

Chapter 26

“You Can’t Go Out Of My Kingdom Without My Permission, Darling.”

Alina was shocked by his statement. She was confused with his words. Why was he saying that? She could not go? Why? Would he lock her up after rejecting her?

“Wh-What do you mean I can’t go out?”

Aaron was very close to her. He could feel her breath. His wolf almost took control over him. He tried his best to control himself. His wolf only wanted his Omega.

“Until I give you any permission, you can’t leave from here.”

“What about the rejection?” She asked.

“I won’t reject you until I want to do it by myself.”

Aaron said and moved away from her. He walked out of the terrace. But Before he could enter the hall he turned around and saw her from the blinds.

Alina slid down the wall and sat down on the floor. Tears were rolling from her eyes. She was crying.

She was feeling helpless. She could not understand what she would do now. He was the ruthless Lycan King. If she would not listen to him, he would kill her.

He told her some minutes ago that he disgusted her, that meant he would not think before he killed her.

She did not want to die. She wanted to live her life happily. She did not want to take any more pain. She was not that strong to endure it more.

Aaron was feeling uneasy watching her like this. His wolf wanted to go to her but he had a conflict with his wolf about it.

He stared at her. He could hear low sounds of music from the other side that was coming from the hall room which was steps away from the side he was standing.

Alina was crying her heart out. She controlled herself in front of Aaron because he always called her weak. Every time she got emotional in front of him, he thought that she was a vulnerable woman. That was why she tried to look strong and didn't break down in front of him.

She wrapped her arms around herself and sobbed.

“Why Mate Why? Why are you doing this with me? You told me you don't like me, and I accepted it. You told me you don't want to accept me as your mate, and I accepted it too. Now you don't want to let me free? What do you want? Do you want me to see you with another woman living your life happily? What about me? Don't I have a life?”

She was sobbing and wiping her tears. But tears didn't stop dripping from her eyes.

Aaron was watching her from afar. He was a Lycan, his hearing ability was better than anyone else. He could hear her clearly.

“Moon Goddess, please don't give me this painful feeling. I can't take it. Why is it me who always bears all the pain? Did I do something wrong? Is it my fault that I came back here? Is it my fault that I am an Omega? Why does he always insult me? I have never done anything wrong. Please don't give me more pain. It hurts.” Alina cried like a child while grabbing her chest.

Aaron got angry at himself but he didn't know why. He wanted to go to her but he tightened his fists and left from there.

Aaron went back to the party. His eyes fell on his friends, they nodded to him. Then he left the party.

Everyone was silent again. Their king was looking furious. Nobody wanted to lose their life.

All the officials stood up and followed the king and left the party hall.

Aaron came to his residence palace. He came to the living room of his palace and sat on the couch. He put out the cigarette packet and took a cigarette and lit it slowly.

He long puffed the smoke. He was angry at her and at himself.

His friends came to him and saw that he was sitting while smoking. They sat on the couch beside him.

Delta Darren cleared his throat and asked, "Are you okay, Aaron?"

Aaron was looking at the white wall calmly. His friends knew it was the silence before the storm.

“What happened to you? Mind to share?” Gamma George asked.

They were childhood friends. They grew up together. They share everything with each other. No matter how big the problem was, they always solved it together. Aaron never saw them as the lower-ranking wolf. He thought of them as his family members, his friends, and his only companions whom he could only trust. He trusted them more than his parents.

Aaron narrowed his eyes and gooped up smoke from his nose. “She is my mate.”

Darren, George, and Cooper were shocked. “Who? Alina???” Delta Darren asked.

Aaron was silent and they got their answer.

Gamma George looked at Beta Lucas and thought about the day when he told him to train Crystal. Crystal was talking with Alina and Aaron at that time. So that was why he told him to do that?

“Lucas, you knew about this, didn’t you?”

“I overheard him talking with Alina. This fool was making a decision without thinking about anything.” Lucas said.

“What was he going to do?” Theta Cooper asked.

“He told her that he will not accept her because of her rank.”

“What??” Delta Darren said shockingly.

“Aaron, is it true? You don’t want to accept her? We know you are a Lycan but if you accept us as your friend then why can’t you accept her?” He asked.

Aaron was smoking silently without letting out a single word.

His mind was stuck where Alina was crying. He never felt these feelings before. Did he feel sympathy for her? But he was a ruthless man. Emotions were not part of his life. Then why did he feel strange whenever he thought of her with another man? Of course, it’s not his own feelings. It was only because of the mate bond. Otherwise, he had never cared when he killed anyone whether it was a woman or a man.

“Tell us something, Aaron. What is going on in your mind?” Delta Darren asked.

Beta Lucas tried to understand what Aaron was thinking. But no one could tell what he was thinking. He looked so indifferent and calm.

Aaron dropped the cigarette bud on the floor and smashed the cigarette with his right shoe. He stood up from the couch. Seeing him stand up everyone stood up too.

“You all should rest now. We will talk tomorrow.” Aaron said and started to walk to his room.

“But what about your mate? What do you feel about her?” Theta Cooper asked.

Aaron stopped walking. He turned his head to his side and spoke,

” Whatever Is Happening, It’s All Because Of The Mate Bond. Otherwise, I Don’t Have Any feelings For Her.”
