

Chapter 88

BUT ONE DAY I WILL PROVE TO YOU THAT I AM NOT THE KILLER OF YOUR FATHER.”

Aaron just stared at her, piercing his dark gaze on her. Alina looked away from him. She was not afraid of him anymore but she knew he could kill her instantly without thinking about any rules or laws.

“Prove? Didn’t I give you a chance to prove yourself? All the evidence was against you. Do you think I am a fool who will give you time to prove yourself? And in this time you will live your life happily with You Alpha?”

Aaron said and gave more pressure on the ‘Alpha’ part. He did not like when she called Rick her Alpha.

‘What a seamless woman! She did not take the time to change. Just wow.’

He went to her and grabbed her arms tightly. Alina hissed in pain.

“I am giving you your life’s last chance, woman. I am giving you one week. If you can prove yourself in one week then I will let you go forever but if you can’t prove yourself then..”

He stopped and chuckled. It was a dark laugh. Alina almost lost her breath.

“Then I will give you the punishment which you have never imagined. I will give you hell. The life where you want to escape but could not get out of that. You will only want to die but death will not be easy for you.”

Alina looked up at him. Her glossy eyes could not melt King Aaron’s heart.

He left her arm and walked out of her room. Alina went to the door and immediately shut the door. She slid down against the door.

“How much I told myself not to show him my weakness. But why does my heart not listen to me, why??? How many times do I try to forget him? Still, he affects me so much. I don’t want to live like this. I want to be free. I am not a killer then why do I have to endure this humiliation?”

Alina leaned her head against the door and cried. Her life was messed up again. She did not think Aaron would come to meet her like this. She thought he would stay away from her because she was under another man. She was wrong. He did not need any man’s permission to come to any woman. He was a powerful man.

The King of Lycans.

“I have only one month. I have to do something. But what will I do in just seven days???”

She thought she would go to the Royal which to talk about it. She did not have any proof so only a witch could do something about a witch.

Alina looked at the flower vase angrily. Her mind was going insane. She darkened her gaze and then the flower vase broke in a blink of an eye.

Alina grinned at it. “I am working on it. Looks like I have got some power now.”

Next day,

Alina went out of the room for breakfast. She saw Rick’s father Alpha Clark and Mother Luna Julie talking with Selena.

Alina did not go close to them and stopped walking. She observed the woman who was behaving childishly. Alina thought once she was also like this. She was very childish and talkative. She liked to visit here and there, she liked to talk with Aunt Daisy, and she liked to talk with Crystal.

From Crystal's name, Alina smirked. She knew how powerful Crystal was. She felt good that Crystal did not get to marry Aaron. She did not get what she wanted.

She understood Aaron's mother did not let her plan and set up her son's marriage with another woman.

But Alina hated Crystal. Because of this woman, her whole life had been destroyed. She planned to kill Alina. She did something which was a deadly sin.

Anyone in Aaron's kingdom would kill Alina if she went there and they got to know that she was the killer of their former King.

Alina took a deep breath and went to them. "Let's go for breakfast." She said to Rick's parents.

They nodded and stood up. They used to be with Alina now. They were trying to accept her. But deep down Luna Julie knew Alina was not for her son.

“Let’s go for breakfast dear. I bet you are hungry.” Lina Julie said to Selena.

Selena shook her head and smiled at her. She glanced at Alina from the corner of her eyes and spoke out,

“How can I eat before my King? We eat together every day. It’s now our habit. Let me call him first, then we can eat all together.”

Alina did not react at all. Rick’s parents smiled at Selene’s cuteness. They found her cute.

“Sure, go and ask him to eat. I did not wake him up because I thought he needed rest but if you want to call him, then go ahead.”

Selena went to Aaron’s room to call him and Alina went to the dining room with Rick’s parents.

“Looks like King Aaron is in love with his chosen mate. He eats his meals with her daily. I heard he is very busy. How does he get the time? Even Rick could not give us much time.” Alpha Clark said without knowing that there was some one who was feeling upset hearing his thoughts.

Alina sat on her chair. She looked at the maid who was serving. She wanted to ask them where others were. But before her asking, Beta Lucas and Gamma George came there.

They asked where others were and the maids said they were in Alpha Rick's office and came there soon.

After a few minutes, Alpha Rick and his officials came to the dining room. Alpha Rick sat on his chair which was right beside Alina.

King Aaron came with Selena. He sat on the other head chair which was opposite Alpha Rick.

"How was your night in my pack house, King Aaron?" Alpha Rick asked Aaron.

Aaron smirked at him and looked at Alina.

"All thanks to your soon to be Luna. She arranged the room so well for me and my future Queen. We slept really well."
