

Chapter 92

“GOING TO KILL YOU.”

Alina began to struggle in her wolf form again.

“No, No. I don't want to die.”

Aaron ignored listening to her in their mind link and began to walk. Anyone would be shocked if they look at the scene. A muscular man was holding a white beautiful wolf in his arms.

“Let me go.”

Aaron still did not give her any attention. Alina could not figure out what she should do to get out of his hold.

She had no other option than scratch his body with her claws.

She tried to scratch his shoulder and arms. She also scratched on his chest.

Blood was rushing out of his wounds but he looked unaffected.

“What do you think? You can kill me like this? After Killing my father now you want to kill me? Oh yes, you got a new coin, Alpha Rick. You have him now. So you wanted to hurt me. Do you think your tiny claws can kill me and save you from me?” He said while glaring at her.

She stopped scratching him and averted his gaze.

He never stopped walking until came near the main road.

Alina saw Beta Lucas was standing there with some paper bags. She was stunned. ‘When did he call Lucas?’

Aaron put her down and took the bag from Lucas.

Beta Lucas was shocked looking at them. Aaron was holding Alina in his arms! That went out of his mind.

Aaron threw a gown in front of Alina and walked ahead with Beta Lucas.

“Why did you call me so urgently? What were you doing with her?” Beta Lucas asked Aaron.

Aaron glared at him. “We need to talk, Beta Lucas. I will talk with you when we go back to our pack.”

Beta Lucas felt nervous because Aaron had never called him by his rank. Lucas felt like he got caught. He nodded at him and tried to restrain himself from saying anything to Aaron. He could not say anything to Aaron about Crystal because he would not believe it. Aaron would think that Lucas was trying to save Alina.

Beta Lucas and King Atlas had not a good bond. Lucas despised him and Aaron knew that. So Lucas did not want to say something now to Aaron otherwise he was afraid that Aaron would think he did not care about his father’s death and saving his father’s murderer.

Alina wore the dress and walked ahead. She did not run away because she understood Aaron would not kill her. If he wanted, he would kill her a few minutes ago when there was no one with them.

Alina saw Aaron was in clothes. He and Beta Lucas were talking about something. She noticed that Beta Lucas was upset.

She got the matter. Aaron scolded him for her, for sure.

She passed them. She walked forward slowly because of her legs.

She did not know when he called Lucas and told him to bring clothes for them.

‘Why does he care if I wore clothes or not after shifting? He put me in a dungeon and wanted to kill me. Now suddenly he cares about my reputation? Wow.’

Alina scolded herself because she forgot that it was not close to the pack house and not that side. She always took off her clothes and put them under a tree so after shifted back she could wear the cloth again. But today she forgot that thing because she was stressed.

She felt Aaron and Beta Lucas were behind her. When he reached the main road, Beta Lucas stopped her and told her that he would drop her.

Aaron ignored her totally and went back to his car and drove away from there.

Beta Lucas opened his car's door for Alina and Alina got in the car.

Beta Lucas sat on the driver's seat and asked,

“What happened to your leg?”

“Nothing, just a simple wound.”

Beta Lucas started the car. There was silence for the whole ride.

When they almost reach the pack house Beta Lucas said,

“I don't know what Aaron told you but I think he still cares for you.”

Alina was looking outside from the window but hearing Beta Lucas she turned her head to him.

She made a disgusting face. “What are you saying? Does he care about me? That man did not show any mercy before punishing me. I almost ran away but he stopped me and put me in the dungeon. He did not allow me to eat anything. He did not allow me to dress my wounds.

Do you know how many days I have spent in the hospital after coming here? Do you know how many days my legs were bandaged and I was unconscious from this pain?

Two weeks, Lucas. Two weeks. I did not wake up for two weeks. I was in the hospital bed like a dead body. I lost my hopes and reason to start my life.

He is thinking of me as his father's killer when I cried aloud and said I didn't do that. It's his choice that he can kill any person his likewise.'

Beta Lucas sighed. He did not know what to say. What she was saying was right.

"But Alina, you have to think of his side also , right? He lost his father and his mother saw you killing his father. It was not easy for him. He was the King but at the same time he was a son too. He lost one of his parents. Though I don't like his father, I know what the feeling is when you lose your parents.

He didn't show his parents but he was a good son. He always tried to keep his parents together. He did not let them realize that he was more powerful than them. He was ruthless but he had never killed any innocent."

Alina smiled at him coldly.

“I can understand you well, Lucas. But

IF I CAN NOT STAY ALIVE THEN WHAT WILL I DO AFTER HEARING HIS SIDE?”
