

Chapter 71

Alina came to another territory. She ran to the forest to save her life. She did not look behind her once. She did not look at the pack which wanted her to die.

Alina ran for a long time. She felt numb all over her body.

Her legs wobbled and she fell to the ground. At that time she could not endure the pain of her body. She did not eat for two days so she was tired too. Then she fainted in tiredness and pain.

Meanwhile, Beta Lucas went back to the Palace and went to the Dungeon. All the officials had to work outside. They would come anytime soon.

Beta Lucas took that opportunity and helped Alina to get out of the pack.

He did not want anyone to find out about Alina. When he came to the dungeon before helping. He had seen a guard who was smoking, Beta Lucas told him to go and found Delta Darren.

The guard was shocked at first when Beta Lucas told him to find Delta Darren, he was the guard of the dungeon.

However, he was just a guard and Beta Lucas was the second command of the pack. He nodded to him and went to find Delta Darren.

That time Beta Lucas got the chance to rescue Alina from the dungeon.

Beta Lucas saw the guard come back while huffing.

“Beta Lucas, I have not found Delta Darren. I think he has gone somewhere. I asked Gamma George about him but he said he didn’t see him either.”

Beta Lucas frowned at him. “Gamma George? Where is he?”

“He is in the training hall.”

Beta Lucas raised his eyebrows but immediately controlled his expression.

‘George was there? But I thought everyone was out of the pack house. When did he go to the training hall? Did he see me and Alina together?’ Lucas thought and felt worried.

“Just stay here outside. You don’t have to go to any of the cabins to entertain anyone. Don’t try to help anyone else, you will die.” Beta Lucas said to the guard so that he could not go inside.

“Yes yes. I will not go or help any of them.” The guard replied worriedly.

It was not a simple matter but a royal punishment. Whoever helped the criminal would get the same punishment as the criminal. He did not want Aaron to know about him rescuing Alina from Dungeon.

So he did not think too much and went to Gamma George directly.

At morning,

Some wolves were walking around but they smelled a different smell. They immediately went to the side where the smell was coming from.

They saw a girl with her body full of wounds lying on the ground.

They immediately shifted and looked at the girl. She was wearing a normal black gown. Her bare hands were full of wounds as if she fell in the forest countless times. They did not know where the girl came from to their pack.

One of them mind linked with the Beta of this pack.

“Beta, we found a girl in front of our border. Though the border was a little far but we can say that she came from outside. She is not one of our pack members. Maybe she is a rogue. What should we do now?”

“Wait, I am coming.”

They waited for their Beta. After a few minutes, the beta came and looked at the girl.

Her face was covered with her hair. Their Beta bent down in front of the girl and removed her hair from her face. But when he saw her face his eyes widened.

“Call the pack doctor and tell him that his Beta is coming with a patient so he has to stay there.”

One of them called the pack doctor and said what he was told to say.

The Beta took Alina with him to the pack hospital. The pack doctor checked on her.

“We need to dress her wounds. She looks like a runaway prisoner. Who is she?” The pack doctor said.

“She is someone our Alpha knows. Treat her well. I am going to call Alpha and tell him about her.”

The pack doctor nodded at him and started the treatment.

Alina woke up. She felt pain in her legs. She opened her eyes and saw a white ceiling. She was confused about it. She sat up slowly and saw her legs and hand bandaged. She frowned and tried to understand everything.

Then she memorized everything about how she was framed. She ran away from the pack and came to another territory.

Alina’s eyes widened. ‘Did Aron find me again? Am I still in his pack?’

Alina wanted to cry now but all of her tears dried. Only hatred was visible in her eyes.

The cabin's door opened and a man with a white coat came inside.

He was stunned when he saw her sitting on the bed.

“You have woken up! Finally.” The man said.

“Who are you?”

“I am your pack doctor Liam.” He said and smiled at her.

“My pack? Am I still in the Black Moon Pack?” Alina asked him desperately.

The man looked confused.” Black Moon Pack?”

Alina felt relaxed when she saw his confusion. She felt that her life had finally been saved.

“Where am I?”

“Don’t think too much. You are not in the Black Moon pack anymore. You are safe here. So don’t feel afraid.”

Alina sighed upon hearing that.

“You are very weak right now. You have to take care of yourself. You wake up after two weeks.”

“WHAT??? TWO WEEKS!!!”

“Yes, but don’t panic. You are totally okay now.”

Alina nodded to him. She could not believe she was unconscious for fourteen days. In these two weeks what had happened in her pack who knew? She felt worried for Beta Lucas. She remembered how he helped her by taking the risk of his own life.

“Doctor Liam.”

“Yeah?”

“Can you tell what pack I am in right now?”

Before the doctor could speak the door opened and a man entered the cabin.

He had already heard the question so he answered,

“You are in my pack.”

Alina’s eyes widened. She did not know it was his pack. She could not believe in her luck. Why was it playing with her? The danger would never let her live.

She looked at him with worry in her eyes.

“A-Alpha Rick!”
