

Chapter 28

“Do You Like That Alina Girl?”

Daisy was shocked after hearing her husband's question.

“What are you saying, Atlas?” She asked.

“I am saying what I heard from the pack members.” Atlas replied to Daisy.

He looked at Aaron.

“I heard that you were dancing with her last night. You even talked to her in the training hall a few days ago. Pack members are now gossiping about her and you everywhere.”

Aaron's face was calm and indifferent.

“My son, is it true? Do you like Alina?” Daisy asked softly.

“I don’t like her. But if pack members talk about me, tell them to talk in front of their King. I also want to know by myself about their thoughts.” Aaron said while leaning back against the couch.

Atlas sighed. He was feeling relaxed. When he went jogging in the morning. He heard some trainers talk about how they saw their king go close to the new Omega girl at the same time as how the king danced with her last night. He heard Aaron go somewhere with Alina after dancing with her.

Atlas did not like that his son would like some weak creature. His own mate was an Alpha female. So how could a weak Omega be his son’s choice? Besides that, he already had someone in his mind who was perfect to be his son’s Queen.

“My son, you don’t like her, it’s a relief. I don’t like that girl either. She is such a weak girl. She does not even deserve you, not even an Alpha.” Alas said.

Aaron’s eyes went dark. He frowned at his father.

Atlas didn’t see how his son’s eyes changed suddenly.

Daisy did not like the way Atlas was talking about Alina.

“What are you talking about? What did she do? She is a nice and sweet girl. She is so lovely that she can melt anyone’s heart.” Daisy told Atlas.

“Everyone, but not my son. By the way, I already have someone for Aaron in my mind.”

Aaron narrowed his eyes. Who was in his father’s mind for him? All the time he was listening to his parents. He wanted to know their thoughts about him.

“Who?” Daisy asked.

“Crystal.” Atlas said and smiled.

“Crystal?” Aaron asked. He had never seen her like that. How could she be his Queen? Was it even possible? Yeah, she was a good girl. And Aaron adored her because she had no parents. Her mother was an important person in his kingdom. But she died and Crystal lost her last parent.

So when Atlas announced that he would take care of Crystal as his own daughter. He thought his father was right, Crystal needed a family.

She would be his Kingdom's royal witch. Crystal was really powerful because her mother gave all of her power to Crystal before her death. So with her magic and powers, she was unbeatable.

But Aaron had never thought about her like that.

"Aaron? Don't you like Crystal?" Atlas asked.

"I like her but not like that." Aaron replied.

Atlas nodded. "It's okay if you don't like her romantically. All you need is a Queen who can rule beside you. You are a Lycan, my son. Your power and energy are undefeatable. I was a Lycan too and your mother is an Alpha female. But you are different from me. You need a more powerful Queen. And I think Crystal is perfect for that." Atlas said and tried to explain to his son.

Atlas was waiting for Aaron's reply but before Aaron could say anything they heard Daisy.

"NO!" Daisy said loudly and stood up.

Seeing that Atlas also stood up. “Why?”

“She can not be my son’s Queen,” Daisy replied.

She looked angry. Atlas frowned at her. “Why she can not? What’s wrong with her?”

“That Witch’s daughter can not be my son’s wife.” She said and looked at Atlas angrily.

Atlas sniffed. He had never seen his wife getting this angry.

“Daisy..”

Daisy raised his hand in front of him to stop him.

“You told everyone that you will give her a family. Did I say anything that time? No. Because I don’t want to create any scene. All this time she roamed around my pack house. Did I do anything? No, because I thought she was a child all this time. So I let it slide. But now-“

Daisy stopped and glanced at her son. “But now it’s about my son. I don’t want you to interfere with this.”

“What do you mean by you don’t want me to interfere in my son’s life?” Atlas asked furiously.

Aaron was still sitting down. He looked at his parents and how they were talking about his life without asking what he wanted. He saw his mother get enraged at his father for the first time.

“You don’t know why I am saying this? Don’t let me open my mouth Atlas.” Daisy said while going close to her husband.

Atlas was a Lycan. So he was not afraid of anything. But his sweet mate suddenly got mad at him and the way she was looking at him made him nervous.

“I did not like that witch Chloe Graham and I can not like her daughter too. So don’t make me behave badly with her daughter. You can forget your wrongdoings but I didn’t.” Daisy said slowly and clearly.

Aaron knew his mother did not like Chloe Graham. She was the best friend of his father. But his father had a soft corner for that woman. Some elder pack members even said that they had some relationship before mating with his mother. He did not know the whole matter and never tried to get into it deeply. It was his parents’ matter. Sometimes it would be better to be in the shade. If they came out, it would be a disaster for everyone.

Atlas held his wife's hand and tried to make her understand. "Look, Daisy. She is Crystal, not Chloe. She is powerful and good for our son."

Daisy took out her hand from Atlas's grip and said,

"Alina is much better than your best friend Chloe's daughter.

ALINA IS BETTER TO BE THE QUEEN THAN CRYSTAL."
