?”

Alina frowned at him but immediately controlled her expression. He was not any other man but The Lycan king. She could not forget how ruthless he was. So she said softly. “I was thinking about your reputation.”

“Oh really?” He asked.

Alina looked away from him. ‘What happened to this man? Is he okay? He should feel ashamed to dance with me in front of others like how he told me in his office. Why is he even dancing with me? Why didn’t he reject me and start to find a perfect Queen for him?’

Alina again looked up. “What do you want?”

“Answer.” He replied.

“What answer?” Alina was confused.

“How does he know you?”

“Why do you want to know?” She asked in a lower tone.

“I am your king, I have the right to ask questions to my people.”

Alina would be convinced if he would say he was curious but he didn't say that he compared her with his other pack members.

“You heard him. It was a long story. It is between us.”

Aaron looked furious. He went close to her ear and Alina gasped. He whispered in her ears,

“I see. You are very famous among men.”
