

Chapter 91

“BECAUSE HE IS THE MOST POWERFUL LYCAN. AND NO SPELL CAN AFFECT HIS BODY AND HIS MIND.”

Alina was speechless. She did not know how was it possible?

“Is he that powerful?”

“Yes my dear.”

“Now what should I do?”

“As I told you. You have to break Crystal’s spell. She spelled bound Queen mother that she would not forget that until Crystal wants to break it.”

“I have only one week. Otherwise he will lock me in his dungeon again. Please do something.”

Melissa felt sorry for Alina. Alina had to see these types of days at a young age. This was the time to bloom but she had to endure pain and rejection.

She stroked Alina's hair. "I will try to help you. I will do my best."

Alina thanked her. She practiced with her again.

She now had the power force. She could push, stop or break anything with her mental power.

Melissa told her that she would teach her those crafts which would give her the power of fire. But she told her that defeating Crystal would not be easy.

Alina told her that she only wanted to show everyone the truth and nothing else. What would King Aaron do to Crystal, that would totally be his matter, not hers.

"Okay then, I am going for today. Tomorrow I will come at night." Alina said.

"I heard King Aaron has come to our pack."

“Yes he is.” Alina replied.

Suddenly, Melissa felt something and was stunned.

“What happened to you, Melissa?”

Melissa shook her head. “I don’t know what’s happening.”

She felt something more powerful was coming to her house. She immediately told Alina to leave her house.

“Alina. You have to go from here. I don’t want you to be here now. You have to go now.”

Alina frowned at her. “Why? What’s wrong?”

“Nothing. Just go now. I will talk with you tomorrow.”

Alina nodded to her and left her house.

Alina walked out of the house. It was evening time.

She started to walk to the forest side. She thought she should go for a run. She wanted to.

She went deep inside and shifted.

Pure White fur with blue eyes. Her wolf form was beautiful. She ran to the forest.

Her wolf felt free. She wanted to run and run.

Fresh evening air came to her while fur. The moon was in the sky already. The moon shined so purely.

Her wolf looked ethereal in the moonlight.

After thirty minutes she stopped, the sounds of crunching came to her ears. She heard a growl. Her steps stopped and she slowly turned around in her wolf form.

She smelled the smell that made her quiver.

She saw the blood thirsty wolf who killed rouges in front of her in her dream and reality.

She saw the black fur and red eyes. She saw King Aaron was there.

Her eyes were widened. She howled in fear and tried to step back but before she did that Aaron jumped on her body.

His wolf was huge. It was the biggest wolf she had ever seen. In fact, she had not seen many wolves before. But she bet Aaron's wolf would be the biggest than the others.

The black wolf pinned down her and looked at her with its red eyes. His teeth were gritted as if he would kill her anytime. She closed her eyes but did not stop struggling. She was a fighter, she did not die like this.

She did not want to die at his hand.

But no matter how much she tried to get out of his hold. She did not move his wolf a little bit.

“Leave me you monster.” Alina shouted in her mind. She thought he could not listen to him.

However, to her surprise, he growled at her as if she could hear her.

Alina was confused by his sudden growl. How could he hear her?

“Did she just say Monster?”

Alina heard his voice. She looked shocked. “H-How could you hear me?”

“That’s not the concern. The matter is how would you like to die? Should I have pierced my claws in your heart? Or bite your neck and remove it from your body?”

Alina was only listening to him.

She opened her mind link for getting help. She thought someone would come to save me from him. But she did not understand that he would attack her like that.

“Tell me which one?” He asked again and went near to her neck.

He snuggled there. Alina’s wolf trembling.

Alina could not defeat in front of him. She had to fight back. She had to live alive.

“You said about one week. It’s just the day one.”

“Oh, you are now pretending to be trying to do something!”

‘I didn’t do anything. Why do I need to prove what I haven’t even done? Why??’

“Stop pretending.” He said and moved from her. His eyes never left his body.

She was the most beautiful wolf he had ever seen. Nevertheless, he unfortunately liked this woman who had a beautiful wolf but had a heart that was full of darkness.

“How did the blood come in your dress? How did mom see you with my dad? How?” He said and growled at her.

The forest was repeating his growl. Her wolf had already submitted to him but her inner self did not want to.

Alina stood up and whimpered in pain. When Aaron’s wolf jumped on her she felt pain in her legs.

Now her legs were hurting. Her legs were wobbling.

Aaron saw that and observed her legs. He saw blood in her leg. Red was all he could see in white fur.

He immediately shifted back. Alina was shocked when she saw he was shifting. ‘What the hell! What is he doing?’

She did not look at him and started to walk with her painful legs.

She felt her body lifted up. Alina gasped and looked at Aaron.

He lifted her up in his arms.

“What are you doing??” She asked him in her mind link with a shaken voice.

Aaron looked at her wolf and smirked,

“GOING TO KILL YOU.”
