

Chapter 44

“You Will Pay For It Alina.”

Alina instantly opened her eyes and sat up.

“What did I just see?”

She put her hand on her forehead and sighed.

“She is right, she is my best friend. I can’t hide it anymore. I have to tell her everything. Otherwise she will misunderstand me. She will think I intentionally go for her love. But I did not do anything. He is my mate. What should I do?”

Alina looked at the clock and saw it was time for lunch.

She got down from the bed and went to wash her face. She wore another scarf. Then she went out of her room.

When she was going to the dining room she remembered that Daisy told her to talk with Aaron about coming to the dining room and have meals together again.

Alina realized she forgot to talk about this matter with Aaron. Now what would she answer Daisy?

But then she thought everyone knew how aggressive Aaron was. So they would think Aaron did not listen to her.

Alina went to the dining room. She saw Atlas, Daisy and Crystal sitting on their chairs.

When Alina saw Crystal she felt her breath stiff. She wanted to tell her everything now.

She did not know if Aaron would punish her for this. Because he had already forbidden her to tell anyone about them.

“Alina, come sit. Why are you standing there?” Crystal said while looking at her.

“When did you come, Crystal? You went to visit your Aunt right?” Alina asked and sat on the chair beside Crystal.

“Yeah, she told me she will practice with me from tomorrow. So I came back.”

“I see.”

When they were about to eat, the door of the dining room opened.

They turned behind to look at the door and saw the four officials came to have lunch.

But behind them King Aaron also came today.

Everyone was shocked. He told everyone that he would not join them but now he came to have lunch with them.

Aaron did not look at anyone. He went to sit on his head chair. His officials followed him and sat on their chairs.

Daisy looked at Alina and smiled at her.

“Thank you, Alina.”

Alina was stunned. ‘Thank you? But I did not do anything. I forgot to tell him about it. He did not come here for me telling him to come.’ Alina thought.

“No, Aunt Daisy. I didn’t-“

“No, you deserve my thanks. I knew only you could do this. You told him and he came here to have lunch with us.” Daisy said.

Crystal frowned at Alina. Daisy told her today to tell Aaron about coming back here. Did she tell Aaron? Why did Aaron listen to her? So many thoughts were running through Crystal’s mind.

Alina helplessly looked at Aaron and thought maybe he would tell Daisy that it was not because of her that he came here by his own wish.

But she was wrong. Aaron was silent and all the officials were too.

Their silence made others believe that Aaron came here after Alina requested him to come.

Atlas narrowed his eyes at Alina. He now disliked the girl more. His son was angry with him. His son has anger issues but for this girl, he came here and put his anger aside.

It was a good thing for Atlas but Alina was the one who did this, so he was not happy.

Crystal looked away from Alina and looked at Aaron.

Aaron spoke, "Let's start eating."

All of them began to eat. Alina did not look up to anyone and kept eating quietly.

She did not want to face Aaron. But her mind was going crazy for him.

Aaron looked at Alina who wore another scarf now. He remembered how she put off her scarf before to wipe his b***d. She even carefully treated his wound.

'She is very useful. She knows how to treat wounds, not bad.' Aaron thought.

He heard Crystal,

“My King, What happened to your hand?”

Everyone now looked at Aaron’s hand. His right hand was bandaged and he was eating with the right hand so everyone could see it better carefully.

Daisy felt worried for her son. However, the way her son was saying it while staring at Alina, a smile bloomed on her lips.

Her son was now behaving like a normal person. He was even looking at the girl without caring about anyone.

Atlas frowned. Why did his son always stare at this girl? Did this Omega girl do something to Aaron? Otherwise, why would he be interested in her? Did this Omega do something to his son? Did she try to seduce him? This dirty girl!

Atlas cursed Alina in his heart. His eyes fell on Aaron and all the officials’ clothes. They were in formal suits as if they were going somewhere.

“My son, it’s a pleasure to have meals with you again.”

“Hmm.” Aaron replied and looked away from Alina and looked at his plate.

“Are you going somewhere, My son?” Atlas asked softly.

Alina looked up to see Aaron. Indeed he was looking like going somewhere. He wore a black handmade tailored suit. He looked like a prince now. He was not in his aggressive mood so he looked a little younger than his age. He was twenty five but he looked like he was in his early twenties.

‘Such a Handsome Prince!’ Alina thought.

Aaron looked at his father and nodded at him.

“Yes, I am going to another pack for a pack meeting. If they do not agree with my conditions, I will start a war against them.”

Hearing that there was a pin drop silence in the dining room.

“How long will it take you to come back?” Atlas asked.

Alina's grip on the spoon tightened. She thought she would go back to her university with Crystal next week.

What if he would not come back before that?

Then she heard his reply.

“ONE WEEK.”
