

Chapter 58

Alina came back to her room. She knew Crystal was tired and went into her room. About Atlas and Daisy, they would not be in the living room now she knew about that too.

Alina had to hide her neck when she was coming back through the living room to this corner.

It was good that she did not have to face any officials otherwise she would be embarrassed.

Alina looked in the mirror and saw what Aaron did to her again.

“This man did that again!” She pouted and told herself.

But then she remembered what Aaron said to her.

“Next Week Will Be The Crown Ceremony??? But how???”

Alina almost screamed. She did know anything about the Crown ceremony. She had not attended one before. So how would she know? But she heard about that.

Crown Ceremony was the royal ceremony where The king declared his woman as his Queen of this kingdom and gave her the Queen's Crown.

After the Crown Ceremony The king and the Queen went for their marriage. Later that night the king would mark his queen and there would be a Mating Ceremony.

So first Alina had to think about the Crown ceremony and then the Mating ceremony.

Alina blushed thinking about the mating thing.

That night in dinner time,

Aaron called everyone in the living room to announce something. Alina had already known what he would go to talk about.

Atlas and Daisy came and Crystal followed them. Aaron did not come out of his palace today so everybody did not go to have meals together.

Atlas was angry at his son and Crystal was too tired to come out.

So now they came to listen to king Aaron.

“What do you want to declare?” Atlas asked.

Aaron looked at him. “I have decided something.”

“What?”

“The Crown Ceremony will be held next week.” He replied.

“WHAT?” Atlas was shocked.

“Son, have you lost your mind? Or is the mate bond making you crazy?”

“I am in my full senses.”

Daisy said, “Dear it’s too hurried. How can we manage everything in a week?”

“I have arranged everything the whole day. My officials have sent invitations to everyone. So you don’t need to do anything.”

Atlas tightened his fists. “Don’t you think you are going too fast to decide your life?”

“You always told him about getting a Queen. Now your son is getting married. Are you not happy, Mr. Robertson?” Beta Lucas said and smirked at Atlas.

“You! You are the one behind it right? You manipulated my son to marry this girl.”

“Oh come on, Mr. Robertson. Your son is not a kid whom anyone can manipulate easily.”

“I knew it. You will be the end of him. You don’t want him to be the powerful king all the time. You want to weaken him so that you can grab the pack in your own hand.”

“DAD!” Aaron said angrily.

Beta Lucas chuckled at Atlas’s remarks.

Atlas replied to his son. “He is the one who influenced you badly. He told you to make this girl your Queen right?”

Crystal looked at Alina who was looking stunned by Atlas's words.

Alina felt upset when she heard what Atlas was saying. He hated her so much that he even picked up a fight with his son's Beta.

'I thought he dislikes me. But now I can feel that he hates me. How can I survive his hate? He is no other than my soon to be husband's dad. I want to live a peaceful life with a happy family but what is happening here?'

Alina felt her eyes get teary.

Daisy saw how sad Alina was and stopped her husband. "If our son likes her and she is his mate, then we have to do just one thing and that is accepting her. Why are you arguing with him? It's his life, let him do whatever he wants Atlas."

"No. It's not only his life. It's about the whole realm's people's life. If he chose the wrong person as his Queen. The whole kingdom has to suffer."

Aaron glanced at Alina and saw that she was crying. He got furious and told his father, "You don't have to think about my kingdom. I am alone enough to protect my whole kingdom."

“No, my son. You are a king. A King has no personal life. You can’t love your loved ones. You have to be prepared to leave your loved ones and marry a powerful woman just for your kingdom.”

“What do you mean?”

“I mean you can be with her even if you will not make her your Queen. Just be with her after making your Queen someone else who is more powerful than others. You can still be with her without marrying her.”

Alice was shocked in horror. She could not believe what Atlas was saying. Living with her without marrying her? What did he mean?

Daisy laughed and it was a dark laugh. She had a dark aura too. She was a Queen before the dominant one. People called her Ice Queen. But she could see through people. So she knew what people’s original personality was.

Everyone was staring at Daisy.

She looked at Atlas.”Of course, You will teach your son that, Atlas Robertson. You want to recreate the history, right? You want your son to do the same thing you did before.”

“What are you-” Atlas wanted to say something but Daisy interrupted him.

“What am I saying? Don’t act innocent now my King. You want to make Aaron just like you. You want him to do the same sin. But this time it is different that Alina was his mate who you wanted to sacrifice.”

Crystal glared at Daisy and Alina watched that. She was very confused with Daisy’s words and Crystal’s behavior.

‘Whom she is talking about? Did Former King Atlas have an affair with another lady? Why is Crystal glaring at Mom?’

“Stop you both. It’s not time to argue. I don’t want to hear all of this. I will do what I want to do and nobody will stop me. So stop talking about these types of things. I will only marry my mate and make her my Queen. If she can’t be my Queen then I will not give this place to anyone else.

Crystal looked at Alina who was looking stunned by Atlas’s words.

Alina had never imagined her mate would overtake his parents to accept her. Her situation was different from normal people’s. It was not just mating and marking.

It was also about a place which was very experienced to achieve. No one can acquire a place without luck.

Atlas and Daisy left from there. Daisy looked mad at Atlas and Atlas also did not look good.

Crystal came to Alina and hugged her.

“Congratulations Alina.”

Alina smiled and replied, “Thank you so much, Crystal.”

“I will be your bridesmaid.”

“Of course.”

Crystal turned to Aaron who was observing her and Alina.

“Congratulations to you too, my king. Please always keep her happy.”

Aaron nodded his head to her.

Crystal left and went back to her room.

Alina looked at Aaron. Before Aaron could say anything to her.

Aaron's officials who were his friends too gathered In front of Alina. They wanted to cheer Alina's mood.

She had to listen to all of this, they did not want her to be upset anymore. She was their soon to Queen

"Congratulations to you, Queen." Beta Lucas said.

"I am not your Queen yet." Alina replied.

Gamma George smiled at Alina. "Don't worry very soon you will be. So don't forget to start training tomorrow. I will personally train you and make you stronger and the best fighter."

"Yes. And I will help you if you need anything to know." Delta Darren said.

Theta Cooper thought about what he could say because all three of them said everything. So he said, "I will help you with shopping then."

Hearing him everyone laughed.

Alina looked at them. "Thank you."

They nodded and left Alina and Aaron alone.

Aaron came to Alina and looked at her neck. She put on makeup on her neck.

“You are a good makeup artist.”

Alina giggled. “I just used concealer on my neck.

“I see.”

Then Aaron patted her head. “Are you upset about what dad said?”

Alina looked down. She did not want to lie but she was upset.

Aaron touched her chin and raised her head. “He is an aggressive man. He will only stop when we marry. So don’t think about what he said some time ago. Mom likes you. She will handle dad.”

Alina grabbed his hand and hugged him.

This man was supporting her like a shield. No one had done this for her. Only Crystal and Aaron were the two people in her life who cared for her. Alina was feeling blessed that she had a best friend like Crystal and a mate like Aaron.

Aaron smiled and hugged her back. He liked her innocent behavior, how she wanted to leave him without thinking about the Queen's position.

She was really pure in his eyes.

Alina thought,

‘After the Crown Ceremony when we will marry, I will tell you that how I feel for you, I will tell you that,

‘I Love You.’
