

Chapter 30

Shaline looked up at him like she looked at any ghost.

“What?” Aaron asked.

“N-Nothing, my king. I will inform Miss Brown about it.” Shaline replied.

Aaron nodded and went to his room.

Shaline looked at his back when he was going. ‘Is he okay? What happened to him? He called Miss Brown that night too. I thought it was the first time but now he is calling her again. Does he like Miss Brown?’

Shaline shook her head and went back to her work.

Alina came to a Cineplex to watch movies with Crystal and Theta Cooper.

“Wow, I did not know there was a Cineplex in our pack.” Alina wondered.

“Don’t say like that as if our pack was in a slum area before. The cineplex was here from the start. Even I came here to visit before I went abroad.” Crystal said.

“Really?” Alina asked surprisingly.

“Yes, Alina.”

“But I have never come here before. I did not even know about our pack had a place to watch movies.”

“It’s because your parents never let you go anywhere before,” Crystal said.

Alina looked down hearing that.

Crystal was right. Her parents never let her go anywhere. She thought about her parents.

She did not know if they were okay or not. They did not receive her call yet.

“Don’t worry Alina. Now you are a big girl. You don’t need your parent’s permission to go anywhere. They will not stop you, so relax.” Theta Cooper said and tried to cheer her mind.

This girl was their soon-to-be Queen. He did not want her to be sad about anything. And she was good with everyone so he behaved well with her because of this too.

Alina nodded and smiled. “Yes, you are right. Let’s watch the movie.”

They took a movie ticket and went to sit in the cinema hall.

She saw there were many men and women sitting together. They looked like couples. They looked cute together.

‘Life is easy for them. They don’t have any pressure for rank. They love each other no matter what rank they are. How lucky they are!’ Alina thought and sadly smiled.

The movie started and Alina began to enjoy the story. She liked the way the hero cared for the female lead. How much he loved her and did everything for her. She was amazed.

Alina did not get the chance to be mature because for the last five years all she had to do was work and study. She was still childish and bubbly. But she knew how to talk back. She did not like anyone insulting her without any reason. She could not take it if anyone humiliated her.

During the interval, it was break time.

Alina stood up and looked at Theta Cooper and Crystal. Both were sitting on both sides of her seat.

“I am going to the washroom.” Alina said.

“I am coming-” Theta Cooper spoke out.

“What? You are going to the lady’s washroom with Alina? Are you serious?” Crystal said while making her face a disgusting look.

Alina laughed watching her look and looked at Theta Cooper.

“Crystal is right. You can’t go there.”

“I will stand outside the washroom for you.”

Alina thought about a second and shook her head.

“No, you stay here with Crystal. She is here alone. The washroom is just right beside this hall, so I can manage and come back soon.” Alina said.

Theta Cooper nodded. She was right. Crystal would be alone in the hall if he went with her.

However, the washroom was near the cinema hall so it would not be a problem.

When Alina was walking out of the hall, her eyes fell on some boys. They were looking at her. Alina looked away and came out of the Cinema hall.

She started to walk to the washroom and went inside.

She used the restroom and washed her hands. She took a tissue which was right beside the sink and wiped her hands.

She looked at herself in the mirror and saw if she was looking okay.

Then she went to the door and opened it.

But she did not expect those boys to be standing outside the washroom.

She immediately backed away. “It is a lady’s washroom. What are you all doing here?” She asked.

They were four boys and she was only a girl.

“We came here for you, Omega. Your smell of an alluring curvy body pulled us here to you.” A boy said.

“W-What are you saying?” Alina’s voice shook.

Her legs were wobbling and her hands were shaking.

She did not know how to face this situation.

“Aww. Don’t worry babe. You will know very soon what he meant.” Another boy said.

Four of them came inside the washroom and closed the door.

Alina's heartbeat began to beat fast in fear. Tears built in her eyes. "L-Let me go."

"How can we let you go? Where did you come from? In our pack most of the females are Alpha and Beta females. Omegas are rare. Guess what? You are one of them." Another boy said and other boys laughed.

One boy was standing in front of the door while eyeing her body as if she was a product.

Alina felt scared. Theta Cooper was right. If he was here, these men would not come after her like this. What would she do now?

Alina pleaded to them. "Please let me go. My friends are waiting for me outside."

The boys did not know that Alina was with Theta Cooper. Otherwise, they would not dare to come to her. Everyone knew how merciless all the officials were. They were brutal. They were always with the Lycan king and they were his friends too. The Lycan king had given them so much power that they could kill anyone and nobody would raise their voice against them.

"I-I will tell the Lycan king about y-you all." Alina said.

Hearing that those boys started laughing as if she was telling a joke.

Those boys were not any fighter wolves. They were just normal wolves of the town. So they did not know that the girl who grabbed the king's attention that everyone was talking about was Alina.

When those boys were busy in laughing and looking at each other. Alina tried to call Crystal.

Her phone was in her left hand and her bag was in her right hand. She took the bag in front of her phone and hid her phone.

She pretended to look down as if she was crying and tried to call Crystal.

Those boys thought she would cry anytime soon and looked down in fear.

The phone was ringing but Crystal did not receive the call. Tears dropped from her eyes that time.

‘Please Crystal pick up the call, Please.’

She did not have Theta Cooper's number or anyone else's number. She only had her parents and her best friend Crystal's number. She assumed because of the loud music in the hall, Crystal could not listen to the ringtone of her phone.

Alina lost all of her hopes and looked at those boys. She tried to reach the door but one of those boys grabbed her hand and pulled her to him.

“Why so hurry?”

He roamed his hand around her waist. Alina was shocked and did not think before slapping the man hard.

The man’s head turned aside because of the slap.

He looked at her angrily. “How dare you slap me, bitch?”

He grabbed Alina’s hair and pushed her hard.

Alina fell on the wall beside her and felt a sharp pain in the back of her neck. She turned around and saw there was a pin in the wall that scratched her neck.

Alina looked at those boys. They smirked at her. “What? Are you angry at us, little girl?”

Alina was in pain but she could not lose in front of them, she was a struggler.

She went to the boy who was standing in front of the door. The boy got ready to grab her. When he grabbed her arm, Alina took all of her strength and bit him hard.

“Aaahhh!” The man screamed in pain.

Bloodd was coming out of his hand. Other boys were shocked by Alina’s sudden action.

Alina moved from him and pushed him hard. The boy moved to the side with the push.

Alina took the chance and opened the door.

Before the boys could understand what was happening she ran outside.

The boys shouted behind her. “Get her!”

Alina wanted to go inside the hall but when she saw they were almost near to her, she did not take the chance and ran to the other side.

Everyone was watching her running but nobody asked her what was happening.

They saw those boys running behind her but they did not come to save her.

Alina was crying and running. Where would she go? She again tried to call Crystal. But Crystal did not pick up her call again.

Alina saw the entrance of the cineplex and ran outside.

She looked behind and saw those boys were coming closer.

She could not think of anything and began to run on the open road. 'Someone please help.' She said in her mind and cried while running.

She was running in the middle of the road but suddenly a black shining car which looked very expensive stopped in front of her.

She immediately knocked on the window. She did not wait for the owner to lower down the window.

She tried to open the back door and got in the car.

She sat in the back seat and huffed like a crazy woman.

She sobbed and looked beside her slowly.

But she did not believe who was sitting beside her.

“M-Mate?”
