

Chapter 27

The next day, Alina woke up and went to Crystal's room. Crystal was still sleeping.

“Wake up, Sleeping beauty.” Alina patted her shoulder.

“Let me sleep, Alina. Why are you disturbing me?”

“No, I can't let you sleep.” Alina said and sat on the edge of the bed.

Crystal opened one eye. “Why??”

“You have told me we will visit around the pack until we return to our university, remember?” Alina said.

She cried a lot last night. But then she thought that she should not cry over something that was not in her hand. She had to live her days happily here until she went back.

Crystal sat up and yawned. “Yeah, you are right.”

“Let’s go somewhere today.” Alina said happily.

“Where?”

“You will decide that dummy.”

“Hey, don’t call me dummy.”

“Okay, okay fine. Now get ready. I am going back to my room to get ready. Okay?”

“Hmm.” Crystal nodded at her.

Alina left her room. Crystal looked at the door. Her eyes were burning.

She slept late last night. She did not forget how King Aaron went to dance with her. She did not forget how Alina danced with him with pleasure.

“I don’t like it when King Aaron looks at you, Alina.” She said in her empty room as if Alina was listening to her.

“But I have to be with you every time because I convinced you to come back in our pack.” She said and got down from the bed.

Alina wore a sky blue dress and a white snicker today. She did a high ponytail and touched up her face with a simple make up.

She smiled while looking at the mirror. “You are a struggler and a fighter. You don’t have to be sad. Let’s enjoy all the time here.” She told herself.

She knocked on Crystal’s room. Crystal came out. She was looking beautiful. “As usual my beautiful best friend.” Alina gave a compliment to Crystal.

“Oh come on. Let’s go now.” Crystal replied.

They went to the living room. Daisy saw Alina and Crystal coming there. She smiled at Alina and said, “Good morning, my child.”

Crystal looked away from Daisy. Daisy did not care for her but only cared for Alina.

Jealousy built up in her heart day by day. She was feeling a fire in her heart that was increasing every day for Daisy and Alina both.

“Good morning, Aunt Daisy.” Alina smiled at her.

“Are you two going somewhere?” Daisy asked Crystal.

Crystal immediately nodded at her. “Yes, we are going to visit somewhere. But we can not decide where to go yet.”

“I will tell Theta Copper to go with you two,” Daisy said.

“No, it is not needed, Aunt Daisy. I always go alone. I know all the way to come back, so no need.” Crystal tried to assure her that she knew all the way back.

“I was not talking about you. I was talking about Alina. She is an Omega. Specifically an unmated Omega so she needs protection.” Daisy replied to Crystal.

Crystal tightened her fists. ‘This woman is always worried about her. She does not care for me at all.’

Crystal nodded. “Okay.”

They went to the dining room to have their breakfast. As usual, Aaron did not come for breakfast. He did not come here after the argument with his father.

His four officials came sometimes but if they had work they did not bother to come. Maids served their food in their rooms.

Alina quietly ate her food. Daisy looked at Theta Cooper who was sitting on his chair.

“Yes?”

“Alina and Crystal are going somewhere. I want you to accompany them.”

Theta Cooper looked at Alina. Until yesterday he did not know the truth but now he knew that Alina was their future Queen, the mate of King Aaron.

He had a load of work but he did not deny accompanying them.

“Sure.” He replied and continued to eat.

Aaron was coming from his residential palace when he saw that Alina, Crystal, and Theta Cooper were going somewhere.

He woke up early today. All the Alphas and guests left last night after attending the party.

So he sent offerings to their packs early in the morning.

One of his maids told him that his father asked for him. So he came to the living room to meet him.

When he saw Alina leaving the pack house he remembered what she told him last night.

She wanted to leave the pack house as soon as possible. She wanted him to reject her as soon as possible.

She yearned for leaving the pack and did not want to come back again.

Aaron's heart was beating fast thinking about her.

'This mate bond! How can a bond make a Lycan feel like this? She is a weak Omega. How can I accept her? I told her that I want to reject her but now that she wants the same, why am I delaying the process? Why can't I think about leaving her this pack?'

Aaron closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

"Aaron, come here, my son" Aaron heard his father.

He opened his eyes. His father and mother sat on the couch. He went to them and sat opposite their couch.

"You called me? I hope it's an important matter." He told his father.

"You called him?" Daisy turned to Atlas.

Atlas nodded. "Why? Can't I call my son to talk?"

"Of course, you can." Daisy replied. She thought maybe her husband would solve the argument that happened in the dining room last night.

Atlas looked at Aaron.

“Aaron.”

“I am all ears.” He replied.

“I heard about last night. The party went well last night. But I heard something else about you.” Atlas said while looking at his son.

Aaron raised an eyebrow. “What did you hear?”

Atlas thought about something while looking at Aaron. Daisy felt that his husband would say anything that made his son angry again.

Atlas cleared his throat and asked,

“Do You Like That Alina Girl?”
