

Chapter 94

“Aaron-“

Aaron looked at Beta Lucas angrily. “Get out of my sight. I don’t want to talk to you.”

“JUST GO BEFORE I KILL YOU.”

Beta Lucas sighed and left him in the forest.

Aaron thought about Alina and punched a tree.

“You are alive! Why??? Why did you do that in the first place? I would make you my Queen.

But why did you kill my father and destroy everything why??? “

He started to run into the deep forest. He was the Lycan King. The most powerful creature werewolf had ever seen. He could not look weak in front of his heart. He could be powerless in front of the woman he loved once.

When he saw the woman was walking painfully he did not think and helped her. He could not see her in pain. But he loved her.

Deep down in his heart, he still loved him and he knew that.

“How dare you go and move on in your life with another man? How???”

Today when he saw that she did not have

“How dare you go and move on in your life with another man? How???”

Today when he saw that she did not have clothes near her he told Lucas to take clothes for them. He did not want anyone to see her n*ked. But this woman spent a long time in that realm. She would be the Luna of that pack.

Who knew how many long nights she spent with that Alpha Rick? Aaron only thought about their close relationship and got furious.

“All of your life you only think about the higher position! You thought you could not be my realm’s Queen so you choose another realm now. You seduced that Alpha Rick just like you did to me. Why???”

He shouted like a mad man. He shifted and ran for a long time. His growls and howls were audible to others.

Everyone understood that their King was in a very bad mood today.

When Aaron went back to the pack house. He went directly to his resident palace.

He went to his room and shut the door.

His body was full of sweat. With his muscular body with abs, he looked like some model.

His handsome face looked horrible when his eyes turned red again. His hair was dropped in sweats. He went to the bathroom.

He took a cold shower to make himself relax.

Cold shower did not only help to calm the erection of men, but also could also calm men’s aggression too.

He closed his eyes and his past came across his mind.

The day he and Alina spent at the village fair floated like a movie scene.

The day she looked so fragile and afraid of those boys who tried to molest her, that time he fixed his mind that he would make her only his. He would accept that fragile woman as his Queen and Mate.

After all these things, his mind stopped on the day when his mother told him that Alina killed his father. He still remembered his mother's tears. She was the most dominant woman Aaron had ever seen but that day he saw her crying helplessly. She said Alina killed her husband in front of her eyes.

Aaron came out of the bathroom while wiping his hair. He saw Selena standing beside his bed.

A frown grew on his face.

“What are you doing here?”

Selena was stunned when she saw him in the towel. A towel was wrapped around his waist.

Selena could see his muscular body. She blushed by looking at his abs.

Aaron was waiting for her reply. He folded his hands against his chest.

Selena stuttered, “I-I came h-here-“

““Stop stuttering and speak clearly.”

“I came here to tell you that you haven’t had your dinner.”

““So?”

“Queen Mother told me to ask you if you want to have dinner with me.”

Aaron stared at her. Selena felt scared under After a few seconds, he said,

“What connection do you have with Alpha Rick?”

Selena’s eyes widened. She felt her body shaking in fear. She thought Aaron got to know about her mate bond with Alpha Rick.

“W-What are you saying, my king?”

“Do you think I am blind?”

“N-No, my king.”

Selena thought he would not make her his chosen mate if he got to know that she was Alpha Rick's mate.

On the other hand, she told Alpha Rick proudly that she would be King Aaron's Queen and no one would like to go for another man if King Aaron was in front of them.

So Selena did not know where to go if King Aaron rejected her to be a chosen mate.

She knew she had to stick there. She knew Alpha Rick would not accept her because he had another woman.

Now her only hope was King Aaron. Only he could give her the life she wanted. She was a Lycan. When king Aaron would bite her, everything would change by itself. Because she had the strength to break the mate bond. She did not need any rejection. She could get another man's mark on her neck and endure the pain of a broken mate bond with her fated mate.

She took a deep breath. She knew Aaron would not know about this matter if she did not acknowledge anything. Because no matter how powerful you were, you could not feel another mate's bond.

Selena looked at King Aaron. He looked like he was waiting for her answer. She knew he would not like it to love her back, he was ruthless. But sitting beside him on his throne was something every woman dreamt about. So Selena should not let go of this opportunity in her life.

She believed she could live her life without her mate and grabbed the man who stood in front of her. She wanted to be selfish for him.

Selena shook her head and replied,

“No, I have no connection with him.”
