

Chapter 36

“A-Again?”

“Yes, Miss Brown. Again he called you.” Shaline replied.

She could understand Alina's reaction. She also reacted the same when she heard that.

“Okay let's go.” Alina said and began to walk out of her room.

She did not thank him today for saving her life. Now she felt nervous. What if he would think of her as an ungrateful girl? Would he be angry with her?

She walked to the Palace and went to the garden.

She saw there was no one in the garden. She could see the whole garden while standing at the front gate. It was a huge and clean rose garden.

Between the roses, there was a big path for walking. Ava remembered the night when she came here to meet him.

“He is not here. He told me to call you when you were out of the pack house. So now I will go to inform him that you are here.” Shaline explained to her.

Alina felt confused but nodded at Shaline. Shaline left the garden and went to call the King.

Alina started to walk. She could smell the roses. She liked the garden. She wanted to stay here forever. She wanted to come here any time she wanted and did not want anyone to stop her. But she was not the king or Queen. So she could not do that.

Alina looked at the roses and saw new baby roses.

“Wow, you were just born now? How beautiful you are looking. Hope you will grow just like others and smell better than them.” She said and smiled at one of the baby roses.

“I am watching for the first time that a human is talking about a flower.”

Alina heard Aaron and immediately turned around.

There he was, the Lycans king, King Aaron.

Every time Alina saw him at night, he looked glowing in the moonlight. He looked ethereal. His look suited perfectly to the title of the pure beauty of the moon creature.

When Aaron came to the garden he saw her talking with the roses. He was surprised and thought she had gone crazy.

“What? Every time I ask you about something, why do you always become quiet?”

Alina came out of her thoughts and shook her head.

“N-No. I was watching the beauty of the roses. They looked beautiful and some of them bloomed. So I was just telling them..”

Aaron was amazed by her explanation. She was now twenty years old. She was an adult and a woman now. But her behavior was like a little girl.

“You are very childish.” He said to her and walked toward her.

He came to her and saw she looked down. ‘What happened suddenly? Wasn’t she happy a few seconds ago?’

When Alina heard her call her childish, she thought he was going to insult her again. She felt upset. She prepared herself to endure his insults. He saved her, if he wanted her to repay that by enduring his insults, she had to take it.

She felt Aaron standing in front of her.

“What happened?” He asked.

Alina shook her head.

“Tell me.”

“I-If Y-You want me to insult me, you can. I l c-can endure it and repay you.” She replied.

“Repay me?” Aaron asked and frowned at her.

He did not think anything like that. Repaying to him was never his thought when he asked for him.

He told Shaline to call her when she was outside. He almost forgot about that.

Shaline just came into his room and told him that she took Alina to the garden and she was waiting for him.

Aaron was working in his room because he was at his office all the time today, so he went back to his room with his work.

But when Shaline told him about Alina, he came here immediately without thinking about his work.

And this woman was thinking he wanted her to repay him by enduring his insults?

“I didn’t call you here to repay me. I told Shaline about you in the afternoon.” Aaron said.

Alina remembered what Shaline told her about it. She felt embarrassed in front of Aaron again.

“S-Sorry.” She apologized.

“Well if you want to repay me, then I can think about it.” Aaron said jokingly.

“Sure. I can do anything to repay you.” Alina replied instantly.

“Anything?” Aaron smirked.

Alina looked up at him and saw him smirking.

‘What is he thinking? I didn’t mean anything dirty. Why is he smirking?’

“What happens now? You don’t want to repay me? I thought you were a woman with one word.”

“I-I will think about it.” Alina said and tried to go to the other side of the garden but Aaron grabbed her hand.

When Aaron grabbed her hand his hands touched her lower waist. Aaron felt her body shaken.

Alina pushed him immediately as if she got an electric shock. When Aaron touched her, the feeling of those boys touching her body came to her mind.

Today in the car, Aaron took her in his arms and let her rest on his chest. He never touched her waist or anywhere.

But now when his hand touched his waist she felt shaken.

Aaron moved slightly by Alina's sudden push. He was stunned by the reaction of her body.

“What happened to you?” He asked.

“N-Nothing.” Alina said. She thought she should leave the garden now. She was not feeling okay. She was feeling traumatized again.

Only she knew how much she was afraid when she saw there was no one in the washroom and those boys closed the door of the washroom. She thought she would lose her life today and they would destroy her deeply.

Alina felt tears dripping from her eyes to her cheeks. She wiped her tears.

“I-I think I should go now, my king. I am not feeling well.”

Aaron did not like it when he saw that she was crying again. He observed her and his jaw tightened.

He asked while gritting his teeth.

“DID THEY TOUCH YOU?”
