

Chapter 5

Alina could not find the kitchen and went back to her room. She was thirsty before she met her mate but after meeting with him, she could not remember anything about why she went outside.

All night she was thinking about him. 'Why did he leave me? Will he come to meet me tomorrow? Why is he so unhappy?'

Then she remembered how dangerous his eyes were. He could kill her just by looking at her with his eyes.

"How is this possible that I saw him in my dreams but he didn't see any of that so he could not recognize me? Did he feel the same as me? Why was my wolf chanting mate? If he is my mate then why didn't he say that back?"

Alina was really confused, she didn't know what to do and what not to do.

She laid down on her bed and looked at the ceiling and told herself, “If he is one of the fighter wolves in our pack then I have to be strong like him. If my mate is a fighter wolf how can his mate be less strong? But I want to know one thing, why did he always come to my dreams? How can I see someone whom I had never seen before? I thought it was just my imagination but did he really exist?”

Alina sighed and closed her eyes. “Should I go to him? Or should I stay away from him? Will he harm me as he harmed me in my dream or was it just an illusion? Moon Goddess! Please do something and give me a hint. What should I do now?”

She kept thinking about everything that she could not realize when she fell asleep.

Next morning, Alina woke up when she felt a light on her face. She turned her head to the other side and put the quilt over her face. She wanted to sleep more.

After a few minutes, she heard knocks on her door.

“Ms. Brown, please wake up and come for breakfast.”

Alina didn't open her eyes. She put her pillow over her ear. She didn't sleep well last night.

After some time she heard loud knocks.

“Alina, wake up.” Crystal shouted.

“NO.” Alina shouted back. Her eyes were still closed.

“Come on, it’s time for breakfast.”

“You can go and have breakfast. I am not hungry.” She said in her raspy voice.

When Alina heard ‘Lycan King’ she immediately opened her eyes and sat up. She remembered about her mate. How he got angry when she talked bullshit about his lovely king.

“I am coming in ten minutes.” Alina said and went to the bathroom. She took a shower and wore a simple black dress. She didn’t like gorgeous dresses. She thought she would live with her parents so she didn’t take more stylish clothes with her. Her parents didn’t like this.

Alina dried her hair and combed it. She did a high ponytail and looked at herself. “Hmm I am looking presentable.”

She was about to go but she stopped in front of the mirror. “I should look good today. Maybe he will come to meet me. Or he will come to have breakfast. Wait a minute, is he a fighter wolf or is he an official?”

Now Alina got more worried. What if her mate was an official? If he was a beta, theta, delta, gamma any of them, then it would be a problem for her. Maybe the Lycan king would not approve of her as one of the official’s mate. Because she was an Omega.

“He told me I am such a weak Omega. Will he deny our mate bond when the king asks him about it? Will he say to him that he doesn’t like her and wants to reject her?”

There are so many things running through her mind. She could not control her mind.

Her phone rang at that time. She looked at the bed and saw her phone was ringing. She went to the bed and took her phone from the bed. It was Crystal.

“Where are you Alina?”

“I am coming.”

“You are lying to me. You are still in the bed, right?”

“No Crystal. I am ready. I am coming.”

“Okay hurry up.” She said then cut the call.

Alina went out of her room and started to walk to the dining room. She went to the dining room and saw many different faces.

“Here she is.” Crystal said.

Everyone was now looking at her. Alina was feeling shy under their gazes.

She went to the seat beside Crystal like last night.

“Wake up. The Lycan king has arrived already. He will kill you if you don’t come for breakfast timely. He is very punctual, you know.” Crystal shouted.

“Hello I am Cooper, the Theta of this pack or you can say this realm.” A boy said.

Alina looked up and glanced at him. Her eyes went beside the other people. ‘Three different faces’ she thought.

“Hello, I am Alina Brown, Crystal’s friend,” Alina replied.

“I am Delta Darren.”

“I am Gorge, the Gamma of the king and the pack.”

Alina nodded at them. They were handsome and their aura was killing. Everyone could say they were powerful just by looking at them.

“I’m Alina.” She introduced herself.

Atlas didn’t like the conversation so he said, “Stop talking now. When it’s time to eat, we should not speak.”

“It’s okay, they can talk. It’s not a big deal.” A voice could be heard from behind the table.

Alina turned her head and saw a man coming to the table. He was also well-built and handsome.

‘Why is each and everyone handsome in my pack? But nobody is more handsome than my mate. He was ethereal beauty. He was shining in the moonlight last night..’ Alina thought and turned her head back to the table.

“Beta Lucas, what do you mean?” Atlas said with an angry voice. He didn’t like that the man crossed his order and told everyone to talk.

“I meant it is not like there is an assembly happening here that nobody could talk about anything. We are updated now, we are not the same as ten years ago.” The man said and sat on the right side of the head chair.

Atlas was angry at him but asked about his son. “Where is your King?”

“He is sleeping. He can’t join us at the table. So let’s start eating.”

Everyone was shocked that the King was still sleeping.

Alina somehow controlled her laugh and looked at Crystal who was also shocked. She went close to her and whispered,

“Didn’t you say your king is very punctual? What happens to him now?”

Crystal looked at her and said, “He got wind of you. How can he even sleep this late today?” Crystal sighed.

Alina chuckled and said,

“Looks like I am very effective for this pack and its people.”
