

Chapter 60

After taking her Royal Bridal Gown Alina went to another designer to buy other accessories.

Alina had never seen these types of accessories before.

She bought all the things she needed.

Then she bought an expensive dark blue gown for Crystal. Blue was Crystal's favorite color so she bought a blue dress.

Crystal looked impressed with her dress. Alina bought jewelry for her.
“Thanks Alina.”

“There is nothing to be thankful for. We planned this many years ago. Our wishes are just becoming true.”

Alina knew Crystal had a crush on Aaron. She had a crush on him though she told her many times that she loved him. However, Alina thought it was not love but infatuation.

If the man already had a mate, then you could not force him. Alina thought Crystal had finally gotten over Aaron.

Theta Cooper looked at Alina and said, “I should not have come with you two.

Alina frowned. “Why?”

“I should have believed in Darren. He told me, if you go shopping with a woman, you will be lost forever and then you will realize her shopping is not over yet. So I’m now feeling that it was the truth.”

Alina and Crystal both laughed at Theta Cooper.

They went back to the car and went back to the pack house.

It was afternoon so everyone was at the house.

Daisy came to the living room and saw the dress.

“You choose this? I thought you would choose another one with a bow behind it.”

Daisy was talking about the dress that Alina chose first. But when Crystal told her about this dress she took this.

“Yeah, Mom. I think it’s kind of simple but good.”

Another voice came from the entrance.

“Wow! It’s so beautiful and Royal!”

Alina, Daisy, Crystal, and Theta Cooper turned their heads behind and saw a middle aged couple.

“Mother! Father!” Alina shouted happily and went to them.

She hugged her mother and father.

“I am so happy you two are back. Where were you? I was feeling so lonely without you. I missed you two so much.” Alice while getting emotional. She knew her parents were not friendly at all. They had never liked that when she hugged them.

But today they hugged her back and that was why she felt emotional.

“You are a big girl now, my Alina.” Alina’s mom, Stella Brown said.

Alina hugged her mom again. She was meeting her parents after five years. For the last five years, she had been waiting for their call every day. But Crystal told her that the pack had no connection so she thought maybe that was why her parents could not call her.

Today she could see how happy her mother and father were. Was it because their daughter found a mate and was going to marry him? Were they happy for her?

“Greetings to you, your highness.” Hayden Brown bowed to Daisy. Stella also bowed to her immediately.

“Hayden and Stella. Where were you all the time? Alina tried to contact you but why didn’t you receive her call? She was so worried about you both when she saw your house was locked and you did not receive her call.” Daisy told them.

Daisy knew them. They were the Brown family. Hayden Brown was an Alpha and a loyal person to the kingdom and his wife was a Beta female who was strong enough to fight.

Stella instantly spoke, “We told you before leaving, your highness.”

“I know but you just told me you are going out of the pack for some work and I did not ask you so many questions that time.”

“My mother was sick so we had to go to your highness.”

“Is your mother okay now?”

“Yes, your highness.” Stella replied.

Daisy nodded. Alina frowned at the conversation. “Her father told her about that on the phone that they went to her mother’s pack. But they never took Alina there.

Alina shook all the thoughts from her head. She only wanted to be happy right now. Tomorrow was her important day.

She was not so excited about her Crown Ceremony, she was excited about her marriage ceremony.

She had not greed for that Queen’s position. She even felt bored and burdened by this position because it was a full responsibility rather than a normal life.

But because of her mate, she had to sit in this position.

Hayden and Stella talked to Crystal. Crystal told them how Alina missed them all the time in these five years.

When its about dinner,

Aaron came to the dining room for dinner. He saw new faces.

“Mr. and Mrs. Brown. You two have arrived.” Aaron said.

Hayden and Steall were happy that Aaron was talking with them. It was like a miracle that the King was asking someone about them.

“We are good, my king. Alina is very lucky to have you.

Atlas looked at Hayden.

“Who told you to come to sit at our table Hayden?” He said Alina’s father angrily.

Hayden looked at him in shock and stood up. His wife also stood up.

Alina felt like crying when she saw Atlas was insulting her father and mother.

“I-I am sorry, your highness. I am leaving here with my wife.” Hayden Brown said.

“But mother and father, what about your food?”

“We are okay, my daughter. You eat well. We will eat when we reach our house.

Alina looked down. Her family was feeling embarrassed in front of everyone. They came back only for her and now they had to bear these insults. Alina was angry at Atlas. She always thought one day she would win his heart but she didn't know he was intentionally hating her. He had already made a perception in his mind about her. So now he began to hate her parents too.

Aaron told Alina's father and mother to sit down.

“Dad, they are the Queen's father and mother. You can not insult them like that.”

Alina looked at them and thought how in these six days they could not meet many times because he was busy with the preparation of the ceremony and she was busy with learning manners.

‘She is supporting my parents. He is a good man. He is the man who cares for me and trusts me. I love him.’

She looked away and turned to her parents to convince them to sit.

But she turned to them and saw they had already sat.

Atlas did not say any single word after that. The whole dining table was silent. It was like a silence before the storm.

After dinner, Everyone came to the living room. Tomorrow was the Crown Ceremony.

Alina glanced at Aaron. She was feeling shy while looking at him. She would get married to him tomorrow.

Atlas did not remain silent anymore as if he was silent in the dining room only because of eating. Now everyone’s dinner was finished so he now started what was on his mind.

“Aaron.” Atlas said with a dark voice. Everyone knew how furious he was.

“Yes, dad?” Aaron replied.

“I don’t want you to marry her.”

Everyone was shocked.

Daisy stood up. ”What are you saying Atlas?”

“I am saying the right thing. If he marries her, something will happen.”

Aaron narrowed his eyes on him. “What will happen?”

Atlas smirked at his son. He did not say anything the whole week because he was planning something behind his son’s back.

He was the former King and he had some power too. Before Aaron became the King, he was the most dominant king.

He called and talked with the Lycan authority. Most of the Lycans were the people under him.

He told them if he needed them, they had to come to the pack and they agreed.

Atlas planned and arranged an election for the Queen position All the Lycans would vote for the Queen.

If they chose Alina then it was okay but if they chose not to make her the Queen. Aaron could not complete the ceremony, The Lycans would protest against him. And king Aaron had to choose between his realm and his mate.

“I have already talked with Lycan authorities. They will set up an election if you want to make her your Queen. If they will not allow her to be their king, you can not marry her.

Aaron tightened his fists and stood up. “Why did you do that, Dad??”

“You are my son, dear. You are maybe very powerful but don’t forget I was a king before. I know each and every royal rule. If they protest and they don’t accept her as a Queen, then you can marry her but a Queen? You can not make her the Queen.”

Everyone was stunned. Atlas was really a master planner.

“Mr. Robertson you never stop to amaze me.” Beta Lucas said.

“Don’t talk between a father and son.” Atlas said while glaring at Beta Lucas.

“As if you gave me the chance to talk to my father.” He replied.

Atlas went silent. Daisy did not want all these quarrels.

“Both of you stop. And Atlas, why are you doing this?”

“I am doing this for my kingdom. I left the kingdom to him because I thought my kingdom and my people would live a good life with the new dominant king. But I have never thought he would have an Omega mate who was not fearless like you my Queen. She only needed protection. How can she protect the whole pack? She is such a lowly woman!”

“ENOUGH!”

Aaron yelled at Atlas.

“Enough is enough. Don’t talk about these types of things about my mate. What do you want? Why did you call for an election? What do you want Dad?” Aaron asked Atlas angrily.

Atlas replied to him,

“I want you to reject her as your Mate. If you insist then marry her but don’t give her the position of the Queen.”
