

Chapter 63

Anaiah's POV

'I don't know about that, I swear,'

'Isn't it odd that Alpha Martin has been quiet? I think we should pay that pack a visit after this,' Suddenly says Leondre and I agree with him, that man and his daughter hate us to the core. They might just be planning something dreadfully.

'He actually been on his best behavior and even meditates, Alaiah left the hospital and traveled to another country,' Jake informs us.

After leaving the doctors there to work on the shifters, we go to the town hall where official meetings with pack elders take place.

We sit around the rectangular table with me and Leondre taking either side of it, a few elders of the pack were there to deliver Amos and Eunice's punishment, his parents left as they couldn't contain their sobs.

'I would suggest banishment but they might just join forces with our unknown enemy to take us out because they know how the packs work,' Says Leondre, he is looking mighty.

'Let's keep them in the dungeons and let them be treated like the traitors and rats they are,' Arya grits her teeth.

Eunice is begging and wailing, I lowkey enjoy seeing that, is it wrong?

'I can't survive in such a dirty please, please, please your highnesses take pity on me,' She wails.

'Amos forced me, I didn't want to do it, someone please call my daddy,' She was ranting at this point. Amos' gaze is on me the whole time and I don't flinch or shudder, I am stronger now and a man like him would not affect me.

'They won't be kept here in the Dawnrise, they might get special treatment from guards, or even escape hence will be taken to the royal pack where they will serve with the hardest labor.'

'And we won't forget the whipping,' I add gleefully.

Two royal warriors drag them away and two more are ordered to guard them in case they attempt to flee.

'We still have to discuss the succession, Amos was the only son of Alpha Rivers-'

'I don't want anyone associated with that name to lead this pack,' Interrupts my mate.

'You as elders will choose a worthy candidate and after they pass through all training, I will swear them in,'

After that matter was done, a few omegas prepared us rooms in the packhouse since it was late for us to go back.

'Feels like old times huh,' Comes my mate's voice behind me, we were in the room I stayed with Leon when we found each other. I sigh, looking further into the forest.

'Feels like yesterday, yet it's been over a year,' Leon hugs me from behind and silence engulfs us, my thoughts trailing to Lily and Max Ross, they requested an audience with me but I declined it. I'm not ready for that yet, I'm afraid the pain will come back, the misery I buried and the weakness I felt back then was asphyxiating.

All the beatings I received from them or the members, when I'd beg them to stop or take me away from this pack.

'All that is in the past, my love,' Leon must have sensed my emotions through the bond.

'Weakness, the abuse, and the dirt is all gone, you rose above it with grace and showed us what you're really made for and now, they regret treating you the way they did,' He says, I lean into his chest

'I'm just a bit scared that it will come back,'

'No, my Queen doesn't have to be troubled about that, and if it manages to creep in, just know that I got you,'

He bends down to kiss my neck and I turn around. I kiss his lips and whisper, 'I want to go for a run,'

He frowns, looking down at the huge swell in his pants but I was already on the balcony before he can tempt me, he follows me and I jump from the third floor, landing swiftly on my paws, Leon is smiling at me.

'Sneaky move,' He jumps too, shifting mid-air and we take off running into the forest. Our counterparts are loving this, jumping over logs, playfully tugging and biting each other. The cool air in our fur is rousing and as we run, we stop to drink from a river not far. My mate pushes me into the water and I growl lowly, what the mother goddess is he thinking? He looks satisfied and I get out, shaking my frame and making the water splatter on him... He whimpers and I would laugh if I can right now.

Our inner parts stay in this abyss for a while longer, recreating on the grass under the moonlight. He places his neck over mine and nibbles it, making us purr, and finally, the two mate.

'Should we go back baby?' He links, I nod and we get on our paws, running back to the packhouse, but I'm suddenly tackled to the ground

'Leon!'

He only gives me a roguish smile and I turn back too. I grin as my eyes wander down to his fully erect cock. I jump into his arms and catches me. He starts to leave kisses on my neck and I grab the back of his hair, wanting him closer. Our tongues explore each other and he sucks my breasts. I'm panting hard as my core drip with juices, Leon pushes me against the tree and I cry at his sudden invasion.

'Oh, Fuck,'

He pumps in me fiercely, we are moaning and growling. Our sounds resonate through the quiet night. I grab his shoulders as I rock my hips, whining and wanting him more.

'Fuck baby, You're so tight,' He groans.

'Hmm,' I moan. I kiss him sloppily on his lips and he captures my lips into another intense kiss.

'More, faster,' I holler as I feel my walls tighten around his dick. He thrusts into me savagely and I cry out his name like crazy. My body was on fire, and it spread, consuming each part of me.

'I'm coming!'

'Cum for me, Love, 'He bites my collarbone and with that, I spout all over like never before, he smiles against my skin and continues harshly, his body shakes violently as he releases his seeds in me.

Crack.

He retreats a few feet from our tree and watches it. We glance at each other and back to the tree as it falls. Wow. Sorry nature.

'It was my favorite tree,' He frowns cutely and I giggle. Leon puts me down and I almost fall but he holds me. We hold hands as we go back to the suite.
