

Chapter 59

Six Days Later,

It was early morning. Alina woke up early and went to attend her cultural class with the ancient teacher who taught the king and Queen the royal culture.

In these six days, Alina learned many things. But she was also under pressure. She wanted to learn all the things as fast as she could.

She now knew the basic tricks of the fight though she was not physically stronger. She then learned all the manners that a Queen should have in her.

The manner of talking, eating, walking, sitting everything. Even she had to learn how she could stop her facial expressions even if she was in any danger.

She would be the fearless Queen who did not fear anything.

But at the end of the day, she could not stop her childish behavior. She was just herself. How could she change herself in a week?

She got to know more about Lycans and their powers. She got to know that her soon to be husband was the most powerful Lycan ever.

“Your class is over today, you are ready now. Though you need practice. The more you practice, the more your personality will be updated into Royal.” The ancient master said to Alina.

Alina smiled at him. “Thank you so much. You are really a good teacher. You taught me so many things. I am very happy that I can at least behave like a Queen now.”

“Not like a Queen. You are a Queen. Tomorrow you will get the Crown. Hope everything will be okay with you and you will become one of the best Queen of our realm.”

The ancient master observed her the whole week. When Delta Darren took Alina here to him and told him to teach her. He was stunned about Alina that she was an Omega who could not run the realm.

But day by day he observed her and understood that she had the potential to be a Queen.

She was a soft hearted person. A Queen with a soft heart would always think about her realm first. He thought Alina could learn more and she would become a good Queen.

Alina stood up and bowed to him then left from there.

She came outside of the ancient training center and saw Aaron's car waiting for her.

Every day he sent his private car for her to take her back to the pack house.

Alina got in the car and looked outside from the window.

These six week everything had changed. Her parents called her after Aaron announced that he would get married and give his realm their fated Queen.

Alina's parents got a special invitation from the king so they called Alina and behaved so well with her.

She remembered what her father said on the phone.

'Alina my child, I was busy in another pack for a long time. So I could not talk with you. We could not try to contact you because we did not want to tell you about our crisis. We are not rich like royals, Alina. I was not angry with you that day but just I was upset that you came back without telling us. We love you, my child. We will come back the day before your Crown ceremony. We are very happy that our daughter will be our Queen. You are so lucky to have the king as your mate. We will come soon dear.'

Alina was busy in thoughts of her parents when the driver called her,

"Miss, we are here."

Alina came out of her thoughts and nodded to the driver.

She got down from Aaron's car and saw Crystal coming from inside the pack house.

During these six days, Crystal behaved strangely. Alina could feel why she was like this. She thought maybe Crystal was angry because Alina was marrying Aaron. Alina understood that very well. She thought Crystal's behavior was reasonable. She had the right to be angry with her.

Nowadays Crystal was different; she looked more young suddenly. Her beauty was blooming like a rose. She did not come back to the pack house before it was late at night.

Whenever Alina asked her where she was Crystal replied to her that She was with her Aunt.

Alina was about to go to her when Theta Cooper stopped her.

“Alina.

Alina turned around and saw Theta Cooper standing behind her.

“When did you come here?”

“When you were day dreaming.”

“No, I was looking at Crystal.”

“Why?”

“I wanted to ask where she was going. She promised me five years ago that we will buy our wedding dress together.’

“Oh let her go and come with me. Didn’t I tell you I will help you with shopping?”

“Yes, but I want her to go with me too. She is my best friend. Wedding shopping without my best friend is not possible.”

Alina replied and went to Crystal.

Crystal saw Alina coming to her and stopped.

“Crystal, where are you going?”

“I am just roaming around outside. Why Alina? Do you need something?”

“Well, I am going shopping today. We have promised that we will buy our wedding dress together, right?”

Crystal smiled at Alina and nodded. “Yes. you are right. Let’s go.”

“Well let me change my clothes first. I am coming in ten minutes until you can talk with Theta Cooper. He is going with us.” Alina said while gesturing to Theta Cooper.

“Why him?”

“He asked about it and I could not deny him.”

“Okay.”

Alina went back to the pack house.

“Are you in a hurry?” Daisy asked.

“Mom, I have to go shopping today. I have to buy so many things that I have to wear tomorrow and the day after tomorrow.”

“I know dear. You are going with Cooper right?”

Alina nodded at her.

“He will take you to our Royal designer. Her family has been designing clothes for our Queens. She will show royal bridal gowns and you have to choose one of them for your marriage.”

Alina was surprised to hear that. She did not know about this before.

‘Royal Designer? Looks like whoever works here is named Royal. How can I forget that I will not be a simple bride? I will be a Queen. AAAAHH! How will a girl like me be a Queen? I am learning daily and I still forgot that I will be a Queen. The ruler who will rule beside the King.’

Alina shook her head at her thoughts.

“Okay, Mom. I get it.”

Then she went back to her room. She changed her clothes and went outside of the pack house.

Meanwhile,

Theta Cooper and Crystal were sitting in the car. Theta Cooper was sitting beside the driver and Crystal was sitting in the back seat.

“I am happy.”

“You don’t look so.”

“I can’t express my facial emotion in my face.”

“You are talking like a Queen now. Only Queens were guided not to do that.”

“Unfortunately I am not the Queen.”

Theta Cooper turned around his head to Crystal. “Unfortunately? Isn’t it fortunate that your best friend is going to be Queen now?”

“I will be happy if she becomes the Queen.”

“She is the Queen.” Theta Cooper said.

“Not yet.” Crystal mumbled.

“Did you say something?” Theta Cooper asked.

Alina came to the car and opened the door of the car.

“What are you two talking about?” Alina asked when she saw Theta Cooper was talking with Crystal.

Alina sat beside Crystal.

“Nothing he was saying. I am happy to hear about your marriage.” Crystal said.

Alina turned her head to Crystal. She also wanted to know if Crystal was happy or not.

“Start the car.” Theta Cooper said to the driver and didn’t talk about this matter.

When They reached the royal designer’s store. It was like a small palace of clothes. So many amazing clothes were set up here and there. But Alina was surprised that nobody was there.

She saw a middle aged woman come to them.

“My Queen, you have come.” She said and bowed to Alina.

Alina was shocked by this. “How did you know I am the one?” She asked.

“When the Queen Mother called me to prepare the dress for the Queen. She told me about your appearance and your rank. Welcome to my shop.”

Alina was amused with her behavior so she smiled and nodded.

The woman took her to a big room where three dresses were modeled behind a glass box. The glass box was like a big screen and the dresses were like models.

There were lights on the upper side of the dresses.

Those dresses were royal bridal gowns. Each of the dresses was full of white stone cut diamonds and white net. Those white gowns were made for the Queen.

The royal designer told them she started to make these dresses in her early twenties. It took years to make these dresses.

Alina was amazed by hearing this.

She picked the middle one but Crystal told her that the left one was good for her. She told her that Alina was slim and fit so the design would look good on her.

“Let her choose her dress by herself.” Theta Cooper said to Crystal.

Crystal looked sad to Alina. Alina shook her head and said to the designer. “I will get the left one.”

“Are you sure, my Queen?”

“Yes.”

Alina thought she would try the dress whether her size was okay or not but then Crystal told her it would be perfect for her so she should not waste her time wearing this dress.

Alina nodded to her. “Are you happy Crystal?”

Crystal chuckled and replied,

“Of course, I am happy. Our kingdom will get its new Queen soon. And You will get what your destiny has decided for you.”

“You don’t look so happy. Isn’t it your best friend’s Wedding?” Theta Cooper asked.
