

Chapter 49

Anaiah's POV

[Mature Content]

'You want me, baby,' He husks in my ear, I felt his slow movements towards me and my heart was beating a mile a minute.

'Yes, sir,' I breathe out. I felt his breath on my neck and my breath shudders.

'Spread your legs,' My mate orders and I oblige. 'Wider,'

I wanted to caress him but my hands were bound against the bed and I was blindfolded. He caressed my naked body ever so gently and my hips arched in the air, my juices were dripping and I moan in pleasure.

He put his knees on either side of me and his mouth assaults me in all ways, I was his wholly, and completely. I allowed him to dominate me however he pleased. I felt something cold run from my throat to my pussy and a shiver went down me, Leondre licked whatever he put there and I cried,

'Leondr- Baby,' I moan and he stopped, next I felt a smack on my ass cheek.

'What are you supposed to call me when we are in here?' He husks in a sexy voice

'S... Sir!' I breathe as his fingers abruptly enter me. He fingers me and I was close to coming, my wall tightens and he suddenly stops. I cry out in frustration. Leondre nibbles my neck and all I wanted to do is touch him, caress him but these fucking chains are making it so hard. I can't feel him close anymore and next, something feather-like was going around my body and I was losing my shit, I am crying out in pleasure, and fuck, I've never wanted to be taken as I do now. He explores my body and my body jerk up, seeing I wanted to cum, I heard his voice

'Don't cum,'

I could only oblige and do as my master asks, my body is shaking not in fear but pleasure, pure satisfaction. I feel his tongue at my entrance and I wasn't prepared when he thrusts it into me. He licks me and all I do is squirm.

'You're delicious, baby,'

He continues sucking my pussy until I cum into his mouth and he licked my juices. He let me taste myself.

'You taste so good, '

I nod, but I want something else in me, something big, long, and hard in me. I need his cock.

'I want you, sir, please,' I beg breathlessly.

'You have me,'

My head rolls back as I try to steady the beating of my heart.

'Sir,' I protest. A chuckle comes out of his chest and he positions himself between my legs, his strong hands hold me firmly and without warning, he enters my pussy. I smile and cry at once,

'You want this, baby?' He asks, I nod my head furiously.

'Yes, daddy,' He thrusts in me again, his whole erection buried in me.

'How much do you want me?'

'So much,' I moan loudly.

I can't contain my cries as he savagely pounds on me. He flips me over swiftly, has me on my knees, and enters me.

I notice this is a favorite position of his. Nothing is heard in the room except the sound of our flesh colliding.

'Oh daddy, DADDY!' I am screaming like a madwoman as he unleashes his fire.

A few minutes later, I cum over and over. With a few thrusts, he reaches his orgasm with a groan. Leondre uncuffs me and removes my blindfold luckily the room had dim light or else, it would blind me.

He holds me closer and kisses my forehead

'With the way we are making love, I'll surely have a baby soon,' I laugh and he stiffens in my arms. If he wasn't holding me so tightly, I'd turn around to face him.

'No babies for now,' He says firmly.

'Relax, I'm joking,' I giggle, trying to lighten the mood. He only kisses me again and again.

I cuddle next to him, and hold him, thinking about what happened, he does what to have kids though right?

Amos's POV

I was furious learning that the shifter slayers I sent to get my mate were dead, it happened the fucking king was there and the bastards didn't recognize him immediately. I pace around the small room while I listen to Eunice whine about her Luna ceremony, the only reason she is still by my side is the benefits that come with her.

'What do you think baby?'

She is showing me two diamond necklaces that look the same

'They are the same,' I sneer in annoyance. I find her more repulsing as the day goes by. I block her out and think of my mate, I miss her and I'm dying to see her but I can't go in the royal city pack without being killed so I'll be patient.

My plans with Erickson are going well, my warriors will fight by his side and I'm creating more shifter slayers, however, they are difficult to find and more challenging to control, and their primal instinct is to kill shifters.

I haven't told Alpha Erickson about the shifter slayers though, I don't trust him.

My dick throbbed in my jeans when I remembered my mate and I grabbed the Alpha's daughter, she immediately felt the rush of my need and she was aroused, with the flick on her waist, the attending servants scurried away and tore her clothes, leaving her bear. He got on her knees and pulled down my trousers, as everything happened, all I thought about was Anaiah, my true mate.

'Ah, yes, baby,' I moan when she began to suck my dick, I moan and grabbed the back of her hair and she did it faster and faster.

'Yes, Anaiah,' I groaned and the Alpha's daughter froze. Fuck.

She was glaring at me, I ran a hand through my hair and sighed, unable to utter a word.

'You still think of that bitch?!' Eunice screeched. She continued screaming and throwing insults and all I could think about was how I haven't cum yet, I storm out of the room to see an Omega I fuck, I mind linked her earlier and when I got in my suite, she was on the bed, naked

'That's more like it,'
