

Chapter 40

“King Aaron Wants To Meet Her.”

Crystal, Atlas and Daisy were stunned. Daisy looked at Delta Darren. “Is everything okay, Darren?”

“Yeah, you all don’t have to worry about anything. He just wants to talk with her about something.”

Daisy nodded at him.

Daisy went to Alina and patted her. “Just go with Darren. Maybe he has something to talk to you about.”

Alina looked at her.

Daisy smiled and said in a lower tone. “Please tell him to come to have meals with us again. I told him but he didn’t listen to me.”

Everyone heard her clearly. Alina did not understand why Aaron's mother was telling her this. How could she convince him when his own mother could not convince him?

But she nodded and left with Delta Darren.

Crystal looked at Alina when she was going with Delta Darren in the King's side corner.

'Alina is hiding something from me. I will find out soon.' She thought and left the pack house for a meeting with her Aunt.

Alina was walking to the corner from where King's palace's way was starting.

She asked Delta Darren, "Why did he call me?"

"The boys--"

Before Delta Darren could speak they heard screams.

Alina ran to the king palace.

When she reached there she was shocked.

The four boys who tried to molest her were kneeling in front of a man who was sitting on the couch.

He was none other than her mate, The Lycan King, King Aaron.

He wore all black today. In black pant and black shirt, it had given him a devilish aura.

Alina saw he was smoking while sitting with his one leg top on another.

“Come here.” Aaron said without looking at her.

She did not know if he told her that or anyone else.

Delta Darren signaled her to go to him.

When she went closer her eyes fell on the other three officials who were standing with the guards around the couch.

Alina went to Aaron. She looked at his cigarette. ‘He smokes? I have never seen him smoking.’

“Look at them. Are they those boys?” Aaron asked.

He knew they were those boys. He saw the footage of them. But he wanted her to say and see everything.

Alina looked at those boys. One of the boys who she bit was glaring at her as if telling her with his eyes that if she spilled anything, he would kill her.

Alina felt afraid and looked away from them.

Aaron looked at Alina. Alina nodded her head.

He grabbed her hand and pulled her. Alina fell on the couch and almost sat on his lap but she managed to sit on the couch. However, she was close to Aaron.

“Now sit here and watch the show.” Aaron said and puffed on the cigarette.

“No, No Please forgive us.” The boys said and begged.

“We didn’t do anything.” One of them said. They tried to clean their image in front of the king. Because they did not know that the king had already watched the footage.

“Oh really?” Gamma George asked.

“Yes, yes. We didn’t do anything. She is the one who came to us. We just tell her that we can not do anything to her.” One of them said.

Beta Lucas laughed loudly. The boys looked at him in horror. They knew the officials were horrible. They were so powerful that they always stayed with the Lycan king.

“You all are really foolish. Can’t you see that the girl is sitting beside the king? You have already lost the war, you could have asked forgiveness but no, you are trying to put all the blame on her?” Beta Lucas said.

The four boys were shaken in fear. He was right, they had lost everything now.

“P-Please forgive us, My king.”

“Didn’t she ask you all to let her go? Did you let her go?” Aaron asked. His voice was making them trembled.

“If she did not bite your hand, what would you do with her?” Aaron asked the guy who had a bandage on his hand.

“I-I am Apologizing for my foolishness, my king. Please forgive me.” The boys said and cried.

“I-I am Apologizing for my foolishness, my king. Please forgive me.” The boys said and cried.

Seeing those boys crying Alina was stunned. Those boys looked powerful when they came to her but now in front of the king, they were afraid of death.

Aaron turned to Alina. “Who is the one who pushed you?”

Alina nervously put her shaking fingers on the side of the boy.

The boy’s eyes widened. “N-No. S-She is lying, My king. I didn’t do anything.”

Alina looked at the boy. “You tried to touch me and I slapped you then you pushed me hard. I am not lying about anything. You are the one who is lying.”

Aaron took a wine bottle from the coffee table in front of him. He grabbed it too hard that the bottle immediately broke and some of the glass went inside his skin. Blood was coming from his palm.

“Your Hand!” Alina stood up immediately. Worry were visible in her eyes.

Aaron looked at her and said, “Sit down.”

Alina did not argue and sat down again.

Aaron stood up and the boy’s hearts started to beat fast. They almost lost their breath.

Aaron took the big piece from the broken bottle and went to the boy who touched Alina and pushed her that day.

The boy was shaking in fear. And other boys knew that their deaths were coming closer to them slowly.

It was their king. The Lycan king. They had not had the luck to meet him before this day. People say if anyone offended him once, they would be dead in a second. He did not think before killing anyone.

Alina was looking at Aaron's hand. Blood was dripping from his palm. She wanted to go and pulled out those pieces of glass that pierced his palm.

She saw him standing in front of the boy.

The boy spoke in fear,

“K-King..”

Aaron turned his face to Alina but did not look at her. He said,

“Don't close your eyes. You have to watch it all, Darling.”
