

Lycan King Chapter 63

The second step to mating

VICTORIA'S POV

"I brought you something on your birthday. It's not much, but I hope you like it." Alexander said before fishing something out of his pocket.

"Can you...umm... Close your eyes?" He said as his ears turned red.

Closing my eyes smilingly, I waited for him to take out the thing that he had brought me, however, I couldn't help myself but open my eyes and see what happened when I heard him coughing a bit before moving his hands around the bed in a messy manner.

As soon as I opened my eyes, I saw Alexander's hand on a thing, which made me gasp a little. He looked at me with that embarrassed expression before closing his eyes as if wishing to make it disappear somehow.

"How do you know, I like chocolate flavor?" I couldn't help but comment to tease him when I noticed the package of chocolate flavor protection in his hand.

"It's not my doing. I mean, it's my doing, but I didn't buy it for today. I bought it for if we can't control ourselves, sometimes later, when we stay together, when you come to my home, or when I come to your home...after a month or so, I swear I didn't purposely buy it for today, I mean, I did took it as a preventive measure, but you see, it's not the gift that I prepared, I mean....huh...I don't make any sense, do I?" He said after a long time.

I looked at him for some time motionless, before cracking as I couldn't keep the smile off my face.

"It's okay, Alexander. It's not like, we are not going to do it anytime soon." I said, biting my lips seductively before sitting on my knees and inching closer to him.

As if my words caught him off guard, he looked at me with a surprised expression before muttering, "Are you by any chance, trying to seduce me? Because if you're doing, it's surely working."

With that he pulled my hand, making me land on his chest while I laughed at him.

"Okay, keep that thing away. Here, this is your birthday gift that I prepared." He said before taking out a box-like thing from behind.

Taking the box from his hand unsure, I opened it before raising my eyes in surprise.

In front of me was one of the prettiest bracelets I have ever seen, and I couldn't help but touch its surface in awe.

The bracelet was a sky blue color with amber gems embedded in it. It was around 3 inches wide and had a large wolf design on one side and a crescent moon on the other side. The combination of sky blue color and the hazel yellow gems was what more appealing to me.

"Do you like it?" Alexander asked with uncertainty visible in his eyes.

"Of course, I love it," I exclaimed before wearing it on my left hand, however, what I didn't expect was for the witch mark on my hand to glow before the gems on the bracelet also started to glow one by one and the crescent moon started to light up.

"I can't believe it!" Alexander said as he stood from the bed, his eyes starting to glow a hazel amber color before looking at me as if I was some alien.

"Carla?" He asked unsure, making me look at him with shock as Carla trembled before falling on her knees.

"Damien?" Carla whispered before becoming unconscious, and as soon as she lost her consciousness, the gems stopped glowing, and Alexander's eyes that had started to glow hazel amber color returned to normal again.

“What the hell did just happened?” I asked no one in particular.

“So, do you like it?” Alexander asked again, making me look at him quizzically.

“I already said, I love it. Why are you asking again?”

“Really? When? I didn’t hear you? And when did I stood?” He asked before looking around him in confusion.

So, he doesn’t remember what happened just now?

“You stood just now. Maybe your mind was on me, and that’s why you didn’t notice it.” I said wanting to clear the issue and saw him shrugging his shoulders nonchalantly

I’ll just have to ask Carla about it later. I just hope she is fine.

“It suits you, the bracelet. My mom told me that it is from the reign of Damien and belonged to the first pure white wolf called Carla. She said it’s an antique. Many people have tried to wear it on their wrists, but the bracelet never accepted anyone. I was hoping that it could accept you since hunter was adamant about it. Looks like, he got a nice choice.

It’s an amazement that the bracelet chose you. Because my mom told me that many Queens have been trying to wear it for years.” Alexander said, and I couldn’t help but roam my hands on the surface of the wolf whose eyes glowed as soon as my fingers touched it, making me shiver a little.

“Thank-You. I loved your gift.” I said before snuggling closer to him.

“However, we can also make use of your other present that you are saving for later,” I mumbled before Kissing his jaw in indication.

“Are you sure about it?” Alexander asked as he looked at me shocked.

“Never have been more sure than right now,” I said, and before I could say anything else to show my sincerity, my lips were captured by him as he came over me while supporting his body on his arms.

Switching off the lights, I looked in his eyes in the moonlight,

“I am more of a darkness kind of person,” I mumbled before taking the lead and pushing him on the bed.

“That’s completely fine with me. I will make sure to make you love light too when you’ll be begging me to take you every single minute of your day.” Alexander said before growling as he nibbled on my neck.

“Mmmmm...” I moaned as I felt his hands traveling under my shirt and couldn’t help but gasp when his hands brushed through one of my bosoms.

It was more of a tortuous activity for me. If what Marla said was right, then I am sure Alexander was having a hell kind of trouble controlling his emotions like this because from the moment he had started touching me, all I want for him is to take the pain away and end this torturous activity.

Not being able to bear with it anymore, I took his shirt in my hand before tearing it into shreds.

“Looks like my baby is too impatient today,” Alexander said before he took off my bra and started nibbling on the area around my Bossom.

“You don’t have any idea, how you’ve tortured me for these past two months, Ria. I am so going to make you pay for it slowly while making you beg for it,” He mumbled before bending down and taking one of my bossom in his mouth while he massaged the other one gently.

Alpha king or no alpha king, all I knew right now was, I was having a hell of a lot of trouble, controlling it.

Growling a growl that I didn’t know I was capable of, I pushed Alexander back on the bed before taking his jeans in my hand and tearing it off, shocking both me and Alexander in the process.

“Sorry alpha king, but I am the alpha here,” I growled before taking control of the situation as I plunged my teeth into his neck and biting on it.

“Ria, stop. You’ll make me lose control! Don’t blame me for not going easy later. Stop it, baby.”

Alexander said, almost whimpering as I knew he was still trying to control himself, but I couldn’t care less at this point. I wanted him to lose his control and take me to ecstasy with him. I wanted him to end this torturous feeling of need that I’ve been feeling since he started kissing me and was now becoming too unbearable for me.

“I don’t give a damn. Give me what I am craving for. I don’t know what it is.... but I am feeling this weird hot bubble in my abdomen, and I want it to stop.” I growled before sinking my teeth deeper and sucking on his neck.

As if the last thread of Alexander’s control was broken, he took my shorts in hand before ripping them off as he came over me. I could see his scorching hot gaze on me, and couldn’t help but shiver under his stare, however, before I could react to his stare, all my irritation turned into pain, making me whimper, as I felt like my insides, were torn in that one second before ecstasy took over me as Alexander entered inside me.

“I love you, Victoria Carla Gibberson. I finally got you back after all these years.” He mumbled absentmindedly before thrusting inside me into a rhythmic bliss as we finally mated to each other and completed the second step of mating.
